In Memoriam

EDITH F. NUCKLES.

To the Officers and Members of Lugonia Parlor No. 241 Native Daughters of the Golden West—Dear Sister Mary, your Memorial Committee, submit the following resolution:

Whereas, The precious ties of love, friendship and fraternity once again have been suddenly severed and our hearts are filled with sorrow in the loss of one of our sisters, Edith F. Nuckles;

Whereas, In God's living providence we have been asked to give up one of earth's dearest gifts. The sudden breaking of golden threads is only another of the many mysteries that surround us, but we are assured that for each mystery there is a key, and that sometime we'll understand. It is Resolved, That we extend to her bereaved family our sincere sympathy. May they find much comfort knowing that the world was made better by her living in it, and the spirit of kindness she exemplified in her daily walks of life will stand as a monument that time cannot erase.

"Goodby, till morning come again;"

We part, if part we must, with pain,
But night is short, and hope is sweet,
Faith fills our hearts and wings our feet;
And so we sing the ode again,
"Goodby, till morning come again;"

Be it further resolved, That copies of this resolution be sent to her family, to The Grizzly Bear Magazine, and that it be spread upon the minutes of the Parlor.

Respectfully submitted,

THE FIFTY-SIXTH GRAND PARLOR OF the Order of Native Daughters of the Golden West, with Grand President Clarice E. Cook of Caliz de Oro Parlor No. 206 (Stockton) presiding, was in session at Oakland, Alameda County, June 15, 16 and 17. Members of the Stockton Parlors—Joquin No. 5, Caliz de Oro No. 206 and Stockton No. 256—in white formals, and carrying red, white and blue bouquets, formed an escort for the grand officers, attired in white sport dresses, with corsages of the national colors.

Presentation of the United States of America and the California State (Bear) Flags by representatives of the Green Patrol of Argonaut Parlor No. 166 and Albany Parlor No. 260 was followed by a recital of the pledge of allegiance and the singing of "The Star Spangled Banner." Past Grand President Sue J. Irwin, general chairman of Grand Parlor arrangements, welcomed the assemblage on behalf of the Alameda County Parlors.

Grand President Cook gave an extended report of her activities, concluding with: "It has been my aim to deal fairly with all of those with whom I have come in contact, and I deeply appreciate the wholehearted co-operation and understanding of my sisters. 'Tolerance is the vision that enables one to see things from another's viewpoint. It is the generosity that concedes to others the right to their own opinions and their own peculiarities. It is the bigness that enables us to let people be happy in their own way instead of our way'."

Grand Secretary Sallie R. Thaler gave a detailed account of the numerous transactions of that important office. During the year $5,000 from the Grand Parlor General Fund was invested in United States war bonds, leaving a cash balance in that fund June 1, 1942, of $12,857.43.

The reports of grand officers and committees dealt mostly with matters heretofore given publicity in The Grizzly Bear. Follows a summary of the Oakland Grand Parlor proceedings, with no reference, however, to proposals that failed of passage:

GRAND PARLOR CONSTITUTION CHANGES.

Art. V, Sec. 3, amended to provide: "The election of grand officers shall be the first order of business at the afternoon session of Tuesday, the day of nominations."

Art. VIII, Sec. 5, Sub. 13, Native Daughters Home Committee, changed to read: "The Grand President, Grand Vice-president, Grand Secretary, Permanent Member Mariana Bertola, and a rotating committee of seven members to be appointed each year by the incoming Grand President to serve for a term of three years."

BUSINESS TRANSACTED.

A budget of approximately $14,000 for the 1942-43 Grand Parlor year was approved.

The per capita tax was fixed at $1.00, payable 50 cents in July 1942, and 50 cents in January 1943, and the Home assessment was fixed at 50 cents, payable in October 1942.

Santa Cruz City was selected as the meeting-place for the Fifty-seventh (1943) Grand Parlor.

The issuance of charters to the following Junior Native Daughters was approved: No. 10, Menlo Park; No. 11, Elk Grove; No. 12, Coalinda; No. 13, Mariposa; No. 14, Turlock.

Contributions by the Grand President of $50 to Mission San Diego de Alcalá and $50 to the garden fund of that mission were approved.

The Grizzly Bear Magazine was re-endorsed as the official publicity organ of the Order, and financial provision was made for the publication therein of the Official Directory of Subordinate Parlors.

Slight changes were made in the Ritual of Subordinate Parlors, and it was ordered that the Ritual, as amended, "continue in force for the following five years."

Ordered, that the university scholarship may be awarded at the San Jose State College or at any one of the seven campuses of the University of California.

Ordered, that in future the Grand Parlor award for the best pioneer woman's story be $10, and that it be given the author, instead of the Parlor with which she is affiliated.

Ordered, that Subordinate Parlors, particularly those located in the country, may, "if they see fit, publicly advise the farmers in their territories that their members are ready and willing to help in the harvesting of crops, so that California's products may continue to fill the world markets."

The following recommendations pertaining to the Juniors were approved: "(1) That the Ritual be used during the coming year. (2) That the Installation Ceremonies be adopted for trial for a year's period. (3) That the incoming committee investigate and report on the advisability of re-grouping the Junior units. (4) That the office of Financial Secretary-Treasurer be [termed] Treasurer. (5) That the Installation Ceremonies submitted herewith be used for the ensuing year, any corrections or additions desired being made by the Grand President and State Chairman."

PROCEEDINGS FIFTY-SIXTH N.D. GRAND PARLOR

A new form of receipt for dues was authorized, and a committee of five was ordered appointed to design the same.

Ordered, that the publicity chairman for the Grand Parlor session be appointed from the district where the Grand Parlor is to meet.

Ordered, "that the custom of investing the newly installed officers with regalia, the insignia of their offices, be restored to the ceremonies of Joint Public Installation of Officers."

NECESSARY!

Declaring that "we, as Native Daughters of the Golden West, deem it necessary for our future security and the security of our children and their children" to exclude all Japs from United States of America citizenship, the Grand Parlor, without dissenting vote, adopted a resolution

Authorizing the appointment by the Grand President of a "committee of five to draft and sponsor an amendment to the Constitution of the United States which shall have as its object the exclusion of all persons of Japanese ancestry from American citizenship; also,

"To prosecute and carry through to the Supreme Court of the United States of America, if necessary, a suit challenging the United States citizenship of the Japanese."

The committee is to work in conjunction with a like committee authorized by the N.S.G.W. Grand Parlor in May, and to assist in carrying out the intent of the resolution $1,000 was appropriated.

RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED.

Calling for investigation of existing laws concerning the conduct of persons managing boarding homes for children, and recommending "that legislation be drafted to amend Section 273A of the Penal Code so that crimes against children in boarding homes be made a felony instead of a misdemeanor;" also, "that legislation be drafted to provide the State Department of Social Welfare with adequate funds to supervise boarding homes for children."

Expressing opposition "to the enactment into law of the proposals that have been made to the Congress of the United States that husbands and wives be required to file joint income tax returns on their separate incomes."

Urging "the California State Senate and Assembly to enact suitable legislation providing for the issuance of delayed birth certificates by the Registrar of Vital Statistics in each county upon proof of time and place of birth by affidavits and certified copies of appropriate records."

Endorsing a resolution now before the Federal Congress (H. R. 3991) providing "for the issuance of a special stamp commemorating the four hundredth anniversary of the discovery of California and the West Coast by Juan Rodriguez Cabrillo, September 28, 1542."

Extending sincere thanks "to the Worthy Grand President [Clarice E. Cook] for the gracious and expeditious manner in which she conducted the Grand Parlor; to the members of the Alameda County Parlors for their willingness to accept the great responsibility of entertaining the Grand Parlor on a few months notice; to Past Grand President Sue J. Irwin chairman of this Grand Parlor, for the benefit of her unusual talent for keeping things moving smoothly, with no lost motion; . . . to our Heavenly Father for His watchful care during the days of this Grand Parlor and for the safe conveyance of the delegates to and from their homes."

NEW GRAND OFFICERS.

At the election for grand officers, 391 ballots were cast, and the following were chosen:

Grand President—Mrs. Claire Lindsey of Golden Gate Parlor No. 158.

Grand Vice-president—Mrs. Mary B. Noerenberg of Californiana Parlor No. 247.

Grand Secretary—Mrs. Sallie R. Thaler of Aloha Parlor No. 106.

Grand Marshal—Mrs. Emily E. Ryan of La Lomas Parlor No. 72.

Grand Inside Sentinel—Mrs. Margaret Farnsworth of Vendome Parlor No. 100.

They, together with Miss Clarice E. Cook of Caliz de Oro Parlor No. 206, who automatically became the Past Grand President, were publicly installed at an impressive candlelight ceremony by Supreme Grand President Hazel B. Hanse of Verdugo Parlor No. 240, assisted by Supreme Grand Chairman Dora Brayton of Bahia Vista Parlor No. 167, Supreme Grand Marshal Ethel Enos of Morada Parlor No. 199 and Supreme Grand Organist Carol King of Piedmont Parlor No. 87. Past Grand Presidents Mae Hime, Noonan and Orinda Gunther-Giannini acted as honorary grand marshals.

Members of Golden Gate Parlor No. 158 composed the escort for the Grand President. They were attired in flowered white and green organdy, and from the arm of each carelessly swung an upturned hat, filled with shasta daisies. As they approached the Grand President's station, they formed a heart, in the center of which was Mrs. Lindsey, a picture in yellow organdy. That formation was quickly changed to a wheel, attached to the yellow ribbon spoke of which were talisman rosebuds, which were handed to her. The wheel was then set in motion to the rhythmic strains of "Wagon Wheels," sung by Lyle Dennison, the soloist of the occasion.

At the conclusion of the installation ceremonies, Past Grand President Evelyn I. Carlson on behalf of the Order, presented a platinum and diamond ring to Past Grand President Clarice E. Cook. She was also the recipient of a silver service, presented by Supervising Deputy Imelk Bawden of Caliz de Oro Parlor No. 206, on behalf of the retiring grand officers, supervising deputy grand presidents and deputy grand presidents.

LET US ALWAYS PATRIOTICALLY SERVE OUR COUNTRY

MRS. CLAIRE LINDSEY OF OAKLAND, Alameda County, affiliated with Golden Gate Parlor No. 158 (San Francisco), became the Grand President of the Order of Native Daughters of the Golden West at the Fifty-sixth Grand Parlor, which met at Oakland. Addressing an assemblage of representatives of the Subordinate Parlor from all sections of California following her induction into office, June 17, she said:

"Worthy supreme grand officers, permanent members, past grand presidents, grand officers and members of this grand session, officers and members of Golden Gate Parlor No. 158, my family and friends: I avail myself of the opportunity, as I am called to undertake the duties of the highest office in the gift of the Order of Native Daughters of the Golden West, to express my grateful thanks for the favor with which you have been pleased to look upon me, and to declare a sincere consciousness of the greatness of the charge before me.

"One cannot be elected to a high office without feelings of pride and deep humiliation. Pride comes with the position of distinction to which I have been chosen by my fellow members; humility comes with the knowledge of the obligation which I have assumed, and with that knowledge comes the realization of my limitations.

MRS. CLAIRE LINDSEY
Golden Gate Parlor No. 158, San Francisco
GRAND PRESIDENT N.D.G.W.

"I am humble before the magnitude of such an undertaking at this particular time; for never in the history of the world have we been faced with conditions such as exist today. However, as I look over this assemblage, before me I find resources rich in wisdom, zeal and understanding, and upon which I am certain to rely when difficulties present themselves. I look with encouragement for that counsel and support which may enable me to guide the destiny of our organization amid the conflicting elements of a troubled world.

"To you, I pledge the best of my ability in all things and ask your indulgence for any errors which, I assure you, will never be intentional; for paramount always will be the good of all concerned.

"Today, in these United States, our patriotic and fraternal organizations are but a perfectly natural expression of American life. The pleasures of participating in our meetings are only incident in the process and experience of belonging, and through our mysteries and ceremonies we progress, literally by degrees, to the understanding of the motives that hold upon people in group behavior.

"Unlike most women's organizations, when our founders met on that Saturday afternoon in September of 1886, they had a definite purpose before them. Those women felt it their duty to put forth every effort to make our Order a power for good in our beloved State, a benefit to our members and a lasting credit and honor to our Pioneer Fathers and Mothers.

"From our first Grand President, Mrs. Tina L. Kane, we inherited a priceless legacy, when she said: 'I solicit you to look well to your obligations as Native Daughters; have respect for the discipline of the Order, and inculcate by precept and example its principles; and may the fair fame we have achieved never be diminished.'

"With this in mind, the general theme for the year will be based upon the four principles of our Order, so that we may 'inculcate by precept and example its principles.' First, 'Love of Home;' second, 'Devotion to the Flag;' third, 'Veneration of the Pioneers;' fourth, 'An Abiding Faith in the Existence of God.' Within these principles, as set forth, are the essentials necessary to best serve our Order, State and Nation during this national emergency. Therefore, we will arrange our schedule accordingly, into quarters, and ask each Subordinate Parlor to co-operate with the program which will be presented to you, developing these subjects in your meetings, in whatever type of presentation is most suitable for your group.

"I ask that you plan your year's program, keeping in mind the theme of each particular quarter; and some time during that period have a speaker, a symposium or a lecture-question program. This, I believe, will stimulate interest and promote the projects we so generously sponsor, and which are varied enough to allow for creative ability, as well as real service.

"Much of the success of any organization depends upon the friendly spirit of its members. Therefore, I hope that each Subordinate Parlor president will appoint a Hospitality Committee, whose duty it will be to promote good fellowship at all of the meetings. A cordial greeting, the grasp of the hand, the personal and friendly word are of great value in holding an interested membership.

"Continuous publicity, too, is essential for the successful development of any group. It is absolutely necessary that we inform the public, as well as our own members, regarding the activities of our organization and the progress of our projects through the press, radio and Parlor bulletins, in order to create a public opinion that is intelligent and favorable. I ask that you co-operate with the state chairman in this.

"Cultural and social activities, as exemplified by us, should not be allowed to fall by the wayside during this national emergency; for when this war is won, if we have allowed our organization to deteriorate we cannot gather the loose ends together in a few hours to embark upon a peace-time schedule. Be sure to keep alive our membership now; it is important; in itself it is a defense, in that it is the personification of united womanhood.

"To serve with our Past Grand President Clarice E. Cook, as Grand Vice-president, has been a pleasurable duty during the past year. May the benefits of friendships developed through serving a common purpose integrate with our lives, to strengthen loyalty and faith for the goal set for us to achieve.

"To my official family, I extend sincere congratulations; I look forward to a year of friendship, leadership, and devotion to the high ideals and purposes of our Order, to the end that success may come to us as a symbol of service rendered. Let us unite with one heart and one mind, that harmony and real affection may prevail, and in our deliberations let us always patriotically serve our country.

"And now, I offer my sincere thanks and appreciation to the members of Golden Gate Parlor No. 158 for the privilege of serving as their representative in the Grand Parlor, for their encouragement and assistance during these eight years. As they have shared each succeeding year in this ascendancy, may they find great pleasure in this new honor, and may I not be found wanting.

"To the friends of many years' standing who have been with me all the way, and to those new friends who have faith in me, I am deeply grateful. My thanks go out to Sister Dora Brayton, who represented this convention committee as chairman of this beautiful installation. To her and those who assisted in any way, my sincere appreciation. To my husband and family, for their consideration at all times, my love always.

"One is missing tonight who should have shared this joy; but I am certain her spirit hovers near, with those she so dearly loved. To her, my mother, I dedicate my year of service."

July 16 is the deadline for California citizens to register for voting at the August 25 primary.

RACIAL COMMON SENSE

JUDGE FRANK G. TYRRELL

RACE PREJUDICE AND RACE HATRED are alike foolish. On the other hand, the sentimentalism that would herd together all races or permit them to herd together on the same soil and in the same nation is equally foolish. The existence of Negro slavery for many years in this country is now deplored by everybody. It has left social and economic problems not solved to this day,—to say nothing of biological problems.

It is not an assertion of superiority to exclude a race from our shores; it is common sense, whenever a given race has a standard of living that directly menaces the American standard. The world is wide. There are other lands.

In his great speech at Chicago, July 10, 1858, Abraham Lincoln suggested the scientific and sensible position: "I protest now and forever, against that counterfeit logic which presumes that because I do not want a negro woman for a slave, I do necessarily want her for a wife. My understanding is that I need not have her, for either; but as God made us separate, we can leave one another alone, and do one another much good thereby."

Shortly after the Civil War, Chinese immigration became the subject of acrimonious discussion. Justice Field in September 1882, in an opinion rendered in the United States Supreme Court, described the menace. He concluded: "A restriction upon the immigration of such laborers was therefore felt throughout this State to be necessary if we would prevent the degradation of labor and preserve all the benefits of our civilization."

The same reasons apply to the Japanese. But there are other reasons, much stronger. The laws and, indeed, the very culture of Japan make it impossible for one of that race to become a loyal, trustworthy citizen of the United States. This fact accounts for the maintenance in California of Japanese-language schools for their children. They have been accorded citizenship,—under the divided opinion of the United States Supreme Court cited in the masterly address of United States Senator Tom Stewart published in The Grizzly Bear for April 1942—but what of it? Under Japanese theory and law, by birth they are nationals of Japan, and as they must always retain that citizenship, Japan sees to it that they are taught and trained in the civics, the ethics, the religion and the culture of Japan.

And this island empire of Japan has a long past. Its claim to a span of 2,500 years seems to be authentic. The present emperor is the one hundred and twenty-third in descent from the first. Except England, no other nation is so aristocratic and nationalistic. Ethnologically, the people are a mixture of Tartar or Mongolian, Malay and Ainu; these are the main racial strains. It is obvious that the task of analyzing and describing the race psychology is difficult,—as it is with any race. One notes a certain characteristic mixture of mental and moral qualities which makes up what it is fair to call the Japanese temperament.

Scholars have described this temperament as sentimental, predominantly, with some infusion of the choleric. History records many notable examples of self-sacrificing devotions to persons and to a chosen cause, among this people. There is at the same time among them a certain instability, often amounting to fickleness, a tendency to reverse movement, to change opinions, parties and sides.

Professor George Trumbull Ladd says of them: "Hate and love, jealousy and sympathy, strong dislike and strong liking, hide behind an unmoved or courteous demeanor, and finally break forth to the surprise of the foreigner. . . . Thus the subtle, complicated and indirect, rather than the open, simple and frank character of the mental life becomes still further emphasized in the conduct of the Japanese." Witness the treacherous attack on Pearl Harbor right in the midst of the hypocritical peace negotiations of their emissaries!

The moral code of the Japanese has been shaped by Confucian ethics and the Buddhist religion. Its central principle is loyalty,—but to what or whom? To the emperor, the "son of heaven," of course. To whom else? Certainly not to Uncle Sam! It has fostered the insane and unreasonable feeling of obligation to commit harikari or murder. The Japanese do not look to divine power and wisdom as the source of their moral law, with its categorical imperative, no matter who or what suffers, but to what is proper under different personal relations. The difference is obvious, and likewise the menace of it.

Feudalism in varying forms has prevailed through most of Japan's history. The young Japanese of today, even though born in America, is the child of centuries of culture and discipline which have made him loyal and subservient to the emperor; it is bred in the bone, and dyed in the wool. And this heredity is, as stated in the address of the Senator referred to above, the determining factor of citizenship, not the adventitious fact that he happened to be born on a piece of land under the Stars and Stripes.

We can admire Japanese art and architecture, music and poetry, in a word, Japanese culture; we can recognize the Japanese belonging to the great human family; but it is neither necessary nor wise to take them to our bosoms, grant them citizenship, turn them loose on our fertile acres and crowded streets, and expect them to become good Americans. In the words of Josh Billings, "This is much to much! It cannot was!"

They are, in their present stage of development, utterly incapable of assimilation. They will, if permitted to colonize here, soon out-populate us in any given area. Their low valuation of human life, their innate cruelty, and their low standard of living make them undesirable citizens, even if they were capable of the high duties of born freemen. The exceptions among them only prove the rule!

Admission Day Celebration at San Diego.

Mayrhofer, general chairman of the arrangements committee, communicated with the United States Army authorities, and was advised by Lieutenant-Colonel Samuel Rubin that there is no objection to holding the parade.

"The observance of Admission Day during war time," he wrote, "is especially commendable and most appropriate, and it is the desire of the Commanding General of the Southern California Sector to fully co-operate with your organization." The program will include a military and historical parade starting at 10 a.m., to be followed by a civic luncheon.

And from Rear Admiral R. S. Holmes, Commandant Eleventh Naval District U.S.N., he has received assurance that "The plans for the Santa Margarita development include the careful preservation of the ranch house, and its possible use as an officers' club, as suggested."

LOS ANGELES CITY AND COUNTY

THE NATIVE SONS AND THE NATIVE Daughters of the Golden West of Los Angeles County, through their Interparlor Committee, presented to the California State Guard Base Hospital June 21 a resuscitator. That it was needed was evidenced when, during the presentation, a hurlyup call for an ambulance and a resuscitator was received at the hospital.

President Elsie Amidon of Los Angeles Parlor No. 124 N.D.G.W. introduced Chairman Marguerite Tann of the Interparlor Committee, who presided. District Deputy Grand President Robert Pesqueira, accompanied by Grand Organist Roger Johnson on the accordion, led the singing of the national anthem, the colors were presented by a guard of honor, and Past Grand Presidents Clarice Cook and Eldred Meyer spoke briefly.

Miss Mary Hotaling of Long Beach Parlor No. 154 N.D.G.W. made the presentation address, saying, in part: "Today marks another milestone in the future work of this splendid base hospital. . . . The California State Guard is concerned with the protection of the state and its citizenry, and the Native Sons and the Native Daughters stand ready to assist in any way possible. . . ."

"Therefore, I consider it a distinct honor and a real pleasure to be able at this time to present to you here at Base Hospital No. 1, on behalf of the Interparlor N.S.G.W. and N.D.G.W. Committee, this resuscitator, itself a savior of lives." Major Russell Hicks accepted the gift. Among the several others introduced were Grand Vice-president Mary Noerenberg, Grand Trustee Walter Odemar, and the following members of the committee that made the arrangements for the presentation: Woodrow Wade, Mary McAnany, Philip McAnany, Gertrude Allen, Corporal Wm. Arlen, Mrs. Dexter Monroe, John Off and Margaretthe Bohannon.

FOURTEENTH ANNIVERSARY LUNCHEON.

First in the list of June's teaming activities in Californiana Parlor No. 247 N.D.G.W. was the highly successful "war bonds bridge luncheon" the 3rd, under the direction of General Chairman Ora May Evans. President Ethel F. Smith's table was strikingly decorated with a floral centerpiece in peach, gold and dubonnet colors, and the smaller tables were centered with beautifully packaged guest gifts. Florence B. Irish presented many prominent club leaders, as well as Past Grand Presidents Grace S. Stoermer and Hazel B. Hansen, Grand Marshal Mary B. Noerenberg and President-elect Estelle Flick. Grand Trustee Walter H. Odemar of the Native Sons was the speaker, and his presentation of "The Japanese Menace" was well received. There were thirty-five tables of bridge, and the affair netted close to one hundred dollars.

Californiana's fourteenth anniversary luncheon, June 11, was conspicuous for a large attendance. Due to the proximity of Flag Day, special observance was made of that, with the co-operation of the Women's Auxiliary of the American Legion and its drill team.

Seated at President Smith's table, uniquely beautiful with a panel of magnolia blossoms, were women notable in civic and club work. Program Chairman Mary Ann Thomas presented the speakers, Past Grand President Grace S. Stoermer, City Librarian Althea Warren, Judge Oda Faulconer, Postmistress Mary Briggs, Mrs. Charles Roadman, president Hollywood Community Sing, and Mrs. Francis Eugene Payne, past president Los Angeles Ebells, all of whom offered wise counsel on present and future work for the restoration and the preservation of the American way.

The final meeting of President Smith's term, June 23, at which three candidates were initiated, added luster to a very successful year. Additional interest invested the meeting by surprise visits from Past Grand President Clarice E. Cook, Grand Outside Sentinel Maxine Bundy, Geneva Trumbly of Gold of Ophir Parlor No. 190 (Oroville) and many members of Los Angeles, La Reina and Topanga Parlors. Grand Vice-president Mary Noerenberg received an ovation at the conclusion of a very fine talk, and Miss Cook lauded the Parlor for its outstanding achievements. Hospitality Chairman Isabella Granz directed the time-honored "president's tea," with Emma Osborn and Mary Ann Thomas at the urns, and President Smith led the congratulations of the new corps of officers, headed by Estelle R. Flick as president.

To see a historical landmark in its infancy, is the novel treat planned by Isabel Monroe, chairman of history and landmarks, for Californiana members and friends when, July 11, a visit will be made to the Spanish American Institute, 15840 Figueroa street, Gardena. As this is a school of vocational training, as well as of instruction in the arts, a luncheon to be served by some of the youths studying to become chefs will feature the vegetable and dairy products produced at the Institute. An invitation is extended friends in other Parlors. For reservations, phone TWInoaks 1436.

Installation of Californiana's new officers will be held July 14 at the Women's University Club. Josephine Reichman will officiate, assisted by members of Long Beach Parlor No. 154. President-elect Flick has decided on simplicity, with the money hitherto spent on flowers and decorations being contributed to the homeless children fund.

TO CELEBRATE ANNIVERSARY.

Officers of East Los Angeles Parlor No. 277 N.S.G.W., with Lester Cox as president, will be installed July 6 by District Deputy John Bodkin. A large group of members will soon visit some Parlor in the southland; be on the lookout.

East Los Angeles will celebrate its fourth institution anniversary with a barbecue at the home of Lester Cox, 609 North Chandler avenue, Monterey Park, July 11. Dinner will be served at 7:30 p.m. sharp, and a fine feast is assured. "Come early," urges Recording Secretary O. E. Nighswonger, "and bring the wife and girl friends and prospective candidates." So that its members may participate in the Admission Day celebration at San Diego, September 9, the Parlor will stage a benefit in the near-future.

SEWING PARTY AT CASA DE ADOBE.

Miss Juliette De Nubila, as president, heads the corps of officers of Los Angeles Parlor No. 124 N.D.G.W. for the new term. Installation, open to the public, is scheduled for July 15. Deputy Marcella Palethorpe, who will officiate, will be assisted by the officers of Californiana Parlor No. 247.

The Parlor has sent a check to the Navy Relief Society, and in July it will again contribute to the U.S.O. Speakers representing those two organizations were present at the June 17 meet-ceremonies, and there were interesting talks by Past Grand President Eldred Meyer, Aubrey Austin, Grand Trustee Walter Odemar, City Commissioner Dike Freeman, Hector Balda, Albert Seaman, Ralph Eisenhart, Dr. Robert Eshelman, George Benton, and President Harold Shoemaker and Oliver Kent of University Parlor No. 272. Secretary DeMoss Bowers was directed to write Congressman Leland Ford, protesting the proposal to confiscate the firearms of private citizens. War movies were shown, and refreshments were served.

The Parlor had election of officers June 9 and Ysidro Reyes was retained as president. Parlor Historian Gilbert Borjorquez read an interesting paper dealing with California's old Spanish land grants. June 16 twenty-nine of Santa Monica Bay's members signed up with the Red Cross to donate a pint of blood each.

STATE FLAG PRESENTED HIGH SCHOOL.

Compton—With Compton Parlor No. 258 as the hostess, the 1941 N.D.G.W. Grand Parlor Committee presented to the Roosevelt High School June 3 a beautiful California State (Bear) Flag. President Edith Norton presided, Mayor Roy Tarleton of Compton Parlor No. 273 N.S.G.W. extended greetings and Marion Stricker sang "I Love You California."

Past Grand President Hazel B. Hansen outlined the history of the Bear Flag, and Marie Honnard introduced Grand Marshal Mary B. Noerenberg, who made the presentation address. Principal Blanche Taylor accepted the flag and President Richard Huntrods expressed the appreciation of the student body.

FIFTY-FIFTH ANNIVERSARY.

Ramona Parlor No. 109 N.S.G.W. honored June 5 one of the most faithful and valued members of the Order, Deputy Grand President Hervey L. Kitchin. In recognition of his worth, he received from the Parlor, through Grand Trustee Walter Odemar, a trophy appropriately inscribed.

At historic Campo de Cahuenga, June 12, the Parlor celebrated the fifty-fifth anniversary of its institution with a well-attended barbecue. The feast was prepared by Ralph Walters, assisted by Ray Bowen, Leo Cornell and Carlos Drouet, and was served by the good of the order committee, Robert A. Ziegler chairman. The Parlor was instituted June 9, 1887, by Grand Vice-president Marcus A. Dorn, now deceased.

Ramona's officers, with Robert A. Ziegler as president, will be publicly installed by District Deputy Robert M. Pesqueira July 10. Initiation, followed by refreshments, is scheduled for July 17. Sunday, July 19, the Parlor will sponsor a dinner at Campo de Cahuenga, 1:30 p.m. There will be games, races and contests for all the family. George M. Cuthbertson, the new chairman of the good of the order committee, will see that all are well fed, well entertained and well pleased. Members of the Parlor born in July will be honored the 24th. Among them is Edwin A. Meserve, dean of the past presidents.

GRAND PARLOR BREAKFAST.

The southern California delegation at the N.D.G.W. Grand Parlor enjoyed a breakfast at the Women's Athletic Club, Oakland, June 16. East Los Angeles Parlor No. 266, La Reina Parlor No. 267 and Topanga Parlor No. 269 were the hostesses. The decorations were of red, white and blue, and those seated at the festive board were presented leis of friendship.

Past Grand President Grace S. Stoermer presided, and the speakers included Past Grand President Cora B. Sifford, Clarence M. Hunt, Grand Trustee Evalyn G. Towne, Grand Marshal Mary B. Noerenberg and Past Grand President Hazel B. Hansen. Arrangements for the occasion were made by Pauline Eisenman and Melissa Wright of East Los Angeles Parlor, Wynne Vis of La Reina Parlor, and Frances Packer and Della Driscoll of Topanga Parlor.

UNIVERSITY PARLOR NEWS.

The tenth annual music festival of University Parlor No. 272 N.S.G.W., held June 17, was acclaimed the best yet. Chairman Woodrow Wade says that while the cash profits will exceed $600, the goodfellowship created by the record-breaking crowd of 610 is worth thousands.

July 8, District Deputy Robert Pesqueira will install the Parlor's officers, with Harold Shoemaker as president. The officers-elect have outlined a splendid program for the new term. Walter Wells has been proclaimed chairman of ladies night, July 22, and he will lead a large delegation of members, their wives and friends, to a Vernon playroom, where ample refreshments and entertainment will be on hand. "It's all free," advises "Father" Wells, "but reservations must be made in advance."

N.S.G.W. COMMITTEE NAMED TO CONTEST JAPS' CITIZENSHIP

San Francisco—The Sixty-fifth (May 1942) N.S.G.W. Grand Parlor authorized the appointment of a committee of five to raise sufficient funds "first, to prosecute, and carry through to the Supreme Court of the United States of America, if necessary, a suit challenging the United States citizenship of the Japanese; and second, to draft and sponsor an amendment to the Constitution of the United States of America which shall have as its object the exclusion of all persons of Japanese ancestry from American citizenship."

Grand President Lloyd J. Cosgrove has named the following as such committee: Junior Past Grand President Edward T. Schnarr, Past Grand President Eldred L. Meyer, Past Grand President Seth Millington, Harry Romick of Castro Parlor No. 232 and Daniel J. Collins of South San Francisco Parlor No. 157.

START A REGENERATION

"There is no time to lose in starting a political regeneration. It could be started, at least, this very year if the same spirit which is giving us the unselfish, unpaid services of tens of thousands of men and women in civilian defense, on the draft rationing boards, in the Red Cross, the United Service Organizations, and other voluntary agencies could be enlisted for just three months in the nomination and election of senators and representatives in the Seventy-eighth Congress next fall.

"What we urgently need is not better politicians so much as politicians who speak the language of our day and are capable of addressing themselves to a wholly new type of questions. We should not wait for them to seek seats in Congress. We should seek them out wherever they can be found, regardless of whether they shy away from politics and regardless of party tags. Surely in this grave emergency we are not going to let ourselves be tricked by that red herring, by chasing that tin rabbit. Old routine partisanship would vulgarize this day of judgment for the free world. If, on the contrary, we should leave politics, as usual, to a little minority of professionals and then grumble at the result we should be worse than bad sports; we should be slackers in this battle for freedom."—James Morgan in the Boston Sunday Globe.

Fruit juice may pinch-hit for all or part of the sugar syrup in canning fruit. Canning specialists of the United States Department of Agriculture say that as far as spoilage is concerned, fruit will "keep" just as well if canned with no sugar, but sugar does help preserve color, flavor and texture.

Home dried vegetables should be scalded but never cooked before being stored, warns the University of California College of Agriculture. Dried vegetables which are cooked and then stored may spoil.

DO WE?

(CLARENCE M. HUNT.)

Being muchly concerned about the future, as well as the present, welfare of California, and being thoroughly convinced that, unless the "seed of the sun" be entirely uprooted, the Japs will, following the present armed conflict, proceed with their "peaceful invasion" and eventually overrun this state, the writer proposes UNITED ACTION TODAY by organizations and individuals actually desirous of preserving California as a paradise of the White Man for all time. TOMORROW, after the war, will be TOO LATE! In the hope of permanently removing the Jap menace, this course of action is advocated:

Dispossess the Japs of every foot of land, rural and urban, to which they now claim title.

Challenge the citizenship of every Jap—his right to exercise in these United States the voting privilege.

Close every Jap-language school, and be certain that it is kept closed.

Do we, or do we not, really want to save this glorious heritage given into our keeping by our Pioneer Fathers and Mothers? If we have the will, this suggested course points the way! What's your answer?

UNITED STATES LANDMARKS

CATALOGUED BY PARK SERVICE

Many United States landmarks have been completely measured and recorded, so that restoration would be possible in the event of enemy damage, according to the National Park Service of the Interior Department.

Begun in 1933, the Historic American Buildings Survey, directed by the Park Service with the co-operation of the American Institute of Architects, has accumulated records of near 6,500 early structures. These include more than 24,000 drawings and 26,000 photographic negatives. In most cases subjects which have been measured and drawn have also been photographed. No attempt has been made to authenticate all the traditional history of each building but in a few cases it has been possible to include some historical research.

A new catalogue of the Historic American Buildings Survey lists the material which has been recorded and deposited in the Fine Arts Division of the Library of Congress as of March 31, 1941. Copies of the catalogue are for sale to the Superintendent of Documents at the Government Printing Office in Washington, D. C.

SAN DIEGO—THE STATEWIDE Admission Day celebration to be held here September 9 in recognition of the ninety-second anniversary of California's admission to statehood and the four hundredth anniversary of the arrival in San Diego Harbor of Juan Rodriguez Cabrillo, Portuguese navigator in the service of Spain, will be an outstanding event.

Sponsors of the celebration are San Diego No. 108, San Diego No. 208 N.D., the San Diego Historical Society and the California State Historical Association. Details are being worked out by the following general committee: Joseph C. Kelly, chairman, Henry W. Hache, Dr. C. H. Henderson, Judge W. J. Collard, Fred Rhodes, Chester D. Gunn, Judge Eugene Daney Jr., Henry U. Emery, Dr. John P. Williams, Claude Kettle, Walter Church, W. M. Clark, Hall Cheatham, D. W. Campbell and Deputy Grand President Albert V. Mayrhofer.

The main feature of the celebration will be the Admission Day parade, and it promises to surpass anything of its kind ever seen in California. Major-General Clayton B. Vogel, U.S.M.C., will be the grand marshal, and in addition to numerous army and navy units the parade will include bands, marching groups of patriotic, fraternal and civic organizations, drum corps, drill teams, historical floats and mounted groups.

"We not only have military approval for our plans," says Deputy Grand President Mayrhofer, "but we have been promised military participation on an impressive scale. EXCELLENT PLAN—"If and when the war is won, wouldn't it be a good plan or good busi-ness to take the Japs, whether they be American-born or not, out of the United States and all its possessions, Hawaii, etc., and send them back to Japan, and then make a law whereby no Japa-nese could again enter the United States except temporarily, such as consuls, seamen, etc? This should be one of the conditions of peace, in my opinion."—G. W. Miller in the San Francisco Chronicle.

BOOK REVIEWS

(CLARENCE M. HUNT.)

"PHILOSOPHER PICKETT."

By Lawrence Clark Powell; University of California Press, Berkeley and Los Angeles, Publisher; Price, $1.50.

This is the life story of Charles Edward Pickett, an eccentric character who became the West's first reformer. For many years he crusaded with pen and pamphlet against the corruption that afflicted California, and earned for himself the cognomen, "Philosopher."

A Virginian by birth, Pickett came overland to the Pacific Coast in 1843. He took part in the provisional government of Oregon, arrived at Sutter's Fort (Sacramento) just after the Bear Flag uprising at Sonoma, and was in Yerba Buena (San Francisco) when the Flag of the United States of America was first raised there.

In Oregon, Pickett issued the first newspaper on the Pacific Coast, a biweekly manuscript sheet which he called the Flumgudgeon Gazette and Bumble Bee Budget, subtitled "A Newspaper of the Salmagundi Order, Devoted to Scratchin and Stinging the Follies of the Times." In place of his own name as editor, he used the pseudonym "The Curlytail Coon." Later, he edited a San Francisco printed newspaper, The Western American. Whispering to his attendant "The Gate is open," Pickett passed from this life at Mariposa Town, November 18, 1882.

"Philosopher Pickett," a most interesting book, includes eight hitherto unpublished letters written by Pickett to Edward M. Kern and William Heath Davis, October 1846-November 1847 relating to the conquest of California by the United States of America, and it also contains list of the "Philosopher's" publications.

FREQUENTLY, admired skin and complexion owe their rose-petal loveliness to Chamberlain's, the lotion that satifies. This clear, golden liquid lotion, used regularly, enhances natural loveliness, encourages smoothness, freedom from irritation, relieves chapping. Chamberlain's Lotion is most convenient to use, dries quickly, is never sticky, greasy, gummy nor "messy." At all toilet goods counters.

HOME DEFENSE IMPORTANCE OUTLINED.

Presidio Parlor No. 148, Portola Parlor No. 172 and Balboa Parlor No. 249 N.D.G.W. were hostesses at the July 12 Sunday morning breakfast at the Native Daughters Home. Anita Groezinger of Portola presided, Alice Nystrom of Balboa conducted the pledge of allegiance to the flag, and a prayer was delivered by Merle Smith of Presidio.

Grand President Claire Lindsey said she plans to acquaint all the Parlors with the Home's splendid features and the number of worthwhile tasks undertaken by its hard-working residents.

Past Grand President Dr. Mariana Bertola, permanent chairman of the Home, spoke on conditions today and the need for the younger women of the Order interesting themselves in a rightful solution of the world's troubles. Past Grand President Orinda Giannini outlined the importance of home defense and urged everyone to do her share. Grand Treasurer Agnes M. Curry bespoke the earnest desire of the Parlors to make the Home breakfasts pleasurable and constructive.

Accompanied by Chairman Marion Curry of the Grand Parlor Music Committee, all present joined in singing "The Star Spangled Banner" and "America."

PUBLIC INSTALLATION.

At impressive ceremonies July 2, officers of Yerba Buena Parlor No. 273 N.D.G.W., with Sarah E. Buckley as president, were publicly installed by Deputy Beatrice Nishkian. Two marines, a soldier and a sailor constituted an honor guard for the flag-bearer. Twelve members of the Parlor, composing the escort team, were attired in white dresses and carried fans of pansies. Vocal selections were rendered by Edith Morelli, accompanied by Grand Organist Mae O'Keefe.

Orinda Parlor No. 56 N.D.G.W. was entertained by members residing in Marin County June 26. The program, under the chairmanship of Martha Neidlinger, included a very interesting tableau, "Our Allies in the War." Delicious refreshments were served at tables decorated with tiny drums in patriotic colors. June birthdays were celebrated also, and each member born that month received a gift of defense stamps.

Elmer Collett was elected president of Stanford Parlor No. 76 N.S.G.W. for the July-December term, but prior to installation he enlisted in the Naval Reserve. That necessitated another election, and July 14 Charles Alfred Andersen was chosen president of the Parlor. In observance of Flag Day, Stanford presented United States of America and California State (Bear) Flags to Hospitality House. Joseph I. McNamara was master of ceremonies, President Layton Riley delivered the presentation address, and the flags were accepted by Mayor Angelo J. Rossi.

Officers of Twin Peaks Parlor No. 185 N.D.G.W. and Twin Peaks Parlor No. 214 N.S.G.W. were jointly installed at public ceremonies. Deputies Betty Michie and Walter Podd officiated, and Edith Wood and Arthur Lustig became the respective presidents. At the July 7 meeting of No. 185 the members extended congratulations to Loretta M. Cameron, re-elected Grand Trustee at the Oakland Grand Parlor, and Kay Jensen, appointed supervising deputy for San Francisco County.

Peter T. Conmy, Grand Historian N.S.G.W., addressed the luncheon meeting of the California Pioneer Society June 23. His subject was "Americanism in California History." Grand President Lloyd J. Cosgrove, Grand Secretary John T. Regan and Past Grand President Chas. A. Koenig were among those present. William C. Latham of Berkeley Parlor No. 210, a member of the N.S.G.W. CITY AND COUNTY

THE LOS ANGELES COUNTY N.S.G.W. Parlor have an Admission Day Committee that is arranging for participation in the statewide celebration of California's ninety-second birthday anniversary at San Diego, September 9. Officers of the committee are: Past Grand President Eldred Meyer, chairman; Moritz Rosenthal, vice-chairman; Bernard Hiss, secretary; John Bodkin, treasurer.

Chairmen of the several subcommittees handling details include: Grand Trustee Walter Odemar, finance; John Bodkin, uniform; Walter Richards, parade; Grand Organist Roger Johnson, entertainment; Lester Cox, transportation; Dr. Arthur Carmichael, float; Deputy Grand President Hervey Kitchin, publicity.

A couple of well-attended meetings were held during July, and it was reported that the Santa Monica Municipal Band will head the Los Angeles County delegation in the Admission Day parade. A uniform was selected, and special features were approved.

The next meeting of the committee will be August 7, at 1832 South Hope street, 7:30 p.m. At that time all Parlor members are requested to report the approximate number of members who will go to San Diego, and whether they will make the trip by private autos or by public conveyance to be arranged for by the committee.

BEAUTIFUL AFFAIR.

Juliette DeNubila was publicly installed president of Los Angeles Parlor No. 124 N.D.G.W., July 15, at what was proclaimed one of the most beautiful affairs of its kind in many years. Some 200 people were in attendance. The hall was decorated with huge bouquets of red and white dahlias, and at the altar burned white tapers, lighted by Ruth DeYoung, acting grand marshal. The United States of America Flag was escorted by William Arlen of the army and Tom Hamilton of the navy, and other Native Sons acted as ushers.

Louise McNary, chairman of the evening, introduced Deputy Marcella Palethorpe, who conducted the installation, assisted by Isabel Fages, Romilda Moree and other members of Californiana Parlor. The installed officers were gownned in white, and carried red net muffs, at the centers of which were red cactus dahlias and showers of red satin ribbon. Twelve members of Miss DeNubila's talented family composed an orchestra that played throughout the evening, and also entertained with songs and dances. Among the speakers were Grand Vice-president Mary Noerenberg, Past Grand Presidents Grace Stoermer and Hazel Hansen, Supervising Deputy Ann Schiebusch and Deputy Hazel Poole.

During July members of the Parlor visited the famed Huntington Library to view a valuable collection of Californiana, and the youths' activities committee served refreshments to a party of 300 at Inglewood U.S.O.

Although Los Angeles will have no more regular meetings until September 2, members are planning a get-together at the home of Alice Hamilton, 1903 South Oxford, August 22. Co-hostess for the affair is Ann Schiebusch. Luncheon will be served at 12:30, and the afternoon will be devoted to sewing for the homeless children.

ANNIVERSARY BARBECUE.

Officers of East Los Angeles Parlor No. 277 N.S.G.W., with Lester Cox as president, were installed July 6. District Deputy John Bodkin officiated and was assisted by Grand Trustee Walter Odemar, Supervising Deputy Howard Woodward and Grand Organist Roger Johnson. There were many visitors, including a large delegation from University Parlor.

Among the several speakers were Past Grand President Eldred Meyer; District Deputies Robert Pesqueria and Woodrow Wade; Presidents Robert Ziegler of Ramona, John Hall of Glendale and Harold Shoemaker of University; Fred Leonetti, Willard Allen, George LaRue, Joseph Coyle, Harry Bowman and Clarence M. Hunt. At the meeting's close Tony Leyva and Vernon Peterson served refreshments.

July 11, East Los Angeles had its fourth anniversary barbecue at the Monterey Park home of President Cox. Many were in attendance and the occasion was a pleasurable one.

INTERESTING DISCOURSE.

The victory tea of July 12 sponsored by the americanism and defense committee of Californiana Parlor No. 247 N.D.G.W.—Margaret Kerr, chairman, Martha Decker, Florence Irish, Isabel Fages, Marcella Palethorpe, Ethel Hearst, Ernestine Aylward, Viola Vejar and Romilda Moree—was an outstanding event. Mrs. Carveth Wells, world traveler and lecturer, delighted a large audience with a highly interesting discourse, illustrated with technicolor films of Malaya, India and Egypt taken since the beginning of World War II. At the conclusion of her talk Mrs. Wells modeled native costumes. Serving at the tea table were President Ethel Smith, Past Grand President Clarice Cook, Estelle Flick and Florence Schonenman.

Officers of Californiana, with Estelle Flick as president, were installed July 14 by Deputy Josephine Reichman, assisted by members of Long Beach Parlor. The room was tastefully decorated with flowers from the gardens of the members, and at the conclusion of the ceremonies a beautifully appointed tea was served by Hospitality Chairman Isabella Granz. At its August 11 meeting the Parlor will formulate plans for participation in the observance of Admission Day.

FAMILY DINNER.

Officers of Ramona Parlor No. 109 N.S.G.W., with Robert Ziegler as president, were publicly installed July 10 by District Deputy Robert Pesqueria, assisted by President Lester Cox of University Parlor and Grand Trustee Walter Odemar. During the evening the Parlor, through Grand Trustee Odemar, presented past president rings to William Bright and Frank Ruiz. Among the many other speakers were Grand Vice-president Mary Noerenberg of the Native Daughters, Presidents Elmer Koop of Hollywood and Harold Shoemaker of University Parlor, District Deputy Woodrow Wade, Moritz Rosenthal, Deputy Grand Presidents Hervey Kitchin and Clarence M. Hunt.

The Parlor entertained at Campo de Cahuenga, July 19, with a delicious family dinner prepared by Ralph Walters, assisted by Leo Cornell and Roy Bowen. President and Mrs. Robert Ziegler presided as host and hostess of the occasion and saw that everyone had a good time.

THE GRIZZLY BEAR MAGAZINE

ONLY OFFICIAL PUBLICATION OF THE NATIVE SONS AND NATIVE DAUGHTERS OF THE GOLDEN WEST

DISMISSED

The Grizzly Bear for June 1942 referred to a complaint filed by John T. Regan, Grand Secretary of the Order of Native Sons of the Golden West, in the District Court of the United States of America at San Francisco, the purpose of which was to have the voting privilege denied all Japs, regardless of where born.

U. S. Webb, former attorney-general of California, filed the complaint for Regan as a private citizen, not as an official of the Order of Native Sons or at the direction of the Order, as erroneously stated in some publications. It was directed against the registrar of voters in and for the City and County of San Francisco.

The action was heard by Federal Judge A. F. St. Sure, and by him dismissed July 2, with the statement:

"Counsel for plaintiff frankly stated that he was asking this Court to overrule the leading case of United States v. Wong Kim Ark, because he believed the decision was erroneous. Since the decision was rendered it has been twice cited with approval by the Supreme Court in Morrison v. California and in Perkins v. Elg. In the Morrison case Justice Cardozo, speaking for the Court, said 'A person of the Japanese race is a citizen of the United States if he was born in the United States.' In the Perkins case, Chief Justice Hughes delivering the opinion, it was held that a child born here of alien parentage becomes a citizen of the United States.

"It is unnecessary to discuss the arguments of counsel. In my opinion the law is settled by the decisions of the Supreme Court just alluded to, and the action will be dismissed, with costs to the defendant."

"General Webb," according to Regan, "intends to appeal this case to the United States Supreme Court."—C.M.H.

DO WE?

(CLARENCE M. HUNT.)

Being muchly concerned about the future, as well as the present, welfare of California, and being thoroughly convinced that, unless the "seed of the sun" be entirely uprooted, the Japs will, following the present armed conflict, proceed with their "peaceful invasion" and eventually overrun this state, the writer proposes UNITED ACTION TODAY by organizations and individuals actually desirous of preserving California as a paradise of the White Man for all time. TOMORROW, after the war, will be TOO LATE! In the hope of permanently removing the Jap menace, this course of action is advocated:

Dispossess the Japs of every foot of land, rural and urban, to which they now claim title.

Challenge the citizenship of every Jap—his right to exercise in these United States the voting privilege.

Close every Jap-language school, and be certain that it is kept closed.

Do we, or do we not, really want to save this glorious heritage given into our keeping by our Pioneer Fathers and Mothers? If we have the will, this suggested course points the way! What's your answer?

THE UNITED STATES A REPUBLIC NOT A DEMOCRACY

Addressing the House of Representatives of the Congress of the United States of America recently, Congressman Philip A. Bennett of Missouri said:

"It is very unfortunate that so many members of Congress when speaking refer to our country as this 'great democracy' instead of using the correct expression, 'this republic.' Members of the Constitutional Convention, over which Washington presided, created a republic and not a democracy.

"I respectfully suggest that members of the House who are guilty of such error examine their dictionaries again and learn that a republic is a government where the sovereignty resides in the citizens, and is exercised through representatives chosen by the citizens; while a democracy is a government where the sovereignty also resides in the citizens, but is exercised directly, without intervention of representatives.

"The United States is a government of laws, and not a government of men. A pure democracy is a government of men, ruled by the decisions of the majority in all things.

"A republic has a written constitution which places checks and balances upon all three branches of the government, legislative, executive and judicial. The constitution is the supreme law of the land adopted by the people for the protection of all, and especially for the protection of the inalienable rights of the individual, which no government has a right to abridge.

"In a pure democracy the will of the majority is the law whether it refers to man's relationship with man or his relationship to God and religion. The majority in a pure democracy rules all men in all things without checks or balances and without any limitation on legislative power. The tyranny in a pure democracy is no less terrible than the tyranny of an absolute monarchy or despotism. Whoever would legislate without regard to the constitution does, of necessity, 'fly to anarchy or despotism.' . . . The late Leslie M. Shaw, former Secretary of the United States Treasury, in his book Vanishing Landmarks says:

"In very recent years we have been using the word 'democracy' when we have meant 'republic.' This flippant and unscientific manner of speaking tends to lax thinking, and is fraught with danger. Only socialists, near-socialists, anarchists and bolsheviki clamor for 'democracy.' Every true American is satisfied with representative government, and that is exactly what the term republic means.

"The Constitutional Convention was a republican body, and not a mass meeting. Washington speaks of 'the delegated will of the Nation'—never of the popular wish of the people. The discussion in the convention makes it abundantly clear that the fathers sought to save America from the monarch, and to protect her from the mass. They chose the middle ground between two extremes, both fraught with danger. They even went so far as to guarantee that no state should be cursed with a democratic form of government, or any other kindred system. The provision is in this language: 'The United States shall guarantee to every State in this Union a republican form of government.' That excludes every other form."

"Every Protestant church and every public school in America is a republic. Their affairs are managed by representatives—by boards. Otherwise there would be no churches and no public schools. Every bank and every corporation is a republic, managed by boards and officers selected by stockholders. The United States of America is a great corporation, in which the stockholder is the voter.

"Another error that is being made by public speakers, newspapers and radio commentators is the frequent reference to the fight of the democracies against the axis powers. Would it not be better to speak of the United Nations opposing the axis powers? I know of no democracy that is fighting the axis powers.

"In setting up this republic, the fathers provided for a government of three co-ordinate branches with no subordinate branch. Let each co-ordinate branch keep its hands off the sacred prerogatives of the other. Only by so doing can this republic be preserved."

"THE AMERICAN PEOPLE are said to be too complacent about the present conflict. One means of removing this complacency is to make it clear that we intend not only to win the war but to win the peace. We won the war in 1918 but lost the peace that followed."—Dr. John K. Norton.

"The dominant passion of the Japanese today is their hatred of the white people of England and the United States. There can be no compromise with them. We must get rid of them now."—Congressman John E. Rankin of Mississippi.

LET US NOW RID OUR COUNTRY OF ALL JAPS

REPRESENTATIVE WALTER M. PIERCE

Speaking in the House of Representatives of the United States of America Congress, July 27, on "The Japanese Question," Representative Walter M. Pierce of Oregon referred to, and was given permission to have printed in the Congressional Record, a splendid address by a Major Wilbur. The editor of The Grizzly Bear wrote Representative Pierce, commending him for his stand on the Jap question, and requesting permission to publish his remarks and the Major's address.

In the course of a favorable reply, Representative Pierce expressed the opinion: "Disfranchisement of the Japanese will be absolutely necessary as a culminating effort in this war. Of course, there will be a lot of fanatical, uninformed people who will try to prevent this procedure, but I think it is necessary for the preservation of American ideals."—Editor.

A LITTLE MORE THAN FORTY YEARS ago the Supreme Court of the United States decided in a celebrated case that a child of Chinese parents or Japanese parents who could not become citizens of this country would be a citizen if born in the United States. In other words, Japanese or Chinese children born in the United States were held to be citizens. There was a divided opinion of the Supreme Court. Justice Harlan and Chief Justice Fuller rendered a dissenting opinion.

"Since some thirty years ago such citizenship rights have been a very live question on the Pacific Coast. I was a member of the Oregon Legislature nearly thirty years ago, at which time the first such citizenship and property laws were introduced. The national administration under the leadership of President Wilson asked Oregon not to pass them, but they became the law in our State.

"The author of those laws [Major Geo. R. Wilbur] is now an attorney in Portland, Oregon. He has recently delivered a remarkable address before an American Legion Post [Hood River County] in Oregon." The address, in part, follows:

"Before Pearl Harbor there were persons and groups in this country, in considerable numbers though in the minority, whose views and actions were such that those who are now our enemies had some reason to doubt that the American people would arrive at a unity of thought and effort sufficient to successfully resist their aggression upon us. To me that situation was strange and deplorable. But I believe that passed with the traitorous attack on Hawaii. It seemed to take action of that kind to unmask the international bandits and let them stand forth before doubting Americans in all their grinning hideousness. . . . I think it is now correct to conclude that our Nation is united as never before and that substantially full and earnest effort of our people is being exerted to the preparation for waging a war of extermination of those who have so boldly threatened our continued existence.

"When I say 'substantially all,' I am not overlooking the so-called fifth columnists. We know we have them. . . . Possible danger within our borders from the other enemy, the 'Sons of Heaven,' has been all but eliminated by the courageous plan of the Army in evacuating them from their advantageous positions in critical areas to inland points under strict surveillance.

"This brings up a subject which is or should be of great interest to the people of the Hood River Valley because of the large Japanese population recently residing there. And it should be of great interest to the entire Nation because so many of these Asiatics now claim citizenship under a misinterpreted clause in our Constitution. And such interest should be magnified when it is realized that in the Hawaiian Island native-born of Japanese ancestry are, or soon will be, in a position to control the vote there.

"America will not have solved this dangerous situation when Japan has been defeated in this war, as she will be. There is an antagonism between us that will not cease when the war is over. It is bound to continue, indeed will become aggravated. Before the present conflict commenced there were three elements in our coun-

BUILDERS OF MODERN SAN DIEGO HORTON, UBACH, BABCOCK, SPRECKELS

Dr. Peter T. Conmy, Grand Historian N.S.G.W.

(WRITTEN ESPECIALLY FOR THE GRIZZLY BEAR MAGAZINE.)

SAN DIEGO IS TODAY ONE OF THE largest cities in California, ranking fourth in population, being preceded only by Los Angeles, San Francisco and Oakland. It is famed as a beautiful city, and the fact that it is an industrial city causes one to look back and search for the names of those responsible for the building of the modern city. San Diego, the first of the Franciscan missions, was founded July 16, 1769, by Father Junipero Serra. Then followed a few years of development, after which Mission San Diego fell into decay. This was particularly true after secularization set in. In 1840, when the diocese of the two Californias was created, it was intended that Bishop Garcia Diego should live at San Diego, which was designated in the papal bull as his episcopal city. After reaching there, however, the bishop found the place in so desolate a condition he removed at once to Santa Barbara. This is cited to show that the modern San Diego developed separately and independently, and not from the settlement in the mission period.

During the early years of the American period an Diego was a sorry place, indeed. The influx of people into the state had brought an increase in population, but little progress was made until the arrival of Alonzo Erastus Horton, April 15, 1867. This man brought to San Diego with him the most interesting background. He was born of very poor parents at Union, Connecticut. His father was blind and this made it necessary for the boy to start work at a very early age. Alonzo Horton was, therefore, a self-made man, in every sense of the term. He became a boatman on Lake Ontario and later learned the cooper's trade. At the age of twenty-four his doctor advised him he was suffering from tuberculosis and that he should move west. Accordingly, he went to Wisconsin, where he engaged in lumbering. The year 1849 found him in St. Louis. Later he returned to Wisconsin, where he engaged in real estate, laying out the town of Hortonville and making a fortune from the sales.

In 1851 Horton came to California and settled first at Pilot Hill, El Dorado County. In 1856 he moved to New York, but returned to California in 1861 and engaged in general merchandising in San Francisco. It was not until 1867 that he heard of the possibilities of San Diego. He proceeded there to look the place over, and at once recognized the city must be built near the water. Within a week or so after his arrival he had had an election held for trustees of the pueblo lands and then, at a public auction under the auspices of those officials, he purchased 960 acres for $265. That was the beginning of the development of modern San Diego.

Horton recognized the importance of both water and land transportation. Accordingly, in 1868 he built a wharf at a cost of $45,000 at what is now the foot of Fifth street. He brought General Rosecrans to San Diego at about this same time to look over the possibilities of bringing in a railroad. Still later he built the Horton House, now the site of the U. S. Grant Hotel, which cost $150,000 and had ninety-six rooms. In 1872 he built a two-story brick building at Third and "D" streets, which was used as a City Hall. He carried his bank account in San

The Sixty-fourth (Lake Tahoe 1941) Grand Parlor of the Order of Native Sons of the Golden West designated San Diego, where California began, as the place for holding the 1942 official statewide Admission Day, September 9, celebration. The occasion will commemorate not only the ninety-second anniversary of the admittance of California into the Union, September 9, 1850, but also the four hundredth anniversary of the discovery of California by Juan Rodriguez Cabrillo, September 28, 1542, and the four hundred fiftieth anniversary of the discovery of America by Christopher Columbus in 1492. The people of San Diego, under the leadership of Albert F. Mayrhofer, Deputy Grand President of the Native Sons and President of the California Historical Association, have arranged a celebration that will attract nationwide attention to the Golden State. The accompanying article refers to the builders of modern San Diego, the celebration city.

Francisco until a bank was established at San Diego.

Horton was not a mercenary man. He was charitable and liberal. In all, he gave away twenty-two blocks of land. He was particularly generous to religion and donated lots for the establishment of churches for almost every denomination that asked. As a result of his endeavors San Diego had a population of three thousand within three years after his arrival there. Horton lived in San Diego until the end of his days, which carried him into the twentieth century, and he died at the age of ninety-five. Smythe says of him (History of San Diego p. 38): "There were able men in San Diego when Horton came, and able men elsewhere in California, but they did not know that the time had come to make a new San Diego where the city now stands."

Horton was a builder in the material sense. He realized, however, that a city is more than a physical expression. He knew, too, that he must gain the goodwill of those already there. For that reason he attended mass in the Catholic Church the Sunday after his arrival and, noting the poverty of the collection, dropped a five-dollar gold piece into it. Thus he became acquainted with another great builder of San Diego, the Reverend Father Antonio Ubach, who became a supporter of the projects ventured by Horton. The resident Spanish and Indian people naturally followed the attitude of their priest toward Horton, and so progress was made. In a letter to the present writer, Albert Mayrhofer says "Father Ubach, next to Fray Junipero Serra, was the outstanding churchman of California."

Ubach, the moral and spiritual builder of San Diego, was born in Spain in 1835. He came to America in his youth and studied at Cape Girardeau College in Missouri. Seeking a missionary life, he became a priest in the Diocese of Monterey. He received his naturalization papers at Los Angeles in 1859, and in 1866 the Bishop of Monterey appointed him pastor of San Diego. Heretofore there had been a succession of pastors; now there came one who made the church in San Diego his life's work. A young man of thirty-one when he went there, he died an old man of seventy-two in 1907. In addition to the mission, which was about six miles out from San Diego proper, an adobe church had been built in 1858.

Father Ubach started the building of a new brick structure. The cornerstone was laid in 1869, but the edifice was never completed, because the new city, known then as Horton's Addition, was attracting the people away from what is now called Old Town. Accordingly, Father Ubach set to building a church, known as St. Joseph's, in the new city. At first a wooden structure was built, followed by the present brick church, which was completed in 1894. He opened a school in 1884, and a hospital in 1890. In addition to these enterprises he always retained a deep interest in the welfare of the Indians, and it was the influence which he exercised over them and over the people of Spanish descent that promoted harmony between these groups and the American settlers and brought about the fine spirit of the modern San Diego. Clergymen of other denominations were also active in developing San Diego. However, as Father Ubach's flock was the largest numerically, and as his residence there outstretched the sojourn of any of the others, he is entitled to the honor of being listed as the spiritual builder of modern San Diego.

As San Diego grew in population, as developments progressed under the leadership of Horton, the place came to face a serious problem, namely, that of a water supply. The San Diego River, which supplied sufficient water in the mission period, was now tapped by farmers above the city and by the El Capitan Indian Reservation and was dry before it reached the city. In 1873 a water company was formed by Jacob Grandyke and operated an artesian well, the water from which was not good. In 1884 the San Diego Flume Company was organized. Its plant was ready by 1889 and water was brought into the city by a flume which extended into the mountains for thirty-five miles.

In 1884 E. S. Babcock settled in San Diego and gave great thought and study to the water problem. He recognized that the reservoir of the San Diego Flume Company was not large enough for a permanent supply. He saw, too, that a large amount of capital would be needed to insure a stable supply. To this end and purpose he interested John Diedrich Spreckels, oldest son of a wealthy San Francisco family who had settled in San Diego, in the water question. Spreckels made a contract with the Southern California Mountain Water Company by which the water of that company was brought to San Diego. In this way a water supply for a city of one hundred thousand persons was assured. In addition to his efforts in behalf of a water supply, Babcock was also identified with the street railway movement and the development of Coronado. Spreckels may be said to have been the developing capitalist of modern San Diego. Babcock was a brilliant man, but lacked wealth. Spreckels had the wealth and followed the suggestions of Babcock, so these men complemented each other, one giving the ideas and the other furnishing the necessary capital.

It was, therefore, through the efforts of Horton, the engineering of Babcock and the capital of Spreckels that the modern San Diego developed. The spiritual building of a score of clergymen led by Ubach gave a morale and esprit de corps to the population and promoted civic cooperation between the Spanish and the American groups, all of which likewise contributed to the building of a great, modern, twentieth-century American city.

"AMERICAN'S CREED"

September 17 is Constitution Day. So, at the suggestion of Past Grand President Gladys E. Noce, state chairman, and Margaret A. Kerr, Californiana Parlor No. 247, of the N.D.G.W. Grand Parlor Americanism Committee, the "American's Creed" is here presented:

"I believe in the United States of America as a Government of the people, by the people, for the people; whose just powers are derived from the consent of the governed; a democracy in a republic; a sovereign nation of many sovereign states; a perfect union, one and inseparable; established upon those principles of freedom, equality, justice and humanity for which American patriots sacrificed their lives and fortunes. I therefore believe it is my duty to my country to love it; to support its Constitution; to obey its laws; to respect its flag; and to defend it against all enemies."

DO WE?

(CLARENCE M. HUNT.)

Being muchly concerned about the future, as well as the present, welfare of California, and being thoroughly convinced that, unless the "seed of the sun" be entirely uprooted, the Japs will, following the present armed conflict, proceed with their "peaceful invasion" and eventually overrun this state, the writer proposes UNITED ACTION TODAY by organizations and individuals actually desirous of preserving California as a paradise of the White Man for all time. TOMORROW, after the war, will be TOO LATE! In the hope of permanently removing the Jap menace, this course of action is advocated:

Dispossess the Japs of every foot of land, rural and urban, to which they now claim title.

Challenge the citizenship of every Jap—his right to exercise in these United States the voting privilege.

Close every Jap-language school, and be certain that it is kept closed.

Do we, or do we not, really want to save this glorious heritage given into our keeping by our Pioneer Fathers and Mothers? If we have the will, this suggested course points the way! What's your answer?

Wm. Simmons and J. B. Leavitt were killed September 20 in an accident at the Carlotta Mine, Sonora, Tuolumne County, that precipitated them several hundred feet down a shaft. Petaluma, Sonoma County, had an earthquake September 8.

Judge Puterbaugh rendered a decision in San Diego September 7 ordering the removal from office of John H. Falk, sheriff of San Diego County, for misconduct in office.

Sheriff Laumeister of San Francisco was arrested September 14 for failing to execute John McNulty.

Best Wishes!

FUNDS FOR PUBLIC SCHOOLS

Sacramento—For the support of California's public schools during the 1942-43 fiscal year, the State Department of Public Instruction August 22 allocated $79,717,195 of state funds to the fifty-eight counties. The apportionment exceeds by nearly a million dollars that of the 1941-42 period.

Of the total, $42,184,178 went to elementary schools, $34,890,867 to high schools, and $2,422,150 to junior colleges. Los Angeles County received more than one-third of the allotment, 29,746,430.

PLACER COUNTY'S SEQUOIAS

In Placer County may be seen a group of the oldest living things on earth, says Ivan H. Parker in the Placer Herald of Auburn, seven Sequoia gigantea trees. They stand at an elevation of 1,000 feet, about sixty miles east of Auburn, and may be easily reached via Forest Hill.

In the group are a number of seedlings. The sequoia, it is said, does not grow seed until it has attained an age of 125 years. The trees in Placer, the most northern grove in California, are estimated to be more than 2,500 years of age.

AN ACT OF NEGLIGENCE

THAT ENDED IN TRAGEDY.

The glow of a single cigaret at sea, according to the Federal Government's Office of Facts and Figures, was the death warrant of a steamer, sunk by a German submarine. This was revealed in a broadcast by a German submarine captain to the German people from Radio Stuttgart. The broadcast was recorded by the Federal Communications Commission.

"The sea was calm, but the night was dark as we lay on the surface," the submarine commander said. "Our lookout on watch had no suspicion that a steamer was near until he saw the rise and fall of a spot of red in the distance. Strange as the light was out there in the lonely sea, he recognized it as a burning cigaret and knew a ship was near. We trailed the ship for six hours and when dawn came torpedoed it."

The submarine officer explained that he satisfied his curiosity about the cigaret by questioning the survivors. He discovered that the cigaret was being smoked on the bridge, not by the sailor on watch, but by another who had dropped by on a chat and a breath of fresh air, and was leaning on the rail and smoking.

TO CHALLENGE CITIZENSHIP OF ALL JAPS

SAN FRANCISCO—THE JAPANESE LEGISLATION Committee authorized by the Sixty-fifth (Hobergs 1942) Grand Parlor of the Order of Native Sons of the Golden West had its first meeting August 8, with the following members of the committee in attendance: Junior Past Grand President Edward T. Schnarr, the chairman, Past Grand President Eldred L. Meyer and Daniel J. Collins. Present also were Grand President Lloyd J. Cosgrove, Grand Secretary John T. Regan and Publicity Director Jerry Scanlon. After much discussion, it was decided:

To appeal "to the United States Supreme Court the complaint filed in the United States District Court by John T. Regan, member of the California Joint Immigration Committee, which complaint was dismissed by the Judge of that Court." [News items relative to the action and the decision herein mentioned may be found in the June 1942 and the August 1942 issues of The Grizzly Bear.—Editor.]

America, which will have as its objective the exclusion of all persons of Japanese ancestry from American citizenship.

"The Native Sons of the Golden West are affiliated with the California Joint Immigration Committee in Federal Court action challenging the legality of the voting rights of the American-born Japanese in our nation today. Former Attorney-General U. S. Webb is and has been the legal counsel for the California Joint Immigration Committee for over twenty-five years. No other California attorney has a greater knowledge of the Japanese problem than he. Past Grand President Seth Millington, one of our state's most brilliant legislators and also recognized as an authority on the Japanese menace, is assisting General U. S. Webb in every way possible.

"The Japanese have never promoted the domestic tranquility of our Nation, but on the contrary, trickery and deception has been their keynote. In the midst of war Japan is still able to have her admirers, the 'intelligentsia,' certain church, peace and trade groups, continue to spread her propaganda in the hope that around the peace table they can secure 'racial equality,' even going so far as to advocate a Japanese immigration quota, thus nullifying our exclusion law of 1924.

"My brother, this is our golden opportunity to prove to the world that the Native Sons of

To exempt "from the payment of this contribution members of the Subordinate Parlors in the United States military services, and that upon receipt of the names of the members from the secretary of their respective Parlors that they be listed as honorary contributors."

To request "the Grand Secretary to forward a list of the current Grand Officers N.S.G.W. to the World Almanac for publication."

Also, the committee approved the following letter, which is to be sent every member of the Order:

"Dear Brother Native Son: The Japanese Legislation Committee of the Native Sons of the Golden West is now putting into effect the purpose of the resolution adopted by the 1942 Grand Parlor, whereby sufficient funds will be raised to prosecute by court action a suit challenging the American citizenship of all Japanese; and, if necessary, to draft and sponsor an amendment to the Constitution of the United States of the Golden West will never cease to fight the Japanese peril until the mikado moves his subjects to other lands. A homogeneous population is necessary to maintain the standards and life of this Nation. We need your help now! To secure new legislation and to bring court action in the United States Supreme Court at Washington, D.C., is costly. Fill out the enclosed slip and return same immediately with your contribution in the enclosed addressed envelope so that the litigation now pending can be brought to a successful and victorious conclusion.

SALUTE TO THE TREES

(HENRY VAN DYKE.)

Many a tree is found in the wood,
And every tree for its use is good,
Some for the strength of the gnarled root,
Some for the sweetness of flowers or fruit,
Some for the shelter against the storm,
And some to keep the hearthstone warm;
Some for the roof and some for the beam,
And some for a boat to breast the stream.
In the wealth of the wood since the world began,
The trees have offered their gifts to man.

CALIFORNIA'S BIRTHDAY PARTY

ADMISSION DAY SAN DIEGO SEPTEMBER 9

SAN DIEGO IS PREPARED FOR A GLORIOUS celebration of the ninety-second anniversary of California's recognition as one of the United States of America—Admission Day, September 9,—under the auspices of San Diego Parlor No. 108 of the Order of Native Sons of the Golden West. San Diego is where California history under the White race began, and California, admitted to statehood without territorial childhood September 9, 1850, is the thirty-first in the galaxy of states. With the Admission Day festivities, which have the full approval of the United States military authorities, will be combined the quadricentennial (four hundredth anniversary observance) of the discovery of San Diego by Juan Rodriguez Cabrillo, September 28, 1542. For the patriotic occasion, the downtown streets of San Diego will be gaily decorated.

The feature event of the celebration will be, of course, the Admission Day parade, which will include military and civilian marching units, mounted groups, bands and drum corps, historical floats, etc. It will be a gorgeous and impressive spectacle, one that will never be forgotten. The reviewing stand will be in front of the Court House, on the north side of Broadway, between Front and Union streets. LOS ANGELES CITY AND COUNTY

FOR THE ONE HUNDRED AND FIFTY-ninth time, Sheldon M. Hayden, instructor in public speaking at Santa Monica Junior College, recently delivered his wellknown address, "Unaccustomed As I Am," on the Los Angeles campus of the University of California.

"Some things to keep in mind," said Hayden, are enthusiasm, sincerity and a sense of communication. As for the first, remember that dead men tell no tales and dead speakers communicate no ideas. Whenever an audience goes to sleep, the first step is to awaken the speaker.

"Emerson said, 'As a man thinketh in his heart, so is he.' We must value sincerity. One should talk with his audience and not at the audience, looking at the experience as something to share with others.

"The basic steps to prepare to deliver a speech are: choosing a subject, then a purpose, gathering material, organizing the material, then rehearsing. Too many speakers trust to divine inspiration, to find that God has neglected them.

"A speech to be immortal does no have to be eternal. The three Bs in public speaking are: be brief, be brilliant and be gone."

LOS ANGELES' BIRTHDAY CELEBRATION.

Early in the morning, one hundred sixty-one years ago this coming September 4, eleven families left San Gabriel Mission for their new home. They were the first residents of the Pueblo of Los Angeles, and the original plot of ground divided that day into eleven sections—one to each family—formed the nucleus of California's present metropolis.

As is its annual custom, the Women's Auxiliary of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce again will have charge of the city's birthday celebration, coordinating the activities of many interested historical groups. Grace S. Stoermer, resident of the Auxiliary and Past Grand President of the Order of Native Daughters of the Golden West, extends an invitation to Native Sons and Native Daughters to participate in the commemoration. Christine Sterling is chairman of the event.

The birthday celebration committee will not, due to war conditions, this year stage the colorful trek from San Gabriel to the Plaza. The main feature of the day's festivities will be a reception in Olvera street the late afternoon of September 4 in honor of the pioneers. There Los Angeles' birthday cake will be cut, and representatives of the old families will be given an opportunity to reminisce.

GROUP INITIATION.

The Los Angeles County N.S.G.W. Parlor—Los Angeles No. 45, Ramona No. 109, Hollywood No. 196, Stephen M. White No. 263, Glendale No. 264, Santa Monica Bay No. 267, University No. 272, Compton No. 273, East Los Angeles No. 277 and Long Beach No. 278—will have a group initiation Monday, September 7, at the meetingplace of East Los Angeles, 4558 1/2 Whittier boulevard, the host of the occasion. "Chefs" Leyva, Nighswonger and Peterson of that Parlor promise something extra-special in the way of refreshments.

The initiatory ceremonies will be conducted by the grand officers, with Grand President Lloyd J. Cosgrove presiding. Others who have signified their intention of paying a visit to the southland and participating are Grand First Vice-president Wayne R. Millington, Grand Second Vice-president Raymond D. Williamson, Grand Third Vice-president Richard F. McCarthy, Grand Secretary John T. Regan and Grand Marshal Hal Bannister. At that time, too, Grand Trustee Walter Odemar will pay his official visit to the Parlor.

FULL CALENDAR OF EVENTS.

Los Angeles Parlor No. 124 N.D.G.W. was on vacation last month. Some fifty members, however, gathered at the home of Alice Hamilton August 22 and enjoyed a luncheon and sewing for the homeless children. Supervising Deputy Ann Schiebusch was the co-hostess. In the late afternoon a U.S.O. party at Hotel Hayward was sponsored. A full calendar of events has been planned for the term of President Juliette DeNubila.

Members of the hospitality committee, Elsie Amidon chairman, will be the hostesses at the September 16 meeting of the Parlor, and refreshments will be served. The homeless children will be remembered when members meet August 19 at the home of Laura and Dora Davis, 5462 Norwich avenue, to sew. A buffet luncheon will be served at noon. Mildred Ripling has again accepted the chairmanship of the sewing group. Each member attending a party contributes fifteen cents for materials, and the day's hostesses provide the luncheon.

Prospective members will be entertained at a breakfast in Ferndell, Sunday, September 27. Chairman Bernice Setterberg says those bringing eligibles will be charged but 35 cents for the meal, while those that come "eligibleless" will be taxed 50 cents.

TWENTY-FIVE-YEAR PIN PRESENTED.

Los Angeles Parlor No. 45 N.S.G.W. had a past presidents night August 13, with Grand Organist Roger Johnson presiding. Among the speakers were District Deputy Woodrow Wade, William Reuter, Frank Frank, Charles Castillo and Gilbert Anderson. August 20, Thomas Golding was presented a twenty-five-year membership pin, Grand Organist Johnson making the presentation address. Owen S. Adams, Michael Botello and Lester Shaw spoke briefly. Watermelons were served after the meeting.

September 4, Los Angeles will, through the courtesy of the Bohemian Distributing Company, have a party at Acme Sequoia Lodge. Admission by ticket only. President William Girard will be the master of ceremonies. September 17 will be past presidents night, and September 24 old-timers night.

THEME LUNCHEON.

The initial session of President Estelle R. Flick as wielder of the gavel for Californiana Parlor No. 247 N.D.G.W. proved a pleasant mid-summer interlude to the several members who met August 11 and discussed plans for the entertainment of Grand President Claire Lindsey on the occasion of her official visit September 15. A theme luncheon, featuring important events in the state's history, has been tentatively accepted as the mode of welcome.

August 27, Mrs. Carmen Troconiz Holliday was hostess to the Parlor at a patio party at

Native Sons of the Golden West

TO THE OFFICERS AND MEMBERS of All Subordinate Parlors of the Native Sons of the Golden West—Dear Sirs and Brothers:

"On September 9, 1942, we Native Californians are particularly concerned, as this date marks the ninety-second anniversary of the admission of California as a free State into the Union. The City of San Diego has been officially designated as the place of celebration, and in addition San Diego is celebrating the four hundredth anniversary of the discovery of San Diego by Juan Rodriguez Cabrillo.

"I urge you all, as Native Sons of the Golden West and all Californians, to participate in this celebration. However, due to conditions arising out of the present emergency, and with a view of preventing in present crowding conditions, it is the plan of the Order to have members from all of the State to make the trip to San Diego, especially for the celebration. I the tax upon would seriously interfere with our all to a considerable degree. However, all stands as a giant among the States; grown in all ways. Along with the gold which drew the attention of the people of the east, it contributes the largest and richest variety of agricultural wealth, cultural developments and industrial activities.

"Further, it is urged that the Parlors in each community promote such services as are usual, in the development of the plans of patriotism upon which the Order is founded. It is suggested that joint committees be appointed, have group meetings of Parlors, and that an active part be taken by such committees, as well as by all officers and members of Parlors, in various ceremonies as are traditional on this momentous day in our state history. Speakers should be named for appearances before civic groups, schools and organizations and all other gatherings.

During September fifty years ago, 1892, three Subordinate Parlors were instituted, as follows: Hueneme No. 184 at Hueneme, Ventura County, the 14th, by District Deputy George Richardson, assisted by members of Cabrillo No. 114 (Ventura) and Santa Barbara No. 116. Menlo No. 185 at Menlo Park, San Mateo County, the 5th, by District Deputy W. B. Lawrence, assisted by Grand Vice-president John T. Greany, Grand Secretary Henry Lunstedt and District Deputy Louis P. Powelson. D. E. O'Keefe was the charter president, and E. M. Doyle was the charter secretary.

Tracy No. 186 at Tracy, San Joaquin County, the 29th, by District Deputy F. W. Wurster, assisted by Grand Vice-president John T. Greany, Grand Secretary Henry Lunstedt and District

Deputy Louis P. Powelson, James E. Shields was the charter president, and Henry F. Brink the charter secretary.—C.M.H.

Grateful Appreciation Acknowledged.

San Diego—Carrying out its policy of annually honoring some person or organization that has made an outstanding contribution to the preservation of historic landmarks, San Diego No. 108 adopted August 5 the following resolution, presented by President Paul Cheatham, Past President Joseph C. Kelley, District Deputy Henry W. Hache and Deputy Grand President Albert V. Mayrhofer:

"Whereas, The Order of the Native Sons of the Golden West is founded upon patriotism and loyalty to our State and Nation; and whereas the aims and purposes of said Order are the restoration and preservation of historical landmarks throughout our State; and whereas, San Diego Parlor No. 108 Native Sons of the Golden West feels that it is fitting and proper that it should acknowledge its grateful appreciation to two public-spirited citizens of our county, who have generously preserved the hacienda of Rancho Jamul, and by their hospitality kept alive the history, romance and tradition of the Dons of California; and whereas, San Diego Parlor No. 108 Native Sons of the Golden West deeply appreciates the generous contribution and the spirit of loyalty and service which prompts it, now, therefore, be it

"Resolved, That the members of San Diego Parlor No. 108 Native Sons of the Golden West hereby express to our patriotic citizens, George and Jeanette Daley, our sincere thanks and gratitude for their faithful preservation of the spirit of early California; and be it further resolved, that a copy of this resolution suitably engrossed be delivered by a committee of this Parlor to George and Jeanette Daley, that a copy be spread in full upon the minutes of this Parlor, and that a copy thereof be furnished the press."

The historic landmark referred to in the resolution originally belonged to a Mexican governor of California, Pio Pico, who was in possession of a large Spanish grant when the Americans came in 1846. In 1886 a U.S. patent was obtained on the property, and in 1938 the Parlor marked the adobe house with a plaque. August 30 members of San Diego, with their families and friends, had their annual picnic outing at the 8,000-acre ranch.

Grand Officers Will Visit Wonder-Parlor.

Ventura—The July 28 meeting of Cabrillo No. 114 was dedicated to Santa Barbara No. 116 and at the invitation of President Louis Drapeau. Past President Raymond Romero of that Parlor presided. There was the usual large attendance, and six candidates were initiated. Other visitors were Harry Sweetser, Rudolph Rex and Henry Myers of Santa Barbara, and Grand Trustee Walter Odemar, Deputy Grand President Harvey Kitchen, Earle Magee and Clarence M. Hunt of Los Angeles.

Previous to the meeting a fine dinner, prepared under the supervision of Ed Hearne and Charlie Feraud, was served by the following wives and friends of members of the Parlor: Ada Hearne, Mary Lewis, Juanita Ward, Flo Williams, Virginia VanEvery, Esther Squires, Martha Hammons, Bernice Clark, Dorothy Drapeau, Harriet Woolstill and Betty VanDellen.

Jack Morrison, an oldtime and active member of the Parlor, was honored at the August 18 meeting. A chicken-pie dinner was served, following which five candidates were initiated. Thanks to Ed Hearne and Henry Oliva the boxing affair was a success, and a neat sum was netted for the homeless children. The Parlor's San Diego Admission Day parade feature will be Adolfo Camarillo's Arabian horses. It hopes also to have an orchestra and a marching unit in line.

Cabrillo will have as its guests Saturday, September 5, the grand officers. The occasion will be dedicated to Grand President Lloyd J. Cosgrove, and a large class of candidates will be presented for initiation by the visitors. The meeting, to be held at the Ventura Elk's Temple, will be preceded by a 7 o'clock dinner. The following day a barbecue will be held at the Wren's Nest, near Ventura in the direction of Ojai. All Native Sons are invited to both affairs.

Native Daughters of the Golden West

TO THE OFFICERS AND MEMBERS of Subordinate Parlor, Native Daughters of the Golden West—Dear Sisters:

"Very soon we will be privileged to honor the ninety-second birthday of California, the 'brightest star of the Union,' and as we celebrate we are reminded of the story of our Golden State's entry into the sisterhood of commonwealths.

"Senator Stephen A. Douglas had prophesied that if Congress did not take action, the people of California would act for themselves; and being a sturdy people, they did just this. At the next session of Congress, 'duly elected' Senators John C. Fremont and Dr. William M. Gwin and Representatives Edward Gilbert and George W. Wright arrived in Washington with a Constitution. Troubled times in California came with it. Progress with government, Statehood, a victorious 9th, 1850, Pringle Fillmore papers proclaimed admission in of these United States. While still young, it stands as a giant among the States; grown in all ways. Along with the gold which drew the attention of the people of the east, it contributes the largest and richest variety of agricultural wealth, cultural developments and industrial activities.

"Since 1887, the Native Daughters of the Golden West have joined with our brother Order in perpetuating the birthday of California as a holiday, for the observance of pioneer customs and traditions, and to keep alive the romance of the 'days of '49.' This year the City of San Diego has been designated as the official city for celebrating.

"May our people always be true to the great principles of liberty, exemplified in California's admission to the Union as a free State.

"Sincerely and fraternally yours, and patriotic floats, etc., the feature of the day, will be followed by a civic luncheon. Reservations for the luncheon must be made with Secretary Helen Croom, 1231 Thirteenth street, not later than September 5.

Officers of the Parlor, with Lena Baines as president, were installed July 28 by Deputy Doris L. Haffner, assisted by Anita Garrett, Gertrude Farwell and Elsie Frank. Supervising Deputy Eugenia Smith was the honor-guest. Helen Croom favored with vocal selections, and numerous gifts were exchanged.

Mrs. John Davidson, whose name is on the Grand Parlor Honor Roll, gave an interesting talk on the first olive tree planted in California and still thriving at Mission San Diego de Alcalá. John Davidson, curator at Serra Museum, gave a vivid description of the raising of the first United States of America Flag in California, and Henry Hache conveyed the best wishes of San Diego No. 108 N.S.

Marker Placed at Old Mill.

Middletown—At impressive ceremonies July 26, Clear Lake No. 134 placed a marker at what is now known as the McKinley Mill, originally a sawmill, built in 1867. It was torn down and reconstructed in 1874, was destroyed by fire the following year, and was rebuilt by Andrew Rocca in 1886. In 1889 the mill was purchased by George McKinley, and from 1906 to 1928 supplied Middletown with electricity.

Later in the afternoon, on Mount Saint Helena, the Parlor replaced the restored toll rate list at the old Lawley Tollhouse. John Lawley built the tollroad in 1866, and also erected the tollhouse and gate, operated by Molly Patten. Much early California history is centered about this famous old road, now a state highway.

Clear Lake observed its fortieth anniversary August 6 at a tea given by Cora Herrick. In addition to Mrs. Herrick, financial secretary of the Parlor, the surviving charter members are Treasurer Addie Penney, Deputy Bertha Brookings, Belle Farmer, Anna Ferrill, Mary Bolyard and Ada Larsen.

An interesting program, including an impressive flag drill by members of Las Flores, followed. Supervising Deputy Christine Jensen and Deputy Melba Root were in attendance also.

August 17, members of Coalinga, with their families and invited guests, spent an enjoyable evening at the Coalinga Sulphur Baths. After the swimming party the group assembled at the home of Mrs. P. The stations were marked by quaint green windowboxes, which held deep pink geraniums. "Not till each loom is silent

And the shuttles cease to fly

Will God unfold the pattern

And reveal the reason why.

The dark threads are as needful

In the Weaver's skillful hand

As the threads of gold and silver

In the pattern which He planned."

try which systematically and persistently sought to maintain relations with Japan and its people according to the most-favored-nation principle. These were, first the State Department, whose practice it is to recognize officially all nations as friendly until diplomatic relations are actually broken, usually only by open warfare. The State Department is blind to anything short of overt acts. . . .

"The second influence was the business interests, those who, always good citizens in every way, practice 'dollar patriotism,' who cannot see trouble ahead for the country because they are blinded by profits from trade.

"The third influence came, and still comes, from certain church elements and religious groups. This is an embarrassing point to discuss, for this is a Christian country and Christians believe in the universal brotherhood of man.

"An alien has no right in the country he visits except by the suffrage of that country. A Japanese is not eligible to become naturalized under United States laws. By treaty we have allowed the nationals of all nations with which we were on friendly terms to trade with us and to visit this country for trade purposes. We have always permitted aliens to come here and settle and live among us, so long as they obeyed our laws and did not otherwise become undesirable. But such right was never a vested right and could be revoked at any time. Some years ago it was discovered that Japanese were settling on the Pacific Coast in such numbers, and at such strategic locations and accompanied with such suspicious circumstances, that public apprehension was aroused and various restrictive measures were taken by the States. Finally, the Federal Government restricted further entry to this country. All these measures were taken in the public interest, and but anticipated events which have now happened.

"Those who disagreed with these restrictive measures say that the Japanese who came to our Pacific States were honest immigrants, who came here to carve out new homes, who absolved all allegiance and duty to and connection with the mother country, who have been industrious and law-abiding and have helped to produce and develop; that their children have become citizens by accident of birth on foreign soil, although their parents are not eligible to naturalization; and, in fact, are just like us except for a colored skin.

"Well, all of the foregoing reasons for treating Japan and its people as an equal in the family of nations used to be accepted, unfortunately. It seems strange that we had to wait until its treachery was proven on December 7 to learn the truth, which is that for a generation Japan has been planning for this war, and for ten years last past has been plotting the exact details; that the 'honest immigrants' who came voluntarily to the Pacific Coast were actually subsidized by Japan and sent here to pave the way, to spy, to infiltrate, and become the future fifth column for invasion; that similar immigration was accomplished in Hawaii, in the Philippines, in all of the East Indies, and in Central and South America. In south Brazil there is a Jap colony of 300,000, who are so firmly established and powerful that Brazil finds a problem it is helpless to solve.

"We now know that the Japanese who came to our Pacific shores never did absolve allegiance to the emperor, that many of them were actually spies in the emperor's pay, that many were officers in the Japanese army or navy, that Japanese schools were established and maintained where the youth were taught the language, customs, religion and ideals of the mother country and of the destiny of their race to rule, and that the particular duty of these colonists was to prepare the way on these shores for the ultimate conquest of the Pacific; and in the case of these immigrants' children, they were invested with a so-called dual citizenship, whereby they could claim full American citizenship with all of its advantages and protection, and at the same time remain faithful and obedient as a subject of the emperor, who, they were taught, was all-powerful because he was directly descended from the 'Son of Heaven.' We now know of the vast and far-reaching ambition of the emperor's followers, of the religious fanaticism which accompanies and activates it, of the deep and abiding conviction of the leaders, taught for generations to the common people, of their racial superiority and destiny to rule over other peoples. We now know that their complaints over such matters as restriction of immigration and land ownership, and separation in schools, etc., put into effect within the last generation in Pacific Coast States, on the ground that it was abasing and discriminating, was, mostly, an assumed pose. It was not their pride that was hurt so much as it was the humiliation which came from frustrated plans. If we had not done those few things to stop colonization and infiltration, the Army would have had a much larger task, possibly so large that it could not have been accomplished.

Arthur Henry Lewis, affiliated with East Los Angeles Parlor No. 277 N.S.G.W., was accidentally drowned at Rosarito Beach, Mexico, August 17. Surviving him are his wife and daughter. He was born at Santa Monica, October 26, 1910.

Mrs. Anna Martha Entenmann, wife of Carl F. W. Entenmann (Ramona NS), died August 23, at the age of 48.

"No man is so basely deceived as he who deceives himself. We now know the truth. Japan hates all White men with the hatred that can come from a race of another color toward one more favored, more fortunate, a natural jealousy, aggravated by a conviction of actual superiority and ingrained destiny to rule.

"Knowing these things, let us no longer temporize with a positive menace to our future happiness and safety as a nation. Let us now, while the war is still on, firmly resolve to rid our country of representatives of an alien race who are our enemy and will always be our enemy. A race who are barbaric at heart, in practice, who hold treachery and cruelty as high virtues, who hold force as necessary to success, who despise what we call justice, morality and fair play, who hope and believe that we shall in time be reduced to slavery and they the masters. There can be no temporizing with their philosophy and ideals. We are as far apart as the poles. Let us not mistreat them or harm them, but establish the western Pacific as their eastern boundary and ship their people back home on the first vessels available for that purpose. They are yellow, we are white. We are Christian, they are pagan. We cannot live together, nor can we assimilate them. After what has happened, in the light of our knowledge of them, their background and foreground, I am convinced that we will be derelict to our own best interests if our program in this respect be any less sweeping and final. Ridding ourselves of a menace by compelling them to return to their homeland and to life among their own people, is not criticizable by any reasonable rule of international fair play. And I cannot agree that effective measures to remove dangerous and treacherous aliens from our communities is un-Christianlike."

JAPS' DEPORTATION URGED

Los Angeles—At the twenty-third annual convention of the California Department of the American Legion, the 2,000 delegates adopted resolutions recommending:

That Japs now interned be returned to Japan after the war; that foreign language schools be immediately suppressed; that foreign language publications be compelled to publish parallel English translations; that a constitutional amendment make it impossible for persons of Japanese ancestry to become citizens, regardless of place of birth; that Japs be prohibited from owning or operating any fishing vessel in United States waters.

FRIENDSHIP THE THEME.

The first official visit of Grand President Claire Lindsey in San Francisco was made to Orinda Parlor No. 56 and Las Lomas Parlor No. 72 N.D.G.W. August 18. At a dinner preceding the meeting the table decorations were a red, white and yellow, and the theme of the evening was friendship.

Large baskets of flowers decorated the meeting hall, where approximately 300 members of the Order assembled. Ivy Plummer and Lorraine Lewis presided, and seated with them were Deputies Mary Mahoney and Elvira Re. Orinda conducted the opening and the closing ceremonies, and the initiatory ceremonies were conducted by Las Lomas. Three candidates were initiated. Grand President Lindsey was escorted to her station by a team that carried a long paper friendship chain of red, white and yellow links. Her message was based on friendship.

Among others present were Grand Secretary Allie Thaler, Grand Treasurer Agnes Curry, Grand Trustees Loretta Cameron, Marion White, Laura Tompkins and Elinor Aljets, Grand Organist Mae O'Keefe, Past Grand Presidents Mae Wilkin, Dr. Mariana Bertola, Mae Noonan, Anne Huesen, Orinda Giannini, Mary Bell and Clarice Cook, and Supervising Deputy Kay Jensen. One link in the friendship chain was missing; Grand Marshal Emily Ryan was absent, and all expressed the hope that she will soon be out and round again.

Any member of the Order desiring information, should submit the question in writing to the deputy of the Parlor with which she is affiliated. All members of the Order are invited to attend the afternoon session, when questions relating to the ritual will be discussed.

The object of the school is to afford any member an opportunity to obtain firsthand information about the workings of the Order. Luncheon will be served at the Home to all officers attending the morning session; charge, 35 cents. Reservations must be made early with a deputy. The school promises to be a most interesting and beneficial session.—MARTHA FIELD.

WHY?—"Fellow citizens, do you think it is proper that the American-born Japanese should be permitted to vote by absentee ballots this coming election or any other election that may occur within the duration? Personally, I don't think they are legally entitled to participate. There should at least be some real American challenges to this vote of theirs. They are under the supervision and directing of Gen. DeWitt and his men, having been declared by same as dangerous to America's welfare for the duration. If that is the case why in the name of heaven should they be permitted to vote?"—JACK VAN HORNE, in the Los Angeles Times.

SAN DIEGO ADMISSION DAY CELEBRATION GRAND SUCCESS

(CLARENCE M. HUNT.)

THE ADMISSION DAY CELEBRATION at San Diego, September 9, sponsored by San Diego Parlor No. 108 N.S.G.W. in recognition of the ninety-second anniversary of California's admittance to statehood, September 9, 1850, and the quadricentennial of the discovery of San Diego by Juan Rodriguez Cabrillo, September 28, 1542, was a grand success.

The main feature was a magnificent and most impressive two-mile-long morning parade. Marshaled by Major General Clayton B. Vogel of the United States Marine Corps, the imposing spectacle was headed by army, navy and marine units ranging from massed marching men to cavalry and motorized forces, accompanied by their splendid bands. The Republic's fighting might was displayed to perfection!

Following Uncle Sam's contingent came more bands, marching and mounted civilian units, drum corps, floats, etc., and continuous cheers from the thousands that lined the parade route greeted all participants. The makeup of the parade was published in The Grizzly Bear for September, and therefore is not repeated here.

Parade entry prizes were awarded as follows: Riding or mounted groups — Mission Valley Academy, first; Sheriff's Rangers, second. Marching units — Los Angeles County Native Sons, first; San Diego Old Town group, second. Bands — Bonham Brothers, first; All-American Boys, second. Drum Corps — Hoover High School Girls. Historical floats — Portuguese-American Society, first; Young Men's Institute, second. Ladies' silver mounted — Mrs. Walter Church, first; Jean Church, second. Men's silver mounted — Walter Church, first; Roscoe Hazard, second. Historical mounted — Adolfo Camarillo and his Arabian horses, the entry of Cabrillo Parlor No. 114 N.S.G.W. Best Indian entry — Reservation group, first; Old Town group, second. Best girls' riding outfit — Mission Valley group. Men's plain western mounted — Harry Harness. Women's plain western mounted — Mrs. Harry Harness.

CIVIC LUNCHEON.

After the parade there was a reception, at which the Santa Monica Municipal Band furnished the music. Then came a delightful civic luncheon, attended by approximately 500 persons. Henry U. Emery was the master of ceremonies, and the speakers included Rt. Rev. Msgr. John M. Hegarty, Grand President Lloyd J. Cosgrove of the Native Sons, Grand Vice-president Mary B. Noerenberg of the Native Daughters, Edward H. Dowell and Dr. Abraham P.

DEMAND ACTION!

In the House of Representatives of the Congress of the United States of America, July 27, Representative Carl Hinshaw of California introduced a bill (H.R. 7442) "To promote the defense of the United States by prohibiting the conducting of certain foreign-language schools."

While not specifically referring to the Japanese language schools, hundreds of which were in operation in California prior to Pearl Harbor, this bill will, if enacted into law, prevent the reopening of those schools. The exact wording of the bill, which has been referred to the House Committee on Education, follows:

"Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That this Act may be cited as 'An Act to promote the defense of the United States by prohibiting the conducting of certain foreign-language schools.'

"Sec. 2. As used in this Act—(a) The term 'United States' includes all of the Territories and possessions of the United States, and the Panama Canal Zone. (b) The term 'foreign-language school' means any school which is conducted in any current language other than the English language or such other language or languages as may have been commonly used by the indigenous inhabitants of a State, Territory, or possession of the United States prior to the incorporation or admission of such State into the United States or the annexation, purchase, or acquisition by the United States of such Territory or possession and which is conducted, either wholly or in part, for the purpose of propagandizing, proselytizing, inculcating, or indoctrinating the pupils thereof with, or to, the ideology, the culture, or the racial, cultural, economic, or military superiority, of any race, foreign country, or foreign government.

"Sec. 3. The conducting of foreign-language schools in the United States, as herein defined, is prohibited: Provided, That nothing in this Act shall be construed to prohibit the conducting of schools in which foreign languages are taught or schools approved by a State or Territorial Department of public instruction.

Sec. 4. (a) Whoever shall knowingly hold any proprietary interest in, or contribute to, or shall conduct a foreign-language school as herein defined, is guilty of a felony, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not more than $5,000 or imprisoned for not more than five years, or both. (b) Whoever shall knowingly enroll their minor children or wards in a foreign-language school is guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be fined not more than $5,000 or imprisoned for not more than one year, or both.

"Sec. 5. This Act shall be effective on and from the thirtieth day after its approval."

This is a splendid bill, for it has teeth, and it should have the united support of those who are desirous of permanently ridding this Republic of the Jap menace. Representative Hinshaw has two other bills along the same line (H.R. 6820 and H.R. 6821) before the House Committee on Education, but it is possible the three measures may remain there. So, let us demand action now!—C.M.H.

Nasatir. Among others introduced were Major General Clayton B. Vogel; Brigadier Generals A. L. Howard, Alphonse DeCarro, James L. Underhill, F. P. Hardaway and T. K. Brown; Rear Admiral F. W. Rockwell; Admiral R. S. Holmes, commanding the Eleventh Naval District; Captain H. C. Gearing; Colonels P. H. Ottosen and O. E. Trechter, and Lieutenant Colonel James Scrugham.

In attendance also were Grand First Vice-president Wayne R. Millington, Grand Second Vice-president Raymond D. Williamson, Grand Third Vice-president Richard F. McCarthy, Grand Secretary John T. Regan, Grand Treasurer John A. Corotto, Grand Marshal H. A. Bannister, Grand Organist Roger M. Johnson, Grand Trustees Walter H. Odemar and Louis Bosch, and Past Grand Presidents Charles L. Dodge, Chas. A. Koenig and Eldred L. Meyer of the Native Sons; Grand Secretary Sallie R. Thaler, and Past Grand Presidents Grace S. Stoermer, Hazel B. Hansen and Clarice E. Cook of the Native Daughters.

LEADER STRICKEN.

For the fine celebration, unstinted thanks are due the following, who composed the arrangements committee of San Diego Parlor: Deputy Grand President Albert V. Mayrhofer, general chairman; Joseph C. Kelley, parade chairman; President Paul Cheatham, housing chairman; Eugene Daney Jr., finance chairman; Walter Church, equestrian chairman; Tony Gearhart, provost marshal; L. LOS ANGELES

I COME TO YOU WITH A PLEA, NOT FOR money, but a plea for a great name in California history. Juan Rodriguez Cabrillo, the first White man to step ashore on the present State of California, four hundred years ago next September 28.

Cabrillo, perhaps of Portuguese extraction, had a most interesting career. He came to Mexico at the time of the conquest of Cortes. He was a good soldier, and perhaps a corporal under Cortes. He did priceless work, but did not end his work with the Cortesian conquest of Mexico City. He was with Orozco when the latter made his conquest of Oaxaca. Most of his work was done as the second in command to the most picturesque knight-errant in history, Pedro de Alvarado.

You remember Pedro de Alvarado, whose fame like to picture, because during the time he was mayor of Mexico City, when the natives revolted against the Spaniards in 1520 and when he was the last man left in the city of the Montezumas, not having time to escape because of the bridge having been burned behind him, he became the all-time champion broad jumper in history. His leap of ninety feet cannot be equalled by anyone. I like this story of Alvarado, even though it seems unbelievable, and despite the fact that when I was in Mexico City I myself negotiated the spot with ease—a scant few feet.

Nevertheless, Cabrillo followed the road of Alvarado to Vera Paz, in Guatemala, in Nicaragua, and elsewhere; becoming the admiral of expeditions across the Pacific. It was he who dispatched expeditions across the Pacific. It was he who went with Alvarado on all his adventurous expeditions.

In 1542, when they were off the coast of Mexico on the way northward by sea, they heard of the Mixton war. Alvarado could not forego setting into a fight, and in that fight he lost his life, thereby leaving Cabrillo in charge of the fleet, now under the authority of the viceroy. When Cabrillo undertook his voyage in 1542, here had already been carried out large explorations. Coronado had returned from his famous undertaking. Ulloa and Alarcon had done their work on the lower part of the coast and on the headwaters of the Gulf of California.

Cabrillo landed here in San Diego probably on September 28, 1542,—or on September 29— which, being Saint Michael's Day, he christened the place San Miguel. He remarked that San Miguel was an excellent port, and fine it was, or it sheltered him from a gale for three days. He continued his voyage up the California coast and in the Santa Barbara Channel islands suffered an accident. He gave several of the places unique and picturesque names, and returned from farther north to the Santa Barbara Channel islands, where he died.

But, Cabrillo's fate was an undeserved fate. He had been given a large land grant, encomienda, in Guatemala, which was taken away from him. Worse than all, it was the action of Vizcaino that robbed Cabrillo of his true fame. Vizcaino sailed a half-century after Cabrillo. He was ordered to keep Cabrillo's names, but took advantage of the fact that his pilots were slightly more accurate and, therefore, under the excuse that he could not find Cabrillo's places, he renamed the places, and it is the names that Vizcaino left that have persisted to this day.

California, whose name has been one of the great conjectures for many years, whose name appears in the chivalric novels of the middle ages, and whose name was applied to the entire Pacific Coast from the tip of Lower California to Alaska, is the first name applied to my portion of the present states of the United States except that of Florida.

The discovery of California, perhaps the most desirable region on the face of the earth for the abode of man, came late in the history of the world. The principle cause for this long delay was its isolated position on the globe, remote from the civilization of the east and of the west, and the difficulties in the way of approach in any direction; from the east by high, often snow-covered mountain ranges, by broad, unfordable rivers, trackless forests, and by waterless deserts. Added to these natural obstacles was the presence, scattered all over the continent, of fierce, warlike, native inhabitants. That the feat of crossing the stretch of country was extremely difficult was proved by the experiences of many years, even after the east was entirely civilized. This can be easily seen by recalling the names Fremont, who narrowly escaped cold and starvation, the Donner Party, Death Valley, and the overland wagon. These dangers were not eliminated until the coming of the railroad.

On the west is the Pacific Ocean. Although called "Pacific" by the experiences of Magellan, this great and stormy ocean made the approach to California as dangerous from the west as it was from the east. Let me but mention head winds, scurvy, and the like. But even though men died by the thousands, though ships sank to watery graves, nothing could hold the indomitable spirit of the Spanish navigators, and league by league, each reaching a higher latitude, they made their way up the coast. At last the terrestrial paradise was won.

CALIFORNIA IN THE LIGHT OF HISTORY

DR. A. P. NASATIR

Dr. A. P. Nasatir of San Diego State College, affiliated with San Diego Parlor No. 108 N.S.G.W., was a speaker at the Admission Day civic luncheon in San Diego, September 9. His talk was so thoroughly enjoyed, many privileged to hear it suggested its publication in The Grizzly Bear. Here it is. In responding to the editor's request for permission to publish the address, Dr. Nasatir writes: "I might add that my work as Native Sons history fellow is finally coming to fruition. My book, 'The French in California,' a narrative, and a guide to the archives (source book) of France relating to California, is now in press. I hope it will have a good sale when it appears about the end of the year or early in January."—Editor.

What were the reasons, the motives, the incentives for coming to California? First among these is the imagination, the spirit of adventure, El Dorado, the Strait of Anian, gold, fisheries, pearls, and last, but not least, the Isle of the Amazon, the famous, fabled place of wild women for which California is still famous. It was not until 1849 that California suddenly emerged from comparative obscurity to be the cynosure of world-wide attention. And this was not unusual, for the discovery of gold came at an opportune time. The news of the discovery reached the east just at the time of the announcement of annexation. It caught the country on the rebound from the Mexican War activities, and when the frontier was already abutting the great plains and Rocky Mountain barriers. Europe was in the ferment of its cycle of revolutions of 1848.

However, beyond this California's renown rests upon the artificial bases of extravagant advertising and publicity seeking. It was not the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce with all of its success in advertising California that is new. Its progenitors were Carrillo, Hastings, and above all Waddy Thompson, our well-known ambassador to Mexico, who denied that heaven was better than California. This has been taken up since by the chambers of commerce, the Californians Incorporated; our own San Diego "Heaven on Earth Club" is willing and will be glad to grant to each and everyone of you a million-dollar bond based upon the weather of San Diego. Railroads advertised California to sell their land; the fruitgrowers made "Sunkist" a trade name and medium of advertising value; writers like Bret Hart, Jack London and Harold Bell Wright have given literary promise and prominence to southern California. We have had many striking characters like Stanford, "the Big Four," Huntington, Will Rogers; the movies, the radio, frequent expositions, and better yet, books, letters, personal mouth-to-mouth praise, praise in newspapers, and by word of mouth of the unusual climate, resources and opportunities.

But, as a professor I take exception to the statement that California's renown is based upon artificial bases. There is abundant reason for the widespread interest in California, and its history re-affirms this. First, four hundred years have lapsed—and fifty years exactly after the discovery of America—since the Spaniard first set foot in California. Even before that time California had appeared in picturesque novels, as in "Las Sergas de Esplandian."

California is not one of the "original thirteen colonies." Not one of the thirteen "original" colonies had been christened when California was explored. That was more than one hundred years before Massachusetts was baptized; and the supposed virgin queen, after whom the State of Virginia was named, had not yet been born. Of the forty-eight states of the United States only Florida can lay earlier claim.

California has passed through interesting periods of development. Two hundred twenty-seven years exist between the visit of Cabrillo and the Portola-Serra expedition, during which time the Indian pattern of life persisted, unmodified by Caucasian influences until about a century and a quarter ago.

The California Indians were the most primitive in the world. For instance, they knew nothing of writing and metals; had the most rudimentary government; lived in miserable huts, stark naked, with no cultivation. In other words, life was extremely simple. Then came the Spaniards in 1769, just when the Atlantic seaboard was ready and ripe for revolt. Spain introduced the mission system, gardening, viticulture and horticulture. Of course, cattle raising came to be the real economy. The Spanish period is reminiscent of the past, not of the future. I do not desire to be mean, but the mission system belongs to the middle ages. The land system of California was feudal; the ranchos can be and are likened unto medieval manors. Leisure is the best explanation of life. Our heritage from Spain and Mexico is, however, not to be overlooked—in fact, it is ever present. It has stamped our literature. We are Spanish in color and historical background, just as much as New England is Puritan, as New York is Dutch, or as New Orleans is French.

To say that Spain failed to colonize is ridiculous. Recall the facts that the Spanish language, the music, the guitar, the mission style architecture are still prevalent in California. The Spaniards and Mexicans enriched our language with many words: remind yourself, for example, of arroyo, embarcadero, rancho, corral, the names of places and streets. The Spaniards were the first farmers in California; the first cattle ranchers. And the law—the Spaniards lay claim to introducing mining laws, cattle laws, laws protecting women, and laws protecting property and water rights. The present law of California shows proof of Spanish influence—community property, property of the wife, domestic relations, descents and distribution, and trespassing on land, proceedings in actions—these are examples which may be mentioned. "To California is granted the distinguished privilege of writing in her jurisprudence the common law of England and the civil law of Rome, each the product of a great civilization."

And we cannot overlook the food—the enchiladas, the tamales,—or the fiestas and fandangoes. From the Spaniard the American cowboy inherited his trade—horse, outfit, vocabulary and methods. The Catholic Church, churches and schools are derived from our Mexican and Spanish heritages. And of women, let me quote: "The grace, modesty, and beauty of the women of the time, the admiration of every visitor, the freedom from care, the outdoor life and constant exercise, are the proof of the claim that California had created the Andalusian type of loveliness." Our heritage from the Mexican and Spanish period has made distinct contributions to our speech and the arts of courtesy, formality, kindness, sincerity and devotion, and the men made good husbands. The Spanish families occupy practically the same relation to California as the Puritans to New England, the Dutch to New York, and the English aristocracy to Virginia.

Then came the American emigration and the acquisition of California and the discovery of gold. To be sure this altered the situation in the north, but the southern section remained pastoral. Then came the railroads, the new agriculture, the orange, oil. Today California is one of the ranking states in population, finance, agriculture, mining, commerce, industry, and cultural leadership. This resulted in a spectacular growth. California capitalized on this uniqueness. I do not have to remind you of the use of the word "unusual," but let us look with candor at the facts; at, that is, the so-called "unusual" facts. The climate of California is not matched elsewhere. Its flora and fauna are not duplicated anywhere else. Our agricultural products range from prosaic wheat and cotton to exotic avocados and dates. In industry there are distinctive elements. I need but mention the word "movies." Los Angeles is the only large metropolis in subhumid environment. Water and electric power has been developed in northern California to an extent which challenges the imagination—similarly San Pedro Harbor.

But do not allow the impression to gain that California has no connection with the rest of the west or our sister western states. I do not want to leave the impression that we are different. That is not true. Again let us look at facts straightforwardly. California was discovered in the course of the broad investigation of new world geography which resulted in contemporaneous exploration of Florida and New Mexico, the valleys of the Amazon and the Platte, Chile and the Philippines. California was colonized in a continent-wide strengthening of Spain's northern frontier in America.

The institutions established in California, such as the mission system as used by Spain, were characteristic of Spanish America as a whole.

EARL WARREN for GOVERNOR

Born in Los Angeles County; reared at Bakersfield, where he worked as a newsboy, in the railroad yards and later as a member of the Musician's Union, Earl Warren came up the ladder the American way, by perseverance and outstanding ability. He was graduated from the University of California's School of Jurisprudence in 1914. In 1917, he enlisted in the United States Army and served with the 91st Division during World War I.

Elected District Attorney of Alameda County in 1924, he served three terms in that office and earned the respect of all classes of citizens by his unswerving courage and idealism. Earl Warren's record in public office now covers nearly two decades—a record that stands out year after year as an example of the highest type of public service; the record of a man who never has shirked his duty, who never has dodged an issue, and who never has failed to administer his office fairly and honestly. Earl Warren has one attribute which we need above all others at this time—he has CHARACTER!

Earl Warren, member of Fruitvale Parlor No. 252, Native Sons of the Golden West, is a proven leader, a man with an honest, constructive record, whose word and deeds are respected even by his political foes.

These are days when the Nation and the State require the best guidance, the most astute brains, the most tireless efforts of real patriots, regardless of their political affiliation. There is no room in the Governor's chair for a man who is swayed by every political breeze and whose record is one of promises unfulfilled.

Earl Warren is the logical man to lead us under today's critical conditions. He is the man to bring unity out of the existing chaos at Sacramento. We urge you as a patriotic, intelligent California citizen to vote for EARL WARREN.

"All that is required to convince the thinking citizen that Warren is the logical leader at this time is to give him the clear, unvarnished record of the man as a private citizen and public official."—Irving S. Martin Sr.

JAPS A PERPETUAL MENACE.

"Editor Grizzly Bear: As a Native Daughter of the Golden West whose parents were pioneers who took an active part in the building of this great state, I wish to express my deep appreciation and thorough endorsement of your fine editorials on the Japanese question.

"This writer at one time employed a number of Japanese over a period of several years and closely observed their characteristics, chief of which appeared to be vanity and an overweening pride in their belief of race superiority. To appear to have 'lost face' in any circumstance is to them a tragedy and arouses an endless resentment. They are not in the least conciliatory and will not give in on any point except as a 'blind' to further their work in carrying out their designs.

"If they are allowed to continue their citizenship and their ownership of land, they will always be thorns in the flesh of our democracy.

"The possible financial loss to the relatively few through the dispossession of the Japs should not weigh against positive loss to the many through the perpetual menace of the security of our peace by their retention of citizenship.

"I think the Native Sons and the Native Daughters of the Golden West should stand solidly behind your proposed program as outlined in the September issue of The Grizzly Bear. Sincerely, A NATIVE DAUGHTER OF PIONEER PARENTS," Los Angeles, California.

"WAR IS A CONFESSION of human error or senselessness. It is no glorious outlet for human nature, but a manifest breakdown of human intelligence."—David Lawrence.

LOS AN GELES

CITY AND COUNTY

OCTOBER 10, AT THE UNIVERSITY Club of Los Angeles, 614 South Hope Street, friends of California history will meet at a dinner to celebrate the four hundredth anniversary of the landing of Juan Rodriguez Cabrillo on the shores of Los Angeles County. California is frequently thought of as a young region with history going back only a few short years. It is of interest, then, to note that four full centuries have elapsed since history began to record events taking place on its shores.

Dr. Herbert E. Bolton has made available the Journal of the expedition of Cabrillo which records these events. September 28, 1542, he entered San Diego Bay, called by him the Bay of San Miguel. He was very favorably impressed by the possibilities of this harbor, especially when his little fleet escaped a storm at sea in the shelter of its port.

October 7 he visited what is now known as Santa Catalina Island. About the 8th he came to the mainland at the "Bay of Smokes," where he spent a day or two. This sojourn was either at San Pedro or Santa Monica Bay—possibly at both. Subsequently he visited along the Ventura and Santa Barbara coast and the adjacent islands, claiming the area for Spain.

October 10 has been chosen to celebrate this important event in California history. It is appropriate that Dr. Bolton should be the guest-speaker. His reputation on matters relating to the history not only of Spanish California, but of the activities of Spain in both North and South America, is well and widely known. From his great knowledge of the field he has been asked to portray the place of Cabrillo in the perspective of history.

Arrangements for the dinner have been made by the California State Historical Association, with the co-operation of other historical groups, and the details are being handled by committees set up by Albert V. Mayrhofer of San Diego Parlor No. 108 N.S.G.W., president of the Association, prior to his illness. The Parlor, as well as the individual members, of the Native Sons and Native Daughters should honor both Dr. Bolton and the epoch-making event being celebrated.

A reception will be held at 6 o'clock in the lounge of the University Club, and dinner will be served at 6:30. Reservations, at $2 per plate, may be made with the Cabrillo Anniversary Dinner Committee, 910 Black Building, or phone RI-4111, station 246.

"WHERE PARKING IS EFFORTLESS"

UNIQUELY INSTRUCTIVE NARRATIVE.

Most felicitous was the formal opening of Californiana Parlor No. 247 N.D.G.W. for the fall season, and seldom has its president been favored by the presence of so many grand officers and other guests as were assembled around Estelle Flick at the September 15 luncheon in honor of Grand President Claire Lindsey. In addition to Los Angeles County's Past Grand Presidents, Grace Stoermer and Hazel Hansen, and the Grand Vice-president, Californiana's own Mary Noerenberg, there were present Past Grand Presidents Anne Thuesen, Orinda Giannini and Clarice Cook; Grand Secretary Sallie R. Thaler; Alice Lane and Florence Schoneman, former Grand Trustees, and Supervising Deputy Ann Schiebusch.

Also seated at the president's table were President Thais Plaisted of the Gleason Parliamentary Club, speaker for the day; Mrs. E. P. French, president Philanthropy and Civics Club; Mrs. John H. Comby, president Los Angeles Audubon Society and chairman of conservation for the F.C.W.C.; Mrs. Clarence M. Hunt, Mary Foy, Florence Irish and Alphonse Pages. A profusion of red berries and greenery on the mantel and bookcases made a glowing background for the Native Daughters colors in the table decorations, wrought in zinnias, marigolds and white phlox.

As the guests were seated, the curtains of the stage facing the audience were opened upon a tableau depicting the signing of the constitution of the Order, with a group of the younger members in dresses of former years arranged around an old-fashioned parlor table, supporting a hand-painted kerosene lamp, red plush album, et ceteras, including a worn old American flag draped over the piano. Isabel Monroe supplied the album and flag, and out of Florence Schoneman's treasure chest came several of the costumes. Program Chairman Mary Ann Thomas conceived the idea as a tribute to the Order's founding date. Before and during luncheon, Jose Arias' orchestra played well-loved Spanish airs, and accompanied Alphonse Pages in a rendition of favorites.

Miss Plaisted's narrative on California history as presented in monumental sculpture was uniquely instructive; it covered the period from Cabrillo's advent to the present years, and brought to her hearers' attention the wealth of historical art perpetuated in bronze and stone throughout the length and breadth of the state. She also referred to noteworthy examples within the precincts of Los Angeles, first among them being the statue of George Washington at the corner of Temple and Spring Streets, the animal groups in Hancock Park, the statues of Junipero Serra on Sunset Boulevard and Felipe de Neve in the Plaza, the latter being a Californiana project. Another point brought home, was that the majority of the sculptors of these historical subjects were Americans and received their training in this country.

At the business meeting which followed there were many fine and helpful talks by the various grand officers, and the Grand President endeared herself to all by the sincerity of her manner and the excellence of her advice and instruction. Closing a thrilling month, Californiana members refreshed themselves by gathering with the Gertrude Sewing Circle at the beautiful Palos Verdes home of Florence Irish, September 26, when she extended hospitality at her annual party to the Parlor.

GROUP INITIATION.

The Los Angeles County N.S.G.W. Parlors were guests of East Los Angeles No. 277 at a group initiation September 7. First Vice-president Arthur Carmichael presided in the absence of President Lester B. Cox, now a first lieutenant in the United States Army. Sixteen candidates were presented, five for University No. 272, four for East Los Angeles No. 277, two for Stephen M. White No. 263, and one each for Ramona No. 109, Hollywood No. 196, Santa Monica Bay No. 267, Compton No. 273 and Long Beach No. 278. The ritual was exemplified by:

Native Sons of the Golden West

UNDER DATE OF AUGUST 31, GRAND President Lloyd J. Cosgrove communicated with all Subordinate Parlors as follows: "Many of our friends are not members of the Order of the Native Sons of the Golden West. Why? Because we fail to do our duty by not inviting them to join."

"The reason advanced by so many when the question is propounded, 'Why are you not a member of our Order?', invariably is, 'Because I haven't been asked.' Upon sober reflection I know you will readily agree with me."

"Many of our available friends should at this time be enrolled in our Order. . . . A little effort on the part of all will materially assist in maintaining the important position which we hold."

The Grand President wants the co-operation of all Parlors and individual members, and to stimulate interest and rivalry he offers to reward Parlors with a $25 war savings bond for every six candidates they reinstate or initiate during October. The names of the new members must be filed with the Grand Secretary by November 15, as on that date the awards will be distributed.

State Flags Given Superior Courts.

Sacramento—Sacramento No. 3, Sunset No. 26 and Sutter Fort No. 241 provided entertainment and sociability for servicemen at the U.S.O. quarters September 11. Philip C. Wilkins welcomed the group and gave a short history of the Order, and Henry Theille gave dialect recitations. Jack Rose and Steve Ceccerelli furnished music for dancing, and Marion Menier, the soloist, "brought down the house" with "Dough Boy" and other selections. The joint arrangements committee included Ulric L. Trussell, J. F. Didion, Frank Lafferty, John J. Hamlyn and L. P. Ferron.

September 14, Sacramento and Sunset Parlors presented California State (Bear) Flags to the

The Parlor's attractively-costumed orchestra furnished music, and everyone had a good time. Fifty-Year Emblem Presented.

San Bernardino—William Edwin Keir, who joined Arrowhead No. 110 December 2, 1891, was presented a fifty-year membership emblem by the Parlor September 16, Past Grand Walter D. Wagner making the presentation address. Many of the oldtimers were in attendance, reminiscences were related and refreshments were served. September 19, Arrowhead entertained the womenfolks at Crestline. Following supper a vaudeville show was enjoyed. Carl L. Passmore was chairman of the enjoyable evening.

October 24 the grand officers, headed by Grand President Lloyd J. Cosgrove, will pay their annual visit to the Parlor, and at that time a class of at least thirty candidates will be initiated. Preceding the ceremonies a fine dinner will be served, and following them a program of entertainment will be presented.

Supervising Deputy Howard Woodward, a member of East Los Angeles, conducted the good of the Order and introduced the following: Grand Treasurer John A. Corotto; Grand Marshal H. A. Bannister; Grand Trustee Louis Bosch; Walter Smith, Los Angeles Parlor No. 45; Walter Hiskey, Past Governor General Past Presidents Association; District Deputies Woodrow Wade, Robert Pesqueria, Robert Castro, John Bodkin and Tom Gislir; Deputy Grand Presidents Clarence M. White, Ysidro Reyes of Santa Monica Bay, Harold Shoemaker of University, Walter Brown of Compton and Claude Riddle of Long Beach. At the meeting's conclusion refreshments were served by Antonio Leyva, O. E. Nighswonger, Vernon Peterson and their "gang."

Prior to the group meeting, the grand officers were entertained by the deputies of District No. One at a dinner, arrangements for which were made by Supervising Deputy Howard Woodward and Walter Wells of University Parlor No. 272. In attendance, in addition to those heretofore mentioned, were Sheriff Eugene W. Biscailuz, Frank Hoffman, Secretary Willard Allen of Los Angeles Parlor No. 45, Moritz Rosenthal and J. W. Keating.

REORGANIZED.

The Los Angeles County N.S.G.W. and N.D.G.W. Homeless Children Committee met September 18, with Vice-president John Bodkin presiding, for the purpose of reorganizing and planning a program. The following officers were selected:

Deputy Grand President Bernard Hiss, University Parlor No. 272 N.S.G.W., chairman; Grand Vice-president Mary Noerenberg, Californiana Parlor No. 247 N.D.G.W., and Grand Trustee Walter Odemar, Ramona Parlor No. 109 N.S.G.W., vice-chairmen; Nell Brown, La Reina Parlor No. 267 N.D.G.W., secretary; Flora Holy, Los Angeles Parlor No. 124 N.D.G.W., treasurer.

Many matters were discussed, and it was decided to send out a Christmas appeal for funds. Taking an active interest in the proceedings, in addition to the officers, were Past Grand President Hazel Hansen, Verdugo Parlor No. 240 N.D.G.W.; Supervising Deputy Howard Woodward, East Los Angeles Parlor No. 277 N.S.G.W.; Grace Norton, Los Angeles Parlor No. 124 N.D.G.W.; District Deputy Robert Pesqueria, Los Angeles Parlor No. 45 N.S.G.W., and Ward McConnell, Ramona Parlor No. 109 N.S.G.W. The Committee will meet at 1832 South Hope street October 8, Los Angeles Parlor No. 45 N.S.G.W. donating the use of its meeting-place.

ESCORT OF WISHES.

Canoga Park—Following a dinner, Topanga Parlor No. 269 N.D.G.W. was visited officially by Grand President Claire Lindsey September 14. Other visitors were Grand Vice-president Mary Noerenberg, Grand Secretary Sallie Thaler, Supervising Deputy Ann Schiebusch, Deputy Eugenia Smith, and Past Grand Presidents Grace Stoermer, Orinda Giannini, Hazel Hansen and Clarice Cook. The hall was decorated in the colors of the Order, and all officers were attired in white formals.

President Della Driscoll presided and three candidates were initiated. The visitors gave inspiring talks and expressed appreciation for the Parlor's work. In a very pretty escort of wishes by the Parlor officers, the Grand President was given a gift of silver. For the first time in its history Topanga had four Past Grands as visitors.

UNIVERSITY PARLOR NEWS.

University Parlor No. 272 N.S.G.W. will be officially visited by Grand Trustee Walter Odemar October 21. There will be an initiation, and a class of at least eleven candidates is hoped for, so that the Parlor may claim three war bonds from the Grand Parlor. Jack Burns and Jack Hughes are co-chairmen of membership for the evening.

The Parlor will be ten years old October 25, and to celebrate the occasion President Harold Shoemaker has appointed a committee, with District Deputy Woodrow Wade as chairman, to arrange for a Hallowe'en dance at 1832 South Hope Street, Saturday, October 31. The admission fee will be fifty cents per person. University has a record of which its members are mighty proud.

PICNIC FOR SERVICEMEN.

September activities of Los Angeles Parlor No. 124 N.D.G.W.—the sewing party for the homeless children, the breakfast in Fernell for eligibles, and participation in many functions—were but a fair sample of what to expect in the future. Members are selling war stamps and bonds, saving grease, selling cards and wrapping papers, and sending out tiny doll-sized aprons with a verse suggesting waists be measured and the amount be returned in pennies. Grace Norton and Lucile Duncan were the Parlor's representatives at a two-day conference on childhood and youth in wartime.

The home front, a new committee this term, has been making lap robes for the boys who saw action at Pearl Harbor and are now stationed at the hospital at Norco. October 4 the committee will sponsor a trip to the hospital, whence a group of the boys will be taken to Riverside for a picnic. Jeanne Clos heads the committee and Edna Neikirk will be chairman of the day.

October 24 the monthly sewing party will be held at the home of Lillian L. Carey, 137 East Avenue 43. Luncheon at noon. The committee in charge: Louise Crawford, Rose Hughes, Agnes Hodges, Marguerite Hickey, Lillian F. Carey, Beverly Hart, Emma Biles and Gertrude Allen. The grandmothers of the Parlor are planning an old-fashioned potluck dinner for October 21. Dahlia Vucovich and Rose Hughes are in charge.

SEEKS A BOND.

Compton—The "Susie Q" party put on by Compton Parlor No. 273 N.S.G.W. September 17 was a success, netting $130. District Deputy Woodrow Wade, the master of ceremonies, was assisted by President Walter Brown, Bob Tarleton, Don Hulbert, Walter Zuckweiler, "Poncho" Tarleton, Roy Hood, George Kent, Lloyd Kent, Walter Hopcraft and Chas. Childers.

Compton seeks one of those victory bonds the Grand Parlor is offering, so a class of six or more candidates will be initiated October 15. President Brown, First Vice-president Tarleton and Second Vice-president Hulbert constitute a roundup committee, and they want the assistance of all members of the Parlor.

DISAPPEARING PARTIES RESUMED.

Grand President Claire Lindsey paid an official visit to East Los Angeles Parlor No. 266 N.D.G.W. September 16. The meeting was preceded by a well-attended dinner at which Mrs. Lindsey and the following Native Sons and their wives were introduced: Grand Trustee and Mrs. Walter Odemar, Past Grand President and Mrs. Eldred Meyer, Deputy Grand President and Mrs. Clarence M. Hunt. "Homeless Children" was the evening's theme and the placecards were pink and blue baby bassinets and buggies.

At the meetinghall the color scheme was carried out with large baskets of pink gladioli and blue delphinium, and the officers were gownned in white formals, with corsages of pink and blue. President Melissa Wright presided and two candidates were initiated. The Grand President was given a box of baby things to help make up layettes for newly-adopted babies, and she was the recipient also of two pieces of silver. Among the many other visitors were Grand Vice-president Mary Noerenberg, Supervising Deputy Ann Schiebusch, and Past Grand Presidents Clarice Cook, Hazel Hansen, Orinda Giannini, Anne Thuesen and Grace Stoermer.

The ways and means committee of East Los Angeles has again started the annual disappearing parties, the first being held September 20 at the home of Esther Molina. Games were played, refreshments were served, and the treasury was enriched about $10. Mrs. Molina was assisted by Pauline Eisenman and Philomena Wooster.

By far the most popular spot in San Diego during the Admission Day festivities was the openhouse headquarters operated jointly by University Parlor No. 272 and East Los Angeles Parlor No. 277 N.S.G.W. The three Bills of Cabrillo Parlor No. 114 N.S.G.W. (Ventura) - Musso, Flores and Solas—contributed much to the success of the party with a generous supply of music. District Deputy Woodrow Wade, the director of activities, was ably supported by Supervising Deputy Howard Woodward, John Rogers, Armond Pehau, Allan Butler, Tony Leyva, Philip Soloway, Ray Brown, Harry Harpin, Arthur Carmichael and Hyman Spitz of East Los Angeles, and Ernest Wade, Orrison Wade, Fred Crebs, Walter Wells, John Winslow and Oliver Kent of University.

Long Beach — Long Beach Parlor No. 278 N.S.G.W. maintained Admission Day headquarters at San Diego and there were numerous callers. Dispensing hospitality were President Claude Riddle, Chester French, John Johnston, Martin Moxley, Alen Linkletter, Carl Symonds, Norman Johnston and Harvey Higley.

The N.S.G.W. Deputy Grand Presidents Association of District No. One had a meeting August 27 at which Supervising Deputy Howard Woodward presided. Matters pertaining to the welfare of the Order were discussed at length, after which Los Angeles Parlor No. 45 served refreshments.

Los Angeles Lodge No. 99 B.P.O.E. entertained several Native Sons September 2. Exalted Ruler Frank Lorenzi extended a welcome. Past Grand President Joseph Knowland gave a fine talk on California landmarks, and Past Grand President Eldred Meyer presented a California Sate (Bear) Flag to the Lodge. Other speakers were Leo Youngworth, Sheriff Eugene Biscailuz, Grand Trustee Walter Odemarr, George Cuthbertson and Walter Gilman. No. 99's glee club and symphony band provided music, and the occasion was concluded with a pleasing vaudeville program.

Mrs. Claire Lindsey of San Francisco, Grand President of the Order of Native Daughters of the Golden West, was the guest-speaker at the N.S.G.W. Friday Luncheon Club September 11. She was introduced by Superior Judge Ruben Schmidt. Other Native Daughters in attendance were Grand Vice-president Mary Noerenberg, Grand Secretary Sallie Thaler, Past Grand President Grace Stoermer and Supervising Deputy Ann Schiebusch.

Grand Parlor Historical Landmarks Committee and the Santa Monica Historical Society, and the program will be enlivened by selections from the Santa Monica Municipal Band. At 8 o'clock sharp there will be initiation, and that will be followed, at 9 o'clock, by a two-dollar show. Fifty cents will provide a seat at both the supper table and the show.

The past presidents of Ramona will have their annual banquet at 6 p.m. of Thursday, October 22, at El Alisal, 200 East Avenue 43. Dean Edwin A. Meserve will preside. Reservations should be made with Secretary Ray Howard, MU-5905 or CA-15749.

LOS ANGELES—THE SCHOOL OF INSTRUCTION sponsored by the Parlors of Santa Barbara, San Diego, Los Angeles, Orange and San Bernardino Counties attracted many members and was highly successful. The deputies of Districts Nos. 31, 32, 33 and 34, assisted by the presidents and marshals of the Parlors, exemplified the ritual, Evelyn Wilson of Verdugo No. 240 acting as president, and Hazel Poole of Long Beach No. 154 as marshal.

Margaret Kerr, district chairman Grand Parlor Americanism Committee, advised that the Communist Party is urging its followers to take the air-warning posts, and said members of the Order should volunteer for those responsible positions. Past Grand Grace Stoerner, chairman Grand Parlor Legislative Committee, reminded there will be many important measures submitted to the electorate at the November election, and urged everyone to vote.

A noon luncheon, to which "outsiders" were admitted, was attended by approximately 200, and the occasion was thoroughly enjoyed. The tables, decorated with choice fresh vegetables from San Bernardino County, carried out a "Food for Victory" theme. Supervising Deputy Ann Schiebusch was the toastmistress, and she introduced as the guest-speaker Justice Thomas P. White of Ramona No. 109 N.S., whose subject was "Patriotism."

"Fraternity furnishes a common ground upon which men and women of all races and creeds can unite," said Justice White in the course of his masterful address that brought forth prolonged applause. "National unity finds its conception and birth in human hearts." Referring to Constitution Day, he continued: "Let us not forget that when America came into being the political philosophy of the time was that there was only one 'divine right of kings'—that our constitutional government, founded on a definite pattern of individual liberty, marked the first nation to make democracy workable. Under the Constitution that has nourished us, we have seen America grow from thirteen poverty-stricken colonies to a great world power with one hundred thirty million people and a standard of living the like of which the world has never known. Let us serve! Let us sacrifice!! Let us unite to keep it!!!"

Other speakers were Grand President Claire Lindsey, Dr. Anna E. McCaughey, chairman Grand Parlor Civic Participation Committee, and Sheriff Eugene W. Biscailuz. Miss Grace Woodrome of San Bernardino favored with vocal selections, and there were several other introductions.

This clear, golden liquid lotion, used regularly, enhances natural loveliness, encourages smoothness, freedom from irritation, relieves chapping. At the meeting following, the officers of the Parlor were installed by Deputy Josephine Brazil, assisted by members of Santa Cruz No. 6. The officers-elect wore gold-colored silk jersey formals and carried "wings for victory," and an escort group of six, in white formals, carried bouquets of red, white and blue blossoms, which were presented President Eileen Hansen as matching streamers were unrolled. SS FELIPE DE NEVE
NAMED FOR THE FOUNDER OF
LOS ANGELES

GRACE S. STORMER
(President Women's Auxiliary Los Angeles Chamber Commerce, Past Grand President Order Native Daughters Golden West.)

While lacking the colorful pageantry to be had in the re-enactment of the twelve-mile trek of the forty-four settlers, the soldiers, the priests and Governor Felipe de Neve from San Gabriel Mission to the City Plaza commemorating the founding of the City of Los Angeles on September 4, 1781,—the one hundred sixty-first birthday celebration this year in one way surpassed any observance yet staged in the city's glorious history.

September 4, 1942, one of Uncle Sam's liberty fleet of merchant vessels was launched at the Terminal Island shipyards of the California Shipbuilding Corporation, and to me was given the great privilege of christening the ship the SS Felipe de Neve. This was an occasion to cheer the hearts of all native Californians, especially in view of the fact that associated with me in the launching ceremonies were Leo Carrillo, Mrs. Fletcher Bowron, wife of our mayor, as matron of honor, and two lovely daughters of California, whose families are listed among the most renowned of our pioneers, Lorenita Forster and Ysabel Marquard, as flower girls.

While this event was perhaps the highlight of the birthday celebration this year, the ceremonies in the City Hall during the morning, and the reception and program at the Avila House and on colorful Olvera Street during the afternoon and early evening were all magnificent and fully in harmony with the importance of this historic occasion.

In former years, attention has been centered upon the march of pobladores, headed by Governor De Neve, to plant El Pueblo de Nuestra Senora la Reina de Los Angeles de Porciuncula (The Village of Our Lady the Queen of the Angeles of Porciuncula) at the plaza, which had been laid out, before that September 4, 1781, upon the banks of the river. Governor De Neve received this year an honor long overdue him, in launching of the ship bearing his name.

Don Felipe de Neve has been called the George Washington of California, which gives perhaps the most accurate description possible of the man we were so privileged to honor by christening the liberty ship with his name. Although history has recorded too little of his private and public achievements, yet it has bequeathed to posterity enough for us to know that, in many striking parallels, Don Felipe de Neve is to be compared favorably with George Washington.

ADMISSION DAY LUNCHEON
Oakland (Alameda County)—The Admission Day observance luncheon sponsored by the N.S.G.W. and N.D.G.W. Parlor of Alameda County September 9 was quite a success. Some 250 persons were in attendance, among them Mayor and Mrs. John Slavich, Brigadier General and Mrs. Wm. Kepner, Past Grand President and Mrs. Joseph R. Knowland, Attorney General and Mrs. Earl Warren, District Attorney and Mrs. Ralph Hoyt, Past Grand President Sue J. Irwin, Grand Trustee Marion E. White, Postmaster Stephen Graham, Mrs. Edward T. Schnarr, Assistant Grand Secretary Irma Murray, Co-chairman Teresa Taylor and Richard M. Hamb. The tables were decorated with miniature covered wagons, mission bells, flags and dahlias.

Junior Past Grand President Edward T. Schnarr was the master of ceremonies, and the speakers were Past Grand President Lewis F. Byington and Brigadier General Wm. Kepner. Charles Fredericks, accompanied by Eva Garcia, sang "Where Else But Here" and other selections. In the evening a grand ball was held in the Oakland Civic Auditorium.

"SHOULD THE JAPANESE succeed in gaining control of the lives and fortunes of the million peoples in the wide Orient, it would be possible for them to regiment manpower in such a way there could be no peace, without submission, for large areas of the world including the United States."—Bishop Edwin F. Lee of the Methodist Church.

MAIL EARLY—Christmas remembrances for servicemen abroad or at sea should be mailed between October 1 and November 1, otherwise they probably will not reach their destinations until after Christmas.

"The first and best victory is to conquer self; to be conquered by self is, of all things, the most shameful and vile."—Plato.

Eighty guests attended the reception and dinner that followed the beautiful ceremonies. The couple honeymooned in Santa Barbara, and are now residing in San Francisco.

CALIFORNIA

We must not overlook the troupe with the north Pacific area. California as a name was once applied to the area from Cabo de San Lucas to Alaska. California, it must be admitted, was occupied because of the Russian expansionist activities and encroachment from the north. California was a base for voyages to Nootka Sound and to the Philippines. It was a place where Spanish navigators could stop to obtain green vegetables to help cure scurvy and to revictual. When Fort Ross was founded, California was brought within the sphere of Russia's active interest. The first American visitors came by sea via the famous sea otter and hide and tallow industries. The British advance across Canada brought them in touch with California.

In the American period the development of California has been part and parcel of a larger movement. Texas, Oregon and Utah, like California, had infiltration before annexation. Gold rushes, too, augmented the settlement of most of the Rocky Mountain west. In the cattle industry the Spanish style is found also in Texas. The transcontinental railroads brought us closer and welded a stronger union, and the recent population increase, reclamation projects, and expansion and diversification of industry are part and parcel of the larger American development.

California's peculiarities are overshadowed by likenesses first to the other provinces of northern Spain, — the Spanish borderlands — to the several Pacific coast communities that were affected by the international contest for the northern Pacific, and finally to all the states carried forward in the flood of the westward movement.

But, I hasten to add that ever since 1849 California has not merely been representative, but the leading representative of the west. California has also taken a leading part in western development. For example, the British Columbia gold rush was aided by an overflow of population and business from California. Nevada silver has been developed by California capital and labor. The railroads were brought to the coast and Boulder Dam was built largely through the lead and aid of California.

The color and glamour that so many see in the history of California may be attributed largely to the spectacular variety of the actors, events and experiences, and the rapid tempo of change unquestionably helps to capture attention.

Thus it is with pride and glory that we here today celebrate the four hundredth birthday of the discovery of Alta California and its ninety-second birthday as a state in the union. It is little wonder that we glory in our state.

flags, the handiwork of Delia Furlong. Bertha Whitney and Bertha Bell were in charge for Golden State.

Orinda Parlor No. 56 N.D.G.W. entertained a group of servicemen at the Native Daughters Home. Games were played, delicious refreshments, including homemade strawberry shortcake, were served and dancing was enjoyed. Irma Walaschek was chairman of the affair.

Buena Vista Parlor No. 68 N.D.G.W., starting an innovation suggested by the new manager of the Native Daughters Home, Mrs. Grace Carpenter, that the San Francisco Parlors entertain the residents there once a month, provided a program September 16. Participating were Mrs. Leslye Hicks, soloist; Elvira Root, pianist; Martha Field and Mrs. Neil Litchfield, dramatists.

Under the leadership of Supervising Deputy Kathryn Jensen, the San Francisco N.D.G.W. deputies are planning a dinner-dance, and they will participate in the homeless children ball.

PIONEERS HONORED

Santa Barbara. In line with the emphasis desired over the state by Grand Presidents Lloyd J. Cosgrove and Claire Lindsey, the three Parlor of the Orders of Native Sons and Native Daughters of the Golden West in Santa Barbara County lined their Admission Day ceremonies for service to the common cause of winning the war. At the county seat, Santa Barbara, Santa Barbara No. 116 N.S.G.W. and Reina del Mar Parlor No. 126 N.D.G.W. joined forces for two impressive programs.

At Rockwood, in Mission Canyon, there was a gracious blending of early-American and Spanish-California periods at the tenth annual Admission Day ceremonies in which the two Parlors have joined forces successfully. Especially honored were the pioneers of the period of American occupation and the descendants of old Spanish families of the area. In normal times the latter are honored at a pre-fiesta tea, but this year Santa Barbara gave up its Old Spanish Days celebration as a war co-operative measure.

President Mabel Erwin of Reina del Mar and Historian Paul Sweetser of Santa Barbara headed the several committees which made the day's observance outstanding. Scores of names were added to the pioneer roster, the registrations being taken by Mms. M. C. Harrison and R. J. Schuld. Marjorie Duncan Baker of Glendale served as "weaver of dreams," presenting a program of Californian songs, with changes of costume. Dr. Anna E. McCaughey, chairman Grand Parlor N.D.G.W. Civic Participation Committee, welcomed officers of the armed forces from many states who are stationed near Santa Barbara, offering them a share of the state's friendship on its birthday.

Earlier in the day the Native Daughters presented the Lobero Theater Foundation United States of America and California State (Bear) Flags in ceremonies at the historic theater in the heart of the city. Mrs. Muriel Edwards, superintendent Santa Barbara County schools and a member of Reina del Mar, spoke in a patriotic vein. In the evening Las Fiesteros, the Parlor's dancing group, serenaded enlisted men at the A.W.V.S. "snack bar," the U.S.O. headquarters, the Marine Base at Goleta and the Guard Armory.

At Santa Maria, Santa Maria Parlor No. 276 N.D.G.W. offered a program befitting a community that is "in the lap of war," because of its nearness to Camp Cooke of the U.S. Army's armored division.—James French Dorrance.

presented an orchid from that Parlor to Grand President Lindsey. Also in attendance were Grand Secretary Sallie Thaler, Past Grand Mae Noonan and Deputy Harriet Williamson. At the meeting's close a banquet was served.

Los Banos.—Lomas No. 255 initiated five candidates September 16. In recognition of Constitution Day, the hall was decorated in a patriotic motif and an appropriate program was presented by Leila Negra, Carmella Smith and Lorraine Toscano.

Albany.—Albany No. 260 initiated two candidates August 26. The sewing club, which is making articles for the fall bazaar, has been entertained by Ethelda Hall, Dorothy Mullins and Daisy Olufsen. September 9 the club had an Admission Day dinner at El Cerrito, with Hazellett Taylor and Marie Vargas as the hostesses.

Stockton.—San Joaquin and Stanislaus Counties Past Presidents Association No. 8 will observe its institution anniversary here October 8. At that time State President Ann Dippel will pay her official visit.

MAKE A WISH

THOMAS M. KELLY, GEORGE S. KRIZ
(SANTA CRUZ PARLOR N.S.G.W.)

Santa Cruz—"To little children, deprived of their birthright, the restoration of a mother's love and a father's care." With these words was dedicated May 29, 1939, the Native Sons and the Native Daughters wishing well at Santa Cruz. Since its dedication, the well has taken in over $500 (mostly in nickels and pennies), has completely paid for its construction and upkeep, and has turned over to the Native Sons and Native Daughters Central Committee on Homeless Children the sum of $233.51.

The well was the idea of a young Santa Cruzan whose family own a group of cottages in Santa Cruz and who, in their travels over the United States, gathered and brought home rocks from thirty-seven states in the Union and constructed therewith a wishing well in the court around which the cottages are grouped. Summer visitors intrigued by the novel idea, proceeded to "make a wish," and in a comparatively short time the young man found himself with a substantial sum of money, which he donated to the committee on homeless children through Santa Cruz Parlor No. 90 N.S.G.W. Needless to say, the donation was gratefully received.

The idea of a wishing well, once instilled in the minds of the membership of Santa Cruz Parlor, grew, and before long negotiations were completed for a site for a well. Plans were drawn, a well was erected near the Casino, and with impressive ceremonies it was dedicated to a most worthy cause. Having now completely paid for itself, it cannot fail to be the source of substantial and perpetual revenue for the homeless children fund.

It is the desire of the membership of Santa Cruz Parlor No. 90 N.S.G.W. and Santa Cruz Parlor No. 26 N.D.G.W. to convey by this story the idea of a wishing well to other Parlors. Almost without exception, every city and town in the state in which a Parlor has been chartered boasts of at least one park or other public gathering-place offering an ideal location for a similar wishing well. The larger cities offer locations for several such wells. And the well is a source of revenue which will not fail to produce.

The hundreds of homeless children who look to the Native Sons and the Native Daughters for their daily bread ask that others be given an opportunity to "make a wish."

LAUNCHING

Richmond (Contra Costa County)—The afternoon of September 9, in Yard No. 2 of the Richmond Shipbuilding Corporation, the SS Philip H. Sheridan was launched under the auspices of the N.S.G.W. and N.D.G.W. 1942 San Francisco Admission Day Celebration Committee. The ship was sponsored by Claire Lindsey, Grand President N.D.G.W., who was assisted by Edna Maggi, matron of honor, and Mary Ellen Cosgrove, daughter of Lloyd J. Cosgrove, Grand President N.S.G.W., as flower girl.

Immediately following the launching a gift of beautiful silver was presented Mrs. Lindsey by the builders of the ship. Arrangements for the affair were made by the following committee: Lloyd J. Cosgrove and Rena Taube, co-chairmen, Grand Secretary John T. Regan, Joseph I. McNamara, Grand Outside Sentinel Raymond J. McGrath, Grand Trustee Loretta Cameron, Edna Maggi and Sarah Ellen.

DO WE?

(CLARENCE M. HUNT.)

Being muchly concerned about the future, as well as the present, welfare of California, and being thoroughly convinced that, unless the "seed of the sun" be entirely uprooted, the Japs will, following the present armed conflict, proceed with their "peaceful invasion" and eventually overrun this state, the writer proposes UNITED ACTION TODAY by organizations and individuals actually desirous of preserving California as a paradise of the White Man for all time. TOMORROW, after the war, will be TOO LATE! In the hope of permanently removing the Jap menace, this course of action is advocated:

Dispossess the Japs of every foot of land, rural and urban, to which they now claim title.

Challenge the citizenship of every Jap—his right to exercise in these United States the voting privilege.

Close every Jap-language school, and be certain that it is kept closed.

Do we, or do we not, really want to save this glorious heritage given into our keeping by our Pioneer Fathers and Mothers? If we have the will, this suggested course points the way! What's your answer?

AMERICAN-BORN JAPS LATENT ENEMIES AND SPIES

The Grizzly Bear for September 1942 published excerpts from a splendid address on the Jap menace delivered by Major George R. Wilbur of Portland, Oregon. A copy of the number was sent him and, in acknowledging its receipt September 15, he wrote the editor as follows:

"Thank you for a copy of your issue of September 1942, in which you reprinted portions of a speech I made before the American Legion Post at Hood River, Oregon. I hope that this speech will help in the general movement to remove the Japanese problem from our Pacific Coast. Congressmen Pierce [Walter M. Pierce of Oregon] and Rankin [John E. Rankin of Mississippi] are interested and I hope that the movement will grow.

"I am also pleased to note from your paper that the N.S.G.W. are to appeal to the Supreme Court of the United States the case from your State in which attack is made upon the citizenship of American-born Japanese. The Supreme Court should certainly review this issue in modern light. I realize that the Court has heretofore decided cases which tend away from the decision we want.

"As a lawyer, I cannot understand how the Court can say that a baby born to Japanese parents on American soil becomes an American citizen because he is 'subject to the jurisdiction of' the United States, when it is now well known that his parents never did and never will renounce their allegiance to the Japanese emperor, nor has the Japanese emperor ever relieved them from their duty to the mother country. That is not at all a technical argument, but goes to fundamentals. A person cannot owe allegiance to two governments, especially when the people of those two governments are as violently and fundamentally opposed as those of Japan and the United States.

"The people of Japan never have been and never will be friendly with the people of the United States. With some rare exceptions, the bulk of the American-born Japanese are, at the very least, latent enemies and spies. Their historical and family background, their conception of religion, morals, citizenship, and even of civilization itself, prevents them from understanding, much less adopting, American ways, beliefs and practices. I wish success to the movement."

since 1869 a resident of Santa Barbara City, where she died; two children survive.

DENNIS MARTIN, 1821-1890 CALIFORNIA PIONEER OF 1844

Dr. Peter T. Conmy, Grand Historian N.S.G.W.

(WRITTEN ESPECIALLY FOR THE GRIZZLY BEAR MAGAZINE.)

A FEW OF THE OLDER, LIFETIME RESIDENTS of the Menlo Park-Woodside-Searsville area of San Mateo County still remember Dennis Martin, one of the earliest settlers of that part of California. He was a man of great fortitude and deep religious sentiment. He experienced many sorrows, but notwithstanding he retained until his end an abiding faith in God and love for his fellowman. Although his name is today familiar only to a few oldtimers of San Mateo County, the facts of his life show that he was a California Pioneer of unusual potentialities and, for this reason, they are presented here.

Dennis Martin was born in Kings County, Ireland, in 1821. He came to the New World at an early age and settled first in Canada, where he learned lumbering. Later he moved to Kentucky, where he met Martin Murphy. The Murphys, also natives of Ireland, had migrated to Canada in 1820 and to the United States in 1840. Dennis Martin's sister, Ann, was the wife of James Murphy, son of Martin Murphy.

In 1844, Elisha Stevens organized a party to trek across the plains to California. Martin Murphy, dissatisfied with the environment of the Mississippi Valley frontier, decided to join the movement and bring his family to California. This party is generally known as the Stevens Party. Some historians refer to it as the Murphy Party, because the largest single group within it was the Martin Murphy family. Other historians call it the Stevens-Murphy Party. Dennis Martin, his father, Patrick Martin, and his brother, Patrick Martin Jr., were among those who joined the Stevens-Murphy Party to California.

This emigrant train followed the usual route across the plains. At Fort Hall they divided, and part headed for Oregon. The remainder, including Stevens himself, the Murphys and the Martins, continued on to California, and arrived in the vicinity of Donner Lake in the late fall of 1844. As was the case of the Donner Party three years later, the snows began to fall and an early winter set in. It was decided to leave three of the party at Donner Lake, while the rest hastened across the Sierra Nevada. Those left were Joseph Foster, Allen Montgomery and Moses Schalleberger. They were to guard the wagons and other supplies until the spring, at which time the men of the party would return and bring them across the mountains.

Dennis Martin and his father and brother were among those who pressed on. When the headwaters of the Yuba River were reached it was felt that the march onward would be too strenuous for some of the women, children and the aged Patrick Martin. Accordingly a camp was made and left in charge of James Miller. About one hundred and fifty, including Dennis Martin and his brother, continued on and reached Sutter's Fort December 13. In the meantime Foster, Montgomery and Schalleberger, who had been left at the lake, decided to chance an advance on foot over the mountains. They started out, but Schalleberger was taken ill and returned to the cabin alone, while the others went on.

About a month after arriving at Sutter's Fort a number of the men of the party returned to the headwaters of the Yuba to bring those who were camped there down into the valley. Dennis Martin was among this group, and was primarily interested in his father. However, when he found his father safe and learned that Schalleberger, who was a boy of seventeen, was now alone at the lake, if by chance he had survived, he set out at once and alone to rescue him. This was a perilous undertaking, but Martin was successful. He reached Schalleberger late in February, and early in March they were both in the fertile Sacramento Valley.

During the year 1845 Dennis Martin worked for Captain Sutter. Apparently he left the employment of the kindly Swiss in October of that year, for the following is found in the Sutter's Fort Diary under date of October 30: "Started Dennis Martin for Peralta's Redwoods. He takes with him three boys, Oiel, Shalsia and Tomcha, and is to pay them $12 a month each."

The boys named in the quotation were probably Indians. The use of the term, Peralta's Redwoods, may seem a bit confusing. Peralta owned all of the area stretching from what is now Oakland to San Jose. This was not a redwood country. The redwood forests were and still are in the hills of San Mateo County. The writer of the diary evidently used the term Peralta to indicate that Martin was going to a redwood area in the bay region.

Dennis Martin settled in what is now the southernmost section of San Mateo County. Here the lands were divided into two great estates. One of these, known as the Las Pulgas Rancho, belonged to the Arguello family. It extended inland from the bay one league and in a north and south direction ran from San Francisco Creek to San Mateo Creek. West of the Las Pulgas Rancho was the Rancho Canada de San Raimundo, which had been granted in 1840 by Governor Alvarado to Juan Coppinger. The governor's grant stated that the Canada would extend from the western boundary of Las Pulgas to the top of the Sierra Moreno, which was the name then applied to the mountains of the Coast Range in western San Mateo County. March 15, 1846, Dennis Martin purchased one thousand acres from Coppinger, which land was situated in that portion of the Canada de San Raimundo which may be briefly described as lying between Menlo Park and Searsville.

DO WE?

(CLARENCE M. HUNT.)

Being muchly concerned about the future, as well as the present, welfare of California, and being thoroughly convinced that, unless the "seed of the sun" be entirely uprooted, the Japs will, following the present armed conflict, proceed with their "peaceful invasion" and eventually overrun this state, the writer proposes UNITED ACTION TODAY by organizations and individuals actually desirous of preserving California as a paradise of the White Man for all time. TOMORROW, after the war, will be TOO LATE! In the hope of permanently removing the Jap menace, this course of action is advocated:

Dispossess the Japs of every foot of land, rural and urban, to which they now claim title.

Challenge the citizenship of every Jap—his right to exercise in these United States the voting privilege.

Close every Jap-language school, and be certain that it is kept closed.

Do we, or do we not, really want to save this glorious heritage given into our keeping by our Pioneer Fathers and Mothers? If we have the will, this suggested course points the way! What's your answer?

Creek, Dennis Martin began pioneering in the lumbering industry. An enterprising man, his efforts were crowned with success. For a short time he left this property and went to the gold fields, where he is reported to have been very successful, but in 1850 he returned to the San Francisco region and developed his lumbering business. In that year he built a dam near Searsville and operated by water power a sawmill. Unfortunately this was destroyed by fire a few weeks after its erection. This was the first sawmill built in San Mateo County. He also planted an orchard. By 1853 he owned two mills, one of which had two sash saws, and the other was a steam mill with a run of twenty-six saws. Thus will be seen the progress of this sturdy pioneer, who started out by building a grist mill in 1847. Lumber must be transported, and in the absence of a railroad Martin built a wharf at the point where the San Francisco enters the bay and operated a scow known as the Mary Martin.

Dennis Martin was a devout man and in the hour of his prosperity did not forget the worship of his God. The nearest churches were Mission Dolores at San Francisco and Mission Santa Clara at Santa Clara. For this reason he erected a church, built of redwood, just a few feet from his home. This was the first Catholic church in San Mateo County and when, in 1853, Archbishop Alemany dedicated the structure he named it St. Dennis Church in honor of the donor, Dennis Martin. It is said that Martin also offered to build a Protestant church for the non-Catholics who lived nearby, because he believed that all people should have religion, but these plans never materialized. St. Dennis Church was served by the Jesuit fathers from Santa Clara. One of the first to officiate was Father Nobili, founder and president of Santa Clara College. At the suggestion of Father Peter De Voss the church was for a time used as a public school on week days and for divine worship on Sunday. Dennis Martin equipped the church from his own funds. The silver candlesticks and crucifix which adorn the present Church of the Nativity in Menlo Park, which church is the successor of St. Dennis, he imported from Europe. On a hill a few hundred feet above the church Martin laid out a cemetery, which was known as St. Dennis Cemetery, although today it is popularly referred to as the Dennis Martin Cemetery. It is said that no one ever paid for a plot in this cemetery, its upkeep being a part of Martin's charity.

After his purchase from Coppinger, Martin bought 250 acres of the Martinez Rancho, situated on the other side of the San Franciscoquito. It is well that he did so, because this alone saved him from becoming landless in a few years. The story of the loss of Dennis Martin's land is indeed an interesting one. In 1851 the United States Land Commission began passing upon land titles which existed under the Mexican rule. It found that the Las Pulgas Rancho, as granted in 1835, belonged to the Arguellos, and this was affirmed by the Supreme Court of the United States in Arguello vs. the United States, 18 Howard 549. The Commission also approved the boundaries of the Canada de Raimundo, and this was affirmed by the Supreme Court in Greer vs. Mezes, 24 Howard 274.

Coppinger had not had his grant surveyed, and for this reason his title and, inferentially, that of his grantee, Dennis Martin, was said to be incomplete. A deputy of the surveyor-general of California surveyed Las Pulgas and reported that certain portions of its western extent were being used by persons, including Dennis Martin, on the false belief that it was part of the Canada de Raimundo. Patent to this land was granted upon the surveyor's certificate to the Arguellos. The courts refused to interfere, on the theory that they had no authority to question the patent granted upon an official survey. A writ ordering the ejectment of Coppinger's heirs and his

TO THE OFFICERS AND MEMBERS of Subordinate Parlors N.D.G.W.—Dear Sisters: At 5 o'clock in the morning, twenty-four years ago this November 11th, the armistice was signed between the Allies and the defeated German armies, and we all thought that the greatest task ever undertaken by America or any other nation was at an end, and in the minds of our people was a vision of enduring peace.

"Although those hopes and prayers were in vain, on this Armistice Anniversary of 1942 we rededicate ourselves to the ideal for which great sacrifice was made, in the words of Lincoln, that 'we shall nobly save or meanly lose the last best hope of earth.' We know that the spirit of 1917-18, as well as Pearl Harbor, is the hope of our Nation today.

"By proclamation, Thursday, November 26th, will be declared Thanksgiving Day, and we in America still have much to be thankful for. The very principles which we accept as a natural heritage have come to us through the sacrifice and hardship of our Pilgrim Fathers, and on this particular Thanksgiving, in spite of the uncertainties we face, Americans can thank God in multiple ways for every blessing.

"Our Lord: We thank Thee for the Grace
Which kept us safe this year;
For happiness and strength to face
The perils we might fear.

For sunshine, food, and sheltered hall,
And for the cheer which hearthstone lends,
We offer thanks; but most of all,
Our Lord: We thank Thee for our friends."

"Sincerely and fraternally,

Claire Lindsey

Ode Author Passes.

Mrs. Eleanor Oliver-Angell, author of the installation ode of the Order of Native Daughters of the Golden West, passed away at Saratoga, Santa Clara County, September 27, survived by her husband, H. V. Angell, and her son, Norman H. Angell. The daughter of William and Leah (Robinson) Oliver, pioneer settlers in Soquel, Santa Cruz County, "Nora" Oliver was born there March 27, 1867, and was a charter member of Santa Cruz No. 26.

A graduate of the San Jose Normal School in 1886, she first taught in a school, located on land given by her father, to which she had to ride horseback. Later, she was on the teaching staffs of Soquel and Santa Cruz schools. In 1894 she married Horatio Angell, a merchant of Soquel, and thereafter made her home there, and was always active in the civic and social affairs of the community. Mrs. Angell organized the Soquel Pioneer Club, and brought together the alumni of her State Normal class under the title "Golden Grads," of which she was made honorary president in 1937. Among her other activities was the establishment of the Porter Memorial Library in Soquel, and during World War One she was chairman of the Soquel-Capitola Red Cross. Annual Dinner for Oldtimers.

Susanville—In special joint session October 1, Nataqua No. 152 (Standish) and Susanville No. 243 were officially visited October 1 by Grand President Claire Lindsey, who was accompanied by Deputy Marguerite Dahlstrom. A banquet, attended by sixty-five, preceded the meeting. Susanville, with President Esther Sutton presiding, conducted the routine business session, and Nataqua, with President Dorothy Cappezoli in the chair, exemplified the ritual. The Grand President gave an inspiring talk on the Order's progress and thanked the Parlors for courtesies extended.

October 11, Susanville and Nataqua had their annual dinner for the oldtimers at Johnstonville, and more than 200, including pioneers, older residents, and members of the Parlors and their families, were in attendance. Glenn Long and Gebart DuMont presented a musical program, and Past Grand Emma Humphrey gave an entertaining talk on Malta. The oldtimers, who seldom meet during the year except at this affair, spent a couple of hours visiting. Mrs. Sarah J. Hartson, aged 94, was the oldest pioneer in attendance.

AN INEXPENSIVE CHRISTMAS GIFT that will be enjoyed throughout the year is THE GRIZZLY BEAR. Sent anywhere in the United States for $1.50; lower rate for clubs of five or more. Remember your friends with a year's subscription for 1943.

paper is being sent the Parlor's adopted veteran at Livermore Hospital. Following the card party, President Irene Schwall was surprised with a birthday handkerchief shower.

Members came to the October 15 meeting of Stockton attired in costumes. A grand march was enjoyed, and everyone from the "Queen of Sheba" to "Mahatma Gandhi" was represented. Games were played and refreshments were served. Eureka Dentoni and Albina McKee were in charge of arrangements.

Hallowe'en Party.

Oakland—Piedmont No. 87 had a largely attended Hallowe'en party October 15. The decorations and the refreshments were in keeping with the occasion, and the evening was greatly enjoyed. Chairman Bernice Isola was assisted by Lucille DeMaria, Lucille Stern, Beatrice Knabbe and Betty Cordona.

The fourth Saturday of every month the Alameda County Native Daughters entertain the servicemen at the hospitality house in Oakland. Hazel Andreas is the general chairman, and Harriett Emerson heads Piedmont's committee. Grand Trustee Marion White and Supervising Deputy Kathleen Dombrink, members of the Parlor, spoke recently over KROW relative to the founding, the objectives and the accomplishments of the Order.

Ballot Propositions Discussed.

Placencia—Having learned of the need for rosaries for the boys of the air corps at Santa Ana, Grace No. 242 provided fifty, which were delivered to Father Clady, stationed there. Mrs. Emma Guthrie, a member of the Parlor, received from the American Red Cross a silver pin for giving three pints of blood to the Anaheim Blood Bank. October 1 the birthdays of seven members were celebrated; each donated a mystery package, the proceeds from which went into the war bonds fund.

Mrs. Ollie Mae Grainger was hostess to the sewing club at her Fullerton ranch home October 13. A delicious luncheon was served, and the twenty-five present spent the afternoon making quilt blocks. October 15 the Parlor sponsored a potluck dinner at which propositions on the November ballot were discussed by Lloyd Davies and Past Grand Grace S. Stoermer. Among the several other visitors were Grand Vice-president Mary Noerenberg and Deputies Beatrice Wahrmand and Grace Vejar.

300 Servicemen Provided Goodies.

Modesto—Honoring those who came to us were born in California prior to 1870, Morada No. 199 entertained at dinner October 18. Nineteen men and women responded to the invitation and were introduced by Ella Halford. President Mildred Barrett extended a welcome, to which W. F. Howell responded on behalf of the oldtimers. A pioneer theme, displayed in miniature at the main table, featured a covered wagon fashioned completely from paper by Mary Blaine a log cabin, and a logging wagon drawn by oxen

The program included a salute to the flag, chorus singing of "The Star Spangled Banner," recitation of "The Lord's Prayer," oldtime songs by a male quartet, and selections on the fiddle by Mrs. Ben Scott, accompanied by Edna Freeman, both of Eldora No. 248 (Turlock). Pearl Gordon, general chairman of the happy occasion, was assisted by Julia Stutchman, Ann Michael, Alma Rutan, Lennis Webber, Thelma Sanders, Lenna Crow, Ella Halford, Agnes Frost, Ethel Enos and Hazel McCreary. September 23 the Parlor initiated two candidates and had a farewell handkerchief shower for Eleanor Lewis. Recent brides are Ellen Bewley and Bertha Rouse. The past presidents club celebrated its second anniversary at a dinner October 6 attended by twenty-one.

Hostessing the weekly servicemen's dance, members of Morada served homemade cookies and coffee to 300 the evening of October 8. A carton of cookies was mailed the Parlor's buddy at Livermore Hospital. October 14 three additional $100 war bonds were ordered purchased and a contribution was made to the Airport Day Nursery. The ways and means committee had a three-day rummage sale under the chairmanship of Joy Yribarren.

Active in War and Civic Work.

Chico—Red, white and blue decorations, cleverly arranged, formed the patriotic color theme when Annie K. Bidwell No. 168 welcomed Grand President Claire Lindsey, October 8, on her official visit. Dinner preceded the meeting in Native Daughters Hall. An escort team under the direction of Olive Pearl presented a vivid picture in white formal gowns, with red, white and blue sashes reaching the floor. They carried small United States shields, which were exchanged for bouquets of asters that were presented the Grand President. Following that courtesy President Myrtle McLerran presented the Parlor's gift to Mrs. Lindsey.

Eight candidates were initiated, and committee reports showed the Parlor is active in war and civic work. An interesting relic belonging to the late Mrs. George H. Graves—a framed picture in colors of the Shearer & Evans livery stable that in 1870 occupied the site of No. 168's home—was presented the Parlor. The pleasant evening closed with light refreshments served at attractively arranged tables.

School of Instruction.

Stockton—Sunday, November 8, the San Joaquin county Parlor—Joaquin No. 5 (Stockton), El Pescadero No. 82 (Tracy), Ivy No. 88 (Lodi), Caliz de Oro No. 206 (Stockton), Phoebe A. Hearst No. 214 (Manteca) and Stockton No. 256—will hold a school of instruction here in Native Sons Hall, 314 East Main Street. Supervising Deputy Evelyn Wells will be assisted by Deputies Algie Gossett, Esther Dieren, Vandene Heck, Burette Dentoni, Ella Meyer and Audrey Hedger. Grand President Claire Lindsey will be the honor-guest.

The morning session, beginning at 10 o'clock, will be devoted to an open discussion, and talks on the Order's projects will be given by grand officers and past grands. At 12 o'clock noon a luncheon will be held, to which all members of the Order are invited. At the afternoon session, commencing at 1:30 o'clock, the ritual will be exemplified by a picked team from all the county parlors.

State President Honor-Guest.

San Jose—Past Presidents Association No. 3 had a luncheon October 13 at which State President Ann Dippel was the honor-guest. Other state officers in attendance were Past State President Alice Roll, State Secretary Mae Shea, State Marshal Frances Maloney and Founder Leah Williams. Table decorations and favors were in the national colors, commemorating Columbus day.

At the meeting following, President Margaret Farnsworth presided and two candidates were initiated. Welfare Chairman Claire Borchers gave a resume of the splendid work carried on during the summer months, and State President Dippel told of the defense work being done by the Subordinate Associations. Committees arranging the successful affair were: Sue Mattei and Dollie Kooser, luncheon; Pearl Bishop and Claire Borchers, decorations; Alice Roll and Margaret Farnsworth, reception.

Meetings Worthwhile.

Daly City—El Carmelo No. 181 October 7 elected as third vice-president Christine Hulme, who has attended meetings regularly under forty presidents and for thirteen years has served as financial secretary. History Chairman Shirley Almiris outlined the history of California from the time of the Spanish expeditions to the coming of the Russians, and Americanism Chairman Pauline Quirolo paid tribute to the Statue of Liberty. Such talks make the meetings of the Parlor worthwhile.

November 4 will be a gala night for the members of El Carmelo. Past presidents, November birthdays and newly-elected Third Vice-president Hulme will be honored at a social following the meeting. Irene Littlewood is chairman of the affair.

N.D.G.W.—NEWS PARAGRAPHS—N.D.G.W.

Generous sums were voted the Red Cross and the United Community War Chest. October 27 the Parlor had a Hal-low'en party at which soldiers from Stockton Field were guests.

Weaverville—Eltapome No. 55 was officially visited October 5 by Grand President Claire Lindsey, who was accompanied by Marguerite Dahlstrom of Keith No. 137 (San Francisco). At a dinner preceding the meeting a program was presented by Celia Hicks, President Claire Ryan and Pauline Clark. The assemblage joined in singing "Yankee Doodle Went to War," a parody on the old favorite, "Yankee Doodle," written by Recording Secretary Clara Weinheimer.

(COMPILED EXPRESSLY FOR THE GRIZZLY BEAR MAGAZINE.)

THE NOVEMBER 8, 1892, GENERAL election was a Democratic landslide, and Grover Cleveland, candidate for President of the United States of America, swept the country precisely as he did November 4, 1884. In California, the result was very close. The Democrats elected eight of the presidential electors—Joseph A. Filcher, William Graves, Richard P. Hammond, Jackson Hatch, R. A. Long, J. D. Lynch, M. Rosenthal and W. L. Silman—and the Republicans one—Thomas R. Bard.

California's total registration for the election was 324,000,—a gain of 73,000 compared with the 1888 registration—and 269,530 votes were cast. PROPHETIC

From Judge Fletcher A. Cutler, Past Grand President of the Order of Native Sons of the Golden West, the editor of The Grizzly Bear received a letter, dated September 16, in which he states:

"I am enclosing herein something that may be of interest to the readers of The Grizzly Bear, in view of present conditions. We all appreciate, now more than ever, the position that you assumed during the past years in reference to the Japanese obtaining title to a considerable portion of our finest agricultural lands."

During his term of office as Grand President of the Native Sons, 1925-26, Judge Cutler delivered a series of lectures on California history to the student bodies of various high schools, and addressed civic organizations and public gatherings. He emphasized the necessity of prompt and effective action to preserve California, as did the Pioneers of old, against foreign aggressors.

The "something" referred to in his letter is an excerpt used in all his public utterances, and also in his address at the 1927 session of the California Grand Lodge of Masons, of which he was the Orator. Here is the prophetic excerpt:

"No less concerned are we with the world-wide problems that the not-distant future will bring to our very doors. It is universally conceded that the theater of the world's future events will be on the Pacific Ocean, its waters, its shores and its islands. There, Europe, America and Asia will meet and there the next chapter in the history of the human race will be written. What will be the character of that history? Will it be along the old lines of imperial domination that proved to be the undoing of Europe, checked civilization and spread more human misery over a darkened earth than was ever known before? Will monarch and ruler regard each other with cynical distrust as they hold in their mailed fists the destinies of countless thousands of people who know not where or why their expiring groans? Will power, territory and wealth be the great prizes for which funeral pyres of men will be offered as a sacrifice to human greed and lust of conquest, or will Christianity, civilization and humanity be the harmonizing influence that will bring the nations into an universal brotherhood?"

"However the pacifist may deplore, the pessimist grieve, the isolationist protest, it was fore-ordained that this nation should have the dominating voice in making answer. It was so decreed at Yorktown when a nation was born, illustrating constitutional freedom in all its magnificence, power and grandeur. At Gettysburg, when the shackles that fettered human beings

Bakersfield (Kern County)—With hundreds of citizens present, including many members of the Orders of Native Sons and Native Daughters of the Golden West, the Colonel Thomas Baker memorial statue was unveiled at the Bakersfield City Hall, October 18. The main speakers of the occasion—Alphonse Weill, 92-year-old pioneer merchant who knew Colonel Baker personally, and Alfred Harrell, owner and publisher of the Bakersfield Californian,—acquainted the assemblage with the man whose vision brought him to this area in 1862 to reclaim from the tule marshes the site of the present Bakersfield.

The handsome statue, a seated figure with a map and a surveyor's calipers in hand, memorializes in stone the pioneer civil engineer, lawyer, farmer, soldier and statesman who was the exceptional man and leader of his day. It was created by Sculptor John Palo-Kanzas, and was unveiled by Charlotte Jameson and T. A. Baker, daughter and son of Bakersfield's founder. They were escorted by the victory drill team of El Tejon Parlor No. 239 N.D.G.W. Mayor Alfred Siemon, in accepting the statue for the city, spoke of Bakersfield's advancement. Bert Tibbett, Jr. sang "Wagon Wheels" and "We Would Be Builders," accompanied by Pearl Smith.

Roy W. Loudon of Bakersfield Parlor No. 42 N.S.G.W., general chairman of the Colonel Thomas Baker statue committee, told of the completion of the project after two and a half years of endeavor, and made several introductions, among them: President William Stein of the Native Sons, President Lucy Supertino of the Native Daughters and President Ardis Walker of the Kern County Historical Society, the organizations that launched the project. Members of the committee are: Roy Loudon, chairman; Alfred Harrell and W. A. Howell, honorary chairmen; Alphonse Weill, Ardis Walker, Dr. P. N. Root, F. F. Latta, Grand Marshal Hal Bannister; Mms. K. C. Freear, R. B. Sanders and R. C. Brown. With the exception of Weill, Root and Howell, all are members of Bakersfield Parlor N.S.G.W. and El Tejon Parlor N.D.G.W.

THE LETTER BOX

Comments on subjects of general interest and importance received from readers of The Grizzly Bear.

NATIVES URGED TO SUPPLY RELICS.

"Editor Grizzly Bear: As you know, a Native Sons and Daughters room was set aside in Sutter's Fort Museum [Sacramento], so that both Orders could make a display of articles or documents pertaining to the state's early history. I was informed some time ago that we had not done very much in making this room attractive, and I requested Tom McAuliffe of Sacramento Parlor No. 3, a member of our History Board, to investigate. As a result, I have received a letter from Carroll D. Hall, recently appointed curator, and in order that no confusion or illfeeling will be caused as a result of wellmeaning efforts of our members in offering to present these historic articles, I think it would be well for The Grizzly Bear to publish the regulations prescribed by the curator.

"In brief, these regulations are as follows: The curator does not accept relics which are outside of the period mentioned, or are in poor condition or lack interest. It is necessary that the donor sign an agreement of gift, so that the relics become the property of the museum. Loans are not acceptable.

"With these regulations in mind, the History Board urges all Native Sons and Daughters who have historical relics within the pioneer period 1839 to 1869 to place them in our Native Sons and Daughters room in Sutter's Fort Museum. These historic documents or relics will be labeled, with due credit to those who present them. Thanking you for your assistance in this matter. EDWARD J. LYNCH," chairman Grand Parlor N.S.G.W. History Board, San Francisco, California.

grantee, Dennis Martin, was instituted by the Arguellos and after many years of legal warfare was, in 1864, granted by the Supreme Court of California in the case of De Arguello vs. Greer et al., 26 California 616.

Dennis Martin, who had enjoyed his lands for some eighteen years, now removed to his smaller acreage on the other side of the San Francisco. His lands and improvements, as well as a large portion of his money spent on the costs of the legal action, being lost, he became financially impoverished. Nevertheless, he continued to fight on to recover his lands.

In 1878 the Federal Congress was asked to legislate authority to the courts to investigate the alleged fraud of the surveyor. The bill passed the House, but failed in the Senate. In 1885 the attorney-general of the United States investigated the case and, convinced that a fraud had been perpetrated, ordered the United States attorney in San Francisco to institute a suit for cancellation of the patent, but he did not do so. In 1892 a bill passed both houses, but failed to receive President Harrison's signature. In 1914 Senator George C. Perkins introduced a bill authorizing the Court of Claims to hear the case, but nothing came of it.

Along with his land trouble came other bitterness for Dennis Martin. His aged father, who died at eighty-six, was the first interment in St. Dennis Cemetery. Then followed his wife, Brigid O'Neil, whom he had married in Mission Dolores February 20, 1850. His son, Joseph, was interred there in November 1873, and his daughter, Agnes, June 3, 1877. In 1882 Martin moved to San Francisco. Just what he did there is not quite clear, but the 1884 City Directory lists him as an agriculturist living at 1717 Valencia street. He died in his home on York street June 16, 1890, at the age of sixty-nine.

Notwithstanding the fact that he had lived for eight years in San Francisco, Dennis Martin belonged in death, as he had in life, to the San Francisco region. June 19 his funeral proceeded by train to Menlo Park. There a mass was offered in the Church of the Nativity, and then the cortege proceeded to St. Dennis Cemetery, where his remains were laid to rest.

which belonged to Dennis Martin was acquired by Leland Stanford August 17, 1876, and is today a part of the Stanford University lands. St. Dennis Church was torn down in 1897, its records and appurtenances having been turned over to the Church of the Nativity in Menlo Park. The Dennis Martin Cemetery still remains, although ghouls have robbed it of most of the tombstones.

DEAF UNTIL PEARL HARBOR

"It was on a silk raising project that, in 1869, the first Japanese came to California. They settled at Gold Hill, not far from where Marshall discovered gold and started the '49 gold rush."

"For more than forty years the undersigned and its predecessors have been trying to awaken Americans to the Japanese menace, including Japanese propaganda even in our school textbooks. Most ears remained deaf until the explosion of Pearl Harbor.

"This committee, composed of representatives of several patriotic societies plus a few individuals, still calls attention, as they have for many years, to the danger of dual citizenship. It feels that any native-born Japanese who could have renounced allegiance to the mikado, yet refused to do so, has no right to enjoy the protection the Stars and Stripes affords to Americans. It advocates cancellation of such American citizenship as a protection against fifth columnists."
—California Joint Immigration Committee.

GET OUT AND VOTE, November 3.—"No citizen should neglect this duty—and opportunity—to express his opinions through the ballot box."
—Lloyd J. Cosgrove, Grand President N.S.G.W.

CALIFORNIANS CAN "BUDGET"

ALL-YEAR GARDEN BLOOMS.

Californians, unlike the residents of most of the United States, are privileged to have year-round gardens in bloom, providing they "budget" them in a manner similar to the usual household budget, according to Mildred F. Davis of the University of California Extension Division.

"It is possible to have a California garden that will bloom all year round rather than a single season or so," she says. "The best way to achieve an all-year bloom is by means of a plan or a monthly 'budget' and chart. One must lay the foundations three to four months ahead of the time that a garden picture is wanted. Spring planting gives summer bloom. Early fall planting, by the first week in September, gives winter bloom, while late fall planting, in November, say, gives spring bloom.

"If beginning gardeners would approach making a garden as they do other hobbies, they would progress more quickly."

GEORGE DICKSON CLARK.

As briefly recorded in The Grizzly Bear for October 1942, George Dickson Clark, Past Grand President, died at his Palo Alto, Santa Clara County, home September 26. He was born November 9, 1857, at Stonepoint, Sonoma County, a son of Nememiah Clark, who came to California via the Isthmus of Panama in 1850. In 1860 the Clark family located in Sacramento, where deceased was educated and where, in 1864, his father founded the pottery firm of N. Clark & Co., now operating in the San Francisco Bay district as N. Clark & Sons.

George Dickson Clark affiliated with Pacific No. 10 (San Francisco) September 2, 1884. He represented that Parlor at the Grand Parlor, and at the Sixteenth (Sacramento 1893) Annual Session he was elected Grand Trustee. At the Twentieth (Redwood City 1897) Annual Session he became the Grand President, and presided at the Twenty-first (Nevada City 1898) Annual Session. He was also a charter member of San Francisco Assembly No. 1 Past Presidents Association.

Servicemen Entertained.

Sacramento—The combined Sacramento Parlors,—Sacramento No. 3, Sunset No. 26 and Sutter Fort No. 241 N.S., and Califa No. 22, La Bandera No. 110, Sutter No. 111, Coloma No. 212 and Rio Rito No. 253 N.D.—with the assistance of civilian employees of McClellan Field, entertained some 250 servicemen, mostly from the Southern states, at USO headquarters October 9. Irving D. Gibson welcomed the men on behalf of the two Orders, and Colonel H. H. Brown did likewise for the Field.

Rudolph Caffaro, talented singer, favored with several numbers, and entertainment was provided also by Eleanor Schagian, Pearl Haines, Doris Scarborough, Marian Wooley and Chaplain Myron H. Willard. The Native Daughters, with Mrs. Edith B. Kelley as chairman, served tamale pie and coffee. Dancing, to the music of Jack Rose's orchestra, concluded the enjoyable evening, and partners for the men were not lacking.

The arrangements committee included Ulric Trussell, chairman, John Hamlyn, L. P. Ferron, Frank Lafferty and J. Frank Didion. USO Manager Trimble claims this was one of the finest evenings provided for the servicemen.

Twelve Initiated.

Martinez—Past Grand Charles L. Dodge has been interesting himself in the welfare of the Contra Costa County Parlors, and as a result of his efforts twelve candidates were initiated for Mount Diablo No. 101 October 19. The following participated in the exemplification of the ritual:

Grand President Lloyd J. Cosgrove, Junior Past Grand Edward T. Schnarr, Past Grand Harmon D. Skillin, Grand First Vice-president Wayne R. Millington, Grand Second Vice-president Raymond D. Williamson, Grand Third Vice-president Richard F. McCarthy, Grand Secretary John T. Regan, District Deputy Louis J. Zimmerman and Miller Markey (Fruitvale No. 252).

At the conclusion of the initiation, officers of the Parlor were elected and installed, with Past Grand James F. Hoey as president. He said the young men of the community are entering the service of the country, so he thought it incumbent upon the older members to step in and conduct the business of the Parlor. All the visitors had something to say, but the principal addresses were made by Grand President Cosgrove and Past Grand Skillin and Schnarr.

Will Remember Members in Service.

Ferndale—The annual public speaking contest for high school students of Humboldt and Del Norte Counties was announced at the October 5 meeting of Ferndale No. 93. The Parlor's committee includes C. H. Rasmussen, Grand Parlor committeeman for the counties, George Lindley, J. J. Bognuda, J. W. Trigg and Henry Giacomini.

A gift package is to be sent each of Ferndale's fourteen members in the country's armed services. A special ritual in tribute to the servicemen was given, as is the custom the first meeting of every month. United States of America and California State (Bear) Flags are to be presented the Grizzly Bluff schools.

Ellis Aaron Blackman, for many years recording secretary of California Parlor No. 1 N.S.G.W., died September 27. He was born at San Francisco, December 16, 1877, affiliated with California June 9, 1904, and represented that Parlor at five sessions of the Grand Parlor. Prior to the illness that resulted in his death, he was one of the Order's most active members in San Francisco.

Las Lomas Parlor No. 72 N.D.G.W. celebrated its fiftieth institution anniversary with a tea October 25. At the same time a reception honoring Grand Marshal Emily Ryan, a member of the Parlor, was held. There was a musical program, and fifty-year membership pins were presented the following charter members by Grand President Claire Lindsey: Rose Moller, Harriet McLean, Mattie Collins, Julia Moller and Emma Breiling.

Stanford Parlor No. 76 N.S.G.W. had an athletic night October 20. Joe Niderost, chairman, was assisted by Wm. F. Carroll, Harold Meyer, Niles McCanney, Ed Neely, Art Poheim and Chas. Stanley. October 27 a benefit show was given to raise funds for the servicemen Christmas stocking party December 20. Members and friends of the Parlor will be entertained November 10 with pictures of the Solomon Islands to be shown by E. Stahl, world traveler.

El Vespero Parlor No. 118 and Castro Parlor No. 178 N.D.G.W. were joint hostesses at the monthly breakfast at the N.D.G.W. Home October 11. Mms. I. Evets and G. Vedder presided, and Past Grand President Mariana Bertola offered prayer. A guests-speaker from the Red Cross discoursed on "Nurses' Aid," the Parlor put on a skit, and a vocal solo was rendered by Mrs. F. Johnson.

The veterans welfare group of Genevieve Parlor No. 132 N.D.G.W., headed by Eileen Shutter, is assembling Christmas kits for American boys in foreign lands. Each member realizes the sacrifices the boys are making, and much assistance is given the committee. Members of the Parlor's drum corps have set aside the afternoon of November 7 to honor at a tea Rose Fischer-Graves, Gertrude Roche-McCarty, Eileen Taube-Shutter and Leona Clarkson-Vance, recent brides.

Castro Parlor No. 178 N.D.G.W. had a Hal-low'en party for its members October 21; Eva Kearse was the chairman. The Parlor recently invested an additional $1,000 in U.S. war bonds, and members are still doing their share of knitting and sewing for the Red Cross.

Twin Peaks Parlor No. 185 N.D.G.W. sponsored a public reception in honor of Grand Trustee Loretta M. Cameron October 13. Merle Sandell and Kay Jensen, in charge of arrangements, were assisted by a capable committee.

Utopia Parlor No. 252 and Genevieve Parlor No. 132 N.D.G.W. will be officially visited by Grand President Claire Lindsey November 5. The joint meeting will be held at Native Sons Building, commencing at 8:30 p.m. A large class of candidates is anticipated, and a cordial invitation is extended all members of the Order to be present. An energetic committee, headed by Eugenia Mabley and Helen Scanlon, is completing plans for the occasion.

CITY AND COUNTY

SPEAKING RECENTLY IN LOS ANGELES, Charles L. Schafer, who spent six months in Jap-dominated Hongkong before being repatriated, expressed the opinion that when the Japs meet with military reverses they will come up with "some backdoor method out of defeat."

"But if we fall for it," he added, "we'll be the biggest saps in the world. The Japs won't change, even if they make scapegoats out of their present leaders and attempt to salvage their nation out of defeat."

"They all think alike. The Japs are one people. They feel that the role of world dominance has been imposed on them by history, and they'll never relinquish that aim."

"The solution? Annihilate them! Bomb hell out of Japan proper—and then send in a Chinese army of occupation to the Jap islands!"

MONUMENT UNVEILED.

Santa Monica—Commemorating the arrival of Juan Rodriguez Cabrillo in Santa Monica Bay, four hundred years ago, a monument to his memory was unveiled in Palisades Park, the afternoon of October 10, under the auspices of Santa Monica Bay Parlor No. 267 N.S.G.W. and the Santa Monica Historical Society.

Past Grand President Eldred Meyer introduced as the master of ceremonies Sheriff Eugene Biscailuz, and the principal address was delivered by Past Grand President Lewis F. Byington of the Grand Parlor N.S.G.W. Historic Landmarks Committee. He told the story of Cabrillo—his voyage over the Pacific, his arrival in California, and his death and burial on San Miguel Island.

Other speakers were Commissioner Dike Freeman, Congressman Leland Ford, Editor Charles Warren of the Santa Monica Outlook, E. L. Troeger, Grand President Lloyd J. Cosgrove, and Grand Vice-president Mary Noerenberg and Past Grand President Grace Stoerner of the N.D.G.W. Music was furnished by the Santa Monica Municipal Band, J. Lanchester O'Grady conducting.

MUSICAL.

Los Angeles Parlor No. 124 N.D.G.W. will have initiation November 4. Pianist Marie Protzman, a member, will be the featured artist at a November 14 musical at Barker Bros. Auditorium. Tickets are 55 cents, and all funds will be used for war work.

The November 18 meeting of the Parlor will be followed by a party sponsored by the national defense, the home front and the americanism committees. At that time, too, the history and landmarks committee will dispose of a turkey, and the proceeds will aid in furnishing the governor's room at Mission San Fernando. President Juliette DeNubila will open her home, 2966 West Eighth Street, for a sewing party November 21. One of the assisting hostesses, Helen Mackle, while not a native of California is a "booster" for the Order.

The homeless children committee has received a donation of $25 from Judge LeRoy Dawson's P.D.Q. quiz court for that charity fund. Also during October, another gift, a lovely handmade tablecloth, was received from Mary K. Corcoran, a member residing in San Francisco. All money from its sale will be added to the Annie L. Adair Scholarship Fund, a project sponsored by the Grand Parlor in loving memory of Mrs. Corcoran's deceased sister.

ANNIVERSARY DINNER.

Los Angeles Parlor No. 45 N.S.G.W. will observe its fifty-eighth institution anniversary at a 6:30 p.m. dinner at its meetingplace November 12. All members of the Order and their guests are invited, and a good time is assured. President William Girard is in charge of arrangements.

The Parlor was instituted November 13, 1884, by District Deputy George W. McPherson. Dalton Wheeler was the first president, and Homer T. Katz was the first recording secretary.

November 19 the Parlor will have initiation. November 26 being Thanksgiving Day, there will be no meeting.

DAN CUPID VERY BUSY.

Long Beach—Long Beach Parlor No. 154 N.D.G.W. had a very successful rummage sale under the chairmanship of Betty Campbell. Madeline Smith and Myrtle Brooks had a Hallows'en party at the former's home October 29. November 5 the Parlor will have initiation, to be followed by refreshments. Supervising Deputy Ann Schiebush and Deputy Eleanor Gunn will be in attendance.

The California Thimble Club met at the homes of Grace Poole and Vera West during October. Much is being accomplished under the leadership of Chairman West—sewing for the homeless children, making scrapbooks for distribution to children in hospitals at Christmas time, and co-operating with Clara Faye, chairman of Red Cross, in the making of wool robes. At noontime a covered-dish luncheon is enjoyed.

Dan Cupid has been very active in Long Beach, and wedding bells will soon be ringing for three of the officers. President Eleanor Starr has announced her engagement to Clarence Campbell, Third Vice-president Mary Hotalling to Ensign Joe Robinet, and Outside Sentinel Emily McDougal to Jack Nerney. The Parlor is very proud of Ann Fisher, formerly second vice-president, who is believed to be the first Native Daughter chosen to attend the W.A.A.C. officers' training school at Des Moines, Iowa.

AN INEXPENSIVE CHRISTMAS GIFT that will be enjoyed throughout the year is THE GRIZZLY BEAR. Sent anywhere in the United States for $1.50; lower rate for clubs of five or more. Remember your friends with a year's subscription for 1943.

FLAG DISPLAY.

At largely-attended and impressive ceremonies symbolizing Pan-American unity and hemispheric solidarity, the flags of twenty-one American republics and the Dominion of Canada were displayed in the park area just north of the Los Angeles County Hall of Records October 10.

Supervisor John Anson Ford presided, and the speakers included Federal Judge J. F. T. O'Connor, Dr. Rufus B. von Kleinsmid, Lieutenant Colonel Yandell Beans, Henry Humann, Sheriff

Instrumental and vocal music was furnished by the 35th Division United States Army Band, the Los Angeles County Band and the City Col-

TO SERVE IN USO CENTER.

Among the special guests attending the monthly program luncheon of Californiana Parlor No. 247 N.D.G.W. October 13 were Deputy Evelyn Wilson and Dorothy Schlingman, the latter afterwards addressing the Parlor on the homeless children work. She brought photos of some of the children "adopted" by the Parlor, and complimented the members on their contributions to the project. A recent adoption has increased to nine the number of babies cared for in the fourteen years the Parlor has been in existence. The musical entertainment, arranged by Program Chairman Mary Ann Thomas with talent supplied by Florence Irish, included delightful songs by Jean Williams, a 14-year-old soprano prodigy, and Smith Russell Jr., tenor, accompanied by Mrs. Florence Russell.

Margaret Kerr, chairman of americanism and defense, sent word through Ernestine Aylward of the completion of that committee's plans to serve in the new USO center at 624 South Main Street one Saturday in each month. Other members are selling defense stamps in a downtown booth. The Parlor has been brought again into favorable public notice through the appointment of Martha Decker as general chairman of the new information bureau of the civilian defense volunteer office, with headquarters in the City Hall.

UNIVERSITY PARLOR NEWS.

University No. 272 N.S.G.W. was officially visited October 22 by Grand Trustee Walter Odemar, who complimented the Parlor on its fine condition. Other speakers were Deputy Grand President Bernard Hiss, District Deputy Robert Pesqueria, John Winslow, Frank Abbott, Willard Buchanan, Moritz Rosenthal, Fred Bright and "Bill" Reuter. Refreshments were served by Jack Hughes and assistants.

University commemorated its tenth institution anniversary, October 25, by sponsoring the institution at Inglewood, October 23, of Centinela Parlor No. 279, every member of which was obtained by District Deputy Woodrow Wade and Jack Burns.

During November the Parlor will have but two meetings, the 4th and the 18th. The latter will be President Harold Shoemaker's night and will feature another of University's famous open houses. All Native Sons are invited.

BENEFIT BREAKFAST.

Compton—Compton Parlor No. 258 N.D.G.W. had a waffle breakfast September 22 for the benefit of its homeless children fund at the home of Kate Glavenc; Hazel Corbett was cohostess. That evening officers of the Parlor were installed by Deputy Adelina Marshall. "Old California" was the theme of the party that followed, and covered wagons and other reminders of pioneer days were highlights of the decorations.

October 2 a potluck luncheon was held at the home of Membership Chairman Faye Young. Among the guests were Grand Vice-president Mary Noerenberg, Deputy Marshall and several prospective members.

PAST PRESIDENTS GET TOGETHER.

The past presidents of Ramona Parlor No. 109 N.S.G.W. had their annual dinner October 22. Dean Edwin A. Meserve presided and paid tribute to Past Grand President Herman Lichtenberger, lately deceased. Other speakers were Grand Trustee Walter Odemar, Charles Thomas, Leo Youngworth, Charles Stansbury, Charles Brittain and Ray Howard; the latter made the arrangements.

Also present were William Calderwood, Lon McCoy, Walter Slosson, Charles Straube, Charles Easton, Superior Judge Ruben Schmidt, William Blakely, Joseph Coyle, Deacon Taggart, William Durm, W. L. Wiggins, Glen Packer, John Off Jr., Clarence M. Hunt, Fletcher Ford, John Sheffield, Raymond Hefelfinger, Robert Bushnell, John McCroskey, Paul Kiefer, David Schumacher, William Page and William McKee.

CABRILLO DINNER.

The October 10 dinner, sponsored by the California State Historical Association at the University Club of Los Angeles in celebration of the four hundredth anniversary of the landing of Juan Rodriguez Cabrillo on the shores of Los Angeles County, was well attended and greatly enjoyed. Vice-president Paul Sweetser presided, and following a salute to the flag Father Felix offered an invocation. Jerry Hines, accompanied

CLARENCE M. HUNT.

"Men, not God, make war," said Dr. James C. Kinard to the graduating class of a South Carolina college. "The bloodstained hand of Mars strikes when human hearts go wrong. This is a spiritual crisis which confronts us. It is the human spirit with which we must deal if we would have the kind of world in which we want to live. . . ."

"Falsehood and error ride roughshod today in a ruthless riot of rancor and wrong. Pernicious propagandists with iniquitous insinuation and insidious innuendo have succeeded in making their potent poison palatable to gullible minds. The first victim of war is always Truth. And permanent peace can be built only upon the indestructible pillars of Truth. . . ."

"Men barter their immortal souls to seize power over others, to amass fortunes for selfish ends, to throw an enticingly alluring luster over lustful license, to cover vice with cunning camouflage, and to smear a thin veneer of public respectability over a callous conscience. But a mind that has become a slave of passion, a servant of sin, a votary of vice, an advocate of lies, a purveyor of falsehood, a disciple of deception, a follower of fraud, is not only degraded but diseased, and in spite of any temporary flashes of intellectual attainment, is steadily disintegrating with the dry rot of a cancerous corruption. . . ."

"Get but the truth, once uttered, and 'tis like a star new-born, that drops into its place, and which, once circling in its placid round, not all the tumult of the earth can shake!"

The Wartime Civilian Control Administration ruled families of mixed Jap-and-White blood may be released from relocation centers in the Western Defense Command. So, a Jap, with offspring, returned to her White husband in Orange County, where they are engaged in farming.

Another "peaceful invasion" victory for the Japs! Japan will now promote yellow-and-white marriages.

Granting 257 divorces at a four-hour session, a judge in Augusta, Georgia, declared, "If this is a sample of civilization, we are in a dickens of a fix."

It is, and we are!

Hawaii Territory had a primary election in October, and of the seven native-born Jap candidates one was elected and four others were nominated.

That will be the situation in California, shortly after the termination of the present war, unless, in the meantime, the Japs are disfranchised. The breeding farms—internment camps, relocation centers, or what have you,—for "peaceful invasion" soldiers of Japan are in unrestricted operation!

"Any program which horizontally reduces motor travel in California to the level now in effect in the seventeen Eastern seaboard states will result in economic chaos in California," says General Manager Standish L. Mitchell of the Automobile Club of Southern California.

The American Civil Liberties Union has requested the President of the United States of America to have the administration make a public declaration recognizing the loyalty of the "vast majority of Americans of Japanese descent," and warning "against attempts to deprive them of citizenship."

At least, the A.C.L.U. is not sleeping!

Commenting on "Vested Interests in War" in the Washington Times-Herald, Frank C. Waldrop said: "American industry and invention will lick the price and production difficulties of rubber making just as they have licked the difficulties of every new enterprise since we started making our own clothes and hats in 1768 to lick the British overseas monopoly that was throttling our economy."

Referring to the Orders of Native Sons and Native Daughters of the Golden West placing homeless children in childless homes, the Saint Helena Star said editorially: "Any organization which contributes to the creation of homes for those who otherwise would have none is fighting for American ideals and its efforts should be supported."

In a suit challenging authority, District Judge Martin I. Welsh decreed the Federal Government has full legal right to intern alien and native-born Japs.

Rear Admiral Ben Morell, Chief of the United States Navy's Bureau of Yards and Docks, said in the course of an address: "The fellow who says everything you do is all right is not a true friend and is not interested in your success."

The California State Federation of Labor, at its forty-third annual convention in Long Beach, rejected a resolution proposing an amendment to the Constitution of the United States of America that would "cancel the citizenship of American-born persons of Japanese ancestry and bar them and alien Japanese from owning real estate."

MOUNTAIN CLUBHOUSE INITIATION SETTING

Crestline (San Bernardino County)—Many members of Arrowhead Parlor No. 110 and Santa Ana Parlor No. 265 N.S.G.W. gathered here October 24 to greet the grand officers on their annual visit to the former at its cosy clubhouse in the San Bernardino Mountains. Following a fine supper, thirty-eight candidates were initiated, thirty-seven for Arrowhead and one for Santa Ana, the ritual being exemplified by Grand Secretary John T. Regan, president; Past Grand President Chas. A. Koenig, senior past president and inside sentinel; Past Grand President Harmon D. Skillin, junior past president; Junior Past Grand President Edward T. Schnarr, first vice-president; Grand Trustee Walter N. Bailey, second vice-president; Grand President Lloyd J. Cosgrove, third vice-president; Grand Trustee Walter H. Odemar, marshal; Donald E. VanLaven, Arrowhead Parlor No. 110, pianist.

Immediately following the ceremonies Past Grand Skillin dedicated a beautiful handmade honor-roll, presented Arrowhead by William Arnold Yost, one of its initiates, containing the names of that Parlor's sixty-five members in the Republic's service. No. 110, incidentally, has more servicemen than any other Parlor of the Order. District Attorney Jerome Kavanaugh, on behalf of the parents of Jim Lynde, another of the Arrowhead initiates, presented him an emblematic pin.

At the invitation of President Arthur Johnson of Arrowhead, Grand President Cosgrove welcomed the new members, Grand Trustee Odemar, who was making his official visit to No. 110 and No. 265, complimented both Parlors, and there were brief remarks by Junior Past Grand President Schnarr, Grand Secretary Regan, Grand Trustee Bailey, District Deputies Thomas Gisler and John Bodkin, Past Grand President Koenig and Deputy Grand President Clarence M. Hunt. Also introduced were Deputies Avery Anderson and Elmer Hoen; Willard Allen and Charles Castillo of Los Angeles Parlor No. 45, and President Rene Lagier and Walter Hiskey of Santa Ana Parlor.

FOR THE CHRISTMAS TRADE, MORE than fifty tons of turkeys were received by San Francisco wholesalers, December 24, 1892. As a result the market, which had been firm at 30c a pound retail, took a sudden turn downward, and retailers were glad to get rid of the balance of their birds at 20c a pound.

Kaufman and F. H. Conn.

CHRISTMAS 1846

WITH THE CALIFORNIA MEXICAN WAR VOLUNTEERS

Dr. Peter T. Conmy, Grand Historian N.S.G.W.

(WRITTEN ESPECIALLY FOR THE GRIZZLY BEAR MAGAZINE.)

WHEN CHRISTMAS DAY 1942 dawned, thousands of democracy's defenders from England, from Russia and from the United States will find little time for thoughts of Yule or Christmas fun and happiness.

War is no respecter of person, neither does it respect holidays. The work of the defense of the nation must go on uninterrupted, irrespective of what traditional memories a holiday may recall or what observances, religious or social, it may impel. The present situation which the exigencies of war may impose upon both our soldier and sailor boys is no exception to what has happened in the past. Washington's famous crossing of the Delaware in 1777 is an example of conscientious attention to duty during the festive season. The history of California during 1846 affords an example of American soldiers who spent Christmas Day on the march, suffering and enduring privations, so that the cause of the United States against Mexico might be advanced.

For the information contained in this article we are indebted to Edwin Bryant, one of the early Alcaldes of the City of San Francisco. Born in Massachusetts in 1805, Bryant became a journalist in Kentucky and, in 1846, made the trek across the plains and over the mountains to California. He returned to the East in 1847 and immediately published his diary notes under the title, "What I Saw in California, Being a Journal of a Tour of the Emigrant Route and South Pass of the Rocky Mountains, Across the Continent of North America, the Great Basin, and Through California, in 1846 and '47, All of Which I Saw and Part of Which I Was."

Bryant's book was published by Appleton & Company in 1848. Following the announcement of the discovery of gold it was read widely in the East and is responsible for causing many to make the decision to migrate to California. It is not with the general description of affairs in the growing civilization along the Pacific that we are concerned here, but with the specific manner in which Christmas in 1846 was spent by certain volunteers of the Mexican War. It may not be amiss, however, to trace a few of the events leading up to the Christmas Day march.

Bryant, and a number of men who made the trip with him, left Independence, Missouri, for the West May 5, 1846. The journey, although difficult and perilous, was without any spectacular occurrences. The Truckee River was reached August 20th. August 25th they were at Donner Lake and observed and entered the cabin which had been erected by the Stevens-Murphy Party in 1844 and in which Moses Schallenberger had spent the winter. Pressing over the Sierra, they reached Sutter's Fort September 1st. They were well received by Sutter, but the Mexican War had broken out and soldiers of the United States Army, under Lieutenant Kern, had taken over the fort.

Bryant spent the whole month of September and part of October in visiting and observing the various missions, pueblos and settlements in California. The middle of October found him in San Francisco enjoying the hospitality of both Spanish and American people there. Commodore

A large party went lion and coyote hunting in Elysian Park, Los Angeles, December 29. A man named McCrea had reported the animals so numerous and destructive that four months previously he had lost a hundred pigs and as many turkeys and hens.

The greatest sporting event in Riverside in a long time was a game of football December 28 between teams of Stanford University and Chaffey College. Fully 2,000 people witnessed the game, which was won by Stanford.

A carload of celery was sent from Santa Ana, Orange County, to Kansas City, Missouri, December 14. It was the first shipment of the kind ever made from that locality. "Large quantities of garden truck grown in this vicinity will," it was said, "be marketed in the East hereafter."

The San Francisco Grand Jury, empaneled May 6, made its final report December 21. It demanded stringent enforcement of laws for the suppression of gambling and dives, scored the work of the New City Hall Commission, and said the tax on personal property could not be endorsed, "as it is a fine on industry and individual conscience."

Sloat had raised the United States of America Flag over Monterey July 7th. Under his direction, Captain Montgomery had raised the flag over San Francisco July 9th, and in rapid succession thereafter the flag was raised over all the principal points in Mexican California. Captain John C. Fremont of the United States Army, who was in California at the time, co-operated with the Navy in the occupation of the area. A serious attack upon the American control of California was threatened in the Los Angeles area, and the 12th of October Fremont left for the southland to assist in putting down the uprising. Bryant patriotically offered his service to the command, but was rejected on the theory that it was not necessary. Says the record:

"On the 12th of October Captain Fremont with a number of volunteers destined for the south, to co-operate with Commodore Stockton in the suppression of the reported rebellion at Los Angeles, arrived in San Francisco from the Sacramento. I had previously offered my services, . . . to Commodore Stockton . . . if they were necessary or desirable. They were now repeated. Although travelers in the country, we are American citizens, and felt under obligations to assist in defending the flag of our country, wherever it had been planted by proper authority. At this time we were given to understand that a larger force than was already organized, was not considered necessary for the expedition."

October 26th Bryant was at Sutter's Fort and was interested in listening to the story of James F. Reed of the Donner Party. Sutter was busy outfitting a group to go in relief of the members of that expedition, who were on the other side of the Sierra Nevada. The tranquility of the fort was disturbed, however, when a courier arrived from Monterey bearing the news that Mexican insurgents had attacked the United States Marines at San Pedro under command of Captain Mervine. It was also reported that Los Angeles and Santa Barbara had been taken over by the Mexicans.

This news having been received, Bryant had a clear duty to perform, as he saw it. He at once drew up a document offering his services and those of several others who had signed it not only as volunteers themselves, but also to recruit others for service. This document was addressed to Lieutenant Kern, in command of Sutter's Fort, and upon his acceptance of it, Bryant and his friends were officially a part of the United States Army. They lost no time in fulfilling the responsibilities which they had undertaken and rode off at once, visiting ranches and settlements far and wide, and securing men for the service of the United States.

The men recruited by Bryant, as well as those secured by other Americans, were assembled at San Juan Bautista [San Benito County] November 30th. This outfit is known in history as the California Battalion of Volunteers of the Mexican War. According to Bryant, it consisted of four hundred and twenty-eight officers and enlisted men. It was composed almost entirely of volunteers taken from the ranks of American emigrants who had been in California but a short time. Colonel John C. Fremont was in command. Bryant was commissioned first lieutenant of Company H.

December 2nd the battalion began its long march to the southern area of California to recapture what the Mexicans had wrested from control of the United States. The weather seems to have been most inclement during the entire journey, and there was a great deal of rain. The 21st of December found the party near Mission Santa Ynez, in what is now the northern part of Santa Barbara County. On the 24th they were on the summit of the mountains which enclose the coastal plain on which the present City of Santa Barbara is built. The weather was cloudy and cool, and there were intermittent showers. With a field glass the towers of Mission Santa Barbara could be seen in the distance. The diary entry for this date makes no mention of it being Christmas Eve. It closes with the significant statement, "The descent on the western side is precipitous, and appears almost impassable."

It was the descent of these steep mountains which was to constitute the battalion's Christmas. There was no frivolity here. It was a total war effort in the defense of country. In 1774, when the Anza Party was camped in the desert region, there was drinking on Christmas Eve to such an extent that Father Font made his Christmas sermon a denunciation of intoxication. In 1844, when Fremont was camped somewhere in what is now Modoc County, he allowed each man a drink of whisky in honor of Christmas. In 1849, when the Susan Drew was sailing on to California, plum duff was served in honor of the great holiday. But now, in 1846, a battalion was on the march, a war was being undertaken, and there was no deviation from the duty to be performed. Bryant writes in the diary:

"December 25. Christmas Day and a memorable one to me. Owing to the difficulty in hauling the cannon up the steep activities of the mountain, the main body of the battalion did not come up with us until twelve o'clock, and before we commenced the descent of the mountain a furious storm commenced, raging with a violence rarely surpassed. The rain fell in torrents, and the wind blew almost with the force of a tornado. This fierce strife of the elements continued without abatement the entire afternoon and until two o'clock at night. Driving our horses before us we were compelled to slide down the steep and slippery rocks, or wade through deep gullies and ravines filled with mud and foaming torrents of water . . . Many of the horses falling into the ravines refused to make an effort to extricate themselves and swept downwards and drowned. . . . The advance party did not reach the foot of the mountain and find a place to camp until night—and a night of more impenetrable and terrific darkness I never witnessed. The ground upon which our camp was made, although sloping from the hills to a small stream, was so saturated with water that men as well as horses sunk deep at every step. . . . All efforts to light a fire proved abortive, we spread our blankets upon the ground and endeavored to sleep, although we could feel the cold streams of water running through the tent and between and around our bodies."

At two o'clock in the morning of the 26th the rain stopped and Bryant made a fire and dried out his clothes. In this manner did the Californian Volunteers of the Mexican War spend Christmas Day in 1846. There was no celebration. There was no fun. There was no hilarity. There was sacrifice. There was attention to duty. There was patriotic heroism.

In 1942, members of the United States Army and Navy in many parts of the world will spend their Christmas with full attention to duty and with little of the traditional Christmas cheer. Thus they will follow the example of our Father Washington when he crossed the Delaware, which example was itself followed by the men of the California Battalion of 1846. Most of the men of the battalion remained, until death called them, in their adopted California. In the manner in which they served on Christmas Day in 1846, they have given us an everlasting monument of attention to duty.

Christmas Callers

MINNA MCGARVEY.

In the old familiar parlor the Christmas log burned low,

As the children came to rest at last within the rosy glow;

When suddenly a rapping and a rustling filled the air,

And a quaint and merry company appeared before them there.

They seemed to come from everywhere, from corners and from nooks,

And oh, they were beloved friends from treasured story books.

A breath of old New England, a gleam of golden hair,

And Meg, Jo, Beth and Amy are here the fun to share,

With Laurie right beside them, their gallant cavalier,

His black eyes gay with mischief—what joy to have them here!

And little Orphan Annie, it's just the time to tell

The story of the goblins that all children love so well.

Then bold Tom Sawyer makes his bow with Huckleberry Finn—

Those glorious adventurers, to every boy akin;

And here a little China boy, whoever can he be?

Of course! He's young Aladdin with his lamp, from o'er the sea.

And tho' the morning sunlight does drive many dreams away,

Those friends the children love so well remain with them alway!

HAS THE WHITE MAN LOST HIS HINGE?

"The idea of having laborers from Mexico harvest our crops, like the idea of having other nations win the war for us, has gone sour. Whatever trickle of labor we may get from Mexico will be on terms of the farmer wearing a yoke prepared by the Farm Security Administration, and surrendering much of the control of his own business. Thus the plan of using workers from Mexico dies in the arms of the socially minded persons at Sacramento and at Washington.

"This ought to be warning to California to do a little straight thinking about the problem. For a long time the idea has been prevalent in California that there are certain stoop jobs which white men should not be expected to do. The results, read in our state history, show that this idea has brought us a succession of social, moral and political problems.

"First we imported the Chinese to do our hard work. Then the Japanese. Next the Mexicans. And the Filipinos. Grief landed with each of these invasions. It set the stage for the Joads, and the Steinbecks, and the McWilliamses, and the Communists, and the Reds, and the Pinks. Isn't it time to face anew the problems of whether white men can stoop?

"Our boys in uniform are being taught to stoop. Every Commando trick of meeting dirty fighting with rough fighting is being taught as a preparation to victory. The war in the Solomons, and in Libya, and in Europe when we get into it, will not be a gentleman's war. We must stoop to conquer.

"Which brings up the matter of strategy on the home front where we struggle to supply the boys at the military front. Can't we stoop on war's home front? There is enough home labor to do the job—and it is our job, not the job of Mexico. No one has challenged the statement: THERE IS NO SHORTAGE OF WORKERS IN CALIFORNIA, MERELY A SHORTAGE OF WORKING.

"The Japs and Nazis whom we battle on the foreign front, and on the supply front at home, are willing to stoop. They have been doing it a long time, getting ready to defeat us. They probably would never have risked attacking us, if they had not felt that we were soft—too soft to stoop.

"Are we too soft to stoop? In these life and death times of emergency won't the hinge in the white back work? And what of the future? Can we maintain a white man's corner in a world four-fifths colored if most white men lack a hinge, and colored men have it?

"It would be cruel to raise these questions if it were not for the faith that white men, women and children can answer these questions successfully if leaders will quit misleading them with false hopes and put the questions frankly and courageously."—PACIFIC RURAL PRESS.

OUR OWN CHRISTMAS MIRACLE

KATHLEEN NORRIS.

A small, hot, crowded kitchen. A woman busy with cooking and washing, and the care of noisy small boys. And in a pillowed armchair, in the midst of the confusion, in the close air, a little girl, coughing her life away. The mother looks at her anxiously from time to time; a bottle of medicine is there, but it doesn't seem to help much.

Into this kitchen comes a strange woman. Smiling at them all, she explains that the doctor has arranged for Mary to go to a sanatorium to rest in bed, in the fresh air, to eat good, wholesome food. Help has come in time. She can be cured.

The overworked mother, the hardworking father love that child as you and I love ours. They would give their lives to save her. But they can't do this for her. They can't choose the right food, the perfect conditions. It would cost them thousands, and even if they had those thousands they wouldn't know how to manage it.

What do you think their bursting hearts feel toward the National Tuberculosis Association, and to you who, through that Association, do that for them? And for thousands like them. Tuberculosis, the hideous "white death" that has stalked unchecked for so many generations, is actually on the wane, and only the God of suffering humanity knows how great a share in that miracle is due to the unseen, untiring, unceasing work of the Christmas Seals.

For thirty-five years our Christmas rejoicings have been made all the happier because this note of truly divine charity has been a part of them. Your dollar and mine may seem insignificant, but nothing that America does when her heart is in it can be small. Last year those dollars of ours amounted to seven and a half millions.

Seven and a half millions; and most of it in one-dollar and two-dollar contributions. Well, I'm going to double mine this year, and persuade one or two other regular buyers of Seals to double theirs, too. If we all do that the crusade against consumption will be able to reach every case in the Union and build up walls of prevention and safeguarding that will save thousands from infection—perhaps the children you love, the grandchildren who are my world.

It was my experience some years ago to convey a weak, white-faced, coughing, "hopelessly sick" little girl of thirteen to the good sisters at Spuyten Duyvil, New York, for tuberculosis treatment. In a few weeks we dropped the "hopeless" from her diagnosis; in a few months she came home rosy and strong, full of laughter and high spirits, to care for a houseful of motherless brothers and sisters, and presently to go on to happy wifehood and motherhood of her own. This is not fiction; this is a true story. It is one of thousands.

Cut down on something else this year: Christmas tree trimmings, chestnuts in the dressing, fancy wrappings and ribbons. But double your purchase of Christmas Seals, and win your rightful share of the Christmas miracle.

DO WE?

CLARENCE M. HUNT.

Being muchly concerned about the future, as well as the present, welfare of California, and being thoroughly convinced that, unless the "seed of the sun" be entirely uprooted, the Japs will, following the present armed conflict, proceed with their "peaceful invasion" and eventually overrun this state, the writer proposes UNITED ACTION TODAY by organizations and individuals actually desirous of preserving California as a paradise of the White Man for all time. TOMORROW, after the war, will be TOO LATE! In the hope of permanently removing the Jap menace, this course of action is advocated:

Dispossess the Japs of every foot of land, rural and urban, to which they now claim title.

Challenge the citizenship of every Jap—his right to exercise in these United States the voting privilege.

Close every Jap-language school, and be certain that it is kept closed.

Do we, or do we not, really want to save this glorious heritage given into our keeping by our Pioneer Fathers and Mothers? If we have the will, this suggested course points the way! What's your answer?

Frank Hammack, born Amador City, Amador County, July 25, 1855; died Oakland, Alameda County, November 6; two daughters survive. He was affiliated with Amador Parlor No. 17 N.S.G.W. (Sutter Creek).

For the glorious past of our country, we praise Thee; for the precious heritage of our forefathers, we praise Thee, and we bless Thee for a united citizenship which preserves the integrity of our Republic."—Rev. CITY AND COUNTY

THE CALIFORNIA SHIPBUILDING CORPORATION launched the ninety-second 10,500-ton liberty ship for the Government of the United States of America at its Terminal Island plant November 9. The ship was christened Stephen M.

White, in honor of a distinguished Native Son of the Golden West, known as the "father of Los Angeles Harbor." M. J. Pecarovich, recreation supervisor of Calship, was master of ceremonies. Mrs. Gilbert Shea was the sponsor. Mrs. James Fitzpatrick was the matron-of-honor, and among the onlookers were Miss Hortense White and Mrs. Hazel White, daughter and daughter-in-law, respectively, of the honored one. In the course of his remarks, Pecarovich said:

"This ship is named the Stephen M. White. It is only appropriate that a ship built in California, and coming from California, should bear the name of a great Californian. Stephen Mallory White was born in San Francisco of Irish parentage. . . . Upon being admitted to the bar, in 1874, he began his noteworthy practice in Los Angeles, later serving as district attorney of that county. This was followed by one term in the State Senate. He was elected to the United States Senate in 1893 and served until March 1899. It is to Stephen M. White that San Pedro owes its existence as the most important port on the Pacific Coast."

A committee representing Stephen M. White Parlor No. 263 N.S.G.W. of San Pedro—Willard Buchanan, William Reuter, Leo Wright, John Gower, Boyd Rhodes and President Louis Molle—arranged for naming the ship in honor of Senator White, for many years a member of Ramona Parlor No. 109 N.S.G.W. of Los Angeles.

FIFTY EIGHTH ANNIVERSARY.

Los Angeles Parlor No. 45 N.S.G.W. celebrated its fifty-eighth institution anniversary November 12 at a pleasing and well-attended dinner party. President William Girard introduced as the toastmaster Grand Trustee Walter Odemar, and the big decorated birthday cake was cut by Albert Metz, the Parlor's oldest (85 years) member, and Recording Secretary Willard Allen, affiliated with the Order more than fifty years.

Greetings were extended by President Jack Burns for Centinela No. 279, the "baby" Parlor; Recording Secretary "Bob" Brazelton, for Arrowhead Parlor No. 110; Deputy Grand President Hervey Kitchin, for Ramona Parlor No. 109; Financial Secretary "Bill" Reuter, for Stephen M. White Parlor No. 263; Harry Leipsic, for University Parlor No. 272; Leonard Woodhouse, for East Los Angeles Parlor No. 277, and President Elmer Koop, for Hollywood Parlor No. 196. Other speakers were Clarence M. Hunt, Deputy Police Chief Arthur Hohmann, George Walker, Owen Adams, Grand Organist Roger Johnson and Andrew Stodel.

Los Angeles will have its annual Christmas party for about seventy-five children the evening of Tuesday, December 22, at its meetingplace, 1832 South Hope Street. A committee, with Owen Adams as chairman, is arranging for a fine time. Adults, as well as children, are invited, and Santa Claus has promised to be there in person. Other events on the Parlor's December calendar are: 10th, past presidents night; 17th, birthday party for Albert Metz. No meeting the 24th, Christmas Eve, or the 31st, New Year Eve.

ASTOUNDING FACTS.

The November program of Californiana Parlor No. 247 N.D.G.W. opened with a luncheon, the 1st, at the beautiful, new, Brentwood home of Mrs. Guy H. Dennis, a daughter of one of the Parlor's mainstays, Edith Harmon Adams. Covering an acre of landscaped ground and affording a touch of real country life, the Natives strolled about, enjoying a temporary vacation from the everyday routine of life. In the afternoon sewing for the Gertrude Circle was taken up, while President Estelle Flick and Ernestine Aylward explained the propositions on the November ballot.

Armistice Day was observed at the November 10 program luncheon, with Ethel Hearst, past state president of the Women's Auxiliary of the American Legion, as chairman. Martha Standee Decker, past national chaplain of the Auxiliary, offered a beautiful invocation, and Commander Walter E. Sullivan of the Los Angeles County Council of the American Legion read National Commander Roane Waring's message to the Legion.

The featured speaker, Deputy District Attorney Clyde C. Shoemaker, presented some astounding facts of the Jap design for the conquest of this country, and read several essays, written by Nisei as a regular part of the curriculum of Jap-language schools, plainly revealing the teaching of the inevitability of Japanese world domination. Editor Clarence M. Hunt of The Grizzly Bear Magazine, who for years has made a study of the Jap problem, gave warning that California will, in time, be lost to the White race unless steps are taken now to disfranchise these termites undermining our foundations. November 24 the Parlor had a Thanksgiving tea, arranged by Hospitality Chairman Isabella Granz.

SAN FRANCISCO—THE BOARD OF Grand Officers met November 14, with the following in attendance: Grand President Lloyd J. Cosgrove, who presided, Junior Past Grand President Edward T. Schnarr, Grand Second Vice-president Raymond D. Williamson, Grand Third Vice-president Richard F. McCarthy, Grand Secretary John T. Regan; Grand Trustees Walter H. Odemar, Walter N. Bailey, Thomas C. Ryan, Joseph E. Tinney, R. G. Power and Eben K. Smart.

The Japanese Legislative Committee reported the receipt to date of $1,750 from approximately 700 members. The Alien Land Law Committee reported progress. The Christmas Gift Committee reported responses from forty-eight Parlors.

The Federal War Department informed the Board it has no authority to build a dam for flood control and other purposes on the South Fork of the American River. That acknowledgment was in answer to a resolution adopted at the 1942 Grand Parlor, vigorously protesting such a project, because it would flood the site of Sutter's Mill, where gold was discovered by James W. Marshall, and also would inundate historic Coloma, El Dorado County.

A committee including Grand Third Vice-president McCarthy, and Grand Trustees Tinney and Ryan was appointed to recommend to the Board at its next meeting a substitute altar decoration for use in Subordinate Parlors. The action was taken after the reading of a letter from the United States Flag Association, stating that to place the Bible upon the United States of America Flag is a violation of the flag code.

A vote of confidence was given the Japanese Legislative Committee for the work done and being done.

The Grand Secretary was directed to address a letter to the State Hotel Association calling attention to a complaint about the difficulties encountered by members in the military service getting hotel accommodations throughout the state.

A letter was ordered sent District Deputy Woodrow W. Wade of University Parlor No. 272 (Los Angeles), expressing appreciation for the fine work done by him and his assistants in the organizing of Centinela Parlor No. 279 (Inglewood).

A motion prevailed that a credit of $150 "be allowed Centinela Parlor No. 279 upon receipt of notices of fifty new members in this Parlor."

Considerable routine business was transacted, and at 7:45 p.m. the Board adjourned to the call of the Grand President.

Civic Participation Urged.

Bakersfield—In joint session here for the official visit of Grand Second Vice-president Raymond D. Williamson, Bakersfield No. 42 and Taft No. 276 had several visitors November 7. Two candidates were initiated for the latter Parlor, the ritual being exemplified by:

Grand Second Vice-president Williamson, addressing the assemblage, urged the Parlors to actively participate in all civic affairs in their communities and to endeavor to get former members to return to the fold. Other speakers included all those who participated in the ritual rendition, and Grand Marshal Hal Bannister, Supervising Deputy Howard Woodward, District Deputy William Wheat, President James Fleharty of Taft, Financial Secretary Charles Johnson of Bakersfield, Ernest Cuthbertson, Kern County Recorder Charles Shomate, George Morris, and President William Stine of Bakersfield.

Prior to the meeting Bakersfield Parlor had

"open house" and served a delicious venison dinner. The piece-de-resistance was provided by Recording Secretary Wm. G. Rea Junior, and it was cooked by Merrill Caldwell, assisted by his wife and Roy Loudon. The Parlor's general arrangements committee for the occasion included Ralph Hinderliter, chairman, "Bill" Rea, Tony Borgus, George Morris, Roy Loudon, Carl Luick, Wm. Stine, Merrill Caldwell and Hal Bannister.

Builder Honored.

Ventura—Some 150 members attended the October 27 dinner-meeting of Cabrillo No. 114. A fine turkey feast was enjoyed, and the Parlor's uniformed orchestra entertained. At the business session, District Attorney Arthur Waite presided in the absence of the president, Superior Judge Louis Drapeau. With Grand Trustee Walter Odemar, who was paying his official visit, acting as president, seven candidates were initiated.

Eddie Hearne, one of the chief builders of the wonder-Parlor, Cabrillo, was the honoree of the evening, and a splendid, deserved tribute was paid him by Charles Blackstock. Grand Trustee Odemar praised the Parlor and its members, and other speakers were W. W. White, one of the initiates, Adolfo Camarillo, Deputy Grand President Clarence M. Hunt, Recording Secretary John Morrison and "Gogetem" Ed Hearne. Also introduced were Recording Secretary Willard Allen of Los Angeles No. 45 and Charles Gasagne of Ramona No. 109, and Charlie Feraud clowning as usual.

At a daytime meeting November 1, Cabrillo added ten more names to its roll, bringing its membership to 490. All the candidates were men who, because of other activities, are unable to attend nighttime meetings. The Parlor is rapidly becoming the leader in Ventura County civic affairs, and is now working with the Ventura City Planning Commissions on two projects, the details of which will soon be announced.

Twenty-five-Year Emblems Presented.

Ferndale—Ferndale No. 93 had its annual turkey feast November 16. The feature of the occasion was the presentation by the Parlor of twenty-five-year emblems to Albert M. Hansen, Leo B. Christen, J. J. Bognuda, Leslie R. Martin, Henry S. Beck and Froda C. Petersen.

District Deputy Henry E. Giacomini made the presentation address, and among the visitors were District Deputy William Lambert and Deputy Grand President Ray Breeden of Humboldt No. 14 (Eureka). The banquet was prepared under the supervision of Charles Kistner.

Annual Thanksgiving Dinner.

San Bernardino—Arrowhead No. 110 had its annual Thanksgiving turkey dinner, November 25, with the families and friends of its members and those of Lugonia No. 241 N.D. as honor-guests. Raymond O. Powers was general chairman of arrangements, and the dinner was prepared and served by a committee headed by Joseph Shallenberger.

Gift night was held in connection with the event, and President Arthur O. Johnson made plans for the awarding of gifts to the guests. Mrs. Hazel Brazelton, wife of Recording Secretary R. W. Brazelton, provided a year's subscription to The Grizzly Bear Magazine as one of the gifts.

William Shay, who affiliated with Arrowhead September 12, 1900, died November 10. The last of four sons of one of the first White settlers of San Bernardino County, he was born May 14, 1860, at the homestead established by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter A. Shay Sr. For more than sixty years he engaged in cattle raising and lumbering in the county. Graveside rites for deceased, under the auspices of the Parlor, were conducted by Dr. Robert L. White and Police Judge Donald E. VanLoven.

Subordinate Parlors Rewarded.

Grand President Lloyd J. Cosgrove agreed to reward Subordinate Parlors with $25 war bonds for every six candidates initiated during September and October. In accordance therewith, the following awards have been made:

BOY SCOUTS GUESTS OF NATIVES.

Troop No. 82 Boy Scouts of America was adopted by the N.S.G.W. and N.D.G.W. Grove of Memory Association in 1920, and its members have always been ready to serve at all times, especially at the memorial services held annually in the Natives' Grove of Memory in Golden Gate Park.

So, in appreciation for the many courtesies extended, the boys were guests of the Association at a party at the home of Scoutmaster Henry Kahn. A delightful patriotic program was presented. President Ann Dippel appointed as chairman of the affair Nora Schefflin, who was assisted by Bertha Mouser and Lola Porter. Anita Craig and Louise DeMartini collected more than fifty scrapbooks, made by members, which were presented Scoutmaster Kahn for distribution to the little ones in local hospitals.

When planning your Christmas giving don't forget the homeless children—a worthwhile project of the Native Sons and Native Daughters of the Golden West.

OLD GLORY PRESENTED.

The annual bazar of Orinda Parlor No. 56 N.D.G.W. was a great success, financially and socially. The afternoon card party November 4 was an enjoyable and well-attended affair. November 27 a party for the members having birthdays that month was held.

Past Grand President Orinda Giannini presented a United States of America Flag to Orinda, November 13, and Past Grand President Emma Foley made a dedicatory address, her theme being "Americanism." The Parlor will have its annual Christmas party December 11. Edna Maggi is chairman of arrangements and a happy evening is promised.

ARMISTICE DAY BANQUET.

South San Francisco Parlor No. 157 N.S.G.W. had its twenty-third annual Armistice Day banquet November 11, with more than 250 in attendance. Thirty-one members of the Parlor were eligible for twenty-five-year emblems, and twenty-three were there to receive them. To date, a total of 203 members of No. 157 have received the sterling silver emblems. Honored guests of the occasion were those who served in World War One, forty of the sixty-eight being present. Grand Secretary John Regan, a member of South San Francisco, was master of ceremonies.

DALY CITY—CHRISTINE HULME, who has served the Order for twenty years, was installed third vice-president of El Carmelo No. 181 November 4. Deputy Mary Fischer, who officiated, was assisted by Florence Hopman and Louise Eliassen. At the social following the meeting she was seated at a table of honor with all the Parlor's past presidents and the November birthdays. Program Chairman Irene Littlewood introduced Marie Davis, who directed a play titled "The Three Old Maids," with Marge Baker, Dorothy Donofrio and Florence Becker as the three spinsters. The result was a laugh riot. Between acts the audience joined in community singing, and at the close of the entertainment refreshments were served in a beautiful autumn setting.

Members of the Parlor are busy rounding up activities scheduled for the term of President Florence Flynn. Those gifted with dressmaking talent are finishing a beautiful fifty-piece wardrobe all scaled to fit a beautiful doll, "Carmelo," to be on sale at the annual Christmas tree party. Another project scheduled for completion by December 10 is the El Carmelo Cook Book, composed of tested recipes submitted by various members. Proceeds from the sale of Christmas cards and gift wrappings will help carry on the Parlor's wonderful welfare work.

At a recent meeting of the San Mateo County N.D. Parlor, History Chairman Eloise Schillig announced the San Mateo Historical Society has begun a registration of all the veterans of World War One residing in the county. During the past three years El Carmelo has registered more than 1,000 pioneers with the Grand Parlor Pioneer Roster Committee.

President Surprised.

San Diego—San Diego No. 208 had a very successful autumn card party under the general chairmanship of Mrs. Anna Simmonds. Decorations, tallies and favors were in autumnal colors. Eight candidates were initiated during the past month. A potluck luncheon which preceded the November 24 meeting featured a surprise for President Lena Baines, a large birthday cake—the date being the anniversary of her birth.

Members of San Diego are devoting their spare time to meeting at the home of Mrs. Eleanor Horr, chairman for Red Cross; they have completed two large quilts. Other members are assisting at the USO, and the Parlor as a whole is active in selling war bonds and stamps. The officers club met November 6 at the home of Second Vice-president Coral Jobbins; Past President Myrtle Marvin was cohostess.

Gifts For Servicemen.

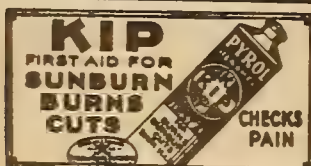

Albany—Albany No. 260 had a most successful turkey whist, with Nellie Sherwood as the New High in Membership Interest.

Santa Barbara—Possibly no Parlor has been more faithful than Reina del Mar No. 126 in carrying out Grand President Claire Lindsey's quarterly program based on the four principles upon which the Order is founded. Piloted by Mrs. Mabel Erwin, a new high in membership interest was established November 19 with a pre-Thanksgiving dinner-meeting. The program was built around the Order's fourth principle, "Abiding Faith in the Existence of God," with appropriate musical numbers by Mrs. Robert Phelan.

Mrs. William A. Birss, first vice-president and national defense and civic participation chairman for the Parlor, prepared for the dinner-meeting by assembling Reina del Mar's board of officers and members of Grand Parlor standing committees at her home for careful planning. Education week and veterans welfare were not overlooked by the membership. Others participating in the program at the dinner-meeting or at the recep-

When planning your Christmas giving don't forget the homeless children—a worthwhile project of the Native Sons and Native Daughters of the Golden West.

Angels Camp—Princess No. 84 had a benefit food sale November 21. Arrangements were in charge of Marguerite Tennyson, Marguerite Luly, Rose Fletcher and Christine Sonke. December 9 the Parlor will have its annual Christmas party, with Isabelle Raggio, Hildred Mayo and Lorraine Valente as hostesses.

Hollister—Copa de Oro No. 105's annual card party for the benefit of the homeless children was a decided success, netting $200. President Mae Houston and assisting officers exemplified the ritual, and an original poem, "The Pioneers," was read by the author, Frances Davis. A formal dinner preceded the business session, and during the social hour at the close of the meeting refreshments were served.

"In these times there is a great opportunity for members of civic participation committees [of Subordinate Parlor] to demonstrate how firmly the Order is grounded in its patriotism. GOLDEN WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

BELLE H. MAGUIRE.

Los Angeles—An affair of interest to many Natives, as well as to members of pioneer families, was the golden wedding anniversary reception of Frederick B. and Harriet (Smith) LeVitt, November 8, at the Women's University Club, the parlors of which were tastefully decorated with chrysanthemums and greenery. Friends and relatives from Sacramento to Catalina Island, and points in between, gathered to greet the couple, who were the recipients of many beautiful gifts. While awaiting the re-enactment of the 1892 wedding ceremony, Mrs. Eleanor McGinnis, accompanied by Miss Jean Ormon, sang several numbers.

Rev. Paul A. Davis of the Congregational Conference of Southern California presided, and as the wedding procession entered, Glenn A. LeVitt of Ramona Parlor No. 109 N.S.G.W., the bridal couple's eldest son, sang "I Love You Truly." Mrs. LeVitt being one of the first members of Californiana Parlor No. 247 N.D.G.W., the entire corps of officers attended as bridesmaids, with Mrs. Earl (Emma) Osborn as matron-of-honor. The sons and sons-in-law of the couple acted as ushers, and William Henry Smith, an uncle of the bride, was bestman. Richard B. Clark, a grandson, was the ring bearer and his little sister was the flower girl. Mrs. LeVitt was gowned in a handsome afternoon formal with gold spangled bodice and carried an old-fashioned bouquet of yellow roses in a gold-lace holder. The matron-of-honor and the ten bridesmaids were attired alike in blue taffeta formals and carried nosegays of golden yellow pompon chrysanthemums. Five generations were present.

Mrs. LeVitt, a member of the pioneer Smith family of Fresno, is a granddaughter of William W. Smith, who came around the Horn to California in 1849 with a twin brother, Joseph L. Smith, a minister of the Christian Church, and founded the town of Antioch, Contra Costa County. An uncle of Mrs. LeVitt, Charles Henry Smith, affiliated with Ramona Parlor No. 109 N.S.G.W., was a charter member of the Society of Native Sons, the forerunner of the Order of Native Sons of the Golden West. Mr. LeVitt, early-day miner and trailblazer of the Mother Lode region, in recent years laid out and built the fine trail system around Lake Tahoe.

Hospital and will remember its "adopted" veteran.

Placenta—Grace No. 242 had a very successful benefit card party, sponsored by the homeless children committee, November 5. Supervising Deputy Marguerite McKenzie was in attendance. Mrs. Erna Watts was hostess to the sewing club November 10. Twenty-five members enjoyed her hospitality, and spent the time working on a quilt.

Christmas Greetings

"To the Officers and Members of Subordinate Parlors Native Daughters of the Golden West—Dear Sisters: 'Tis Christmas, and again we light the candle of remembrance in our hearts.'

"We are now in the quarter of our year, which, based upon the four principles of our Order, is designated 'Abiding Faith in the Existence of God.' As this quarter's program gives us the opportunity of realizing the fullness of our thanks for our being, we approach the Holiday Season with a feeling of gratefulness in our hearts, not unmindful of the year of strain and difficulties for our people; but through it all, a people with a great understanding of charity in its fullest sense, and a people united, stronger than ever.

"At the Holiday Season most of us are inclined to think more seriously of the beauties of life and the things which make it real; and what a great change there would be throughout the nations of the world at this particular Christmas if the loving remembrance of Him whose birth we celebrate were applied after the great doctrines of brotherhood and the principles of the Golden Rule were practiced. What a lesson this would mean to every human being!

"And so, at the Christmas Season, I send my greetings, with profound esteem and with a prayer for each of you, that peace may soon come to this Nation of ours, and that happiness will flow into each of your hearts and homes.

"Sincerely and fraternally yours,

Claire Lindsey

"GRAND PRESIDENT N.D.G.W.
"Oakland, November 20, 1942."

AN INEXPENSIVE CHRISTMAS GIFT that will be enjoyed throughout the year is THE GRIZZLY BEAR. Sent anywhere in the United States for $1.50; lower rate for clubs of five or more. Remember your friends with a year's subscription for 1942.

Following a supper a business session was held, at which two candidates were initiated, and the Parlor donated $5 each to the Livermore Veterans Hospital and the Grand Parlor Veterans Welfare Committee. Grand President Lindsey spoke on "The Importance of Our V for Victory Spirit," and other speakers were Grand Vice-president Mary Noerenberg, Grand Secretary Sallie Thaler and Supervising Deputy Ethel Enos.

When planning your Christmas giving don't forget the homeless children—a worthwhile project of the Native Sons and Native Daughters of the Golden West.

Fresno—Wawona No. 271 had a public card party, with refreshments, November 6. The Wawona Sewing Club met November 13 at the new home of Mrs. Etha Holton in Fowler.

San Juan Bautista—Past Presidents Association No. 13 entertained State President Ann Dinnel October 26. During the business period, which was preceded by a covered-dish dinner, a candidate was initiated and a war-winning bond was purchased. A Hollowe'en program was presented and, for the Association, Rose Guilhamet presented Mrs. Dinnel a tray of San Benito County fruits surrounding a pumpkin, the seeds of which were war-winning stamps. Other visitors were State Secretary Mae Shea, State Director Dollie Weller and Past State President Alice Ross.

PREHISTORIC REPTILE REMAINS

FOUND IN SAN JOAQUIN VALLEY.

Remains of two distinct mosasaurus have been found in the San Joaquin Valley, the first time this prehistoric reptile was proved to have existed in California, according to Dr. C. L. Camp, professor of paleontology at the University of California. The animals were sea lizards, some thirty-five feet long, with paddlelike limbs and long, flexible bodies.

The remains, found in Merced County and in the Panoche Hills, represent two genera, distinct from any known elsewhere.

"No crime is more infamous than the violation of truth."—Dr. Johnson.

In Memoriam

ANNIE OLIVER WITTER.

To the Officers and Members of Manzanita Parlor No. 29 N.D.G.W.—We, your committee, submit the following resolutions of respect to the memory of our departed Sister, Annie Oliver Witter:

Whereas, A member of our Order for forty four years has been called to her Eternal Home, our Parlor has lost a true and faithful member. May the memory of her loving smile and kind and generous deeds be an inspiration to us all.

Those whom we love, go out of sight,
But never out of mind;
They are always cherished in the hearts
Of those they leave behind.

Resolved, That we extend our sincere sympathy to her family and that a copy of these resolutions be sent to them; that a copy be spread upon the minutes and a copy sent to The Grizzly Bear Magazine.

A fine program, which included a demonstration of weight lifting by John Elsey and motion pictures, was presented, and refreshments in abundance were served. The committee in charge included President Jack Burns, Howard Sellers, Earl Isbell, Ruble Caebert, Orison Wade, James Albright and Robert Bawolski. TELEPHONE BRIDGE.

Long Beach — Long Beach Parlor No. 154 N.D.G.W., represented by Virginia Herbage, Gertrude Riddle and Ella Bozeman, successfully competed with the Van Nuys Episcopal Guild in a radio quiz on "Women of the Bible," and was awarded $30. November 5 the Parlor initiated five candidates.

A telephone bridge is billed for December 5; the proceeds will go to the homeless children committee. Long Beach endorses the suggestion of The Grizzly Bear that the Japs be disfranchised and that they be dispossessed of the land to which they now claim title, and has contributed to the fund of the anti-Jap committee.

UNIVERSITY PARLOR NEWS.

University Parlor No. 272 N.S.G.W. will have but one meeting during December, that of the 2nd. It will be the last time Harold Shoemaker will preside as president. Commencing in January, the Parlor will meet twice a month.

One of President-elect Harold Faubion's first acts will be the appointment of a transportation chairman, whose duty will be to enlist the support of members residing in various sections in rounding up other members and bringing them to meetings. He promises a membership increase of at least ten per cent during his term, and says the Parlor will continue its march ahead. First Vice-president Oliver Kent will head the new good of the order committee.

EVERYONE INVITED.

East Los Angeles Parlor No. 266 N.D.G.W. had a very successful party October 24. Dorothy Camy, Betty Mark, Evelyn White, Aletha Selby and Virginia Cook were the hostesses. The annual Hallowe'en dance, sponsored jointly by the Parlor and East Los Angeles Parlor No. 277

N.S.G.W., was a great success and enriched the treasuries of both. Some 200 were present, and all had a grand time. No. 266 regrets the passing November 6 of Lorena Gillespie, one of its most faithful members.

Sunday, December 6, from 8 a.m. to 12 noon, the East Los Angeles Native Daughters and Native Sons will have a waffle breakfast at Poppy Trail Villa, 4558 1/2 Whittier Boulevard, to which everyone is invited. The price will be but thirty cents, including tax, and a portion of the proceeds will go to the homeless children project sponsored by both Orders. The breakfast is under the supervision of Mrs. Philomena Wooster.

White Parlor at its institution February 15, 1925. He was a past president of the latter, and at the time of his passing was its treasurer, a position he had faithfully filled the past fourteen years. LORENA GILLESPIE.

To the Officers and Members of East Los Angeles Parlor No. 266 Native Daughter of the Golden West — We, your committee, herewith submit the following resolutions of respect to the memory of our late Sister:

Whereas, The passing of our dearly beloved Sister Lorena Gillespie to her Heavenly Home and to her awaiting Lord has been completed; and

Whereas, Her passing is a personal loss to each and every one of our members because of the beautiful life of example she set for us to follow. Be it

Resolved, That this expression of our respect and love to the memory of our beloved Lorena be spread upon the minutes of the Parlor; that a copy be sent to her husband, and that a copy be sent to The Grizzly Bear Magazine

William F. Reilly, affiliated with Ramona Parlor No. 109 N.S.G.W., died November 20. He was a native of San Francisco, aged 55.

N.S.G.W. — NEWS PARAGRAPHS. — N.D.G.W.

The December calendar for Ramona Parlor No. 109 N.S.G.W. includes: 4th, birthdays of members born in December will be celebrated; refreshments. 11th, initiation, followed by games and refreshments. 18th, "stag" Christmas party; dinner at 6:30, business meeting at 8:15, entertainment at 9; a five-dollar feast and show for fifty cents! No other affairs until January 8, 1943. Hervey L. Kitchin has been elected recording secretary of Ramona.

When planning your Christmas giving don't forget the homeless children—a worthwhile project of the Native Sons and Native Daughters of the Golden West. Santa Monica—Santa Monica Bay Parlor No. 267 N.S.G.W. discussed war problems and gas rationing at a well-attended meeting November 10. President Hector Baida presided, and among the speakers were Roy Griswold, Lee Winters, District Deputy John Bodkin, Robert Spencer, R. C. Eshelman and Albert Seaman. Joseph Baudette and assistants served refreshments at the meeting's close.

Canoga Park—Topanga Parlor No. 269 N.D.G.W. had its annual benefit bazar November 19. The usual faithfuls were in charge, and the financial result was beyond all expectations. A comfort was disposed of by the homeless children committee, and the Parlor's quota for that worthy project is now assured. The first vice-president secured a nine-piece orchestra of radio stars, who donated their time. The orchestra was under the direction of Charles Dant who, with Gordon Jenkins, sponsored the donation. This is said to have been the first dance music heard in the west end of the valley in many a day.

Long Beach—The "victory varieties stag" of Long Beach Parlor No. 278 N.S.G.W., November 13, was a huge success. Fred Taylor, President Claude Riddle, Chester French and Robert Castro directed the activities.

Grand President Lloyd Cosgrove made the presentation address; Past Grand President Henry Lyon spoke on Armistice Day; Past Grand President Harmon Skillin told about the homeless children project; Past President John Ryan responded for the twenty-five-year members and Treasurer F. H. Elvander for the veterans of the World War One, and there were brief addresses by Sheriff Daniel C. Murphy, Grand Second Vice-president Raymond D. Williamson, Grand Third Vice-president Richard F. McCarthy, Grand Historian Peter T. Conmy and Grand Trustee Thomas C. Ryan. Miss Elaine Olson, accompanied by Mrs. Rochoff, pleased with musical numbers.

Just prior to the banquet's conclusion the assemblage stood in silence for a moment in memory of four members of the Parlor who gave their lives in the first world war, and a member in the United States Air Corps recently killed at San Diego.

FOURTEEN INITIATED.

A large group of Native Daughters assembled to welcome Grand President Claire Lindsey when she officially visited Genevieve Parlor No. 132 and Utopia Parlor No. 252, in joint session November 5. Fourteen candidates were initiated, twelve for Genevieve and two for Utopia, and the Grand President delivered an inspiring message. Also in attendance were Grand Secretary Sallie Thaler, Grand Marshal Emily Ryan, Grand Trustee Loretta Cameron, Past Grand Presidents Mariana Bertola, Evelyn Carlson, Ann Thuesen and Orinda Giannini, Supervising Deputy Kay Jensen and Deputies Mildred Elhert and Evelyn Rizzo.

December 5, Genevieve will entertain twenty-five servicemen from the Presidio of San Francisco at an indoor picnic. A fine time is anticipated, and there will be lots of good things to eat. The Parlor's welfare committee prepared kits for the boys overseas, and at Christmas time many of the local servicemen will receive remembrances. Genevieve drum corps recently honored four brides at a tea. Miniature brides and wedding-bell placecards were the table decorations, and each bride was presented a gift of silver.

FIFTIETH ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATION.

Precita No. 187 N.S.G.W., the home Parlor of Grand President Lloyd J. Cosgrove, celebrated its fiftieth birthday at a banquet November 14. It was instituted November 11, 1892, by Grand Vice-president John T. Greany, Grand Secretary Henry Lunstedt and assistants, George N. Van Orden and H. J. Day were, respectively, the charter president and secretary.

Henry S. Spaulding was the toastmaster, and a splendid program of entertainment and speaking was enjoyed by the more than one hundred in attendance. The principal addresses were delivered by Grand President Cosgrove and Past Grand President Lewis F. Byington. The former, for the Parlor, presented fifty-year membership emblems to Charter Members John A. Driscoll, John J. Galvin, Wm. H. Griffin, George Jacobsen, James P. Mallon, Henry F. Striegel and August Wehrmann.

Others present were Junior Past Grand President Edward Schnarr, Grand First Vice-president Wayne Millington, Grand Second Vice-president Wayne Raymond Williamson, Grand Third Vice-president Richard McCarthy, Grand Secretary John Regan, Grand Historian Peter Conmy; Grand Trustees Walter Odemar, Walter Bailey, Thomas Ryan, R. G. Power and Eben K. Smart; Past Grand President Joseph J. McShane, and two fifty-year members of Rincon Parlor No. 72 who participated in the institution of Precita, Past Grand President James Wilson and Financial Secretary John Gilmore.

THE OLDEST ADOBE HOUSE now standing in San Francisco is, according to George W. Hendry of the University of California, the officers club at the Presidio, built in 1791. The first building in San Francisco proper, however, was made of sailcloth tacked over a rough frame. Erected in 1835 on Yerba Buena, it was inhabited by William A. Richardson, first captain of the port of San Francisco.

CLARENCE M. HUNT.

"The charm of Christmas lies in the thought that we live in the memory of our friends."

A correspondent of The Grizzly Bear offers this excellent suggestion: "A new world map without a Jap."

"The four horsemen of disease which have done most to direct the outcome of campaigns and the course of civilization are probably typhus, plague, dysentery and malaria," says Dr. Theodore D. Beckwith.

Conforming with the Federal Government's order reducing the maximum speed of all motor vehicles to thirty-five miles an hour resulted in a 24 percent decrease in the nation's traffic toll during the first nine months of this year.

Tokyo announces the formation of a Church of Christ of Japan, the unification of all Protestant denominations in that country on a permanent basis.

Could be a little brother of the United States' pro-Jap Federation of Churches of Christ in America!

And the National Council of Young Men's Christian Associations has voted to aid the assimilation of Jap evacuees by American communities.

The Secretary of the State Board of Equalization thinks California property taxes should be reduced as much as fifty percent in some cases to ease the taxpayers' load.

Either the load must be reduced appreciably, or there will be a considerable reduction in the number of load-carriers.

When planning your Christmas giving, don't forget the homeless children—a worthwhile project of the Orders of Native Sons and Native Daughters of the Golden West.

The War Production Board requests that there be no outdoor Christmas lighting. So, the world's oldest and tallest living Christmas tree—the 364-foot tall Sequoia Sempervirens, popularly known as "The Founder's Tree," that stands in southern Humboldt County,—will not be lighted this year.

In Japan, Whites in concentrations camps are fed a few grains of rice and fish heads. In the United States, Japs in "relocation centers" are fed the fat of the land—the same highclass fare served this country's servicemen.

We're too soft! The Japs here should be treated and fed just as are the Whites in Japan.

Catholic prelates declared in a recent public statement: "Totalitarianism, whether Nazi, Communist or Fascist, cannot write a real and lasting peace. The state that usurps total powers, by that very fact becomes a despot to its own people and a menace to the family of nations."

Declaring the people would be "shocked and indignant" to learn that the Federal Government now has three times as many employees as it had when the 1918 armistice was signed, and that 100,000 new civilian employees have been and are being added monthly since Pearl Harbor, United States Senator Harry F. Byrd of Virginia charged the Government with being "the chief offender in the waste and hoarding of manpower," and declared dismissal of a third of the Government's civilian employees would help the war effort.

Apparently some of the people were "indignant," judging from the November election results.

The evacuation of Japs from the Pacific Coast, and the economic, political and sociological consequences of the movement are to be studied by the University of California. In making the announcement, President Robert G. Sproul said:

"The objective of this three-year study will be to provide a factual basis for permanent settlement of the Japanese-American minority problem in this country, which war has aggravated, and at the same time to lay a foundation for possible settlement of equivalent problems in Europe which peace will leave unsettled."

The Jap problem in this country can be settled correctly and permanently only by the expulsion of every Jap from the country at the close of the war.

The military commander of Hawaii announces some of that territory's 161,000 Japs are to be sent to the United States mainland.

More stock for the breeding of "peaceful invasion" soldiers. "Ducky," if they should be lost in transit!

The secretary of the Japanese-American League said in Salt Lake City, "There will be no more 'Little Tokio' after the war," referring to the Jap quarter in Los Angeles prior to Pearl Harbor.

He's right, to the extent that, if the Japs are permitted to return here after the war, Los Angeles will eventually become Tokio, the capital of Japan's California.

Cheer up, coffee drinkers. Major coffee companies are purchasing Santa Barbara County's extra-large crop of garbanzo beans.

In the San Francisco Superior Court, a Jap named Matsuyama was permitted to change his name to Wallman, so that he would be recommended for officers training school in the United States Army.

Another example of Jap cunning and deceitfulness!

In the injunction suit of John T. Regan of the California Immigration Committee vs. Cameron King, registrar of voters of the City and County of San Francisco, an appeal has been taken to the United States Circuit Court of Appeal.

This action, referred to in The Grizzly Bear for June and for August 1942, was brought May 7 in the District Court of the United States of America in and for the Northern District of California, Southern Division. It was heard by Federal Judge A. F. St. Sure, and by him dismissed July 2.

The purpose of the suit, as set forth in the complaint, is to have the registrar "ordered and directed to strike and remove the names of . . . Japanese from the register of voters of the City and County of San Francisco and . . . to terminate and cancel their registration." In other words, have the voting privilege denied all Japs.

Juvenile sex delinquency is, according to nationwide reports, rising at an alarming rate, and there will be a bumper crop of unwanted war-babies.

Women's clubs of Fresno County, linked with the California Federation of Women's Clubs, have adopted a resolution demanding statewide unified action to solve the girl-soldier problem.

Addressing the Federation of Jewish Women in New York, Magistrate Jeannette G. Brill attributed the "sad situation" to a psychology today existing among younger girls. She asserted: "They label themselves the Victory Girls. They think that the boys are here today, but may be dead tomorrow, and they reason: 'We'll give them all they want!'"

Speaking in the United States Senate in opposition to the drafting of 18- and 19-year-old boys for war service, Senator Claude Pepper of Florida said: "Let us remember these are youths, not men. We do not consider them mature enough to vote for us. How dare we consider them mature enough to die for us?"

Well, our boys—God bless and protect them!—are to be drafted. But, Hirohito's boys in the United States are to be safeguarded, fed the best the land affords, and given every educational advantage,—even special teachers being employed at high pay to instruct them in art—all at the added expense of our boys' mothers and fathers.

Ye gods!

Los Angeles Parlor No. 124 N.D.G.W. is now giving canteen service at a downtown USO. Members are also assisting that organization by making 100 service kits to be given servicemen at Christmas time. The youth activities committee is urging members to make scrapbooks.

The membership of Los Angeles being spread over such a large area, they are serving the Red Cross, USO and other war-active organizations in their several neighborhoods. However, the headquarters for war stamp and bond buying is in downtown Los Angeles—a booth near the corner of Third and Broadway. Civic Chairman Grace Norton heads the committee that serves there every Friday.

Nine candidates were initiated during November. The party of the month was sponsored by the americanism, the home front and the national defense committees, with Ellen Wilson in charge. Accordion and vocal solos were enjoyed, and games were played. The Parlor's annual Christmas party will be held December 16. The book omcers compose the arrangements committee. Twenty-five-cent gifts will be exchanged.

SPAGHETTI DINNER.

La Reina Parlor No. 267 N.D.G.W. welcomed six new member November 12. In the absence of Margaret Kerr, americanism chairman of the Thirty-third District, Edith Metz arranged the plans for the Native Daughters at the Main Street USO. The shift was a great success, and serving and talking with the servicemen was a great thrill for all participating.

Thursday, December 10, at 6:30 p.m., La Reina will serve a spaghetti dinner at the Arlington Masonic Hall, Arlington and Washington Streets. The price, seventy-five cents per person. All Natives and their friends are asked to attend, as the proceeds will be used for the homeless children and other Parlor projects. For reservations call Cleveland 66633.

N.S.G.W. LUNCHEON CLUB.

The N.S.G.W. Friday Luncheon Club had a surprise birthday party October 30 for Pioneer Joseph Mesmer. He was born in Ohio, November 3, 1855, and arrived in Los Angeles County in September 1859. Edwin A. Meserve was chairman of the day.

November 13 the Club elected officers, and by unanimous vote Municipal Judge Frank G. Tyrrell was made chairman and Hervey Kitchin was retained as secretary. Brief talks on "The Purpose of the Friday Luncheon Club as I See It" were given by George Cuthbertson, John Haas and Clarence M. Hunt, and other speakers were Moritz Rosenthal and Grand Trustee Walter Odemar.

E. Manfred Evans, supervisor of adult education in Los Angeles, gave an informative address November 20 on "Adult Education in Los Angeles." He said more than 200,000 adults, some in their eighties, were taking advantage of the wonderful educational opportunities afforded.

The Club meets every Friday at 12:15 noon in the Rosslyn Hotel, Fifth and Main Streets. All Native Sons and their friends are invited and urged to participate in the gatherings, where goodfellowship holds sway and programs of worth are presented.

CALIFORNIA'S GREAT SEAL

Dr. Peter T. Conmy, Grand Historian N.S.G.W.

(WRITTEN ESPECIALLY FOR THE GRIZZLY BEAR MAGAZINE.)

THE GREAT SEAL OF THE STATE OF California is as old as her statehood itself. It had its origin in and was adopted by the Constitutional Convention which met in Colton Hall at Monterey during September and October 1849. It is the function of a constitutional convention to produce a constitution. The adoption of a seal is a function usually performed by a legislature. There was so much of the unusual in the whole matter of the admission of California into the Union, it is not surprising that the seal was adopted by the body which made the first constitution of the state.

A seal is symbolic of the state or nation which it represents. California's seal is; indeed, a tribute to the farsightedness of the pioneers of forty-nine—that they were able to envisage even then the outstanding characteristics of the future state so well as to be able to adopt a seal that has been used for a period of ninety-three years and is still satisfactory. The man who designed the seal saw full well and in clear light the factors which were to make the commonwealth of today, and he executed them in a fitting profile.

The Great Seal of the State of California was designed by Major Robert Selden Garnett. He was a native of Virginia, and was born in that state in 1821. At the age of sixteen he entered the United States Military Academy in 1837 and graduated in 1841 at the age of twenty years. He was commissioned in artillery. Garnett saw service in the Mexican War, and was made a brevet-major. From 1852 to 1854 he was teaching at West Point. Commencing in 1856 he saw service against the Puget Sound Indians. As a loyal Virginian he withdrew from the United States Army when the Civil War broke out and was commissioned a brigadier-general of the Confederate forces. He was killed in action at the battle of Carrick's Ford.

It was not at first known that Major Garnett had designed the seal. First mention, in the minutes of the convention, of this matter was September 29, 1849, when Rodman Price, chairman of the committee on the seal, reported that only one design had been received, and that from Caleb Lyon, one of the clerks of the convention. Garnett had given the design to Lyon, who presented it in his own name. Later, however, it was learned that Garnett was the originator. Price's committee approved of the design and recommended its adoption. No action was taken September 29, however, and the matter was laid on the table until further call. An official explanation accompanied the design, which is reprinted below. This was signed by Caleb Lyon and was dated September 26, 1849:

"THE SEAL OF THE STATE AND COAT OF ARMS—Around the bend of the ring are represented thirty-one stars, being the number of states of which the Union will consist upon the admission of California. The foreground figure represents the goddess Minerva having sprung full grown from the brain of Jupiter. She is introduced as a type of the political birth of California, without having gone through the probation of a territory. At her feet crouches a grisly bear feeding upon the clusters from a grape vine, emblematic of the peculiar characteristics of the country. A miner is engaged with his rocker and bowl at his side, illustrating the golden wealth of the Sacramento, upon whose waters are seen shipping, typical of commercial greatness; and the snow clad peaks of the Sierra Nevada make up the background, while above is the Greek motto 'Eureka' (I have found) applying either to the principle involved in the admission of the state, or the success of the miner at work."

A reading of the above leaves nothing for the imagination of the present-day observer to read into the Great Seal of California. The word "Eureka" appeared on the top of the ring, and because of this one of the members of the convention, William E. Shannon, questioned the propriety of a seal containing a motto and therefore suggested that this was more fitting for use as a coat of arms than for a seal. He insisted that the only words found on the states' seals were the designation, "Great Seal of the State."

Final action was not taken on the matter of the seal until October 11, 1849. At that time no question was raised as to either the design, or the word "Eureka," appearing thereon. The resolution called for the expenditure of one thousand dollars. There was some little question about this. One member wondered if the thousand dollars was in payment for the design of the seal, or whether it was to compensate Lyon for superintending the work of having it made. This was not clearly answered. The resolution adopting the seal and ordering it made was as follows:

"Resolved, That Mr. Caleb Lyon be, and is hereby, authorized to superintend the engraving of the Seal for the State, and to furnish the same in the shortest possible time to the Secretary of State appointed under this Constitution; and that the sum of $1,000 be paid to Mr. Lyon in full compensation and payment for the design, seal, press and all appendages. Resolved that the words 'The Great Seal of the State of California' be added to the design."

In after years some thought Caleb Lyon had designed the seal, and with surprise it was learned later that Garnett was the designer. The 1850 edition of the minutes of the convention shows, under the date of the adoption of the seal (October 11, 1849), that Major Garnett designed it. The words "the gentleman by whom it was designed" are followed by an asterisk, and at the bottom of the page in footnote form after the asterisk appear the words "Major Garnett."

When the matter of the seal was discussed October 2, 1849, two attempts were made to modify the design. The first of these was a motion by Wozencraft to take out the figure of the man digging for gold and to have instead bags of gold and merchandise. This was lost. General Vallejo recognized that the bear had been inserted to commemorate the Bear Flag Party, at whose hands he had suffered and, therefore, he sought to have the bear taken out or, if it remained, to be represented with a rope around it and held fast by a vaquero. This was lost, the vote being sixteen to twenty-one.

It is interesting to note that as early as 1849 the designer of the Great Seal of California saw enough importance in the Sacramento Valley to symbolize on his design "the golden wealth of the Sacramento." Around the great central valley revolves the whole State of California. The Sacramento and the San Joaquin Valleys form one great stretch of territory, extending from north to south. In this is contained great and varied agricultural wealth. Garnett visualized this and represented it upon the seal.

In 1858 an attempt was made in the State Legislature to modify the seal. The Senate, however, would not agree to the amendments made by the Assembly. On the other hand, the Assembly would not assent to the changes proposed by the Senate. The seal, therefore, remained and still remains as originally designed by Major Garnett.

NEW APPLES SUCCEED OLD

About forty years is the age deadline for the trees in a profitable apple orchard. Horticulturists of the United States Department of Agriculture consider that most commercial orchards should be replaced at least by the time they are that old.

Fruit of the best size and quality grows on relatively young trees. It is difficult to spray large trees thoroughly because of their height, expensive to prune them, and to thin and pick the fruit. Systematic renewal of the orchard permits planting the best new varieties, and discarding old varieties that have given way to better ones.

Since it takes about six to eight years before apple trees even begin to bear, and about ten before they bear heavily, one-fourth of the life of the trees is over before they are good producers. Therefore a grower practicing systematic renewal has about one-fourth of his acreage under ten years of age all the time. As that one-fourth comes into bearing an equal number of worn-out trees are removed and new stock planted near—though not in exactly the same planting spots. Sometimes the young trees are planted between older ones when the orchard is about thirty-five years old. Five years later the old trees come out, when the young ones grow to need the space.

ORIGINAL CALIFORNIA LAND-GRANT

BOOK DISCOVERED AND IDENTIFIED.

The only original now left of the eight land-grant books used to keep records in the days when the Spanish and Mexicans ruled California has been found, and was identified recently by Dr. J. M. Bowman of the University of California.

Known as the Toma de Razon, it contains a record of all land grants registered from 1839 to 1843 and was believed lost in the San Francisco fire of 1851. It is the property of the State Library, but is now being kept in the Bancroft Library. The other seven books were lost when United States troops took over California.

Dr. Bowman identified the book after examining testimony in land law suits for its description, by comparing the handwriting in it with a photostatic copy of the writing of Francisco Arce, chief clerk for the secretary of state who wrote almost all the entries, and by comparing the seal stamped on every page with the seal in copies of other land-grant books.

TREACHEROUS BEYOND REPAIR!—"The people of California have suddenly found out that as far as farm work goes, they can get along without the Japs. I sincerely hope that when the emergency ends, and we are writing the peace terms in our settlement with Japan, that this nation will demand that the Japanese race be excluded from America forever. I have lived a part of my life in the Sacramento Valley, where the sons of Nippon flourished before evacuation, and I came to learn the habits of this crafty race. They are treacherous, beyond repair!"—Claude A. King in the Fort Bragg Advocate.

"INDEBTED TO DOCTOR FOR ONE DEATH."

"Seems like newspaper editors of eighty-five years ago had to depend upon the town doctors for news, especially if no crimes had occurred before the paper went to press. At least that is what we gather from reading a paragraph in the old Placer Press, printed in Auburn in 1857. Here is what Editor Hiram W. Hawkins wrote in one of his early papers:

"'Dearth of News.—The week has passed away without a single crime item, casualty or other circumstance out of which to manufacture a startling item. We are indebted to Dr. Thomas for one death and to the God of Love for two marriage notices.'"—Colfax Record.

America—slow to heat but hard to cool, We tried to live the Golden Rule; But from this day, December eight, Japan will feel our mighty weight.

For years we bought their trashy stuff, But never again—we've had enough; The sneaking cur has bit the hand That fed the puppies in Japan.

Too late we found the smiling curs, Concealed in their sheepskin furs. Now for Hitler and—his treacherous band, A coffin is being "made in Japan."

And when our victory day shall come, The Empire of the Rising Sun Shall be eclipsed by a world of tears, And never end—for a thousand years.

CLARENCE M. HUNT.

Being muchly concerned about the future, as well as the present, welfare of California, and being thoroughly convinced that, unless the "seed of the sun" be entirely uprooted, the Japs will, following the present armed conflict, proceed with their "peaceful invasion" and eventually overrun this state, the writer proposes UNITED ACTION TODAY by organizations and individuals actually desirous of preserving California as a paradise of the White Man for all time. TOMORROW, after the war, will be TOO LATE! In the hope of permanently removing the Jap menace, this course of action is advocated:

Dispossess the Japs of every foot of land, rural and urban, to which they now claim title.

Challenge the citizenship of every Jap—his right to exercise in these United States the voting privilege.

Close every Jap-language school, and be certain that it is kept closed.

Do we, or do we not, really want to save this glorious heritage given into our keeping by our Pioneer Fathers and Mothers? If we have the will, this suggested course points the way! What's your answer?

THE GUY IN THE GLASS

MRS. ELIZABETH HOPEWELL.

When you get what you want in your struggle for self;

And the world makes you king for a day;

Then go to the mirror and look at yourself,

And see what that guy has to say.

For it isn't your father or mother or wife,

Who judgment upon you must pass;

The fellow whose verdict counts most in your life

Is the guy staring back from the glass.

He's the man you must please, never mind all the rest,

For he's with you clear up till the end;

And you've passed your most difficult, dangerous test

If the man in the glass is your friend.

You may be like Jack Horner and "chisel" a plum,

And think you're a wonderful guy;

But the man in the glass says you're only a bum,

If you can't look him straight in the eye.

You can fool the whole world down the pathway of years,

And can get pats on the back as you pass;

But your final reward will be heartaches and tears,

If you've cheated the guy in the glass.

THE LASTING MENACE OF JAPAN

Speaking in the House of Representatives of the Congress of the United States of America, December 8, Congressman John M. Costello of California, a member of Hollywood Parlor No. 196 N.S.G.W., Los Angeles, said:

"One year ago today the Congress of the United States recognized the existence of a state of war between this country and Japan, following the ruthless and unprovoked attack upon Pearl Harbor and other American possessions without a previous declaration of war. In the wake of this Japanese treachery, a growing demand on the part of the people of the Pacific Coast area finally succeeded in bringing about the removal of all persons of Japanese ancestry from the coastal region.

"The wisdom of this removal program has again been clearly emphasized in the outbreak of rioting which occurred this past weekend at the Japanese relocation center of Manzanar in California. Housed at this center are some 10,000 Japanese of whom 4,000 are foreign-born and 500 additional are American-born Japs who have been educated in Japan. This large group of 4,500 are mostly sympathetic to Japan and were the cause of the rioting which took place. More than a thousand gathered to hear speakers denounce the United States and extol Japan on the anniversary of the infamous treachery of Pearl Harbor. Efforts of the rioters to seize and beat two of the Japanese believed loyal to the United States resulted in the death of one Jap and the hospitalizing of nine others.

"The persistent loyalty of these Japanese to Japan in spite of the considerate treatment which has been accorded them may appear difficult to understand on the part of those who do not fully comprehend the nature of the Japanese philosophy or religion of government. The mikado is god. The emperor rules not as a mere king, but as heaven-descended, divine, sacred, and inviolable. Every act committed in behalf of or at the behest of Hirohito—however wrong morally such an act may appear to us—is a divine act meriting eternal reward.

"So long as the Japanese people persist in their deification of their emperor, just so long will it be impossible for them to assume loyalty to any other country, regardless of birth, education, or training. If the religious faith of Japan remains the faith of American-born Japanese, then their first loyalty, their religious obligations, and spiritual ties will bind them inevitably to the mikado and Japan, regardless of how loudly they may profess their love for and allegiance to this or any other country. For every person the spiritual dictates of conscience outweigh civil obligations. It is on this account that we recognize conscientious objectors to war. So it is likewise on this account that we must recognize that every Japanese who retains his faith in Shintoism must of necessity place the dictates of the mikado above civil decrees of any government under which they may chance to reside. Their spiritual loyalty to the emperor must supersede their civil obligations to any other governing power.

"If we thoroughly understand this viewpoint of the Japanese we cannot help asking how we can expect or anticipate loyalty on the part of the Japanese people in our midst. If the people residing in this country cannot be loyal to it, then there should be no place for them here. This is the great problem which confronts this Nation today, and for which a solution must be found. The defeat of Japan in this war may not mean the end of all war in Asia, any more than the defeat of Germany did over twenty years ago. The likelihood of a recurrence of war will depend upon the conditions of peace—but the spiritual loyalty of Japanese to their emperor will forever be bound up with their acceptance of Shintoism as their creed.

"In order that you may more completely comprehend the full implication of this religious belief, I am appending hereto an article which appeared over twenty-two years ago in the California publication The Grizzly Bear. Had this article been more widely circulated and more generally appreciated at that time, we might have better prepared against the Japanese menace which has confronted us these past forty years. If this article is even now fully understood and appreciated we will have a better knowledge of the lasting and enduring menace of Japan, which will endure even after the conclusion of this present war."

[The article to which Congressman Costello

AMERICAN WAY OF LIFE MAY BE JUNKED

Addressing a joint session of the Alabama State Legislature recently, United States Senator W. Lee O'Daniel of Texas cautioned: "We face in this Nation today perils which we have never faced before." Quoting from his address:

"Many years ago there developed in this Nation a bunch of governmental theorists who started out with the thought in mind that various governments of Europe had developed to what they thought was a high degree of efficiency by creating numerous boards and bureaus to whom they had in many cases delegated the powers of all three branches of government. These boards and bureaus were authorized by law to legislate, to execute, and then to sit in judgment on the results of their actions.

"Unfortunately we here in America have allowed this foreign theory of government to be adopted rather universally in the Federal Government, and many States have gone far in this direction, with the result that we find the District of Columbia is not big enough to hold all of the boards and bureaus which have been created to rule the American people. Do not let anyone tell you that all of this is a result of the war, because that is very definitely not true....

"At this time, when we are all bending every possible effort to do everything we can, not only to win this war, but to bring it to a conclusion as quickly as possible, I believe it is very necessary for us to be frequently reminded that when the great period of reconstruction comes, which inevitably must come following the end of this war, we will face then a period which will demand the very highest type of patriotism and statesmanship on the part of all of our people. I say that to you because over a period of several years there has been growing up in Washington a feeling that a nation will fare better if government is cooked up and dished out from a central authority in Washington, rather than to maintain the true and tried form of government under which we have grown to be the greatest nation on the face of the globe. I urge that all of you recognize the fact that when this war is over there will be another battle to fight and that battle will be fought in the halls of the legislatures throughout this Nation and in the halls of the United States Congress, and the issue will be: Whether or not we are to drift into a collective state or if we are to return to the fundamental principles of the American Constitution.

"Do not think for one moment that the vast bureaucratic power which has been built up in Washington over the past quarter of a century and which has been multiplied manifold under the guise of war measures, will willingly yield any of its power after the war is won. The time is not far distant when the great rank and file of the people throughout this Nation must rededicate themselves to the fundamental principles of maintaining a free government where the people are the masters and public officials are their servants.

"I am making no complaint whatever about centralizing governmental power necessary to carry on the war effort in which we are now engaged, but I am disturbed because I know that this centralization of power in Washington, this disposition to eliminate the legislative processes in the making of laws and the judicial processes in interpreting these laws and maintaining the Constitution have been under attack since long before the war started. I am disturbed because I know that unless there is a realization on the part of all our public servants and on the part of the great rank and file of our people that we must return to the fundamental principles of government, the chances are that our whole American way of life may be junked."

referred appeared in The Grizzly Bear for March 1920 under the title "Japan's Creed a Menace to the Peace of the World, and Furnishes Substantial Proof of Her Purpose to Japanize California, and, Eventually, the United States." At his suggestion, it was republished in full in the Congressional Record of December 8, 1942.—Editor.]

LEGISLATION TO THWART THE JAPS PROPOSED

Recognizing the seriousness of the Jap situation confronting California, the Imperial County Grand Jury adopted November 18 a resolution proposing amendments to the California Alien Land Law, and legislation by the Congress of the United States of America to prevent Japs from becoming citizens of this country. Copies of the resolution—prepared by District Attorney Elmer W. Heald of that county, president of the California State District Attorneys Association,—were sent all Grand Juries of the state, and they were asked to indorse it and then contact their state senators and assemblymen and suggest that they use every effort to have the State Legislature enact the suggested legislation. The resolution reads, in part:

"Whereas, This Grand Jury believes the Alien Land Law of the State of California should be amended in such a manner as to make same enforceable and effective in the future, and further believes that now is the opportune time for the people of the State of California to insist not only that our State Legislature provide effective and adequate legislation to meet the Japanese problem in the State of California, but also to demand that the United States Congress pass national legislation which will make it impossible for Japanese, either alien or native born, to become citizens of the United States or to own, hold, enjoy, occupy and use agricultural lands in any of the states of the Union. Now, therefore, be it

"Resolved, By the Grand Jury of the County of Imperial, in regular meeting assembled this 18th day of November 1942, that the Alien Land Law of the State of California be amended in the manner and form set forth in Exhibit 'A' attached hereto and made part hereof, and, . . . Be it further

"Resolved, That the Legislature of the State of California memorialize the United States Congress and each and every Congressman and Senator representing the State of California in said United States Congress, urging, demanding and requesting that adequate national legislation be passed by the United States Congress, and if necessary that our Federal Constitution be amended to prohibit all Japanese, both alien and native born, from owning, possessing, enjoying, using or occupying agricultural lands or enjoying or having the use of the proceeds received from the sale of products grown and produced upon agricultural lands, and that all Japanese, both alien and native born, be forever prohibited from becoming citizens of the United States of America." Proposed amendments to the California Alien Land Law outlined in Exhibit "A" of the resolution include, among others:

"The attorney-general of the State of California or the district attorney of the proper county is hereby granted the power to institute in the name of the People of the State of California injunction proceedings to enjoin and restrain any and all persons from entering into any written or oral agreements in violation of the terms and provisions of this Act, and said attorney-general or district attorney . . . have the power to file such said injunction proceedings . . . for the purpose of restraining and enjoining any person from operating or conducting farming and agricultural operations in violation of the terms and provisions of this Act; . . .

"Any leasehold or other interest in real property less than the fee, including cropping contracts which are hereby declared to constitute an interest in real property less than the fee, hereafter created and acquired in violation of the provisions of this Act by any landlord or owner of land and any alien mentioned in Section 2 of this Act, or by any company, association or corporation mentioned in Section 3 of this Act, shall escheat to the State of California, as of the date of such acquiring in violation of the provisions of this Act. The attorney-general or the district attorney of the proper county shall institute proceedings against both the landlord or owner of the land and the alien mentioned in Section 2 of this Act to have such escheat adjudged and enforced in the same manner as is provided in Section 7 of this Act. . . .

"All leases, cropping agreements and any other agreements to acquire, possess, enjoy, use, cultivate, occupy and transfer real property for farming or agricultural purposes or to transfer in whole or in part the beneficial use of said lands when said lease agreements, cropping contracts or other contracts are made in the name of the wife or child of any alien mentioned in Section 2 of this Act, or made in the name of any other person, shall be illegal and void and in violation of the terms and provisions of this Act where such said alien mentioned in Section 2 of this Act is allowed to remain upon the land, farm and cultivate same and enjoy directly or indirectly the beneficial use of such said agricultural lands or obtains or has a beneficial interest in or use of the proceeds received from the sale of the agricultural crops produced on said lands, and in all such cases all of said persons signing and entering into any such said agreements shall be guilty of violation of the terms and provisions of this Act, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished in the manner provided in Sections 10 and 10A hereof.

"Whenever any alien mentioned in Section 2 hereof is appointed by any court as a guardian of his native-born minor child or children, or as a guardian of any other person or persons, it shall be unlawful for such said alien guardian to farm, operate or manage any land or lands held by such said guardianship estate, except solely for the use

CITY AND COUNTY

THE JAPANESE ON THE PACIFIC Coast a Factual Study of Events December 7, 1941, to September 1, 1942, with Suggestions for the Future," is the title of a booklet, sponsored by the Los Angeles County Committee for Church and Community Cooperation, recently circulated in Los Angeles. It was prepared by Dr. George Gleason, executive secretary of that committee.

This booklet should have been labeled made in Japan, for it is propaganda-ammunition designed to aid the Japs in their "peaceful invasion" of California and the other Pacific Coast states. "At the outset of such a study as this," quoting from the booklet, "tribute should be paid to the splendid loyalty of the great majority of the Japanese, both alien and American born. Their patriotic services to the American nation are numerous and well known." Pearl Harbor, for instance!

This booklet, however, was prepared by an employe of the County of Los Angeles, in a public office maintained at the expense of the taxpayers of the county, and it was printed at the Whittier State School, maintained at the expense of the taxpayers of the State of California!

Dr. Gleason, the author of this booklet, from 1901 to 1919 served as secretary of the Young Men's Christian Association at Osaka, Japan, and during 1922 acted as liaison officer for the Jap ambassador at Washington, D. C. When he returned to Los Angeles he was the honor-guest at a banquet sponsored by local Jap leaders. When asked by a public official if he possessed a silken banner given him by a Jap admiral, he replied "Yes, and I am proud of it!"

Enough said. Action is the need now!

This pro-Jap nest should not be allowed to remain in a public building, the father-bird should be removed from the taxpayers' payroll, and public officials, county and state, responsible for the use of public funds to support the group should be called to account!—C.M.H.

CHILDREN MADE HAPPY.

Los Angeles Parlor No. 45 N.S.G.W. had its annual Christmas party December 22, and about seventy children, also some adults, were royally entertained and made very happy. The hall was appropriately dressed for the occasion, and there was a beautiful tree, also oodles of things to please little girls and boys.

All assembled joined in pledging allegiance to the United States of America Flag, Chairman Owen S. Adams, who presided, explained the meaning of Christmas, and Robert Pesqueria, accompanied by Grand Organist Roger Johnson, led in the singing of "Silent Night." There were other numbers on the program, too, including songs by some of the small guests.

To the strains of "Jingle Bells," Santa Claus (Gilbert Anderson) appeared, and the faces of the children were wreathed in smiles. With the assistance of Willard Allen, Arthur Lasher, Charles Castillo, President William Girard, Frank Frank and others, he distributed quantities of dolls, toys of all descriptions, horns, balloons, popcorn and candy. And then, to end a perfect evening, ice cream and cake were served.

December 17, the Parlor celebrated "Metz night," the date being the eighty-fifth birthday anniversary of Albert Metz, long a valued member. Many were there to congratulate him and wish him well, and during the evening Grand Organist Roger Johnson presented him a gift from No. 45.

Los Angeles' January calendar: 14th, installation of officers, with District Deputy Lee Winters officiating. 21st, oldtimers night. 28th, initiation, followed by refreshments.

SERVICE KITS FOR SERVICEMEN.

Thirty dozen sandwiches and twenty-eight dozen doughnuts constituted the December treat of Los Angeles Parlor No. 124 N.D.G.W. to the servicemen at a downtown USO. Hostesses of the occasion were Louise Cash, Evelyn Ryberg, Bernice Setterberg and Ella Steinbeck. Each month a different group serves at the canteen. The home front committee, Kate Williams chairman, completed 100 service kits and gave them to the USO for servicemen's Christmas gifts. Juanita Porter is busy with another blanket club. "The profit makes it worth while," she says.

Officers of the Parlor were guests of President Juliette DeNubila during December, and plans for the coming six-month term were discussed. All officers, with the exception of marshal, have been re-elected; Elsie Ruiz was chosen to fill that station. Installation will be held in January. The book officers planned the December 16 Christmas party, which included a pot-luck supper, carols and the exchange of gifts.

Genevieve McGinley will be guest of honor at a stork shower to be given by the officers at the home of President DeNubila January 8. Mrs. Clarence M. Hunt will open her home, 1330 South Magnolia Avenue, to Los Angeles' members Saturday, January 30, for the monthly homeless children sewing party. Luncheon will be served at 12:30 noon. The cohostesses include Louise Summers, Jennie Raymond, Ruth Hoffman, Martha Spencer, Irene Burch, June Miller and Virginia Hasenauer.

GOODFELLOWSHIP APPARENT.

The Christmas party of Ramona Parlor No. 109 N.S.G.W., December 18, brought out several of the oldtimers, and goodfellowship was everywhere apparent. The festivities began with a fine turkey dinner, prepared and served under the supervision of Ralph Walters, Ray Bowen and Leo Cornell. Assisting them were Ward McConnell, Bob Bright, Carlos Drouet, Lon McCoy, Charles Thomas, Leon Vaillancourt, Don Benstead, William Gibson and others.

After the dinner came the Parlor meeting, during which three candidates were initiated, and President Bob Ziegler was given a rising vote of thanks for services rendered Ramona. Officers for the new term were selected, and George M. Cuthbertson was elected president and Hervey L. Kitchin recording secretary. A

FRESNO—FRESNO NO. 25 APPOINTED a committee—Arthur H. Drew, chairman, Lucius Powers Jr. and Herbert McDowell—to investigate a 5,000-acre tract of timber land, known as the Mountain Home Tract, near Porterville, Tulare County, and to determine, if possible, its desirability for state park purposes. The committee reported as follows, December 4, and its findings, together with the accompanying resolution, were adopted:

"(1) Said tract is beautifully located between the 5,000- and 7,500-foot elevations in heavy timbered land about thirty-six miles easterly from Porterville. (2) Said tract surrounds a tract of like property of 160 acres known as Balch Park, owned by the County of Tulare. (3) The South Branch of the Tule River extends through the land. (4) Two roads now assure its accessibility to the public. (5) There are 4,590 acres of land covered by 63,727 grown trees, besides small trees and second-growth timber. (6) The estimated board-feet in these trees is 244,364,000. (7) 4,869 of these trees are Sequoia Giganteas and contain 138,358,000 board-feet of lumber. This number of Sequoia trees is conservatively estimated to be one-fourth of the living Sequoias in the world.

"(8) During the past season a small mill was erected on the tract and the production of lumber actually commenced. The owners of the tract have held the property some thirty-five years and should not be criticised for taking advantage of the high market price for lumber brought on by the war. (9) Unless this tract is taken over by the State of California or some other agency before next season the logging operations will continue on a larger scale, and in a short course of time this magnificent growth of timber will be gone forever.

"(10) The tract may be purchased for the sum of $60,000, which sum is infinitesimal compared to its value to the State of California as a resort or park. (11) A large percentage of the cost, estimated to be between $100,000 and $150,000, could be saved to the State by cutting for lumber many trees that should be cut to improve the tract for a mountain park. This cutting could well be supervised by the State Division of Forestry. (12) In view of the above findings, we submit the following resolution:

"Whereas, The above-mentioned tract of land is ideally located for park purposes; and whereas, said tract is priceless in value to our beloved state, and the generations of citizens to come should and would deem it unforgivable error and criminal negligence for us to permit the destruction of the irreplaceable beauty of the forests growing thereon, and particularly the Sequoia trees, which are so limited in number throughout the world; now, therefore, be it

"Resolved, That we, the members of Fresno Parlor No. 25 Native Sons of the Golden West, use our highest endeavors to save and preserve for posterity the forests above described; and be it further resolved, that a copy of this report and resolution be presented to the Grand Parlor of our organization for official action, and that all interested persons and civic organizations be urged to support this effort to bring the matter properly to the attention of the State Legislature at its session in January 1943."

Grand President Honored.

Oakland—The Alameda County Parlors sponsored a banquet and initiation in honor of Grand President Lloyd Cosgrove, December 21, and approximately 150 members of the Order attended. Preceding the banquet Supervising Deputy Ray Burke introduced as chairman of the evening Junior Past Grand Edward T. Schnarr, and he presented Superior Judge Leon E. Gray, who welcomed the assemblage.

After the banquet seven candidates were initiated, six for Berkeley No. 210 and one for Fruitvale No. 252, the ritual being most impressively exemplified by the following: Miller Markey, Fruitvale No. 252, president; Richard M. Hamb, Piedmont No. 120, senior past president; Al Vinther, Claremont No. 240, junior past president; Ray Butler, Piedmont No. 120, first vice-president; Bernard Abrott, Berkeley No. 210, second vice-president; Maury Pessano, Oakland No. 50, third vice-president; Les Ashworth, Estudillo No. 223, marshal; Louis Zimmerman, Lakemont No. 275, inside sentinel; Al C. Weber, Piedmont No. 120, organist.

At the conclusion of the initiatory ceremonies there was a program of speaking and music, with Grand Third Vice-president Richard F. McCarthy as master of ceremonies. Addresses were made by Grand President Cosgrove, who thanked the Alameda County deputy grand presidents and others responsible for the successful affair, Past Grand Joseph R. Knowland, Bernard Abrott of the Grand Parlor Appeals Board, and Charles A. Roberts of Stanford No. 76.

Also in attendance were Grand Secretary John T. Regan; Grand Trustees Thomas C. Ryan and Joseph E. Tinney; Grand Historian Peter T. Conmy, Past Grand Chas. A. Koenig, Judge Chris B. Fox, State Senator Arthur Breed, District Deputy J. W. Kamb, Joseph Berry of the Grand Parlor Transportation and Mileage Committee, and George Hofmeister of Placerville No. 9 who, at the Fifth (Sacramento 1882) Grand Parlor, was elected Deputy Grand President, an office which, at that time, was equivalent to grand vice-president of today.

High School Dedicated.

San Jose—The Abraham Lincoln High School was dedicated by the grand officers November 29 in the presence of more than 400 people. President Leland S. Prussia of the Board of Education, who presided, said this is the fifth public school in this city dedicated by the Native Sons grand officers during the past five years. Greetings were extended by Norman Crowell, representing the student council, and there was a program of vocal and instrumental music.

Grand President Lloyd J. Cosgrove delivered the principal address, and other speakers were Catherine Gorham, David Jenkinson, Grand President Claire Lindsey of the Native Daughters and Principal Frederic T. Shipp of the school. On behalf of San Jose No. 22, Past Grand Charles A. Thompson presented United States of America and California State (Bear) Flags to the school, and they were accepted by Secretary Betty Kline of the Student Council.

Also in attendance were Junior Past Grand Edward T. Schnarr, Grand First Vice-president Wayne R. Millington, Grand Third Vice-president Richard F. McCarthy, Grand Secretary John T. Regan, Grand Treasurer John A. Corotto, Grand Historian Peter T. Conmy, and Past Grands Charles L. Dodge, Chas. A. Koenig and Joseph J. McShane, and Past Grand Orinda Giannini of the Native Daughters. The dedication was under the auspices of San Jose Parlor, whose sponsoring committee included John R. Sullivan, chairman, Lawrence T. Paradiso, Harold Semichy, Ensign James W. Foley and J. S. Williams. Previous to the ceremonies there was a parade, headed by No. 22's drum corps.

Over The Top.

Ventura—Cabrillo No. 114, the wonder-Parlor, went over the top of its membership-goal November 25, initiating sixteen candidates and bringing its total membership to 506. This meeting was dedicated to faithful Dave Bennett who, practically singlehanded, kept Cabrillo in line for more than ten years. In the course of a short talk, he related some of his experiences during his many years of membership in the Order. District Attorney Arthur Waite, chairman of the finance committee of the November bazar sponsored by the Parlor, reported net proceeds of approximately $550.

At an enchilada dinner, served prior to the meeting by Ed Hearne and staff, Cabrillo had as guests twenty-five women of the Mobile Unit of the Red Cross who helped with the bazar. That was followed by a half-hour of good entertainment by a troupe of Mexican performers, and Superior Judge Louis Drapeau, the Parlor president, then presented the Red Cross unit a check to cover the balance due on its station wagon.

Japanese Legislative Committee.

San Francisco—The Grand Parlor Japanese Legislative Committee met August 8. In attendance were Past Grands Edward T. Schnarr, chairman, Eldred L. Meyer and Seth Millington, Daniel J. Collins and Harry Romick, appointed members of the committee, Grand President Lloyd J. Cosgrove and Grand Secretary John T. Regan.

SAN FRANCISCO

MEMBERS OF THE ORDER OF NATIVE SONS OF THE GOLDEN WEST gathered at the Elks Club in San Francisco, December 9, to honor at a banquet, arranged for by the Past Grand Presidents of the bay region, Judge William M. Conley, Senior Past Grand President and dean of their association.

Past Grand President Conley was born in the historic mining county, Mariposa, and was elected Grand President at the Twenty-first (Nevada City 1898) Grand Parlor. During the meeting of the Sixteenth (Sacramento 1893) Grand Parlor, his friends expressed a desire to have him nominated for judge of the Superior Court of the newly-organized County of Madera. When he was tendered the nomination he replied that he would greatly appreciate being elected judge, but was then seeking the position of grand trustee of the Native Sons, and considered attaining that office the greatest honor that could come to him. After being elected Grand Trustee, he accepted the nomination for judge of the Superior Court of Madera County, was elected, and served in that capacity for nearly thirty years. He was probably the youngest man ever elected to a superior judgeship in California, at the time of his election being but twenty-six years of age. During his service he presided in the Superior Court of nearly every county in the state. He resigned as judge about 1922 and since then has practiced law in Fresno with his two sons.

The affair was a most enjoyable one. Past Grand President Lewis F. Byington presided, and among others present were Past Grand Presidents Walter D. Wagner, Joseph R. Knowland, William P. Caubu, James F. Hoey, Edward J. Lynch, Fletcher A. Cutler, James A. Wilson, Charles L. Dodge, Chas. A. Koenig, Harmon D. Skillin, Hartley Russell, Joseph J. McShane, Jesse H. Miller and Edward T. Schnarr; Grand President Lloyd J. Cosgrove, Grand Secretary John T. Regan, Grand Treasurer John A. Corotto, and Superior Judges T. I. Fitzpatrick, I. L. Harris and James G. Conlan.

CHRISTMAS PARTY.

The N.D.G.W. Grand Parlor Home Committee had its annual Christmas party December 14, and a delightful turkey luncheon was enjoyed by Past Grand Presidents Dr. Mariana Bertola, chairman, May Boldemann, Emma Foley, Orinda Giannini and Mae Wilkin; Grand President Claire Lindsey, Grand Secretary Sallie Thaler, Jennie Peterson, Irma Murray, Laura Fisher, Alice Lane, Beatrice Nishkian, Edna Dumont, Grace Butterfield, Madeline King and Grace Carpenter, manager of the Home. Gifts were exchanged after the luncheon.

Alice Lane, chairman of the committee that arranged for the November 30 card party to raise funds with which to renew some of the furnishings in the Home lounge, reported the affair was a grand success, and thanks were extended all who assisted.

GOLD DISCOVERY BANQUET.

The ninety-fifth anniversary of the discovery of gold at Coloma, El Dorado County, by James W. Marshall, January 24, 1848, will be commemorated at a banquet in the Grizzly Bear Club, Native Sons Building, San Francisco, Saturday night, January 23. Native Sons are urged to attend.

It was this discovery of Marshall that attracted world-wide attention to California, brought many pioneer men and women here, and resulted in statehood for California. The historic event has been annually celebrated by members of the Order of Native Sons of the Golden West and public officials the past thirty years.

N.D.G.W. DEPUTIES' ACTIVITIES.

Concluding the colorful and impressive allied nations pageant at the N.S.G.W. and N.D.G.W. homeless children benefit ball in the Civic Auditorium, the San Francisco N.D.G.W. deputies—gowned in blue, the symbol of love and fidelity, and representing the mothers, wives, grandmothers and sweethearts of the Republic's servicemen—circled about the Goddess of Liberty. They also acted as a guard of honor to Grand President Claire Lindsey who, wearing a gown of light blue taffeta with a corsage of orchids, was escorted to her box by Supervising Deputy Kay Jensen, attractive in fuschia and sequins.

A Christmas party was enjoyed by the deputies, with Grand President Lindsey as the honored guest. Viola Brown, Ruby Bried and Victoria Lucette decorated the dinner table attractively. Margaret Dahlstrom, accompanied by Mildred Ehler, sang several selections, and Santa Claus, impersonated by Victoria Lucette, distributed gifts as all sat around the Christmas tree and sang.—M.F.

MEMORIAL SERVICES.

Impressive memorial services were held under the auspices of Stanford Parlor No. 76 N.S.G.W., November 30, in tribute to Lewis Somer Crackbon, who died at Oakland, November 29. He was born in Butte County, April 14, 1860, and affiliated with Stanford July 2, 1901.

Crackbon was a grandson of General A. M. Winn who, in 1875, called together a group of California-born sons and founded the Order of Native Sons of the Golden West.—J.F.S.

SAN DIEGO—THE LAST 1942 MEETING of San Diego No. 208 was celebrated at a luncheon December 22, with Isabel Young as the chairman. A program of vocal and instrumental numbers in keeping with the Order's fourth principle, "Abiding Faith in the Existence of God," was featured, and two candidates were initiated.

An evening of fun and frolic for members deprived of attending day meetings because of their employment was a source of much enjoyment December 29. A resume of the Parlor's activities and progress was given by the chairman of the various projects. The price of admission was packaged candy, cigarettes or games for USO. The officers club met at the home of Emily Welch, and the exchange of "secret sister" gifts caused many ohs and ahs. Recent meetings of the past presidents club were held at the homes of Elsie Frank and Irma A. Heilbron; delicious refreshments were served on both occasions.

Charter Members Honor-Guests.

Martinez — Eleven charter members were honor-guests at Las Juntas No. 221's birthday party December 7. From the Parlor they received war savings stamps, and by Lea McNamer of Sacramento, former captain of the Parlor's drill team, they were remembered with dainty colonial ladies filled with perfume. Refreshments were served at attractively set tables, and for the twenty-first time the birthday cake was baked by Charter President Nan Sharkey. The evening closed with an exchange of Christmas gifts.

For a day during Minute Women's Week members of the Parlor maintained a downtown booth and sold $2,300 worth of bonds and $125 worth of savings stamps.

The joint committee of Las Juntas and Mount Diablo No. 101 N.S. is nearing completion of the collecting of pledges to the homeless children fund. This replaces the annual benefit card party for the duration.

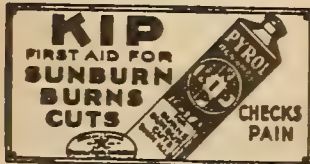

Citizenship Class Enlightened.

Oroville—The conduct of Women's Defense Stamps and Bonds Week here was turned over to Gold of Ophir No. 190, with Past Grand Florence D. Boyle as chairman, and it was a grand success. The local papers gave fine publicity, and Thanksgiving Day the women of Oroville and vicinity responded to the request that they wear defense stamp corsages as evidence of LOVELY women whose hands are busy with war-time duties and added household tasks use Chamberlain's Lotion. They know this clear, golden Lotion helps to keep their hands soft, lovely, and free from roughness and ugly redness. They like the way it dries with such convenient quickness. Try Chamberlain's Lotion, and you'll agree. Buy it at all toilet goods counters.

December 17 the annual Christmas party, with a covered-dish supper, was held. Sixty members and their families were present, and honor-guests included Grand Vice-president Mary Noerenberg and Deputy Beatrice Wahrmond. The Parlor has purchased a defense bond, and a nice sum has been collected for the milk fund.

Welfare Committee Very Active.

Oakland—The Thanksgiving party of Piedmont No. 87 was well attended. Greta Murden headed the hostess committee. At the Christmas party December 17 each member was presented a gift. Sweetser was borrowed from Santa Barbara No. 116 N.S. for masterly development of the theme "What Christmas Means to Native Californians and adopted Citizens."

Dr. Anna E. McCaughey spoke of the needs of the Santa Barbara family milk fund, the sponsorship of which was begun by the Parlor after the first world war. Today it is serving thirty-four families, in which there are sixty-two children and thirteen adults on special diet, a total of seventy quarts of milk per day, to say nothing of cheese supplied under medical direction. Mrs.

William A. Birss, vice-president, announced the distribution of twenty-four lapettes, made by the Parlor's sewing committee. These are handled by the local branch of the N.S.G.W. and N.D.G.W. Central Homeless Children Committee.

Earlier in the month there was an interesting ceremony in annual observance of Saint Barbara's birthday, the name-day of city and county. Present as honor-guests were many women who enacted the Saint Barbara role in past Old Spanish Days Fiestas, a pleasing assignment always given to a member of the Order. December 3, three standing committees of the Parlor collaborated with the officers in closing Reina del Mar's 1942 business—Mms. L. C. Miles and George McCrear, representing the past presidents association; Mrs. L. V. Brady, extension of the order; Dr. Anna E. McCaughey and Mrs. Henry Griffiths, history and landmarks.—James F. Dorrance.

Every encroachment, every aggressive force, and every destructive agency that would tend to destroy the sanctity and stability of our homes must be destroyed. Out program followed, and the balance of the evening was spent in reminiscing.

Ramona's January calendar: 8th, public installation of officers, with District Deputy Robert M. Pesqueria presiding; refreshments. 15th, a prominent speaker will address the Parlor on "Ramona Parlor in Home Defense;" refreshments. 22nd, initiation, followed by a "Share the Ride" discussion; refreshments. 29th, game night, the third in a series of easy lessons, teaching the Cuthbertson system; refreshments.

GOOD MUSIC A NECESSITY.

The December calendar of Californiana Parlor No. 247 N.D.G.W. opened the 8th with the customary program luncheon, made notable in this instance by charming music and Florence Irish's exceptionally helpful and constructive talk. Included in the ideas she presented was one that brought forth much favorable aftercomment—the sanity and necessity of having as much good music as possible, a recognized factor in establishing and maintaining morale. Election of officers, during the business meeting, resulted in the retention of the entire present corps, with Estelle Flick as president.

One of Californiana's most important committees, that of americanism defense, Margaret Kerr chairman, gave a dinner, with a Christmas tree and program, at Casa de Adobe, December 23, for mothers and children from Wake Island. Marcella Palethorpe, hostess at the Casa, and the committee provided a joyous evening of traditional hospitality in which all members of the Parlor shared enthusiastically.

JOLLYTY PREVAILED.

There was a large attendance at the December 14 gathering of East Los Angeles Parlor No. 277 N.S.G.W. Everyone was goodnatured, and jollity prevailed. A tasty dinner, prepared by "Babe" Nighswonger and Tony Leyva, was served, and then followed the Parlor meeting, at which President Arthur Carmichael presided. Four candidates were initiated, and future activities were discussed. Leonard Woodhouse conducted the good of the order, and among the speakers were Grand Trustee Walter Odemar, Supervising Deputy Howard Woodward, District Deputy John Bodkin, Deputy Grand President Clarence M. Hunt, Ray Brown and John Rogers.

For the duration, East Los Angeles will meet but once a month, the second Monday. Dinner will be served at 7 p.m. and a business meeting and entertainment will follow. The Parlor has re-elected its present corps of officers for another term. Installation will be held January 11, when several candidates will be initiated.

PUBLIC INSTALLATION.

La Reina Parlor No. 267 N.D.G.W. thanks its many friends who attended the spaghetti dinner December 10; half the proceeds went to the homeless children. At a short meeting after the dinner officers were elected, and Florence Grass was chosen president.

December 21 the Parlor had a Christmas party at the home of Mrs. Grass. Practically all the members were in attendance, and secret sisters were revealed. Officers of La Reina will be publicly installed at candlelight ceremonies at the home of President-elect Grass, 3452 West Fifty-ninth Place, Sunday, January 17, 2:30 p.m.

"BABY" IS GROWING.

Inglewood—Centinela No. 279, the "baby" N.S.G.W. Parlor, initiated another class of candidates December 18. President Jack Burns and his special Christmas committee—Howard Sellers, Tony Dorsey, Ernest House, Earl Isbell and Gordon Wells, had gifts for all members in attendance. Guests included Past Grand President Eldred Meyer, and President Harold Shoemaker, Oliver Kent and Walter Wells of University Parlor No. 272. In the way of entertainment, a three-round boxing exhibition was presented.

Centinela's next meeting will be January 15. There will be initiation, and the good of the order committee, Howard Sellers chairman, will present special entertainment. Taking advantage of Grand President Lloyd Cosgrove's membership offer, the Parlor expects to get more than $100 in defense bonds. Tony Dorsey has been appointed Red Cross blood-bank chairman. Several members have already signed pledge cards, and it is hoped that by January 16 Centinela will be nearly 100 percent in donating blood for the country's armed forces.

FLAGS PRESENTED.

San Pedro—Rudecinda Parlor No. 230 N.D.G.W. presented United States of America and California State (Bear) Flags to the Ferry Building December 16. Chairman Katherine Dodson and Letitia Sarciaux of the Parlor's americanism committee made the presentation addresses, and Mayor Fletcher Bowron accepted the flags for Los Angeles City. Among the many others at the ceremonies were Harbor Commissioners A. M. Rosenfeld and George Moore, and several members of the San Pedro Chamber of Commerce and the Parlor.

Rudecinda had a Christmas party and turkey dinner, December 14, with Deputy Margaret Burch as honor-guest. The tables were adorned with poinsettias, and the placecards were red sleighs, with the individual's name inscribed upon each. Secret sisters for the year were revealed and gifts were exchanged. Letitia Sarciaux was chairman of the committee in charge of all arrangements. At the meeting which followed, officers were elected, Gertrude Crawford being chosen president. Installation will be held January 11.

NATIVE SONS LUNCHEON CLUB.

Attendants at the Native Sons Friday Luncheon Club November 27 were treated to an inspiring talk on "A California Thanksgiving" by Municipal Judge Frank G. Tyrrell, the Club president.

December 4, tribute was paid Captain William J. Bright of the sheriff's department, whose birthday anniversary was celebrated. Lester H. Loble of Helena, Montana, national president of the Eagles, was a guest-speaker. This affair was arranged by Hervey L. Kitchin, the Club's faithful secretary, but he neglected to let it be known that the date was his birthday too.

Dean Rockwell D. Hunt of the U.S.C. Graduate School was the December 11 speaker. His subject was "I Knew Bidwell," and he related interesting incidents in the life of the one-time candidate for president of the United States of America. Dr. Hunt's new book, "John Bidwell: Prince of California Pioneers," is now on sale.

The Club's annual Christmas party was held December 18. Secretary Kitchin furnished a decorated tree, John Haas provided liquid refreshments, and Santa Claus (Judge Robert M. Clarke) distributed presents.

N.S.G.W.—NEWS PARAGRAPHS.—N.D.G.W.

District Deputy Robert Pesqueria will install the newly-elected officers of University Parlor No. 272 N.S.G.W. January 13. The Parlor now meets but once a month, the second Wednesday.

Compton—The birthday celebration of Compton Parlor No. 273 N.S.G.W., December 3, was well attended and much enjoyed. Members of Compton Parlor No. 258 N.D.G.W. prepared and served a delicious turkey dinner, which was followed by entertainment. During the evening Bob Tarleton introduced Grand Trustee Walter Ode-mar who, on the Parlor's behalf, presented a beautiful emblematic ring to Harry Hecox.

San Francisco, December 3, 1942.

MAE GRUNAUER.

El Pescadero Parlor No. 82 Native Daughters of the Golden West again records the passing of a beloved member from its ranks. On November 27, 1942, our Heavenly Father called to her eternal home in the Grand Parlor Above our esteemed sister and friend, Mae Grunauer.

"No one hears the door that opens
As they pass beyond recall,
Soft as loosened leaves of roses
One by one our loved ones fall."

Though we will miss her greatly, we know that Heaven is sweeter for her presence there, and though our eulogies may soon be forgotten, her memory will abide and be cherished always.

To the bereaved family we extend our sincere and heartfelt sympathy, and pray our Heavenly Father to give them His understanding and loving consolation.

Resolved, That the charter of El Pescadero Parlor be draped for a period of thirty days, that a copy of this memorial be placed upon the minutes of the Parlor, and that a copy be sent to the family of our departed sister.

Fraternally submitted in P.D.S.
BERTHA M. McNEE,
VICTORIA CANALE.

CLARENCE M. HUNT.

May the bells welcoming Nineteen Hundred and Forty-three "Ring in the love of truth and right, ring in the common love of good."

Powerful and well-financed white-Jap minority groups are working ceaselessly with yellow-Japs, paving the way for the latter to resume, unhindered and in increased numbers, their "peaceful invasion" of California following the armed conflict now in progress. And, the scheme is going to be successful, unless the United States Supreme Court decision under which the yellow-Japs born here claim and exercise citizenship rights be reversed. The Constitution of the United States of America does not grant citizenship to yellow-Japs; whatever right they have is derived from that decision, rendered by a divided Court, with the Chief Justice dissenting.

Unless the yellow-Japs be disfranchised they will, in a brief period of time after their return here, become so numerous and thoroughly entrenched that all restrictive laws pertaining to them will be repealed and California will become thoroughly japanized—peopled by a breed of tawny hybrids, the offspring of our daughter- and son-descendants and the yellow-Japs.

Fresno Parlor No. 25 N.S.G.W. has launched a movement having for its objective the preservation of a tract of giant trees in Tulare County. It wants, and should have, the cooperation of all interested organizations and individuals.

Yes, a couple of hundred Pacific Coast Japs have been released from relocation centers to resume normal activity outside proscribed areas, and thousands more of the pests are going to be turned loose unless there be such a mighty protest Washington will reverse its policy.

"Wilful waste makes woeful want." Remember when, not many years ago, quantities of foodstuffs were wantonly destroyed and farmers were penalized for producing food?

Acting for the taxpayers, the California Taxpayers Association addressed a letter to Santa Claus asking for, among other things: "State tax reduction; state expenditures cut to the bone by the 1943 Legislature; local property tax rates for 1943-44 cut to the minimum; civil government services reduced to essentials; abandonment of all talks of liberalized social service; a thorough housecleaning of civil government by the California Legislature."

Let's pray and hope Santa heard, and will deliver.

Japs in the civilian-supervised relocation centers at Poston, Arizona, and Manzanar, California, true to their traitorous instincts, went on rampages and the military had to quell the disorders.

You'd think that, after the Pearl Harbor experience, the Federal Government would cease coddling and appeasing the Japs in this country, keep all of them closely confined in concentration camps with the sexes separated, and give the United States Army exclusive supervision of the camps.

The press refers repeatedly to "Japanese loyal to America." There is no such animal! A Jap is a Jap, regardless of where born or located, and for the good of this country not a single Jap should be trusted.

A great deal was heard and read around December 7 about "remember Pearl Harbor." Had it been remembered by those charged with looking after the Japs, the outbreaks at Poston and Manzanar probably would not have occurred.

"The whole food program for 1943 will take into account several factors which were not so pressing last year," according to Secretary of Agriculture Claude R. Wickard. "In vegetables, for example, I believe it will be advisable to have them grown near to the centers where they will be used. We just don't have the transportation any more for long hauls of many kinds of vegetables, either by train or by truck. There will be some exceptions, of course, for the vegetables which are most essential to good nutrition. But on the whole the general pattern will be to discourage long hauls, and to rely more on home gardens and local truck growers."

Another instance of the juvenile delinquency that is rampant throughout the country: Six girls and eleven boys, ranging in age from 12 to 19 years, were arrested at Napa City for participating in a orgiastic party that lasted two days and nights in a one-room cabin.

Speaking in Sacramento, Arthur W. Ponsford, a San Diego waterfront reporter, said: "At the time of Pearl Harbor, Japan was credited with having 185 fighting ships. But those were the only ones the world at large knew about. What was not known is that her hundreds of thousands of fishing boats all along the Pacific Coast actually were auxiliary war vessels. In the Japanese pose as fishermen, our navy was seldom free from spying. In southern California before the war, the Japanese tuna fleet was used as a medium for smuggling in spies and fifth columnists whose entry should otherwise have been difficult or impossible."

For years, at recurring sessions of the California State Legislature, the Order of Native Sons of the Golden West endeavored to have enacted legislation that would have put the Jap fisherman out of business in this state. The Jap lobby—yellow-Japs and dollar-worshipping Whites—was always too financially powerful, however, and white-Jap legislators prevented passage of the measure.

A four-day discussion in Los Angeles last month of California's farm labor shortage brought forth considerable criticism of official Washington. A. Setrakian, a Fresno dirt-farmer, president of the California Grape Grower-Shipper Association, exclaimed:

"The time has come when crackpots have got to leave California farmers alone! I don't care if they are professors of economics. They're crackpots. They're not social reformers. They're peddlers of bunk! Can't these mildewed brain trusters and social reformers lay aside their hobbies, now that we've got a war to win? We are sick and tired of social reformers, sick and tired of the Farm Security Administration, the United States Employment Service and many other bureaus that don't know what is going on!" Secretary Ralph H. Taylor of the California Agricultural Council declared:

"Underneath in Washington there is a group of people who definitely intend to bring about a social revolution in this country, and they will use the war to do it. Something should be done to prevent that kind of people from making policies for our government."

Whatcha know! Didn't we tell you so? For several years, remember, The Grizzly Bear has repeatedly charged that the California Alien Land Law was being flagrantly and openly violated, and that public officials were making no effort to enforce it.

Well, believe it or not, at a meeting of the district attorneys of the state, called by the Attorney-General of California shortly after Pearl Harbor, it was determined to make a survey of the Japs, and

"As a result of said investigation, it was found that the Alien Land Law of the State of California was being, and has been for a number of years, flagrantly and openly violated by said Japanese, both alien and native born, by numerous and ingenious schemes and devices, all of which were condoned, aided, abetted and encouraged by many American citizens."

Ours is proclaimed a government of the people, by the people, yet, in numerous instances, public officials, rejected at the polls by the people, are immediately appointed to other lucrative public positions.

"Man is the architect of his character and the moulder of his destiny."—Exchange.

A FRIEND DEPARTS.

MINNIE P. KIHN.

To the Officers and Members of Encinal Parlor No. 19 N.S.G.W.—We, your committee appointed to draft resolutions of respect to our late Sister, Past President Minnie P. Kihn, submit the following:

Whereas, The Angel of Death has again broken the golden chain of fraternity in our Parlor, and taken to her Heavenly Home our beloved and honored Past President, Sister Minnie P. Kihn, we bow in humble submission to the Divine will, but her passing has brought sorrow to our members. We knew her as a loving mother, a true friend, and a loyal Native Daughter of the Golden West. We hereby record a tribute of love and affection to one whose kindly ways endeared her to all.

Whereas, We pay tribute to her memory, we are not unmindful of the sorrow that has come to her loved ones. It is our earnest prayer that God, in His mercy, will soften their sorrow and send peace into their hearts.

Resolved, That our deepest sympathy be extended to her family, and may the golden chain of memories that encircle her lessen their sorrow.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to be family, a copy spread in full upon the minutes of our Parlor and a copy sent to The Grizzly Bear Magazine.

Not dead to those who loved her,

Not lost but gone before;

KLAMATH CALIFORNIA'S LOST COUNTY

Dr. Peter T. Conmy, Grand Historian N.S.G.W.

(WRITTEN ESPECIALLY FOR THE GRIZZLY BEAR MAGAZINE.)

MOST CALIFORNIANS ARE COGNIZANT of the fact that their state is divided into fifty-eight counties. A fact little known, however, is that in all there have been sixty counties created. One of these was Pa-Utah County, for which provision was made in 1854 in anticipation of the cession to California of certain territory in northeastern Nevada. The area in question was not ceded, and so Pa-Utah County was not formed. The other county created by the California Legislature, but non-existent since 1874, is Klamath County. This is the only instance of a California county having been discontinued.

When, February 18, 1850, the State Legislature divided California into twenty-seven counties, all of that area, wide and expansive, lying north of the present northern boundary of Mendocino County and west of Shasta County—which then included the territory to the Oregon line now located in Siskiyou County—was designated as Trinity County. The area included in this unit covered the entire northwest portion of the state. Weaverville was the county seat. That part of Trinity County in and around Weaver-ville, which is the Trinity County of today, developed very slowly. My grandparents settled there in 1852 and their first child, a daughter, was the first White child born there, in 1853. My grandfather founded the Trinity Journal, a weekly newspaper, in that same year.

The Pacific coast section of Trinity county, including the valleys of the Klamath and the Salmon Rivers, would probably have undergone as slow a growth as the Weaverville area, and a county government emanating from that seat might have served the whole of the northwestern portion of California for many years, had it not been for the fact that the march of goldseekers, looking for new fields, led them into the western sloping valleys of the northern Coast Range.

Gold was discovered in the Trinity River, a tributary of the Klamath, in 1849 by Major Pearson B. Reading. He returned to the Sacramento Valley and announced his discovery, and in the following year, 1850, this led to the extension of goldseeking into the Klamath River itself, also the Scott River and the Salmon River, both of which were tributaries of the Klamath. Gold was found in 1850, and the area was soon filled with prospectors.

Some of the mining camps that grew into little towns in the country of the Scott, the Salmon and the Klamath Rivers were Scott's Bar, Sawyer's Bar, Johnson, Happy Camp, Bestville, Neap Flat, Gullion's Bar, Wingate Bar, Red Cap and Orleans Bar. The growth of these thriving centers seemed to indicate that northwestern California would become a great mining area, greater perhaps than the Mother Lode region.

A county with the seat of government at Weaverville, situated high in the mountains and far from the coast, was regarded as inadequate for this rugged and far-flung area with many growing settlements. It was for this reason that, April 25, 1851, the Legislature recognized the needs of this part of the state by creating Klamath County. Trinidad, on the coast, was designated the county seat.

Klamath County ran along the coast from the point where the Mad River enters the Pacific Ocean up to the Oregon line. It extended inland to the summit of the mountains. The name, Klamath, was given in recognition of the Indian tribe which inhabited the Klamath River valley. It is believed that in Indian the word signifies encamped.

Klamath County was too wide in area and too divided by topography to achieve a real, practical, working, economic unity. High mountain ranges played the role of isolating the several sections. Jealousy developed between the component parts. Trinidad, ordained as the county seat in 1851 when the county was organized, was in the extreme southwest. This location was satisfactory as a seat of the county only as long as the mining enterprise was restricted to the upper Salmon and the Klamath Rivers.

In 1853 gold was discovered on the lower Klamath and in the Smith River in the northern part of the county. This led to the development of a new center on a crescent-shaped harbor in the north known as Crescent City. This became a thriving community. Within a year it had over two hundred houses and a population of 1,800. Trinidad lagged behind, with a population of about 200. The location of Crescent City was more favorable for the economic distribution of goods and, therefore, in 1854 the Legislature removed the county seat from Trinidad to Crescent City.

As the years wore on sluice mining in Klamath County began to peter out. The territory was found to be unsuitable generally for placer mining. Many good quartz mines were discovered, but there was the question of procuring equipment, and then that of transporting it through a wild country. For this reason mining on the whole declined, and agriculture and stockraising took its place. Those who engaged in mining were, for the most part, the poorer prospectors. Situation of the county seat at Crescent City on the north-west coast of the county proved as inaccessible as Trinidad on the southwest.

In 1856, therefore, the Legislature again moved the county seat. This time the place chosen was Orleans Bar, located well to the interior and center of the county. Progress in this mining town was indeed slow. There was lack of roads and consequent lack of transportation. In September 1857 Joseph Rogers of Yreka obtained a contract for carrying a semi-monthly mail between Orleans Bar and Yreka, by way of Happy Camp and Scott's Bar. Notwithstanding this and other attempts to build up the community, there was decline rather than progress. As an example of this, there is the fact that in 1858 Joseph Virgo, proprietor of the Orleans Bar Hotel, reduced the price per glass of liquor in order to stimulate a waning business.

The people of Crescent City were piqued over the loss of their town as the county seat. Filled with an unbelievable ambition at this time, they were seeking to have Crescent City made the capital of California. A bill ordering this was introduced in the Legislature, but failed of passage. The Crescent City civic leaders were determined that if they could not have the state capital, they would at least remain a county seat.

To this end and purpose, they proposed the division of Klamath County in 1857. This was favorably received by the Legislature, and a new county, to which was given the name of Del Norte, was created March 2nd of that year. Del Norte, which is about fifty miles in length along the coast and runs into the interior about thirty-five miles, is small in area. Nevertheless, it is rich in minerals. There is an abundance of great forests. Fertile soil is conducive to agriculture.

The elimination of Del Norte from Klamath left the latter with very little. The valley of the Klamath is not good agricultural soil, except for the Hoopa country, which is an Indian reservation and not open to settlement. The failure of enterprise to equip the quartz mines so that they could be worked, left only a few stockraisers and a large number of itinerant prospectors in Klamath County. The latter were in most cases so mobile that they escaped taxation, causing the county to borrow in order to meet its expenses. By 1870 the population was less than 1,700, and the debt was $23,950.

There was no hope in sight for a revival of Klamath County and so, in 1874, the Legislature abolished the county, dividing the area and the debt between Humboldt and Siskiyou Counties. All of the coast, including the old county seat, Trinidad, and the mountain area, including Orleans Bar, went to Humboldt County. The northern interior region was given to Siskiyou County. The abolition of Klamath County is the only instance where declining population and economic conditions caused the elimination of a California county.

QUERY OF THE CABINETMAKER MRS. J. D. ARNOLD.

Is there a God when peace is hurled,
And trod upon by war's stampede?
When Aaron saw the forest trees
That God had given him,
He knew the storms would test
The might of younger growth;
He knew the superstrength
Of twisted forms;
For in his shop
The tough, gnarled grain of weathered wood
Had found a valued place
Where other woods had failed;
And then he wondered if
The God of All was testing peace
To season it for usefulness.

California harvested during 1942 the most valuable crops in the state's history. Vegetables and melons brought $153,423,000, and fruits and nuts $325,539,000.

The county supervisors of California will have their biennial conference at Sacramento, February 24-26.

CLARENCE M. HUNT.

Being muchly concerned about the future, as well as the present, welfare of California, and being thoroughly convinced that, unless the "seed of the sun" be entirely uprooted, the Japs will, following the present armed conflict, proceed with their "peaceful invasion" and eventually overrun this state, the writer proposes UNITED ACTION TODAY by organizations and individuals actually desirous of preserving California as a paradise of the White Man for all time. TOMORROW, after the war, will be TOO LATE! In the hope of permanently removing the Jap menace, this course of action is advocated:

Dispossess the Japs of every foot of land, rural and urban, to which they now claim title.

Challenge the citizenship of every Jap—his right to exercise in these United States the voting privilege.

Close every Jap-language school, and be certain that it is kept closed.

Do we, or do we not, really want to save this glorious heritage given into our keeping by our Pioneer Fathers and Mothers? If we have the will, this suggested course points the way! What's your answer?

"THIRTY-FIRST STAR."

By James A. B. Scherer; G. B. Putnam's Sons, New York, New York; Price, $3.50.

This is a story about California, whose admission to statehood, September 9, 1850, followed a history-making debate in the Senate of the United States of America. California was never a territory; it got into the Union as a full-fledged state, the thirty-first.

It is an exceptionally interesting story, in that it is woven about the political and the military events that transpired during the 1846-1864 period "in which California was not merely California, but the microcosm of a confused nation," and the author's interpretations of the motives prompting the makers of history of that time are often at variance with the findings of other historians.

Dr. Scherer, former president of the California Institute of Technology, accords General John Charles Fremont, the pathfinder, and his wife, Jessie Benton-Fremont, commanding places in the history-sun of California, and brings to the forefront other prominent actors in the drama of the Golden State—Thomas Hart Benton, Dr. William M. Gwin, James K. Polk, Zachary Taylor, Daniel Webster, John C. Calhoun, Henry Clay, John A. Sutter, William B. Ide, General Albert Sidney Johnson and Thomas Starr King.

The "Thirty-first Star" is a valuable addition to Californiana. It is well illustrated, and has an informative appendix.

"DISCOVERING MY FORTY-NINER FATHER." By Mitchell Bronk; The Judson Press, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania; Price, 50c.

A little book that tells of a son's attempt to learn something about a father "who took sick and died, in that hazy little-childhood out of which I have brought only faint recollections of him."

Abram Bronk, the father, arrived in San Francisco, September 20, 1849, after a journey of seven months and ten days around Cape Horn aboard the steamer Morrison. His life in California was spent mostly in Placer County, and he became its first treasurer. Mitchell Bronk, the son, in his "forty-niner father hunt" came to California just recently to gain acquaintance with the places the father had known nearly a century before.

Letters written by the elder Bronk from San Francisco, Alta California, September 22, 1849, and Horse Shoe Bar, North Fork of the American River, July 14, 1850, add interest to the story.

"THE LIFE AND LAUGHTER OF AN OLD CALIFORNIAN."

By Don Juan; Times-Mirror Press, Los Angeles, California; Price, $2.50.

This illustrated volume, published by the Plummer Committee, is the story of the life of Eugenio R. Plummer, once the owner of 942 acres of land in the heart of Los Angeles, including the site of the Hollywood Bowl. In his own words, and from his wealth of knowledge, he refers to numerous episodes, many of them humorous, that contributed to the making of the history of Los Angeles from the '60s to the present time, and he introduces personages prominently identified with those events.

Anyone liking good tales well told, can get much enjoyment from "The Life and Laughter of an Old Californian." Senior Plummer, born at San Francisco, January 8, 1853, is a life member of Hollywood Parlor No. 196 N.S.G.W.

BURIAL PLACE OF EARLYDAY

CALIFORNIA SURVEYOR DISCOVERED.

The burial place of Jean Jacques Vioget, first civil engineer to practice land surveying in California and the first saloon and restaurant keeper in San Francisco, was identified recently in the Oakhill Cemetery in San Jose.

The grave was discovered by J. M. Bowman, former technical assistant at the University of California, who traced it from some information and photographs given him by Harry C. Peterson, former curator of Sutter's Fort.

Vioget came to California in 1837, when he painted the first-known watercolor of San Francisco, then a hamlet of two houses. In 1839 he surveyed Portsmouth Square, and his work has been the basis for all succeeding surveys in the Golden Gate City.

JAP UPRISING AT MANZANAR DISCUSSED

San Francisco—The Grand Parlor Japanese Legislative Committee of The Native Sons of the Golden West met January 23, in attendance being Committeemen Edward T. Schnarr (chairman), Seth Millington, Eldred L. Meyer and Daniel J. Collins; Grand President Lloyd J. Cosgrove and Grand Secretary John T. Regan.

From the San Joaquin Farm Bureau Federation was received a copy of a resolution adopted by that body: "Resolved, That it is the desire of the San Joaquin Farm Bureau Federation that the necessary measures be taken and legal action instituted to disenfranchise and deny citizenship to all Japanese." A reply of appreciation was ordered sent.

City Clerk Mary E. Holeman of Bishop, Inyo County, sent a copy of a resolution adopted by the Bishop City Council: "Be it resolved, That the City Council of the City of Bishop respectfully urges and requests that the Civilian Administration of Manzanar Relocation area be immediately replaced by military authority and under the immediate supervision and direction of the United States Army."

The Jap uprising at Manzanar was discussed, and Grand President Cosgrove presented a letter from United States Senator Hiram W. Johnson of Sunset Parlor No. 26 N.S.G.W. (Sacramento), accompanied by a copy of a letter the Senator had received from Secretary of War Henry L. Stimson, a portion of which, latter letter says: "You are informed that control of the Manzanar Relocation Center, as well as all other Japanese Relocation Centers, is vested to the War Military Authority established by executive order. A change in the administration of these camps to place the War Department in control would necessitate Presidential action."

The Committee's attention was called to the splendid article on Jap citizenship, written by United States Senator Tom Stewart of Tennessee, that appeared in The Grizzly Bear for April 1942, and it was ordered that a letter be addressed to him urging that he present a bill in the Federal Congress embodying his viewpoint.

The following bills aimed at the Jap menace, now before the State Legislature, were considered: Assembly Bill No. 35, pertaining to the Fish and Game Law—Approved, as amended by adding after the word "unless" in line four the words "the master and," making it read: "No person shall use or operate any vessel in connection with fishing purposes for profit, unless the master and at least 75% of the crew of the vessel are citizens of the United States. This section does not apply to vessels documented by any agency of the United States."

Assembly Bill No. 16, pertaining to the Fish and Game Law—Approved, as amended by adding thereto the following: "Any corporation engaged in the fishing business must be citizens of the United States in order to get a permit."

Assembly Bills 17 and 23, pertaining to the Alien Land Law, were referred to Committeeman Millington for study, and he was requested to have introduced in the State Legislature a bill pertaining to Jap language schools.

A motion prevailed that Grand Second Vice-president Raymond D. Williamson "be requested to watch all bills pertaining to these questions in which we are deeply interested and keep us informed thereon."

Chairman Schnarr was requested to prepare a "pep" letter on the work of the Committee, a copy of which is to be mailed to each Subordinate Parlor of The Native Sons of the Golden West.

DISTINGUISHED NATIVE-BORN CALIFORNIAN GIVEN HONOR MEDAL

Carrying out its long-established custom of commending native-Californians who have achieved prominence, Los Angeles Parlor No. 45 N.S.G.W., through W. O. Gilkey, chairman of its history and landmarks committee, sent the following letter to Admiral William H. Standley, Ambassador to Russia, under date of November 11, 1942:

"We of Los Angeles Parlor No. 45, Native Sons of the Golden West, commend you for attaining the position of Admiral of the United States Fleet, as well as assuming the distinguished post of Ambassador to the Soviet Union. We understand that you are the only native-born Californian who has ever risen to such a high rank in the service of the United States Navy.

"As you have distinguished yourself in the Naval Service, as well as being ambassador to a foreign country, we point to you with pride and bestow upon you our medal of honor, our loyalty and friendship, which we hope you will accept and carry with you in military and civilian life." From Admiral Standley, Gilkey received this reply, dated Washington, D.C., December 12, 1942:

"Your letter of November 11 in which the Los Angeles Parlor No. 45, Native Sons of the Golden West, commends me for attaining the position of Admiral of the United States Fleet, as well as assuming the distinguished post of Ambassador to the Soviet Union, and bestows upon me your medal of honor, your loyalty and friendship, which you hope I will accept and carry with me in my military and civilian life, has followed me around and eventually caught up with me here. This explains the delay in your receiving a reply thereto.

"I appreciate the action of Los Angeles Parlor No. 45, Native Sons of the Golden West, and value highly the honor bestowed upon me, and you may rest assured that the knowledge that I have the loyalty and friendship of your Order will be another encouragement in my difficult task of representing our country in the Soviet Union.

"I left my home in Ukiah, California, at the age of nineteen and from then until now I have hardly been in one place long enough to become a member of the Native Sons of the Golden West, but you are right in stating that I am the only native-born Californian who has risen to the position of Chief of Naval Operations with the rank of Admiral, nor has a native-born Californian ever before occupied the post of Ambassador to the U.S.S.R.

"I hope you will convey to the members of your Order my appreciation of their action as stated above." After a three-month absence in the United States on official business, Admiral Standley arrived in Moscow via a Liberator bomber January 12.

CITY AND COUNTY

LONG BEACH—A NOTEWORTHY EVENT in the annals of local fraternal circles was the joint public installation, January 20, of officers of Long Beach Parlor No. 273 N.S.G.W. and Long Beach Parlor No. 154 N.D.G.W. Among the more than 250 in attendance were representatives of neighboring Parlor of both Orders. At a turkey supper, arranged for by the Native Sons, preceding the installation, Chester French presided as the master of ceremonies. Franklin G. West of Santa Ana Parlor No. 265 N.S.G.W., Superior Judge of Orange County, was the speaker, and he gave an amusing discourse on early day decisions of the California Supreme Court which was greatly enjoyed. Opening the installation, Nell Cooke, escorted by Seamen E. T. Jones and Earl Miller, advanced the colors, and the assemblage joined in pledging allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America and singing the national anthem. Jessie Chrmann introduced the officiating deputies, Eleanor Gunn and Robert Castro, who were assisted by Lottie Miller, Faye Young, Deputy Grand President Roy Tarleton, Paul Traynor and Grand Organist Roger Johnson. Grace Poole succeeded Eleanor Starr as president of the Native Daughters, and Chester French succeeded Claude Riddle as president of the Native Sons.

Addresses were delivered by Grand Vice-president Mary B. Noerenberg, Grand Trustee Walter Odemar and Supervising Deputy Ann Schiebusch. From their respective Parlor, Past Presidents Eleanor Starr and John Johnston received emblematic rings, the presentation addresses being made by Nell Cooke and Clarence S. Hunt. The Native Daughters, through little Alicia Ann Poole, daughter of President Poole, gave President French a nicely engraved orangewood gavel; Leon Campisi, for the Native Sons, presented a gift to Junior Past President Riddle; the Native Sons, through Marshal Joseph Smith, gave a bouquet to President Poole, and there were several other presentations, including a bouquet to Mrs. Kate McFayden, the "mother" of No. 64, active in Native Daughters affairs for thirty-seven years. Ella Bozeman was chairman of arrangements for the installation. Among others introduced were Deputies Adlena Marschall, Margaret Burch and Beatrice Wahrmond; Gertrude Crawford, Willard Allen, Walter Richards, Walter Hickey and Clarence M. Hunt. At the close of the delightful affair light refreshments were served by the Native Daughters.

SINCERE THANKS.

"Through the kind offices of The Grizzly Bear, I wish to extend the sincere thanks of the Homeless Children Committee of the Southern District and myself to the Parlor and the one-hundred twenty-five members of the Orders of Native Sons and Native Daughters of the Golden West who so generously responded to our Christmas letter. Letters were mailed this year to over three thousand members of both Orders, and we feel that all want to aid in the charitable work carried on by the committee and not take credit for a work supported by a very few members. The need for financial aid is greater this year than ever before, and we wish to remind all donors that any contributions may be deducted from income tax. Checks may be mailed to the treasurer, Flora Holy, box 204, Hollywood,"—BERNARD G. HISS, chairman.

TO ENTERTAIN SAILOR BOYS.

Officers of Los Angeles Parlor No. 45 N.S.G.W., with William Girard retained as president, were installed January 14 by District Deputy Lee Winters, assisted by Clarence M. Hunt, Grand Trustee Walter Odemar and Grand Organist Roger Johnson. Various matters were commented on by Owen Adams, Charles Castillo, Frank Frank, District Deputy Woodrow Wade, Arthur Anderson, Willard Allen and others. Refreshments were served after the meeting.

February 4, Los Angeles will be host to a delegation of Uncle Sam's sailor boys. Grand Organist Roger Johnson, in charge of the program, will make phonograph records for the guests to send to the folks back home, and there will be entertainment and refreshments. Other affairs on the Parlor's February calendar are: 11th, past presidents night, 18th, oldtimers night, 25th, initiation and refreshments.

A CHARMING RAMBLE.

Being engaged in defense work, many members fail to attend the affairs of Californiana Parlor No. 247 N.D.G.W. these days. But even though Program Chairman Mary Ann Thomas puts in a full day every day in the regular army, she still provides most delightful entertainment at the monthly luncheon.

January 12 she presented Roscoe A. Goodcell of Arrowhead Parlor No. 110 N.S.G.W. (San Bernardino), long a resident and teacher in China, who delighted his hearers with Chinese folk lore and fairy tales, interspersed with Chinese flute melodies. After a charming ramble in old China, with whose highways and byways he is most familiar, he brought the present situation into clear view with an analytical explanation of the "China incident."

Californiana is keeping step with the times in its defense activities, and its members serve regularly at the USO, 624 South Main Street. Charlotte Carpenter has become so perfect in making sandwiches she recently surprised herself by making twelve dozen singlehanded. The Gertrude Circle enjoyed luncheon and sewing at the Hollywood home of Ora May Evans January 19. Hospitality Chairman Isabella Granz presided at a tea January 26.

FULL CALENDAR.

January 8, at well-attended public ceremonies, the officers of Ramona Parlor No. 109 N.S.G.W., with George M. Cuthbertson as president, were installed. District Deputy Robert Pesqueria officiated, and was assisted by District Deputy Lee Winters, Grand Trustee Walter Odemar and Grand Organist Roger Johnson. Among the several speakers were Lon McCoy, Willard Allen, Moritz Rosenthal, John Sheffield, Ward McConnell, William Gibson and Chairman Margaret Tann of the Interparlor Committee. Deputy Pesqueria and Junior Past President Robert Ziegler favored with a duet, and refreshments were served.

Ramona has a full calendar for February: 5th, new members night, honoring those initiated during 1942; refreshments, 12th, Abraham Lincoln night, especially honoring the justices and the judges affiliated with the Parlor; refreshments, 19th, "Paisanos" night; dinner, 6:30, prepared by Charles J. Gassagne, Lee G. Ybarra, John H. Morrell and Carlos Drouet, and served by Chairman Earle Magee and his goodofthe order committee; initiation, 22nd, George Washington night, 26th, oldtimers night.

Native Sons of the Golden West

CHARLES HENRY SMITH, ONE OF THE original members and the first recording secretary of a society termed The Native Sons of the Golden West, out of which developed the Order of that name, died at Santa Monica, Los Angeles County, January 12, survived by three children, Mrs. Winifred Smith-Wallace, Mrs. Thelma Smith-Nolin and Paul Parr Smith. He was born at Mount Diablo, Contra Costa County, October 4, 1855. At his funeral, the burial ritual of the Order was read by Past Grand President Eldred Meyer and Grand Trustee Walter Odemar, and the latter delivered a eulogy.

At the suggestion of General A. M. Winn, a few young men, natives of California, participated in an Independence Day parade at San Francisco in 1875, and July 11 of that same year they organized The Native Sons of the Golden West, which was incorporated March 27, 1876. That certificate of incorporation reads:

"Native Sons of the Golden West, Organized San Francisco July 11, 1875. ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION. Know all men by these presents: That we, the undersigned, have associated ourselves together for the purpose of incorporating under the Laws of the State of California, an Association to be known by the corporate name of THE NATIVE SONS OF THE GOLDEN WEST, and we hereby certify that the following is the list of names, now members, with the date and place of their birth. [Then follows the membership roll, the name of Charles H. Smith being listed as No. 4 thereon.]

"And we, the late officers of the Society, do hereby certify that we held an election for our successors at Anthony's Hall, in San Francisco, on Thursday Evening the Sixth of January, 1876, at which there was a majority of the members present who took part and voted at said election, and that the following gentlemen received a majority of the votes and were declared the officers of the Society for the term of six months, viz: [Then follows a list of those officers.] Who were duly installed by us on Thursday Evening, the 13th of January, 1876. By the rules of the Society the thirteen officers are trustees, but to comply with the State laws in relation to corporations the first eleven who are residents of San Francisco, are named as trustees to serve until their successors are elected and qualified.

"Signed, J. A. Steinbach, President; Jasper Fishbourne, 1st Vice-President; E. G. W. Penn, 2d Vice-President; S. P. Harmon, 3rd Vice-President; Charles H. Smith, Recording Secretary; H. F. Harmon, Financial Secretary; H. C. Stevenson, Treasurer; Fred Streeter, Marshal, and John E. McDougald, S. M. Stenwood, Myles O'Donnell, Abraham

Mayer, Charles D. Olds, Executive Committee. And we hereby certify that the purposes for which this corporation is formed, are social intercourse, mental improvement and mutual benefit. To that end, we propose to buy, sell, rent, lease, improve and otherwise dispose of real, personal and mixed estate; to organize auxiliaries, sustain, suspend, disband or regulate them by charter, dispensation and by-laws, with such name, officers, privileges, authority, and power as the Society may from time to time determine; also to establish a representative Grand Body, with such members, officers, authority, privileges and power as the Society may determine, and do all other acts that may be legally done under and by virtue of the laws of California. Its term of existence shall be fifty years; and its principal place of business, the City and County of San Francisco, California. "In witness whereof we have hereunto set our hands and seals, this the Twenty-fourth day of March A. D. 1876."

These articles of incorporation were filed with the County Clerk of the City and County of San Francisco, March 27, 1876.

In The Grizzly Bear for May 1927, Smith had an article setting forth substantially the same facts relative to the organization of The Native Sons of the Golden West as appear in the articles of incorporation. And he went on to say: "Leaving San Francisco at the close of the year 1875 to return to my home at Antioch, Contra Costa County, and later going to Shasta County to live, I gave up my membership in the organization."

The society with which Smith was identified eventually became known as California Parlor No. 1. Oakland Parlor No. 2 and Sacramento Parlor No. 3 were later instituted, and representatives of those three Parlors met at San Francisco, November 30, 1878, and formed the First Grand Parlor. April 17, 1925, Smith affiliated with Ramona Parlor No. 109 (Los Angeles). At the Sixty-second (San Francisco 1939) Grand Parlor, legislation was passed making "all living original members of the Native Sons of the Golden West whose names appear on the original Articles of Incorporation" members of the Grand Parlor. Aaron Herringhi of California Parlor No. 1 (San Francisco) is now the sole surviving member of the original society.

County Parlors Unite for Official Visit.

Sacramento—The Sacramento County Parlors, —Sacramento No. 3, Sunset No. 26 (Sacramento), Elk Grove No. 41, Granite No. 83 (Folsom), Courtland No. 106 and Sutter Fort No. 241 (Sacramento)—in joint session here January 14, were officially visited by Grand Trustee Eben K. Smart, who was accompanied from Grass Valley by four autoloading of Quartz No. 58 members. President Orin VanVleck led another large delegation of out-of-county visitors from Placerville No. 9. The attendants from Elk Grove and Courtland were headed, respectively, by Grand Trustee Walter Bailey and Past President Emil Lample, and among the several from Sutter Fort were President Lou Ferron, Secretary Carl Katzenstein and Albert Katzenstein.

During the evening the officers of Sacramento and Sunset, the host-Parlors, were installed. District Deputy Milton Johnston, who officiated, was assisted by Lou Ferron and Roy Cothrin, and James Hanlon and Fred Breuner became the respective presidents. Grand Trustee Smart, in the course of a patriotic address, called attention to the Order's objectives, and urged the members to carry on. Superior Judge Malcolm Glenn gave a very impressive talk on the Jap situation, and several others spoke briefly.

George Radcliffe of Watsonville No. 65, a Sacramento resident thirty-two years, eulogized Thomas William McAuliffe, [whose death December 26 was recorded in The Grizzly Bear for January] a trustee of Sacramento Parlor many years. "Tom," he said, "lived Nativism from the time he got out of bed in the morning until he went to sleep at night." John J. Monteverde Sr. of Sunset eulogized Frank J. Ruhstaller, a fifty year member of Sacramento Parlor, who died January 5. He was born at Sacramento November 5, 1872, and joined the Parlor May 15, 1891. "Deceased," said the speaker, "was an outstanding citizen, kind and charitable, and a liberal supporter of all projects of the Order."

Excellent entertainment was furnished by Miss Barbara Wright, and Corporal Paul Nelson and Sergeant Vincent Dornisch of Camp Kohler. At the conclusion of the program a feast of cracked crab, prepared by Louie Vienna of Sunset, was enjoyed.

Jap Problem Discussed.

San Diego—At a well-attended meeting January 6, San Diego No. 108 was officially visited by Grand Trustee Walter Odemar. The ritual was impressively exemplified for the benefit of four candidates by a team headed by Past President Thomas Tighe. The report of Recording Secretary Joseph Kelley showed the Parlor to be in splendid condition.

Grand Trustee Odemar spoke on the Jap problem in California, and then followed a lengthy discussion of that subject in which Edgar Hastings, District Deputy Henry Hache, Clarence M. Hunt, Everett Curtis, Lester Shaw, Dewey Richards and others participated. Previous to the meeting a delicious roast beef dinner, prepared and served by Burt Pauter, Joseph Ferraro and Paul Otten, was enjoyed.

San Diego's officers, with Albert Vallin a president, were installed January 20 by District Deputy Henry Hache. The Parlor has received from Trustee Robert Mahoney as a gift, free from any incumbrance, his mountain cabin at Quatay.

SAN FRANCISCO

FESTIVE WITH SPARKLING WHITE pine cones and gaily-colored lights was the N.D.G.W. Home, January 13, when the officers of Dolores Parlor No. 169 N.D.G.W., attired in formal gowns and carrying oldfashioned nosegays, were installed. Deputy Evelyn Brady officiated, and Past Grand President Evelyn Carlson was chairman of the evening. Following her induction into office, President Mardelle May, addressing the well-attended gathering, said:

"Worthy grand officers, present and past, worthy deputy grand president, my sisters of Dolores Parlor, and our many guests: My greatest and best wishes for each and every one of you for your health, happiness and success in the new year, and my sincere thanks and appreciation for your presence here tonight. To my sisters of Dolores Parlor, my very sincere thanks to you for having elevated me to the highest position obtainable in a Subordinate Parlor. I am truly aware of the honor of being able to hold the position of sixty-eighth president of such an outstanding Parlor as Dolores. To my newly installed corps of officers, may I extend my best wishes for a very happy and successful term."

"And now, my friends: At a time when our leaders are seeing to it that, as a nation, we have the necessary equipment for carrying out the tasks before us, we, as Native Daughters, should look to our inner equipment for our own strength and security. Our faith must be so durable that nothing can vanquish or diminish it. We must build within ourselves such peace and poise that, come what may, we can remain undaunted and undismayed, a tower of serenity, courage and help to all. That is why we, as Native Daughters, must learn more and more to be resolute, steadfast, tolerant and unperturbed."

"In these days of troubled waters, our outstanding organization can be of such great help to others whom we contact. The world needs us today; it needs our capable hands, our strength, our finest thoughts, and our warmest love. Let each of us—Dolores Parlor build an indestructible city—a place of serenity and security, where neither doubt nor fear can sway us. Remember, tonight may not wear its golden loveliness, but tomorrow will come in splendid beauty. All of us know this is worth waiting for."

"Won't you, my sisters, begin with me tonight to build our citadel of peace? Let us in Dolores Parlor lay the foundation of our structure on the solid rock of our understanding, and let us fill our thoughts with strength, confidence and trust. Above all, let our love for mankind shed its radiance and warmth, and let our understanding and sisterly love reveal in its beauty the tomorrow that is to bring joy to all the world of mankind. Thank you."

Native Daughters of the Golden West

UNDER DATE OF JANUARY 13, THE following letter was sent to the history chairmen of Subordinate Parlors by Emillette Conny, chairman of the Grand Parlor History and Landmarks Committee:

"During this quarter of her term, our Worthy Grand President [Claire Lindsey] has emphasized the theme 'An Abiding Faith in the Existence of God.' Inasmuch as faith in the existence of God has been found in many noteworthy examples in California history, you are asked to group your considerations of our State's history around this theme during this quarter.

"It is interesting to note that the visit of the first Whiteman to California was accompanied by a striking example of faith in God. When the brave Cabrillo and his men were off the rocky coast of Mendocino, a terrific storm arose and they feared that they would be dashed on the shore. They gave themselves up for lost, and then turned to prayer, and the winds shifted and they were saved.

"In the mission period, those who explored California by land were always accompanied by a chaplain, and attended a daily religious service. The first signs of civilization in California were, of course, the missions themselves, dedicated to the worship of the Most High and adorned, each one of them, with the symbol of faith, the cross.

"No greater example of abiding faith in God is to be found, than in the diary of Patrick Breen, one of the members of the ill-fated Donner Party. Camped at Donner Lake December 25, 1846, with many already dead and many others about to die, he had the courage to write, 'We turn our thoughts to God this Christmas morning. The prospect is appalling, but we place our trust in Him.' The Mormon people, too, came into California for religious freedom. Their faith in their particular interpretation was very great.

"Too much emphasis has been placed upon the crimes of the gold mining era. It is true that there were crimes, but it is also true that the majority of the people were both law-abiding and religious, which is evidenced by the many churches which flourished, such as the old Episcopal Church at Sonora, St. Anne's Church at Columbia, the old synagogue on Sutter Street in San Francisco, the church at Old Town in San Diego, and many another edifice which still stands as a reminder of the abiding faith in God of early California. This manifestation of faith is our inheritance. From it we take a courage that helps us to face the storm as bravely as did Cabrillo's men four hundred years ago.

"It is good that we present-day Californians should recall the faith of our pioneer fathers. We should recall the lives of those great men of the soul, such as the Catholic Serra, the Protestant Taylor, the Catholic Catala, the Protestant Wiley, the Catholic Alemany, the Protestant Thomas Starr King, the Catholic Ubach, the Protestant Kip, the Catholic Manogue, and the Protestant Colton. Every part of California has its religious landmarks and the names of those who have pioneered religion.

"Every part of California, from the rugged mountains of Siskiyou to the gardens of San Diego, from the lava beds of Modoc to the rich sands of Imperial, from the snow-capped tops of the Sierra to the shores of the sea, from Mendocino to Tahoe, and from Monterey to Inyo, reflects of the glory and wisdom of the Creator, and impels an abiding faith in Him. During this quarter at your meetings, please give thought to the development of faith in God in California history.

"St. Paul once said, 'Faith without works is dead.' In this connection, it may not be amiss to consider, as well, the application of faith on the part of the people of California. Tolerant, our school system to elevate the individual, our university dedicated to the teaching of truth, our charities, our war service—all of these, and many more, are the fruits of an abiding faith in God. It is believed that historical programs fea-

FIFTY GOLDEN YEARS
TOGETHER IN A GOLDEN STATE

Sebastopol—Notwithstanding a heavy down-pour of rain, relatives and hosts of friends called at the home of Pearl and Alfred Thomas, December 22, to congratulate them on their golden wedding anniversary. Thomas, a member of one of the pioneer families in the Green Valley section of Sonoma County, is affiliated with Sebastopol Parlor No. 148 N.S.G.W., and his wife, a direct descendant of the Donner Party, is second vice-president of Sebastopol Parlor No. 265 N.D.G.W. They have two sons, Ted and Tom Thomas, four grandchildren and a great-granddaughter.

The home was appropriately decorated for the occasion, and the couple were the recipients of many lovely gifts, among them a set of china from the Native Daughters. Assisting Mrs. Thomas in receiving were her daughters-in-law, Mms. Ted Thomas and Tom Thomas, and Mms. Al Badger and Henry Thomas. The following verse, composed by Recording Secretary Alazuma Singmaster of Sebastopol Parlor N.D.G.W. and dedicated to Pearl and Alfred Thomas, was read by Mrs. Ted Thomas:

THE GOLDEN YEARS.
"Fifty years!
Each year a golden link
In the chain of living and of Life.
Each year a golden memory
Filled with happiness or strife:
Each year a golden treasure
Stored in the chest of living
Along with other precious gifts
And memories of giving
The crystal days brought brightest joy,
The dark ones bitter tears;
But strung upon the chain of Life
They've made these golden years.
"Fifty golden years!
Together—in a Golden State.
What more can man ask of maid
Or maid of mate?
"And now, heads up and hand in hand,
March on together
Through the golden sunset glow.
Ask only one more gift of Time:
Go slowly. Time! Go slow!"

SEA CARP LAUNCHED

South San Francisco (San Mateo County)—January 23, at 9:45 a.m., the 10,000-ton merchant ship Sea Carp was launched at the shipyards of the Western Pipe and Steel Company, under the auspices of The Native Sons of the Golden West.

Bradford W. Melvin, representing the Company, introduced as chairman of the day Grand President Lloyd J. Cosgrove, who addressed the assemblage and thanked the Company for honoring the Order. Past Grand President Lewis F. Byington made a patriotic address in which he stressed the importance of Marshall's California gold discovery.

Governor Earl Warren gave a splendid talk on the activities of the State Legislature at Sacramento, and then Mrs. Earl Warren, wife of the Governor, christened the ship Sea Carp. Also present at the launching were the six children of Governor and Mrs. Warren, including their oldest son, in the uniform of the United States Army.

Immediately after the launching the Company held a reception at a San Francisco hotel, to which were invited many Native Sons and Native Daughters of the Golden West, including Grand Presidents Lloyd Cosgrove and Claire Lindsey.

HOMEMADE DEHYDRATOR

To meet the need for home food preservation and to relieve the wartime strain on commercial food processors and manufacturing facilities, Rural Electrification Administration engineers have designed a homemade electric food dehydrator which may be constructed mainly of non-critical materials.

The dehydrator is an insulated box, easy to build, with trays for the fruit or vegetable to be dried, lamp bulbs or heating elements for heat, and an ordinary household fan to circulate the hot air through the drying trays. A bushel of fruit or vegetables can be reduced to from ten to twenty-five percent of its original weight and volume in eight to twelve hours.

Plans for building such dehydrators are available at any of the 799 REA-financed rural electric systems throughout the country, or direct from the Rural Electrification Administration office in St. Louis, Missouri.

VanLoven making the presentation address. The following resolution was adopted unanimously:

CREATOR OF JOY AND PLEASURE FOR OTHERS QUITS LOVED LABOR

John McLaren, superintendent of San Francisco parks since 1877, died January 12 at his home in magnificent Golden Gate Park, San Francisco, the monument to his horticultural genius. He was born in Scotland in 1846, and came to California in the '60s.

His father once remarked to him, "Me boy, if ye have nothing to do, go plant a tree and it will grow while ye sleep." He followed that advice, and planted more than 2,000,000 trees, most of them in and around San Francisco. The San Francisco Chronicle paid this editorial tribute to John McLaren:

"It is not often given to a man to live with, in by and for his own monument. John McLaren built his, beginning it when he was a young man, thinking on it all his life, loving it passionately, and never leaving it."

"It was that most fortunate man whose vocation was one with his avocation, whose path of duty lay amongst his dreams of pleasure, whose dreams were always as real as they were beautiful, who in an unending success, never knew the meaning of failure, whose service was joy, whose fame and thanks came of themselves as mere incidents of a life of following his heart's desire."

John McLaren was at once San Francisco's most diligent and faithful servant and its most distinguished citizen. And this was because, of all San Franciscans, he was the creator of joy and pleasure for others. He did it as an artist and a poet, with love in his heart, with his was a most ferocious man when anything threatened his Park. Better that thy right arm should wither than that it should stretch forth a hand to break one of his trees! To him it was HIS Park, a concept, however, that only made him eager to make all the people free of it.

"We shall not soon forget this splendid Scot, nor would we even if he did not leave behind him his magnificent monument in the parks of San Francisco and, chief of all, one among the great public gardens of the world—Golden Gate Park."

N.S.G.W. PARLOR FOR WILMINGTON.

Wilmington—A number of local natives of California, desirous of having here a parlor of Native Sons of the Golden West, are holding organization meetings every Thursday evening at Frank's Cafe, 120 East Anaheim Boulevard. Half the required number of names had been attached to the charter petition January 20, and Sunday, March 7, has been fixed as the date for the institution of the parlor.

District Deputy Robert Castro, 1481 Water Street, has been put in charge of the organization work by Supervising Deputy Howard Woodward, and he is being ably assisted by Earle Smith, 114 East "G" Street, and Joseph A. Denni, 736 Avalon Boulevard. If you know of an eligible residing in Wilmington, advise either of them.

Others interested and assisting in the formation of the new parlor are J. A. Weldt, T. C. Alender, Boyd Rhodes, Robert Bagdasar, Ralph Bagdasar, Walter Richards and Roy Tarleton. District Deputy Woodrow Wade, who organized Centinela Parlor, is helping, too, and he says that, if you reside in Los Angeles and know of a prospect in Wilmington and will phone him the information,—YOrk 8875—he will contact the party.

UNITED STATES FLAG PRESENTED.

San Pedro—Poinsettias and bows of crepe paper in the colors of the Order decorated the meeting place of Rudecinda Parlor No. 230 N.D.G.W. for the January 11 public installation of officers. Deputy Margaret Burch, who officiated, was assisted by members of Long Beach Parlor No. 154 N.D.G.W., and Gertrude Crawford became the new president.

Prior to the ceremonies, Chairman Katherine Dodson of the Parlor's americanism committee, on behalf of Rowena Wheeler, the retiring president, presented a United States of America Flag to Rudecinda. Following her induction into office, President Crawford was the recipient of many gifts, among them a gavel made of coral wood, sent by her husband, who is somewhere in the south Pacific. The presentation address was made by their daughter, Virginia Newman, who was chairman of the evening. Mrs. Wheeler also received many remembrances, among them a past president emblem, presented by the Parlor through Letitia Sarciaux, and a gift of crystal from the 1942 officers.

Among the visitors and speakers were Grand Vice-president Mary B. Noerenberg and Supervising Deputy Ann Schiebusch. Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting by Meda Goodrich and committee.

The Florencita Thimble Club, an auxiliary of Rudecinda, met January 20 at the home of Virginia Bruckner. That evening President Crawford accompanied a delegation of Parlor members to the joint installation at Long Beach, and the following evening several members attended the joint installation at Compton.

Native Sons Friday Luncheon Club on "The War Comes to the County" January 15. John C. Cunco Jr. of the State Welfare Board, a member of Modesto Parlor No. 11 N.S.G.W., was the January 22 speaker, and his subject was "Age Pensions."

Both were introduced by Municipal Judge Frank G. Tyrrell, the president. The Club meets every Friday, 12:15 noon; contact Secretary Hervey L. Kitchin, Gladstone 2533, for the address of the meeting place.

FINE TALK.

East Los Angeles Parlor No. 277 N.S.G.W. served a deluxe dinner January 11, prepared by "Tony" Levy and "Babe" Nighswonger. After the many on hand had enjoyed the feast, Ernest Foster introduced Gilbert Wind, a soldier home on leave because of injury, who gave a fine talk—just plain facts about conditions in a certain war area, with no oratorical frills. He said the boys where he is stationed need a radio and he wanted to take one back with him. So, Dr. A. B. Carmichael, the president, suggested a collection, and a goodly sum was donated.

At the Parlor meeting, First Vice-president John Rogers spoke impressively about homeless children, and urged liberal contributions to that project of the Order. Other speakers were Grand Trustee Walter Odemar, Bernard Hiss, District Deputy Woodrow Wade, Clarence M. Hunt, Federal Judge Ben Harrison, Willard Allen and Supervising Deputy Howard Woodward.

East Los Angeles now meets but once a month, the second Monday, at Poppy Trail Villa, 4558 1/2 Whittier Boulevard. Supper is always served at 7 p.m. sharp. The next meeting will be February 8, and all members of the Order are extended an invitation to be there.

RELICS OF EARLYDAY VOYAGE

FOUND AT DRAKE'S BAY.

Material evidence of Sebastian Rodriguez Cermeno's exploration in 1595 has been uncovered near Drake's Bay by R. K. Beardsley and student assistants of the Department of Anthropology of the University of California.

Hand-forged, iron spikes and fragments of sixteenth-century Chinese porcelain found while examining the site have been identified as relics salvaged from Cermeno's wrecked ship, the San Augustin, which was driven aground in Drake's Bay in November 1595. One of the earliest explorations of the California coast, the voyage was sponsored by the viceroy of New Spain, who hoped to make the Philippine trade with Mexico more effective by finding ports where ships could renew their supplies and allow their crews to recuperate.

"God of all grace and glory, so teach us to number our days that we may apply our hearts unto wisdom."—Rev. Frederick Brown Harris, D.D.

Senator Albert B. Chandler of Kentucky, chairman of a subcommittee of the Military Affairs Committee of the United States Senate, says Jap males from various relocation centers are being released to join the United States Army.

And a Jap female was released from one of the centers in California to marry a Jap sergeant in the United States Army.

Verily, the "peaceful invasion" continues, and gains momentum!

The State Board of Equalization suspended the licenses of fourteen San Francisco drink emporiums because they sold alcoholic beverages to two girls, 12 and 14 years of age who, with male adults, "engaged in orgies of debauchery not surpassed in the police annals of San Francisco," said the state liquor administrator. More evidence of the moral trend of the times, which is decidedly downward.

"Housewives are going to be asked to buy some foods in bulk which they formerly bought in more convenient cans," says Roy F. Hendrickson of the United States Department of Agriculture. "I dare to hope that housewives will encourage this trend, knowing that the more food they can buy in bulk, the more cans of the same and other foods will be available to send to the boys who are doing the fighting jobs."

The hope will be realized!

The Banking and Currency Committee of the United States Senate approved legislation to permit the coinage of three-cent pieces, half-dimes and pennies from materials other than copper.

Wooden money may yet become a reality.

Congratulations to District Attorney Thuesen of Fresno County! He has announced that he will, with the assistance of Attorney General Robert Kenny, vigorously prosecute NOW escheat proceedings against the State Farming Company, operator of a 3,330-acre farm in the Dos Palos district which, it is charged, is owned by alien Japs.

All district attorneys should follow his lead, and endeavor to recover from the Japs, before the war is over, the thousands of acres of California's best agricultural land, title to which they obtained through trickery or by direct violation of the Alien Land Law.

The truthfulness of this story of "bureaucratic government at Washington with its inevitable stupidity" is vouched for by the Livingstons, Merced County, Chronicle:

"When a Hanford sheep man wrote to Washington and appealed for removal of restrictions which were hampering the 1942 wool and mutton crops he received a reply from a high official of the Office of Defense Transportation suggesting that he postpone the lambing season at least three weeks."

Dr. John R. Lechner, prominent in the affairs of the American Legion and executive director of the Americanism Educational League, prepared a survey of the Jap problem which was unanimously approved by the Twenty-third District American Legion. It is appropriately titled "Playing With Dynamite," as the contents are startling.

He proposes sending all persons of Jap blood in the United States back to Japan at the close of the war. "These repatriated Japanese, Issei and Nisei alike, could do more to christianize Japan than 1,000 missionaries and 10,000 Bibles," he believes.

The survey tells in detail about Jap groups in the United States—Black Dragon Society, Jap-language schools, Institute for Education of Overseas Japanese, Imperial Education Association, Japanese-American Citizens League, Imperial Comradeship Society, Japanese-American Chamber of Commerce, Jap consulates and Japanese-American newspapers—spreading preachings of loyalty to Japan and treason to the United States among all persons of Jap blood in this country.

Information concerning projected invasions of the Pacific Coast by the Japs is disclosed, and it indicates that 10,000 Japs from the United States are now being trained in Japan in invasion tactics.

Because of increased food demands, California's State Director of Agriculture urges victory gardens for homes. "All city families," he says, "should grow Victory Gardens if soil conditions, water, space and proper exposure to the sun can be provided. Where conditions are not good for a garden, neighbors should get together and operate a community garden."

In discussing the war, the question often arises, "Why does God allow it?" The war is the result of man's perfidy and disobedience of God's law; the Great Ruler had nothing to do with its making. Therefore man, and not God, must be held accountable for the war and its terrible destruction. When man ceases self-worship and recognizes the supremacy of Divine law, warring will cease, but not until then.

Voicing the opinion the Senate of the United States of America Congress made a mistake when it relinquished its constitutional right to confirm appointments of "officials who administer the laws of the United States,"—referring to the heads of the too-numerous bureaus, commissions, etc.,—Senator Millard E. Tydings of Maryland says:

"The result is that now the Congress has little control over the confusion, the abuses, the red tape, the waste and the unwarranted interference with legitimate business against which the whole country is now complaining."

It's never too late to correct a mistake!

There is good reason to suspicion that the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America is having considerable to say about the conduct of the Jap relocation centers. Appeasing and coddling the little yellowbellies is right down its alley, and it is one of the most powerful organizations in this country.

The conduct of the relocation camps, and the regulation of the Japs sent to the camps, should, for the country's good, be transferred from the War Relocation Authority to the United States Army without delay.

The most despicable concerns in these United States are those three New York outfits which, at Christmas time, unloaded on an unsuspecting public a quantity of fake gift packages for overseas servicemen. Their personnel should be given the Russian sure-cure for crookedness.

"From Cambridge, Massachusetts, comes a story related by Albert Bushnell Hart, former history professor at Harvard University, how a 'payoff' by the Jap government to the 'underworld' of that country in the early part of the century prevented altercations with American visitors that might have led to war.

"It was mighty cheap for the Japanese government to get off that way," says Hart. "And it's not impossible that the gang which was 'paid off' had something to do with events that led up to Pearl Harbor."

Could be. The whole truth, evidently, about the Japs' December 7 armed invasion has not yet been made public.

Generalissimo Francisco Franco of Spain contends "the world has only the choice between communism and fascism."

Too bad for the world, if that be true.

"Sacrificing the care of babies," said The Tidings of Los Angeles editorially, "is of course not all up the 'V' for victory alley. Some of it, at least, is pay-envelope patriotism."

Phillip Harman, a repatriated Californian who was in Hongkong, China, when the Japs invaded, describes its seizure as nightmarish. Says he:

"The Jap enlisted men were told they could have three days in which they could do anything they pleased. And they did. . . . I was in the Gloucester Hotel with an English girl friend of mine when they came in. She was attacked in front of me by six officers, who took off her clothes and, one by one, assaulted her. Three days later she died."

Admirers of the yellowbellies please note!

James F. Byrnes, Federal Director of Economic Stabilization, says "We must now take the profit out of war."

That's admitting, is it not, that there is profit—for a select few?

Congressman Hutton W. Sumners of Texas, chairman of the Judiciary Committee of the Federal House of Representatives, is of the opinion "A government by regulation is not a democracy."

Dr. Robert A. Millikan, head of the California Institute of Technology, thinks "the hope of democracy lies in the common man, the average American. One may be discouraged at the administration, about Congress, the Supreme Court, racketeering, political corruption and many ominous tendencies in American life," but "there is no sign he will ever let his country down, however great a sacrifice America calls on him to make."

Editor Edward R. Trebon, in a recent issue of the Santa Maria, Santa Barbara County, Courier, commented: "When it comes to our citizens shedding metaphorical bucketfuls of briny tears in maudlin sympathy for Japanese nationals and their descendants we find ourselves losing patience." And he then went on to tell about

A Santa Maria preacher who, following the battle of Midway, stated: "Some people rejoice at the United States victory at Midway. To me it means only the blood of 10,000 Japanese soldiers and the tears of 10,000 Japanese mothers." That fellow, and more of his kind, should be deported to Japan!

"You cannot learn anything from a fellow who says that everything you do is all right," advises Rear Admiral Ben Morell, Chief of the United States Navy's Bureau of Yards and Docks.

The Pacific Movement has been in the news-light in the East. Apparently its purpose is to unite the Negroes and the Japs against the Whites. The F.B.I. charges the Movement was founded by a Filipino posing as a Jap.

Benton, Roy Griswold and others. Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting.

FINE CITIZEN PASSES.

Santa Monica—District Deputy Grand President Lee Augustus Winters, affiliated with Santa Monica Bay Parlor No. 267 N.S.G.W., died suddenly January 15, survived by his wife, Mrs. Wave Winters, a son and a daughter. He was born at Florence, Los Angeles County, January 23, 1896. He was buried under the auspices of the Parlor, the funeral ritual being read by Lee Conger, Albert Seaman, Roy Griswold and Hector Baida. Past Grand President Eldred L. Meyer pronounced a eulogy.

Lee Winters was a fine citizen, a loving and considerate husband and father, and a sincere and faithful member of the Order of Native Sons. He joined Arrowhead Parlor No. 110 (San Bernardino) November 18, 1931, and transferred to Santa Monica Bay Parlor No. 267 February 9, 1939. He had represented that Parlor at the Grand Parlor, and was a member also of Arrowhead Assembly No. 14 Past Presidents Association. His untimely passing is sincerely regretted by those who knew him and appreciated his worth.—C.M.H.

NATIVE LEADERS IN CALIFORNIA HISTORY

Dr. Peter T. Conmy, Grand Historian N.S.G.W.

(WRITTEN ESPECIALLY FOR THE GRIZZLY BEAR MAGAZINE.)

THERE HAS BEEN MUCH REJOICING in Native Sons and Native Daughters circles recently over the election of Earl Warren of Fruitvale Parlor No. 252 N.S.G.W. as Governor of California, Frederick F. Houser of Ramona Parlor No. 109 N.S.G.W. as Lieutenant Governor, and other state officials. Citizens on the outside of the two Orders, The Native Sons and The Native Daughters of the Golden West, not familiar with those Orders' true purpose, have been inclined to think that the organizations are selfish in their aims and, consequently, prejudicial to the civic advancement of residents of California born in other states. Every member of both The Native Sons and The Native Daughters knows, of course, that such is not the case. The americanism feature of both societies could not be a true sentiment if illwill toward fellow-Americans were taught. The present writer may say, and with very good grace, that Native Sons and Native Daughters have a love for their fellow-American citizens in all parts and from all sections of the United States.

There are certain fundamental considerations, however, which indicate that a healthy development demands that in every state there should be a certain amount of native civic leadership. During the pioneer stage each state was manned by immigrants, but as civilization developed the children of these people took over. A nation without men of her own to defend her, and therefore dependent upon mercenaries from abroad, would be a weak nation indeed. The United States is now drafting her own manpower in the war effort. We expect our allies to associate with us in a common cause, but we do not expect them to fight the battles for us. Americans must defend America!

Wherever the Christian Church has extended her efforts, the need of a native clergy as against a missionary clergy has been recognized. For this reason, Archbishop Alemany organized a seminary for the training of native priests in connection with Mission Dolores, San Francisco, in the early 1850s. Later this was moved to Mission San Jose, in Alameda County. Protestants also recognized the need for a native clergy, and for this reason in 1860 they opened the College of California in Oakland. What is true of church affairs, applies in this respect with equal strength to civic affairs. The church must produce its own clergy; the state its own officials.

As time moves California further away from the pioneer stage, it is expected that more and more native-born citizens will assume civic leadership. Even in pioneer times, however, there were natives of California who transcended the rugged atmosphere in which they had been raised and became leaders of public affairs.

The first of these to assume the highest office in the area was Luis Antonio Arguello, who served as Governor from 1822 to 1825. He was born at San Francisco, June 21, 1784. Arguello was educated for the army, which he made his life's work. Following his term as Governor he reverted to his former position as Commandante of the San Francisco Presidio. He died at San Francisco in 1830, and was buried in the Mission Dolores Cemetery.

During the year 1836, Jose Castro served as a Governor-pro-tempore following the death of Governor Figueroa. Castro was a native Californian, having been born at Monterey in 1810. Like Arguello he, too, was a military man, and before the end of the Mexican period had become a General. When war between the United States and Mexico broke out it was necessary for General Castro to lead a military opposition to the forces of the United States. Defeated in battle, he probably felt ill at ease among Americans, and this may explain why he withdrew to Mexico in 1853. He became a military commander in Lower California in 1856 and was killed in 1860.

Perhaps the greatest of the native-born civic leaders during the Mexican period was Juan Bautista Alvarado, who was born at Monterey, February 14, 1809. At the age of eighteen he became a clerk in the Custom House. In 1836, following a period of bad rule, the Californians revolted, and made Alvarado, then twenty-seven years of age, Governor. In a year's time he submitted to Mexico, was appointed a temporary governor, and in 1839 received a regular appointment. Alvarado was, therefore, Governor from 1836 until the end of 1842. His term of office was both progressive and constructive, and after retiring from office he continued his interest in public affairs. When the United States acquired ownership of California, Alvarado retired to San Pablo, where he lived until his death, July 13, 1882.

During the Mexican period, native-born Californians served from time to time as representatives of their area in the Mexican Congress. One of these was Jose Carillo, who was born at San Francisco in 1796. It will not be possible to mention all of the native civic leaders active in this period, but there are at least two more whose acts entitle them to consideration. One was Pio Pico, a colorful figure and an active citizen. Born at San Diego in 1801, he was an irrepresible advocate of the interests of the San Diego-Los Angeles section, as against the northern part of California. Pico was the last Governor under Mexican rule, serving during 1845 and 1846. The other was Mariano Guadalupe Vallejo. He was born at Monterey in 1808, entered the military service at an early age, and in time became the Commandante of the garrison at Sonoma. Vallejo was an admirer of the United States and looked to the day when California would be a part of the Union. For this reason, he continued his public activity in the early years of statehood. He was a member of the First Constitutional Convention in 1849, served in the Assembly during the First Legislature, and in later years was a member of the State Board of Agriculture. Vallejo offered lands and promised to build a capitol edifice for the state at Vallejo, but financial difficulties prevented fulfillment of his intentions. He died at Sonoma, January 18, 1890, and was a member of Sonoma Parlor No. 111 N.S.G.W. Seven members of the Constitutional Convention of 1849 were natives of California: Jose M. Covarrubias, Pablo N. de la Guerra, Jose Carillo, Jacinto Rodriguez, Antonio M. Pico, Manuel Dominguez and Vallejo. The election of these men to the convention and their participation in its deliberations indicate the fine spirit in which the native Californians accepted the United States.

The coming of an American population to California reduced the native Californians of Spanish ancestry to a small minority. Nevertheless, it is interesting to note that the first native Governor in the American period was a son of Mexican parents born at San Luis Obispo in 1831. This was Ramauldo Pacheco. He served several terms in the Legislature, became Lieutenant Governor, and in 1875 succeeded to the governorship. Later he served several terms in Congress, and President Harrison appointed him Minister to Chile. He died at Oakland, January 23, 1899. Pacheco was a member of Alcatraz Parlor No. 145 N.S.G.W. of San Francisco.

The first native Governor in the American period who was not of Spanish extraction was Dr. George C. Pardee of Oakland, who was born at San Francisco, July 25, 1857. Educated in Oakland, he graduated from the University of California in 1879, and then spent two years in the Cooper Medical College. Four years in the University of Leipzig followed, after which he took up the practice of medicine in Oakland. Pardee served as Mayor of Oakland, 1893-95, and was elected Governor of California in 1902, serving as such from 1903 to 1907. He was especially noted as a friend of the schools. Dr. George Pardee was a member of Oakland Parlor No. 50 N.S.G.W.

In 1910 there were two native-born candidates for Governor, and the Republican, Hiram W. Johnson, born at Sacramento, was elected. His term was outstanding, and he was re-elected in 1914. Johnson has served in the Senate of the United States since 1917. The Democratic candidate was Theodore Bell, born at Napa in 1872. He had served two terms in the House of Representatives. Johnson is a fifty-year member of Sunset Parlor No. 26 N.S.G.W. of Sacramento, and Bell, until his death, was a member of Napa Parlor No. 62 N.S.G.W. Governor James Rolph Jr., who served as Governor from 1931 to 1934, was a colorful figure. Born at San Francisco, he was elected Mayor of that city in 1912 and held the office for twenty years. He was a member of Hesperian Parlor No. 137 N.S.G.W. of San Francisco.

The first native-born United States Senator was Stephen M. White, whose term ran from 1893 to 1899. No Californian has ever reached the national political importance of White. Born at San Francisco, he was raised in Watsonville, educated in Santa Clara, and settled in Los Angeles. His works are too numerous to mention, one of the most important being the creation of the San Pedro-Wilmington Harbor. Born in 1854, he died in 1901, and was a member of Ramona Parlor No. 109 N.S.G.W. of Los Angeles.

In 1914 two great Native Sons opposed each other for United States Senator. The Democrat, James D. Phelan, was elected. Born of rich parents, he became a great philanthropist. He was Mayor of San Francisco from 1897 to 1902, and was one of the first to fight Japanese immigration. Defeated for re-election, he retired to philanthropy and patronage of art and science, and died in 1930. He was a Past President of Pacific Parlor No. 10 N.S.G.W. of San Francisco. The defeated candidate was Joseph R. Knowland, who had served ten years in the House of Representatives, and previously in the Legislature. Following his defeat for Senator, Knowland purchased the Oakland Tribune, which he still publishes. Chairman of the Grand Parlor Historic Landmarks Committee since 1901, Grand President 1909-10, he is a prominent leader and an active member of Halcyon Parlor No. 146 N.S.G.W. of Alameda City.

Native Californian Representatives in Congress were few, indeed, prior to 1900. The first was Ramauldo Pacheco, heretofore mentioned. In 1890, Anthony Caminetti of Jackson was elected, and served two terms. He was born at Jackson in 1854. In addition to experience as a member of both houses of the Legislature, he was prominent in the national affairs of the Democratic Party, and served as Commissioner General of Immigration under President Wilson. He was a member of Excelsior Parlor No. 31 N.S.G.W. of Jackson. Between 1900 and 1925 the number of native Congressmen increased. Serving one or more terms during this period were Theodore Bell, Joseph R. Knowland, John I. Nolan, William J. Wynn, Clarence F. Lea, Frank L. Coombs, Edward J. Livernash, James H. MacLafferty, Arthur M. Free, Phil D. Swing, John A. Ellston, and Denver S. Church. Most of them were members of The Native Sons of the Golden West, and three of them, Knowland, Coombs and Free, served as grand officers. At the present writing, the dean of California's delegation in Congress is Clarence F. Lea. He has represented his district for twenty-five years, and is a member of Santa Rosa Parlor No. 28 N.S.G.W.

The influence of Native Californians has also been felt in judicial circles. Henry V. Alvarado, son of Juan Bautista Alvarado, served for many years as Superior Court Judge of Contra Costa County. The first native Justice of the California Supreme Court was Charles H. Garrouette, who served from 1891 to 1903. Born in Yolo County in 1854, he died in 1911. Garrouette was a member of Woodland Parlor No. 34 N.S.G.W., and Grand APETITION FOR THE FORMATION OF A non-partisan organization to create sentiment for a division of the State of California was put in circulation March 23, 1893, at San Diego City. It read: "We, the undersigned citizens of San Diego, believing that the interests of all California demand that the State be divided, and a new state, to be known as Southern California, be added to the glorious Sisterhood of States, hereby call upon good citizens interested in the movement to bring about the above results to meet at a time and place to be determined, and announced in the press, for the purpose of organizing the first South California Club."

A real estate firm, hearing of the intended purchase, bought the lot, so the deal with the Natives was temporarily off.

CLARENCE M. HUNT.

Being muchly concerned about the future, as well as the present, welfare of California, and being thoroughly convinced that, unless the "seed of the sun" be entirely uprooted, the Japs will, following the present armed conflict, proceed with their "peaceful invasion" and eventually overrun this state, the writer proposes UNITED ACTION TODAY by organizations and individuals actually desirous of preserving California as a paradise of the White Man for all time. TOMORROW, after the war, will be TOO LATE! In the hope of permanently removing the Jap menace, this course of action is advocated:

Dispossess the Japs of every foot of land, rural and urban, to which they now claim title.

Challenge the citizenship of every Jap—his right to exercise in these United States the voting privilege.

Close every Jap-language school, and be certain that it is kept closed.

Do we, or do we not, really want to save this glorious heritage given into our keeping by our Pioneer Fathers and Mothers? If we have the will, this suggested course points the way! What's your answer?

DEMOLISHED GOVERNMENT

Addressing the General Assembly of the State of Vermont, January 20, Representative Charles A. Plumley of that state said, in part:

"More than 100 years ago, Daniel Webster, in his justly famed eulogy of George Washington, speaking in sight of the very seat of the Federal Government, addressed these words as if to the actual ears of our people in this war afflicted time:

"If disastrous war should sweep our commerce from the ocean, another generation may renew it; if it should exhaust our treasury, future industry may replenish it; if it desolates and lays waste our fields, still, under a new civilization, they will grow green again, and ripen to future harvest. It were but a trifle even if the walls of yonder capitol were to crumble, if its lofty pillars should fall, and its gorgeous decorations be covered by the dusts of the valley. All these may be rebuilt.

"But who shall reconstruct the fabric of demolished government? Who shall rear again the well-proportioned columns of constitutional liberties? Who shall frame together the skillful architecture which unites a national sovereignty with States' rights, individual security, and public prosperity?

"No, if these columns fall, they will not be raised again. Like the Colosseum and the Parthenon, they will be destined to a mournful and melancholy immortality.

"Bitterer tears, however, will fall over them than were ever shed over the monuments of Roman or Grecian art; for they will be the monuments of a more glorious edifice than Greece or Rome ever saw—the edifice of constitutional American liberty."

"History is to the people what memory is to the individual. It calls to the aid of present judgment the accumulation of past experience. There is little reason to believe that a people with no knowledge of its own history will have much capacity to direct its own destiny."—Robert H. Jackson.

NATIVES PROTEST FORMATION OF UNITED STATES JAP ARMY

The news emanating from the National Capitol the latter part of January, that the War Department planned to enroll in the United States Army a unit composed of so-called "citizens of the United States of America of Japanese ancestry," grieved and disgusted Californians who for years have been combatting the Jap menace.

The matter was given serious consideration in Parlors of The Native Sons of the Golden West and The Native Daughters of the Golden West, and petitions, similar in wording to the one here presented, were adopted by the following: Native Sons Parlors—Sacramento No. 3, Los Angeles No. 45, Ramona No. 109 (Los Angeles), Arrowhead No. 110 (San Bernardino), Hollywood No. 196 (Los Angeles), Stephen M. White No. 263 (San Pedro), Glendale No. 264, Santa Monica Bay No. 267 (Santa Monica), University No. 272 (Los Angeles), East Los Angeles No. 277 and Long Beach No. 278. Native Daughters Parlors—Los Angeles No. 124, Long Beach No. 154, San Diego No. 208, Verdugo No. 240 (Glendale), Californiana No. 247 (Los Angeles), Compton No. 258 and East Los Angeles No. 266.

THE PETITION.

"The members of . . . Parlor are firmly of the opinion that the Constitution of the United

President 1887-88. Frank M. Angelotti, born at San Rafael in 1861, Emmett Seawell, born at Sonoma in 1862, Thomas J. Lennon, born at Marysville in 1866, and William H. Waste, born at Chico in 1868, were elevated to the Supreme Bench before 1925. They were members of The Native Sons of the Golden West, and each one, except Waste, served as a grand officer.

The first native Federal Judge was Maurice T. Dooling, appointed by President Wilson in 1913. He was born at Moore's Flat, Nevada County, in 1860. He was a member of Fremont Parlor No. 44 N.S.G.W. of Hollister, and served as Grand President 1908-09.

In the field of journalism, public sentiment has been molded by such able native Californian publicists as Valentine S. McClatchy of the Sacramento Bee, William Randolph Hearst of the San Francisco Examiner, Joseph R. Knowland of the Oakland Tribune and many other editors of papers in smaller localities.

As it is possible this article may be read by persons not born in California, and also possible that such readers may conclude the author has expressed a sectional and narrow viewpoint, a few facts are cited at this point. Thousands of people have entered California in recent years, and they have come for a number of reasons: First, there are expert professional personnel, who have been sought after to aid in the completion of many great projects. Such comers constitute an asset, and the work which they perform should accord them a right to civic leadership. Second, there are those who have come because of poor economic conditions in their own states. An example of these is the "Oakies." A third group are those who have come to engage in defense work. All three groups have found a California which has had the benefits of seventy-seven years of Spanish and Mexican rule and ninety-seven years under the United States. This represents a cumulative development of one hundred and seventy-four years.

There are a few families whose inheritance goes back to 1769; families which go back to the early American conquest, and families which date their California affiliations to the Civil War period. Others came at the dawn of the new century, and still others after the great war. During this whole time a progressive development has taken place. The economic basis of the state has been laid, the cultural seed has been sown.

California has been made a distinctive state by the pioneers and their descendants. It is well that this tradition be carried on. The old families, therefore, have made California, and it is proper that the toga of civic leadership should fall on their sons and daughters. At the discovery of gold banquet, held in San Francisco January 23, Governor Earl Warren referred to two elective state officers, not born in California, as having been here so long they are now true Californians by adoption. And in this he is correct.

When men and women from other places have absorbed the spirit of California, they are worthy of civic leadership, but in no case should civic leadership be turned over to itinerant newcomers!

States of America does not confer citizenship on any person of Japanese descent born in this country, therefore there are no 'citizens of the United States of Japanese ancestry;' they also are of the belief that all Japanese, regardless of protestations otherwise, inherently are loyal only to Japan, and they are thoroughly convinced that the enrollment of a United States Army unit composed of Japanese will be inimicable to the welfare of the State of California and the Nation, and will undoubtedly create a dangerous threat to a proper and adequate defense of this country. Therefore,

"Resolved, That . . . Parlor is strenuously opposed to the formation of a Japanese unit of the United States Army, and hereby respectfully petitions the Congress of the United States of America to exercise its prerogative and nullify the declared intention of the War Department to organize and enroll such a unit. And be it further

"Resolved, That copies of this petition be sent to the Secretary of War, the President of the Senate, the Speaker of the House of Representatives, the Chairman of the Senate Military Affairs Committee, the Chairman of the House of Representatives Military Affairs Committee and others."

With many of the petitions went this letter: ". . . Parlor No. . . . unanimously adopted the accompanying petition.

"We sincerely hope it will have your careful attention, and that you will endeavor to have enacted legislation that will end for all time the 'peaceful invasion' of our country by the Japanese.

"Our members are convinced that all Japanese in this country and its possessions should be confined in concentration camps, and the camps placed under strict military control. To do otherwise, is to invite disaster."

AGAINST CODDLING

Speaking in the House of Representatives, February 3, Representative John E. Rankin of Mississippi, said: "As one member of Congress I want to raise my voice in protest against coddling the Japs.

"As I have said before, Japan is our permanent, and probably our most dangerous, enemy in this war. There can be no compromise with them. America must be humiliated or Japan must be destroyed.

"I was shocked beyond expression to learn a few days ago that the Secretary of War was organizing a Jap unit in the American Army. Such a unit would not only be dangerous but it would do much to injure the morale of the men in our fighting forces and to shake the confidence of their people at home.

"Instead of organizing these Japs into a so-called American unit, they should be separated and put into labor battalions where each and every one of them could be watched at all times. Not only that, but the American people are sick and tired of this policy of pampering the Japs in these concentration camps. Those camps should be turned over to the Army, and every one of them should be put under strict military control.

"While our boys are being butchered by these brutal apes in the Pacific and while these savages are now on our soil in the Aleutian Islands, I submit it is no time to continue that maudlin policy toward them that resulted in, if it did not invite, the Pearl Harbor disaster.

"Our most insidious and treacherous enemy in this conflict, I repeat, is Japan. We are either going to have to destroy the Japanese Empire or suffer defeat, humiliation, and probably invasion of our Pacific Coast States by her forces.

"Patriotic Americans are demanding, and they will continue to demand, that we not only quit coddling the Japs but that we redouble our efforts in the Pacific until we forever wipe the Japanese influence from the face of the earth."

RISK TOO GREAT

Questioning the wisdom of forming a Jap division of the United States Army, Representative A. Leonard Allen of Louisiana February 20 expressed the opinion:

"Our experience with the Japanese during this war has been such as to create in the minds of many of us grave doubt that we should permit any of them to get into our armed services. . . .

"When we place them in the Army they occupy a position where they can be of greatest harm to our nation and, incidentally, of greatest service to their own if they choose to pursue that course.

"It will be argued that since those taken into the Army are American-born Japanese, they do not share the same concept as the older and native-born Japanese. But I doubt that the perfidy, the treachery and the complete lack of human

HELP

THE RED CROSS CARE FOR THE SERVICEMEN

When the American soldier gets a few days' respite from military life he wants to have a good time. This fact brought on one of the early problems that came up when our troops first began going overseas: how to provide for them when on leave from camp.

The American Red Cross found the solution by establishing servicemen's clubs in leave areas designated by the authorities. Starting modestly in Iceland, Red Cross Servicemen's Clubs today number about seventy-five, and are to be found not only in Iceland and throughout the British Isles, but in North Africa, the Middle East, India, China, Australia and a number of islands in the south and the southwest Pacific.

Although facilities vary somewhat, according to local limitations and circumstances, these clubs have rapidly proved themselves the most popular spots in town, insofar as America's armed forces are concerned. Operated largely on the principle of private clubs, with a few extra features thrown in for good measure, these establishments are centers of activity for Yanks on leave.

They are a bit of homeland transplanted to foreign soil. Substantial American food is served. Comfortable beds with clean sheets and pillowcases, and hot and cold showers are provided. Lounges with plenty of easy chairs are available. Game rooms and reading and writing rooms are popular at all times.

Americans are tireless sightseers, so conducted tours are arranged. Theatre parties are made up. There are lists of local families that have issued invitations to our men to share their hospitality. Entertainment programs are organized. Dances are held on an average of once each week, partners being provided from selected lists of local beauties.

The most recent Red Cross Servicemen's Club to be established was that in Kunming, China. Announcement of the opening was made by the Red Cross early in February. Despite the difficulties of transportation and the fact that gasoline was selling for eight gold dollars a gallon, the club opened on schedule.

Named the Victory Club by popular vote of the soldiers, the center boasts a large main room, two game rooms, a library and a waiting room. Outdoor recreational facilities include horseshoe pitching, badminton, croquet, volley ball and basketball courts. Much of the equipment had to be brought in from India and, because of the price of gasoline, native labor, using hand implements, was employed in grading the athletic grounds.

As an offshoot of the clubs that are operating in England, and to furnish recreation to the men stationed in isolated outposts, sometimes miles from the nearest village, the American Red Cross has inaugurated a clubmobile service. Completely self-contained, these clubmobiles are generally assigned a number of different posts, and one is visited each day. Good American coffee and doughnuts are made on the spot. An open jar of cigarettes is there. Various types of recreational equipment are stowed away in the clubmobile including phonograph records of all kinds which may be played and broadcast via the clubmobile's loudspeaker.

The project of providing clubs for servicemen like all other of the organization's wartime activities, is made possible through contributions to the Red Cross War Fund. The 1943 War Fund campaign is being held in March, and the announced goal is $125,000,000. Give liberally!

Closed for Duration—The State College of Agriculture at Davis, Yolo County, identified with the University of California, closed February for the duration.

CITY AND COUNTY

INGLEWOOD THOSE IN ATTENDANCE AT the February 19 meeting of Centinela Parlor No. 279 N.S.G.W. had the extreme pleasure of listening to a brilliant address by Municipal Judge Frank G. Tyrrell of Los Angeles, whose text was "California, the Self-Made State." He stressed the highlights of California history, with particular reference to the First Constitutional Convention at Monterey and to the debate in the Federal Congress that preceded the commonwealth's admission to the Union as a free state, and paid a glowing tribute to the stalwart pioneers. Judge Tyrrell was introduced by City Attorney Clyde Woodworth of Inglewood, and at the conclusion of his address he was applauded at length.

During the evening District Deputy Woodrow Wade presented, on Centinela's behalf, a gift to Anton Dorsey for his wife, who has favored the Parlor on several occasions. February 26 the officers had a meeting at the home of President Jack Burns. Future plans for No. 279 were outlined, and there was a ritual practice, with District Deputy Wade as the coach. Elaine Burns served coffee and cake. The Parlor now boasts a membership of sixty, an increase of fifty percent since its institution four months ago.

Early in March, Centinela will present a California (State) Bear Flag to Peace Justice Parent for his Inglewood courtroom. Louis Worden, Tony Dorsey and Howard Sellers are making the arrangements. March 5 there will be initiation by the chair officers. March 19 will be gift night, and Grand Parlor delegates will be nominated. March 26 the members will pay a fraternal visit to Ramona Parlor at Los Angeles.

EQUAL RIGHTS FOR WOMEN DISCUSSED.

The patriotic month of February was celebrated in grand style by Los Angeles Parlor No. 124 N.D.G.W. the 17th. Chairman Gertrude Allen and other members of the history and landmarks committee were the hostesses, and more than a hundred were in attendance. Three tables were laden with food, the variety of which was never before equaled at a potluck supper.

The program opened with the presentation of the Flag of the United States of America by President Juliette DeNubila, Elsie Amidon and Evelyn Arlen, attired in red, white and blue. Interesting sidelights on the life of George Washington were given by Laura Davis, piano selections were rendered by Marie Protzman, and Mrs. L. F. McCormick, attired as Abraham Lincoln, recited the Emancipator's immortal Gettysburg address.

Past Grand President Grace S. Stoermer, chairman of the Grand Parlor Legislative Committee, then took over the program and introduced Assemblyman J. Franklin Potter, who discussed a very few of the 3,000 bills introduced in the State Legislature. Ethel Whitehorn gave an interesting talk on the proposed equal-rights-for-women amendment to the Constitution of the United States pending in the Federal Congress. She suggested that members of the Congress be "snowed under" with demands for passage of the bill. Past Grand President Hazel B. Hansen and Supervising Deputy Ann Schiebusch were present also.

Los Angeles Parlor and Verdugo Parlor No. 240 (Glendale) will be officially visited by Grand President Claire Lindsey March 17. A 6 o'clock dinner will be served in the Friday Morning Clubhouse. Write or phone Grace Norton, 729 West Eighteenth Street, Richmond 8648, for reservations, $1.50 per plate. Ann Schiebusch and Alice Hamilton are the March hostesses for the sewing club of Los Angeles, which will hold forth at the home of the latter, 1903 South Oxford, the 27th. Luncheon will be served.

PAST PRESIDENT GIVEN RING.

Hollywood Parlor No. 196 N.S.G.W. had a number of visitors February 1, and during the evening Past President Elmer Koop received an emblematic ring, Moritz Rosenthal making the presentation on the Parlor's behalf. Among other speakers were Grand Trustee Walter Odemar, Secretary Willard Allen and President William Girard of Los Angeles Parlor, Deputy Grand President Bernard Hiss, Secretary Hervey Kitchen of Ramona Parlor, Harry Leipsic, John Off, District Deputies George Benton and John Bodkin, Ellery Cuff, James Lynch and Walter Rosenthal.

Prior to the meeting President Lee Owens provided another tasty feast.

NINTH BABY ADOPTED.

The February 9 program-luncheon of Californiana Parlor No. 247 N.D.G.W. was very fine. The speaker, William Haughton, City Clerk of El Monte and Los Angeles County chairman of war activities, was presented by Ernestine Aylward of the americanism committee, program chairman for the day. He spoke on "Practical Americanism."

Concluding that subject, Haughton talked forcibly on the Jap situation in this country. He urged the Parlor to take immediate steps, individually and as an organization, to direct protests to the Federal Congress and to all those officially connected with the war, against permitting the Japs any military participation or privileges.

Californiana is rejoicing over the adoption of its ninth baby, a girl, named in honor of President Estelle Flick. Each "little stranger" is welcomed by the Parlor with much acclaim, and the homeless children cause continues to be the most ardently worked for activity. In line with that work and the sewing done by the Gertrude Circle, is the philanthropy of a little group of Californiana's first members, Emma Osborn, Hattie Nance and Isabella Granz, who have formed a circle of their intimate friends to sew for underprivileged children. For the past two years the beautiful home of Mrs. Earl Osborn—the Parlor's "Aunt Emma"—has been the scene of this group's loving and prolific labor. Though transportation is quite a problem, they expect to carry on.

At impressive ceremonies at the home of Grand Vice-president Mary B. Noerenberg, February 5, the officers of Junior No. 8, with Shirlee Bennett as president, were publicly installed. Among the several guests were Past Grand President Hazel Hansen and Supervising Deputy Ann Schiebusch. Organist Pat Provost entertained with piano selections, and refreshments were served. Californiana Parlor is proud to be the sponsor of the only Junior organization south of Tehachapi.

COMING: A BOOSTER BENEFIT.

The February 8 dinner-meeting of East Los Angeles Parlor No. 277 N.S.G.W. was largely attended. Following a splendid baked ham dinner the officers, with President Dr. Arthur Carmich-

PAST GRAND PRESIDENT GLADYS E. Noce of Sutter Creek, Amador County, chairman of the Grand Parlor Committee on Americanism, addressing a communication to the officers and members of Subordinate Parlors said:

"Americanism is one of the most important words in our vocabulary today.

"God built a continent with glory and filled it with treasures untold. He bedecked it with soft rolling prairies and pillared it with thundering mountains. He studded it with sweetly-flowing fountains and encompassed it with long, winding streams. He graced it with deep-shadowed forests and filled them with song. These treasures would have meant little if myriads of people, the bravest of the races, had not come, each bearing a gift and a hope. They had the glow of adventure in their eyes, and the glory of hope in their souls; and out of them was fashioned a nation blessed with a purpose sublime. They called it America.

"We have been hearing a great deal these days about Americanism and the spirit of America. We have been hearing a great deal about the need for reaffirming our faith in this country of ours and in the perpetuation of American ideals.

"All this is an old story to those of us who hold membership in the Order of Native Daughters of the Golden West. It is an old story because we have already learned something about Americanism. One of the cornerstones upon which we are founded is devotion to the Flag. We have long since made a personal investment in Americanism.

"As members of our Order, we believe in the ideals and destinies of this land. That is why we have dedicated ourselves individually and collectively to the spirit of America and to the perpetuation of the ideals of Americanism. . . .

"Let me urge you to fight bravely and cheerfully on the home front while our boys avenge Pearl Harbor, retake Manila, free Greece, France and other enslaved peoples, to the end that in God's own good time all liberty-loving people may resume their normal way of life and join again in the Pursuit of Happiness."

Fifty-Year Pins Presented.

Jackson—Deputy Jane Boitano installed the officers of Ursula No. 1, January 26, Norma Valmadre becoming president. On the Parlor's behalf, Betty Read presented a gift to Margaret Kirkwood in appreciation for twenty-five years of service as a trustee. Joan Penrose, Gerna Digitale and Lorraine Digitale entertained, and Past Grand Gladys Noce addressed the assemblage.

February 9 the Parlor had a program in observance of Lincoln's Birthday, Valentine Day and Washington's Birthday. February 23 fifty-year membership pins were presented Catherine M. Garbarini and Margaret Wishard.

Gold Nuggets Found.

Hollister—The discovery of gold in California was the theme of the installation of officers of Copa de Oro No. 105. The Parlor's gift to Deputy Pauline Saufnauer was presented by Elma Libao and Rose Guilhamet, prospectors, in a clever original sketch, and nuggets were found during a gold hunt. The refreshment tables presented a typical pioneer aspect, with bottles for candleholders, and large kettles of delicious brown beans, served with pickles and coffee. Bread was

The social period of the Parlor's February 3 meeting was devoted to making quilt blocks for the Red Cross, and the birthday of Abraham Lincoln was commemorated by the history group.

Two More Babies Adopted.

Placencia—Kate and Helen Hill were hostesses for the sewing club luncheon of Grace No. 242, February 9, at their home. In recognition of Lincoln's Birthday, Nellie Cline gave an interesting review of the book "Lincoln the Unknown." The Parlor has adopted two more babies, named George Richard and Arthur Steven in honor of members' sons and brothers now in foreign service.

A very successful benefit card party was given by the homeless children committee of Grace, February 18, with Christine McFarland and Erna Watts as the hostesses. Members brought books

Lovely Baby Clothes Presented.

Daly City—Meeting here in joint session February 17, El Carmelo No. 181 and San Bruno No. 246 were officially visited by Grand President Claire Lindsey, who was greeted by more than a hundred members of the Order. The hall was beautifully decorated with blossoms and pussywills. Five candidates were initiated, and an escort team and choral group added to the impressiveness of the ceremonies.

In the course of an instructive talk, Grand President Lindsey complimented both Parlors on their splendid work. For the homeless children project, El Carmelo presented her a chest of lovely baby clothes. Other guests were Grand Secretary Sallie Thaler, Grand Marshal Emily Ryan, Grand Organist Mae O'Keefe; Past Grands Mae Noonan, Orinda Giannini, Ann Theusen and Evelyn Carlson; Supervising Deputy Madeline Bartolomei, and Deputies Mary Fisher and Dorothy Donofrio. The committee in charge, Alice Oldham and Eleanor Foley cochairmen, served dainty refreshments at tables decorated with red hatchets, wedged into tiny candy logs, symbolizing the patriotic month of February.

In the presence of a large group of friends and members, El Carmelo's officers, with Hazel McDermid as president, were installed January 20 by Deputy Mary Fischer, who was assisted by Frances Maloney and Margretha Schade. TWO HUNDRED AND FIFTY MEMBERS of The Native Daughters of the Golden West gathered in the auditorium of the Native Sons Building, January 20, to welcome Grand President Claire Lindsey on her official visit to her home-Parlor, Golden Gate No. 158, which was observing its thirty-fifth institution anniversary. In their green and white formals, and carrying white muffs tinged with gold, the members of the Parlor made an attractive picture.

As Grand President Lindsey was presented at the altar, an escort team formed a heart about her, and as Elsie Dethlefsen sang "Deep in the Heart of a Rose" each member of the team gave her a talisman rose. The Grand President introduced Charter Members Margaret Ramm, Lillian Bockman and Clara Strohmeier, and each received a corsage of war stamps. Among the six candidates initiated were the president's two sisters.

Others in attendance were Junior Past Grand President Clarice Cook, Grand Secretary Sallie Thaler, Grand Treasurer Agnes Curry, Grand Marshal Emily Ryan, Grand Outside Sentinel Maxine Kelly, Grand Organist Mae O'Keefe; Grand Trustees Loretta Cameron, Marion White, Doris Treat, Zoura Tompkins and Elinor Aljets; Past Grand Presidents Mae Wilkin, Orinda Gianini, Emma Foley, Ann Thuesen, Mae Noonan and Evelyn Carlson. At the close of the meeting refreshments were served at tables prettily decorated in pink, white and gold.

BIRTHDAY PARTY.

Stanford Parlor No. 76 N.S.G.W. celebrated its fifty-seventh birthday anniversary at a stag in the Grizzly Bear Club February 23. The Parlor was instituted February 26, 1886, by Grand Vice-president Dr. Charles W. Decker, who was assisted by Grand Secretary Henry Lunstedt and others. Samuel Valteau was the charter president, and John D. Mann the charter recording secretary.

Judge George B. Harris was chairman of the evening, and the main speaker was Walter McGovern. Webster K. Nolan and Arthur T. Poheim had charge of arrangements, and a birthday committee of 102 was headed by Edmond D. Coblenz.

February 9, Stanford honored its officers at a banquet. The arrangements committee included Raymond Arata (chairman), Frank Schmidt, Webster Nolan, Arthur Poheim and Theo Schmidt.

SPIRITUAL DEVELOPMENT NECESSARY.

The San Francisco deputies were the hostesses at the breakfast at the Native Daughters Home February 14. Supervising Deputy Kay Jensen presided, and the occasion was enjoyed by more than a hundred. The theme was Saint Valentine, the saint of love, and Deputy Viola Brown showed her skill in the clever table decorations.

Permanent Chairman Dr. Mariana Bertola of the Grand Parlor Home Committee spoke on "Tuberculosis" which, she said, "is on the increase, and all must double their precautions in fighting the dread disease." Grand President Claire Lindsey, the honor-guest, made timely remarks.

Grand Trustee Joseph Tinney of The Native Sons of the Golden West stressed "the necessity of spiritual development to carry us through these discouraging days of war, that we may have the strength to give the encouragement, so needed to our boys who are so valiantly fighting to maintain our democratic government, and to keep this great land free from aggression."

N.S.G.W.—NEWS PARAGRAPHS.—N.D.G.W.

Orinda Parlor No. 56 N.D.G.W. had a birthday party February 12 for members born in February, and each was presented a 25-cent defense stamp. Decorations, and a program by Sister Cobb, featured Lincoln's and Washington's Birthdays. President Edna Maggi announced the program for her term, the chief activity of which will be an effort to build up the Parlor's numerical strength. As usual, Past Grand President Emma Foley provided one of her famous birthday cakes.

Flags and V-for-victory emblems adorned the hall for the public installation of officers of Buena Vista Parlor No. 68 N.D.G.W. Deputy Lucille Keogan, who officiated, was assisted by Grand Marshal Emily Ryan, and Leslye Hicks became the president. Martha Field was chairman of the evening, and during the ceremonies

Ruth Bean sang "Only a Rose." From Trustee Jessie Collins, the Parlor was the recipient of a beautiful altar cloth. At the conclusion of the ceremonies a reception was held and refreshments were served.

South San Francisco Parlor No. 157 N.S.G.W. will have its annual Saint Patrick's Day banquet the evening of Wednesday, March 17.

The officers of Castro Parlor No. 178 N.D.G.W. were publicly installed February 17 by Deputy Emma O'Meara, Georgine Vedder becoming president. The thirty-third institution anniversary of the Parlor was celebrated at a dinner party at which five charter members were in attendance. Members of the Parlor are very active in Red Cross work.

WORLD DAY OF PRAYER—The first Friday of Lent, March 12, is to be generally observed as a "World Day of Prayer" throughout the christian world. The first observance of the day in the United States dates back to 1887.

Native Sons of the Golden West

THE SUBORDINATE PARLORS OF SAN Francisco, through their Extension of the Order Committee, Grand Historian Peter T. Conmy chairman, are arranging for the Sixty-sixth Grand Parlor, scheduled to meet in San Francisco in May. The Committee, after consulting with the San Francisco Hotelmen's Association, outlined a two-day session and entertainment features.

Nothing definite has, as yet, been decided, however, as the final decision as to the length of the session rests with the Subordinate Parlors, to which the Board of Grand Officers is obliged to present the Extension of the Order Committee's proposal. The Board will meet February 27, with Grand President Lloyd J. Cosgrove presiding, and it is very likely that shortly thereafter the plan will be submitted to the Parlors for their approval or rejection, and there is every reason to believe that, because of existent conditions, they will sanction a streamlined session.

At the coming Grand Parlor, unless custom be reversed, Grand First Vice-president Wayne R. Millington will be advanced to Grand President, Grand Second Vice-president Raymond D. Williamson to Grand First Vice-president, and Grand Third Vice-president Richard F. McCarthy to Grand Second Vice-president. The Grizzly Bear has communicated with many "suspected" candidates for the other Grand Parlor elective offices and, from the replies received, announces the following candidacies:

Grand Third Vice-president—Grand Trustee Eben K. Smart, Quartz Parlor No. 58.

Grand Secretary—John T. Regan, South San Francisco Parlor No. 157, incumbent.

Grand Treasurer—John A. Corotto, San Jose Parlor No. 22, incumbent.

MINERAL PRODUCTION INCREASED

State Mineralogist Walter W. Bradley, head of the Division of Mines, Department of Natural Resources, estimates the total value of the 1942 mineral production of California to have been $379,483,000—an increase of approximately $5,157,000 over the previous year's total value.

The petroleum output increased about 16,854,000 barrels in amount, and about five percent in value. There were marked increases in the yield of tungsten, quicksilver, lead, zinc, chromite and manganese, but decreases in gold, silver and copper. The cement production was the largest in the history of that industry in California.

In Memoriam

JAMES WOOD COFFROTH.

To the Officers and Members of San Diego Parlor No. 108 N.S.G.W.—Your committee on resolutions relating to our late Brother James Wood Coffroth, respectfully submit the following: Once again death has summoned a Brother Native Son, and the golden gateway to the Great Grand Parlor on High has opened to welcome him to his eternal home.

Whereas, James Wood Coffroth, dean of American sports promoters, whose career wrought a marked influence in the development of professional boxing and horse racing in the first three decades of the century, has come to a sudden end. Such a career as his lives on forever in the minds and hearts of thousands of sportsmen. In the passing of Brother Coffroth, it can be said of him: he was a faithful and loyal Native Son, an honest, upright and patriotic citizen, who will ever live in our memories as one who always remembered that we pass this way but once. He was guided throughout his life by high ideals, and was sincerely respected and loved by all who knew him. Always eager and willing to morally and financially bolster a floundering cause, his spirit will live forever in the grateful hearts of the people of California.

Whereas, It was his generous cooperation and assistance that helped make possible the restoration of the Mission San Diego de Alcalá, the Adobe Chapel at Old Town, and Calvary Cemetery located on Mission Hills. Restored, they are ever reminders of the romance and quaint charm that was Old California.

"The rose still grows beyond the wall,

Though now it's lost to view;

Behind the clouds that hang so low,

The sun still lights the blue.

And back of all the shadows

That loom on every hand,

Are the friendly thoughts and sympathy

Of those who understand."

Resolved, That as a token of our sorrow, a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of San Diego Parlor No. 108 N.S.G.W. and a copy be sent to Flora Coffroth Hughes, sister of our departed Brother.

Fraternally submitted in Friendship, Loyalty and Charity.
ALBERT V. MAYHEW, Deputy Grand President.
JOSEPH C. KELLEY, Recording Secretary.

HOME GUARD MUST CARRY ON FOR HOMELESS CHILDREN

MARY E. BRUNIE

(Executive Secretary Native Sons and Native Daughters Central Committee on Homeless Children.)

For more than thirty-two years there has been in California a Standing Army of Native Sons and Native Daughters ready to protect the Homeless Child through the love and dependability of carefully selected childless and child-hungry foster parents, who have taken into their hearts and homes a child of the same descent, creed, race and color as themselves.

Thousands of Native Sons of this Standing Army have responded with alacrity during the past year to their Nation's call to a larger field, the World. And while their own Charity has need of them and their assistance, the work will not collapse while they are away, because an interested Home Guard, fully alive to their responsibility, will carry on.

However, with the many distractions and the many appeals for money to aid other worthy charities, and with your brothers fighting for the Right, in order that the good things of Earth may not perish, there will fall extra burdens upon YOU of the Home Front during the year 1943. This fact being inevitable, we who are left in California must keep in mind that the increasing number of children dependent upon this well-established Charity will also need those rights for which our members, our own boys, our adopted boys (now grown tall) are fighting: Home! Church! School! Play!

We know that in the past thirty-two years the 6,500 children placed by the Native Sons and Native Daughters Central Committee on Homeless Children have needed what the Two Orders have in the past been able to provide: loving care, culture, and training in a carefully selected and adequately supervised home.

We all know that the hundreds of children in this mad World of War must not be neglected or forgotten, despite other duties and demands, and that hundreds of men and women are not to be denied in their quest for children in whom they are given an opportunity to develop the best that is in those children—the children who will look upon "Home," "Mother" and "Father" as their special right, and will respond with all the fervor of Youth and Youth's sense of justice.

One cannot have knowledge of hundreds of these young folks grown to maturity, without fully realizing that there has been bestowed upon them a real opportunity in the foster home. This has been evidenced in many ways—in the school, in their work, in their associates, in the alacrity of their response to the needs of their country and the other fellow's country.

MAKE THIS YEAR AT HOME A YEAR THAT YOU MAY LOOK BACK UPON AS HAVING DONE YOUR EXTRA-SPECIAL JOB WELL, in spite of the handicaps of war and the exactions and diversions which will be put upon you during the next few years. To be sure, many of the members, despite hardships and sacrifices, are finding themselves better able to respond financially to another's needs, because of essential work and its remuneration, than during the years of depression—when you failed them not.

If anyone reading these lines needs to be reminded, please remember that March 31, 1943, is the end of the Homeless Children's fiscal year, leaving this month only in which to help. And who knows better than the men and women of today that WHERE THERE IS A WILL THERE CAN BE FOUND A WAY!

If of one mind, every Native Sons Parlor and every Native Daughters Parlor will see that each member, whether in defense work here or fighting our battle there, will contribute to this peacetime work. If this be done, the continuance of the same standards of an essential charity will be assured. The many years of devotion on the part of the two Orders in finding homes for the homeless has been your responsibility. It has been faithfully met. THIS IS NOT THE TIME TO MAR THAT RECORD!

CALIFORNIA'S FIRST VINEYARD was planted at Mission San Diego de Alcalá in 1871 and the first wine was successfully produced in 1784, according to J. M. Bowman, agricultural specialist of the University of California's College of Agriculture. The cuttings used at San Diego were brought up from Lower California, but the exact specie or variety of the grapes is not known.

"I find the great thing in this world is not so much where we stand as in what direction we are moving."—Oliver Wendell Holmes.

SANTA MONICA NEWS.

Santa Monica—Members and guests of Santa Monica Bay Parlor No. 267 N.S.G.W. enjoyed a delicious fish dinner February 9 provided by Lee Conger, Ralph Eisenhart and Past Grand President Eldred Meyer.

At the meeting after the feast President Hector Balda presided and matters pertaining to the welfare of the Parlor, the Order and California were discussed. Among the speakers were Deputy Grand President Bernard Hiss, Grand Trustee Walter Odemar, Past Grand President Meyer, Ralph and Milton Eisenhart, Wilbert Delkner, Joe Baudette, Roy Griswold and Raenaldo Fredricks.

RING OF FRIENDSHIP FORMED.

Long Beach—Thirty-seven years ago, in February 1906, Long Beach Parlor No. 154 N.D.G.W. was instituted. One of the charter members and the "mother" of the Parlor, Mrs. Kate McFadyen, has been friend and counselor to the many who have held office, is still most active, and is held in high esteem for her filial devotion and noble attributes.

At an elaborate candlelighting ceremony February 21 at which President Grace Poole presided, a candle was lighted for "Mother Mac," who represents the finest in California womanhood, and candles were reverently lighted, too, for each of the four principles of the Order: "Love of Home," "Veneration of the Pioneers," "Devotion to the Flag," and an "Abiding Faith in the Existence of God." A ring of friendship formed by all in attendance while Eleanor Starr sang "Friendship," was followed by a beautifully appointed tea over which Frances Galvin presided. The chairman of the unique program was Alice Waldow. On display was her collection of clippings from The Grizzly Bear depicting the history of the Parlor.

February 4, Long Beach had a "white elephant" party that created a lot of fun and was a social success. Among the "elephants" was a daintily boxed butterknife, with instructions as to its use. Beth Ryan was the program chairman. Well-attended meetings of the thimble club were held during February at the homes of Vera West and Bertha Hitt. As the Parlor is much interested in the homeless children, the club has made plates for homeless children dimes. Each plate is divided into ten parts, marking that many holidays of the year.

CLARENCE M. HUNT.

The National Administration must have come to the conclusion that California should be dealt a knockout blow. For, the plan of the United States War Department,—revealed in press dispatches from Washington, D. C., January 28,—to release Japs from relocation centers and enroll them in an all-Jap United States Army combat unit, is exactly that.

The carrying out of that plan means losing the peace, insofar as California is concerned, regardless of the outcome of the war! It means aiding the Japs in their "peaceful invasion" of the Pacific Coast home front, designed years ago in Japan!

The War Department's assurance that only "loyal," United States-born Japs are to be enrolled, does not lessen the seriousness of the situation one iota. A Jap is a Jap, anywhere and always—"nuff ced!" And, as Director Dillon S. Myer of the War Relocation Authority, which has charge of the centers, told an investigating committee of the United States Senate, "it is impracticable to separate loyal and suspected internees."

Ten thousand "loyal" United States-born Japs, educated in our schools at the expense of our taxpayers, are today in Japan being trained to invade the Pacific Coast. And now, our War Department proposes to educate in this country additional thousands of their kind in war tactics. The very idea is shocking and alarming!

Unless the Federal Congress prevents the War Department from carrying out its plan, within the next half-century California will be thoroughly, and permanently, jvanized; offspring of the Whites will be compelled to intermarry with the Japs, and organizations will be forced to admit Japs to membership or cease operation. There can be no other result!

What can you do to prevent a peacetime victory for the Japs on the home front? Contact your representatives in the Federal Congress and request them to endeavor to have enacted legislation that will bring about the abandonment of the War Department's Jap-army plan, and the confinement of ALL Japs in concentration camps under the strict supervision of the United States Army. And don't put off your contacting; DO IT RIGHT NOW!

Addressing the midwinter session of the California Savings and Loan League, Lieutenant Governor Frederick F. Houser said "drastic cuts can be made in taxes." And he added: "You can take it as a definite conclusion that if taxes aren't cut now—this year, when we have a surplus of $70,000,000 and a prospective $228,000,000 surplus—state taxes never will be cut."

He's right. It's now or never! And unless drastic cuts are made in state and local taxes, the tax-source will be destroyed by forcing property-owners into bankruptcy.

Mme. Chiang Kai-shek, by some termed the world's outstanding woman, addressed the House of Representatives of the United States Congress February 19, and received an ovation. She concluded with: "Man's mettle is tested both in adversity and in success. Twice is this true of the soul of a nation."

Los Angeles County claims another national record. In the mountains back of Pasadena during the January rainstorm, the precipitation at Camp LeRoy for a twenty-four-hour period measured 25.83 inches.

Premier General Hideki Tojo says he is not Japan's dictator, simply "the moon receiving light from the sun," the emperor. For the peace of the world and the good of humanity, both the Jap sun and moon should be completely blacked out, for all time.

No, dearly beloved, the California personal income tax law has not been repealed. Uncle Usa and Uncle Cal both want a slice of your 1942 income. The former demands a divvy not later than March 15, and the latter not later than April 15.

The House of Representatives has voted, 302 to 94, to extend for two years the life of a committee, chairmaned by Representative Martin Dies of Texas, that has accomplished much in bringing to public notice unamerican activities. Voting against the resolution to continue the committee were Representatives Chet Holifield, Ed Izac, George Outland, Will Rogers and Jerry Voorhis of California. Representative John Costello of California has been made a member of the committee.

In naming a committee to study the pension question Governor Earl Warren of California stated: "Every thinking person must realize that old-age security is our most fundamental social problem and that an industrial system which arbitrarily rules out productive employment because of age and irrespective of fitness must provide an honorable means of livelihood in lieu thereof." That's sound logic.

Addressing a boys' club, Herbert Hoover, former President of the United States, declared: "What we need, is a new front of human decency, not lending itself to economic or ism ideology and devoted solely to building up decency in America."

Dr. Wilfred Funk, wellknown lexicographer, maintains that in any language the most bitter word is alone; the most revered, mother; the most tragic, death; the most comforting, faith; the saddest, forgotten; the most beautiful, love; the most cruel, revenge; the most peaceful, tranquility; the warmest, friendship; the coldest, no.

In the Superior Court of San Francisco, Judge Edward P. Murphy has ruled that the $25,000 willed by the late James D. Phelan to The Native Sons of the Golden West and The Society of Californias Pioneers for the erection of a pioneer monument on a designated site—not now available—may be used by them for the acquisition of items of historical interest relating to pioneer California days and for the appropriate marking of historical spots throughout the state which are linked with the pioneer period.

Alarmed at the "increase in serious crimes committed by young people," Chief J. Edgar Hoover of the FBI has asked all policemen to assist in destroying "a trend of immorality which threatens the future of America's homes."

"Wartime recklessness is one of the causes of the laxity among youth," says he, "but it should not be tolerated as an excuse for the heedless manner in which they [boys and girls] are plunging into indecent activities. Actions of a debase character will not help win the war. They will serve only to retard our victory."

Seven judges of the United States Circuit Court of Appeal ruled at San Francisco, February 20, that United States-born Japs cannot be deprived of the right to vote. The ruling was made in a suit brought by John T. Regan of the California Immigration Committee, with which The Order of Native Sons of the Golden West is identified, with the intent of disenfranchising the Japs.

The Grizzly Bear for April 1942 featured an enlightening article by United States Senator Tom Stewart, in which he expressed the opinion that the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States does not confer citizenship on Japs. The Regan suit was filed May 7. It was tried before Federal Judge A. F. St. Sure, and by him dismissed July 2. An appeal was taken, and the decision of the lower court has now been sustained by the Circuit Court of Appeal.

A published report of the February hearing, said Federal Judge Curtis Wilbur inquired of Attorney U. S. Webb, representing Regan, "Are you asking this Court to overrule a decision of the United States Supreme Court?", referring to the Wong Kim Ark case of 1897. Webb replied:

"I'm asking the Court, as God gives it light and power, to give a correct judgment according to law. I am aware that you have sworn to uphold the Constitution, but I am not aware that you have sworn to follow the decisions of the Supreme Court whether they are right or wrong in your judgment."

The decision of the seven judges will be appealed.

(CLARENCE M. HUNT.)

"JOHN BIDWELL:

PRINCE OF CALIFORNIA PIONEERS

By Rockwell D. Hunt; The Caxton Printer Caldwell, Idaho; Price, $3.50.

This is a biography of General John Bidwell one of the outstanding Pioneers of California. Born in New York State, August 5, 1819, he left Missouri, May 19, 1841, with "The First Emigrant Train to California," and arrived at the home of Dr. John Marsh, who had come here in 1836, near the base of "Monte Diablo," in what is today known as Contra Costa County, November 4, 1841. For years he owned and operated the famous Rancho Chico, in Butte County, at there he died April 4, 1900.

"The California that Bidwell found," says Biographer Hunt, Dean of the Graduate School of the University of Southern California and author of several California history books, "was a marvelous land, a 'geologic wonderland,' 'the tri-land of the lotus-eaters,' constructed and built by that sublime architect, Nature, on a truly grandiose plan."

Referring to the Bear Flag revolt at Sonoma in 1846 and the part Bidwell played in the acquisition of California, Dr. Hunt comments: "is of particular interest to note Bidwell's connection with Fremont, to whom later was applied with questionable justice, the title of 'Pathfinder.'" Bidwell consistently held the view that the war against Mexico by the United States was unjust.

John Bidwell, explorer, surveyor, miner, agriculturist and civic leader was, above all, a man of unblemished character. He participated actively in and contributed richly to the great era of California's extraordinary history. "By virtue of what he was and what he did," concludes Author Hunt, "he is adjudged worthy of the distinguishing title, 'Premier among Princes.'"

"John Bidwell: Prince of California Pioneers" is a valuable addition to Californiana. It is liberally illustrated with photographs, and has an appendix of "Biographic Notes" and "Selected Documents."

NATIVES WANT CALIFORNIA TO SAVE BIG TREES TRACT

Fresno Parlor No. 25 of The Native Sons of the Golden West inaugurated a movement to have California acquire for state forest purposes a tract of land in Tulare County containing thousands of magnificent trees, among them about one-quarter of all the remaining large redwoods. A committee to promote the commendable and worthwhile project was named, consisting of Arthur H. Drew, chairman, Lucius Powers Jr. and Herbert McDowell.

Before the California State Legislature for action is Senate Bill No. 339, providing for the purchase of that tract by the State. Unless the Legislature does make provision for the purchase of the tract, the trees are to be turned into lumber.

Always interested in protecting and preserving the glories of California, the following Subordinate Parlor of The Native Sons of the Golden West and The Native Daughters of the Golden West adopted a resolution, here presented: Native Sons—Los Angeles No. 45, Ramona No. 109 (Los Angeles), Arrowhead No. 110 (San Bernardino), Santa Ana No. 265, Santa Monica Bay No. 267 (Santa Monica), University No. 272 (Los Angeles), East Los Angeles No. 277 and Wilmington No. 280. Also, Arrowhead Assembly No. 14 Past Presidents Association N.S.G.W. Native Daughters—Los Angeles No. 124, Reina del Mar No. 126 (Santa Barbara), San Diego No. 208, Lugonia No. 241 (San Bernardino), Californiana No. 247 (Los Angeles), Compton No. 258 and East Los Angeles No. 266.

THE RESOLUTION.

"We believe the State of California should, wherever possible, acquire and preserve for the permanent enjoyment and benefit of all the people, some of the few remaining tracts of forested land with which a bounteous Nature endowed our native state. Be it, therefore,

"Resolved, That . . . Parlor No. . . endorses, and favors the immediate passage by the California State Legislature of, Senate Bill No. 339, which provides for the purchase by the State of what is known as the Mountain Home Tract in Tulare County, containing 63,727 trees, among them one-quarter of all the Sequoia Giganteas now in existence. Also

"Resolved, That copies of this resolution be sent our representatives in the Senate and the Assembly of the State Legislature, with requests that they give Senate Bill No. 339 their support."

SUGGESTS PUBLICITY BUREAU.

"Editor Grizzly Bear: I note that Private Akiyoshi Hasomoto, a prisoner at Guadalcanal, has decided he never can return to Japan because of being disgraced by surrendering, so would like to come to America, learn the English language and also how to build houses. I also note that some of our Senators and Representatives are beginning to take a little interest in the Jap coddling going on in this country. It is to be hoped that, by the time Hasomoto is ready to return to Japan, there will be no individual disgrace in having surrendered to our forces; he will have plenty of company. The more congressional interest aroused in the matter of Japs in this country, the better off we will be.

"From newspaper items, I judge that we who are trying to rid America of Japs are in for quite a battle. Religious, educational, and so-called civil liberties groups seem to be girding for the fight. We on the Pacific Coast will just about have to go it alone; the rest of the country knows little or nothing about the Japs, so, it is just about up to us. I know you are doing all you can, but it seems to me that a public relations bureau, publicity bureau, or whatever you want to call it, should be set up by the various interested groups."—J. H. MORRISON, Ventura, California.

EASTER GREETINGS FROM SOMEWHERE.

"Editor Grizzly Bear: Wish you would extend for me Easter greetings to all the Native Sons and Native Daughters. Hope it will be a joyous day for one and all. . . . Easter Sunday always brings the flowers and sunshine of springtime. Winter is over, and everyone feels better. Just as Christ arose from the dead on that Easter Sunday so many, many years ago, I hope this year there will arise in the hearts of all a renewed desire for a speedy victory, so that ere long we who are away can again be with our loved ones. I hope it will bring renewed courage and faith to those who have loved ones that must be away. . . .

"Thanks to the Native Sons for remembering me so nicely at Christmas time. . . . My December Grizzly Bear did not arrive until today [February 24]. Tell the boys to write me, as I like to hear from them about what is going on at home, and to be sure and address me properly [19078108, Btry. C, 90th F.A. A.P.O. 25, a/c Postmaster, San Francisco, California,] for a mistake in the address will delay delivery many weeks."—CLYDE HARRY DAVIS, An Island Somewhere in the South Pacific.

MUST BE SOME WAY.

"Editor Grizzly Bear: This is a plea for assistance in the preservation of one of California's historic landmarks, together with its contents of priceless relics.

"The adobe home stands on the bank of the metropolitan water reservoir on Prado Road in Chino [San Bernardino County]. This land in the early days was known as Rancho Buena Vista, and was originally owned by the renowned Yorba family. Through the tireless efforts of Mrs. Julia Fuqua, its present owner, this monument has survived."

CITIZENS ORGANIZE

The Californian Citizens Association of Santa Barbara County, composed of more than 200 residents of the county, has been organized at Santa Maria, with Robert E. Easton of that city as the chairman. On the executive committee are Frank Giorgi of Gaviota, Wm. Hollister of Goleta, Nick Ardantz and Milo Ferrini of Guadalupe, Fred Gillett and T. M. Parks of Lompoc, George Peterson of Solvang, and John Adam, W. B. Johnson, Andy Hanson, M. M. Purkiss, Don Underwood and Lionel H. Adams of Santa Maria.

At the organization meeting, Supervisor C. W. Bradbury of the Carpinteria district presided, and Chairman Monroe Rutherford of the Board of Supervisors participated also. The article by United States Senator Tom Stewart of Kentucky, titled "Does the United States Constitution Make Citizens of Children Born of Japs?"—that appeared in The Grizzly Bear for April 1942, was given consideration and reprints were ordered purchased. The declared purposes of the Association are:

(1) Strengthen alien land law. (2) Examine present status of act governing citizenship. (3) Elimination of schools teaching foreign doctrine. (4) Elimination of dual citizenship. (5) Examining qualifications for citizenship of applicants with alien parents not eligible for citizenship. (6) Protect American industry and resources against alien encroachment. (7) Protect American way of life.

The Association plans also, says Chairman Easton, "to request our State Legislature to appoint an interim committee of probably five from the Assembly and three from the Senate, with an appropriation of $10,000 or $15,000, to carefully investigate the [Jap] problem and then make a strong appeal to Washington. With the unconditional surrender of Japan, California's vital interest in the drafting of the treaty must be strongly represented."

"Needless to say, the preserving of the primitive construction of early California will be an asset to treasure in the generations to come. There must be some way to stir the sympathy for these invaluable relics that are so fast passing."—HISTORICAL SOCIETY SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA, Anna Begue de Packman, Secretary, Los Angeles, California.

"HONORABLE JAP FROM STATE."

"Editor Grizzly Bear: I am enclosing a clipping from The Chevron, a Marine Corps publication, which I thought would be suitable for reprint in The Grizzly Bear."—SGT. GEORGE C. SCHILLING, U.S.M.C.R. Santa Monica Bay Parlor No. 267 N.S.G.W. The clipping follows:

"Belleville, N.J., Dec. 24. (A.P.)—Lieut. John F. Rogers, home on furlough from Guadalcanal, where his Marine fighter squadron was credited with shooting down 93 Japanese planes, told this story today: Several members of his squadron were talking among themselves in English as they escorted a captured Navy flyer to their headquarters. And finally the prisoner said to one of the Marines: 'Quit your kidding, pal, I know English very well, I was educated at Ohio State'."

FIGURES CAUGHT EYE.

"Editor Grizzly Bear: I recently read somewhere that the estimated population of California is 7,584,931. The figures caught my eye and the '49' seemed to stand out. Investigating further, I broke them down thus, 7-58-49-31.

"7—Just say we have a population of over seven millions. 58—There are fifty-eight counties in the state. 49—The gold discovery in 1848 caused the stampede to California in '49. 31—California is the thirty-first state admitted to the Union."—JOE SMITH, Long Beach, California.

THE SIXTEENTH GRAND PARLOR OF
The Native Sons of the Golden West was in session at Sacramento City April 24, 25, 26 and 27, 1893, with Grand President: Thomas Flint Jr. presiding. Sacramento No. 3 and Sunset No. 26 were the host-Parlors. Grand officers were elected as follows: John T. Greany, Pacific Parlor No. 10 (San Francisco), Grand President; Jo D. Sproul, Chico Parlor No. 21, Grand Vice-president; Henry Lunstedt, California Parlor No. 1 (San Francisco), Grand Secretary; Henry S. In petitioning your esteemed organization in this particular, we are actuated by a desire to further its interests as well as to place ourselves in a position to avail ourselves of the benefits and advantages accruing from more intimate association with other natives of the State we all love so well. Citizens of San Jose, Santa Clara County,

DO WE?

CLARENCE M. HUNT.

Being much concerned about the future, as well as the present, welfare of California, and being thoroughly convinced that, unless the "seed of the sun" be entirely uprooted, the Japs will, following the present armed conflict, proceed with their "peaceful invasion" and eventually overrun this state, the writer proposes UNITED ACTION TODAY by organizations and individuals actually desirous of preserving California as a paradise of the White Man for all time. TOMORROW, after the war, will be TOO LATE! In the hope of permanently removing the Jap menace, this course of action is advocated:

Dispossess the Japs of every foot of land, rural and urban, to which they now claim title.

Challenge the citizenship of every Jap—his right to exercise in these United States the voting privilege.

Close every Jap-language school, and be certain that it is kept closed.

Do we, or do we not, really want to save this glorious heritage given into our keeping by our Pioneer Fathers and Mothers? If we have the will, this suggested course points the way! What's your answer?

April 16 selected a general committee of ninety-one, with D. M. Delmas as chairman, to take charge of the capital removal campaign.

PLAN OF ACTION

At the seventeenth annual meeting of the California Taxpayers Association in Los Angeles the latter part of February, the following eight-point plan of action for taxpayers, proposed by Harry A. Hopkins of Bakersfield, director of the Kern County Economic Council, was adopted:

- (1) Resist pressure for maintaining government services at peace time levels.
- (2) Freeze the social welfare structure for the duration.
- (3) Abandon the idea of following the out-moded cost of living index in fixing wages and salaries.
- (4) Guard against socialistic post-war planning schemes.
- (5) Guard against going into debt after the war to carry out unwise schemes.
- (6) Continue streamlining state and local governments and holding down public expense.
- (7) Emphasize individual responsibility, individual saving, and the perpetuation of our free enterprise system.
- (8) Insist that all legitimate tax reductions be made without further delay.

"BUREAUCRACY HAS GROWN until, with its vast dominion of authority and its ever-increasing yen for more and more power, it is threatening to change the entire form and mold of our Government. It is high time for our people to become aroused and to insist that Congress shall move immediately and decisively to recapture its powers. Otherwise, we may wake up one of these days to find every act of our lives ordered and directed by a great bureaucratic Frankenstein in Washington."—Representative Louis Ludlow of Indiana.

A WIDESPREAD OBSERVANCE OF PAN American Day, April 14, is the objective of more than twenty important civic, fraternal and cultural organizations in southern California, cooperating in an impressive program now being completed. The day has a broader significance this year than at any time during the some thirty years of its observance in this country. The program committee announces that opening the observance will be the dedication in Los Angeles of a trade school, sponsored by the Citizens Committee for Latin American Youth and the Coordinator of Inter-American Affairs. All during the day service clubs and other organizations will observe the day with special programs, pageants and plays, and Mayor Fletcher Bowron will tender a luncheon to the members of the Latin American Consular Corps.

The feature of the observance in Los Angeles will be a program presented by the sponsoring organizations, among them The Native Sons of the Golden West and The Native Daughters of the Golden West, in the Plaze de la Justicia in the Civic Center. This program, of which Supervisor John Anson Ford is honorary chairman, will include a flag ceremony, participated in by citizens of the countries represented by the flags, introduction of the consuls of the Latin American countries, and appropriate music. Walt Disney will present a half-hour program at 2:45 p.m., after which a fifteen-minute pageant of Pan America, written especially for the occasion, will be presented by students of Le Conte Junior High School. In the evening the Pan American League will present a special program.

Representing the Native Sons and the Native Daughters on the Pan American Day Observance Committee are Deputy Grand President Hervey L. Kitchin and Interparlor Committee Chairman Margarethe Phelan.

GRAND PRESIDENT N.S. VISITS.

Inglewood — Centinela Parlor No. 279 N.S.G.W. was visited by Grand President Lloyd J. Cosgrove March 5. Three candidates were initiated, the ritual being exemplified by the officers of the Parlor, assisted by District Deputy Woodrow Wade as president. Grand President Cosgrove complimented Centinela on its progress and, on behalf of Santa Monica Bay Parlor, Past Grand President Eldred Meyer presented the Parlor a redwood charity bowl.

Other speakers were Grand Trustee Walter Odemar, Walter Richards, Harold Faubion, Grand Organist Roger Johnson, Earl Magee, Gilbert Anderson, Albert Tarleton, Jerome Dorsey, "Babe" Nighswonger, Supervising Deputy Howard Woodward, Erle Smith, Ed Levy, Charles Wright and Howard Sellers. Refreshments were served after the meeting by Tony Dorsey and assistants.

TO HAVE BIRTHDAY PARTY.

Saint Patrick's Day was celebrated in grand style by Los Angeles No. 124 and Verdugo No. 240 (Glendale) Parlors N.D.G.W., when they entertained jointly for Grand President Claire Lindsey, March 17, the occasion being her official visit. Among those present to greet her were Grand Vice-president Mary Noerenberg, Past Grand Presidents Grace Stoerner and Hazel Hansen, Supervising Deputy Ann Schiebusch, and Deputies Hazel Poole, Dorothy Pogue, Eugenia Smith, Isabel Fages, Beatrice Wahr-mund and Jennie Raymond.

President Phyllis Hirst of Verdugo presided at a dinner which preceded the meeting, and clever table decorations carried out the motif of the day. At the business session President Juliette DeNubila of Los Angeles presided, and ten candidates were initiated. A highlight of the evening was the presentation of a check to the Annie L. Adair Scholarship Fund by Verdugo.

Los Angeles Parlor's USO workers for March were Caroline Henderson, Louise Goodhue, Bernice Setterberg and Ella Steinbeck. The Parlor's April calendar includes the annual birthday party, the 21st, with the past presidents in charge. The homeless children sewing party will be held April 17 at the home of Maria Gardner and Sophie McGowan, the Parlor "twins," 1989 Hancock Avenue; luncheon will be served.

ENCHILADA SUPPER.

Los Angeles Parlor No. 45 N.S.G.W. was host at an enchilada supper, March 18, prepared and served by Arthur Lasher, President William Girard, Charles Castillo, Gilbert Anderson and Robert Pesqueria, assisted by Mms. Girard, Anderson and Castillo. Entertainment was provided by Grand Organist Roger Johnson. Among the guests were members of the Southern District N.S.G.W. and N.D.G.W. Homeless Children Committee.

Los Angeles' April calendar includes: 8th, past presidents night; refreshments. 15th, initiation. 22nd, special remembrance to all members born in April. 29th, oldtimers night, an occasion for the renewal of friendships.

SEVEN INITIATED.

East Los Angeles Parlor No. 266 N.D.G.W. had a reception March 10 for seven candidates who were initiated February 24. Secret sisters were revealed, and new ones were chosen. A disappearing party at the home of Lorraine Selby, March 7, added a few dollars to the Parlor treasury.

The homeless children project is very close to the heart of President Melissa Wright, so East Los Angeles is doing a great deal to help that charity. In the near-future a bazar is to be held, the proceeds to go to that cause.

SERVICE FLAG PRESENTED.

Hollywood Parlor No. 196 N.S.G.W. had a supper, March 1, prepared and served by Walter Rosenthal, Albert Sandoval and Moritz Rosenthal. At the business session following there were talks by Presidents Chester French of Long Beach Parlor and Harold Faubion of University Parlor, John Off, Willard Allen, Deputy Grand President Hervey Kitchin, "Bill" Hortenstine, Luther Hedge, Wm. Myers and John Rogers. Elmer Koop presented the Parlor a nine-star service flag, and it was accepted by District Deputy John Bodkin. On invitation of President Lee Owens, the closing ceremonies were conducted by President Arthur Carmichael of East Los Angeles Parlor.

Hollywood will have its regular pre-meeting supper at 6:30 of April 5; all members invited.

In youth and youth movements, a feature of the occasion was the appearance of members of the Parlor's auxiliary, Mariana Junior No. 8, and their singing of "Mary is a Grand Old Name." Miss Foy was the recipient of floral tributes.

In the absence of Mary Ann Thomas, who is serving in the United States Army, Isabel Fages presided as program chairman at the Parlor's March 9 luncheon. March being Arbor Day month, the speaker, Charles Gibbs Adams, talked on "The Romance of California Trees." His mingling of dry humor, poetic thought and scientific knowledge made a fascinating, as well as authentic, historical narrative, which was illustrated with many specimens from his own spacious grounds. Isabelle Granz was chairman of an attractive tea that followed Californiana's March 23 meeting.

THREE N.D. PARLORS UNITE.

Compton—Grand President Claire Lindsey officially visited Long Beach No. 154, Rudecinda No. 230 (San Pedro) and Compton No. 253 Parlors N.D.G.W. in joint session here March 21. Long Beach conducted the opening ceremony, and its escort team, attired in clever South Sea Island costumes of the colors of the Order, presented the hostess-Parlors' gift to the Grand President while President Grace Poole recited "Lei Day."

The officers of Compton exemplified the ritual, and sixteen candidates were initiated. Eleanor Starr sang the initiatory ode. Rudecinda conducted the closing ceremony. A tea followed the meeting.

VICTORY GARDEN CONTEST SUGGESTED.

Those who wended their way to the meeting-place of East Los Angeles Parlor No. 277 N.S.G.W., March 8, were treated to a corned beef and cabbage supper, prepared by "Chefs" Leyva and Co. At the meeting which followed, affairs of the Parlor and the Order were discussed, among the speakers being Federal Judge Ben Harrison, Supervising Deputy Howard Woodward, Leonard Woodhouse, Harry Leipsic, Willard Allen, Lawrence Camy, O. E. Nighswonger, Amado Ramirez and Raymond Brown.

President Arthur Carmichael suggests the Parlor sponsor a victory garden contest. Ludwig Trinajstich has been appointed district deputy to Los Angeles Parlor. East Los Angeles' April meeting, the 12th, will be preceded by a 7 p.m. supper. All Native Sons welcome.

MEMBERSHIP CAMPAIGN LAUNCHED.

Long Beach—At a "pep" meeting March 17, Long Beach Parlor No. 278 N.S.G.W. announced a membership campaign. A recently released promotional pamphlet was introduced, and members of both teams were advised as to the plan of operation. President Chester French announced the pamphlet had been approved by the grand officers and that Recording Secretary John M. Johnston had sent copies to all Subordinate Parlors.

Tommy Menasco, 15-year-old magician, and one of the youngest entertainers in his field, kept the assemblage in a state of mystification for an entire hour. Light refreshments were served.

ORATORICAL CONTEST.

With President George M. Cuthbertson presiding, the officers of Ramona Parlor No. 109 N.S.G.W. exemplified the ritual March 19. Grand Trustee Walter Odemar addressed the candidates, and other speakers were "Bill" Bright, Charles Thomas, Lon McCoy, Joe Coyle, Robert Ziegler and Earle Magee. March 26 the Parlor entertained a delegation of Centinela Parlor members headed by President Jack Burns.

Ramona's April program includes: 9th, Italian spaghetti dinner, prepared by Jess Pirri, 6:30 p.m.; 50 cents. 16th, southern California finals oratorical contest for high school students, 8:00 p.m.; public invited. 23rd, initiation, followed by refreshments.

DOUBLES CONTRIBUTION TO GOOD CAUSE.

La Reina Parlor No. 267 N.D.G.W. was officially visited by Grand President Claire Lindsey March 20. The decorations were in rainbow colors. The officers formed an arch as the Grand President was escorted to the altar and, to the tune of "Over the Rainbow," Orabelle Schmidt sang words written especially for the occasion. Eleven candidates were initiated. Mrs. Lindsey was presented a layette for the homeless children, and she was informed the Parlor has doubled its contribution to that project.

Prior to the meeting President Florence Grass, with the assistance of her husband and officers

On motions, it was ordered that the charter be granted; that the parlor be given the name and number of Wilmington No. 230; that a credit of $150 be given it "if and when fifty new members are initiated," and that letters of thanks be addressed to members of the Order "who have made this new parlor at Wilmington possible."

"Whereas, Their presence in the United States has been recognized by the President of the United States as a possible menace to the efforts of the United States in the present war; and

"Whereas, Their membership in the armed forces of the United States would be extremely dangerous to the United States and would subject the members of the armed forces of the United States to treachery at the hands of our common enemy; now, therefore, be it

"Resolved, That the Board of Grand Officers of the Native Sons of the Golden West in meeting assembled in San Francisco, California, on February 27, 1943, do hereby petition the Honorable Secretary of War and the Honorable Secretary of the Navy of the United States to prohibit persons of Japanese ancestry from enlisting or being inducted into the armed forces of the United States."

N.S.G.W. SIXTY-SIXTH ANNUAL GRAND PARLOR

The Sixty-sixth Grand Parlor of The Native Sons of the Golden West will be limited to two days, the Subordinate Parlors having so determined. The session will be held on the fifth floor of Native Sons Building, San Francisco, Tuesday and Wednesday, May 18 and 19, with Grand President Lloyd J. Cosgrove of Precita Parlor No. 137 (San Francisco) presiding.

Arrangements for the Grand Parlor meeting are being handled by the San Francisco Extension of the Order Committee, Grand Historian Peter T. Conmy chairman. The entertainment program, subject to change, will include a reception and grand ball the night of Monday, May 17, and a banquet the night of Tuesday, May 18.

At the coming Grand Parlor, nominations for grand officers will be made the afternoon of Monday, the first day of the session, and the election will be held Tuesday, the last day.

The Grizzly Bear has contacted many "suspicioned" candidates for the Grand Parlor elective offices, and the replies received make possible the announcement of several candidacies. Subordinate Parlors must elect their delegates to the San Francisco session the first meeting nights in April, and then more sombreros will undoubtedly be shied into the election-ring. Here's the lineup at press time for this issue of The Grizzly Bear:

Grand President—Grand First Vice-president Wayne R. Millington, Redwood Parlor No. 66.

Grand Second Vice-president — Grand Third Vice-president Richard F. McCarthy, Piedmont Parlor No. 120.

Grand Third Vice-president—Grand Trustee Eben K. Smart, Quartz Parlor No. 58; Grand Trustee R. G. Power, Colusa Parlor No. 69.

Grand Secretary—John T. Regan, South San Francisco Parlor No. 157, incumbent.

Grand Treasurer—John A. Corotto, San Jose Parlor No. 81, incumbent.

Grand Marshal—Grand Inside Sentinel Larry W. Marvin, Sunset Parlor No. 26.

Grand Inside Sentinel—Grand Outside Sentinel Raymond J. McGrath, Mission Parlor No. 38.

Grand Trustees (seven to be chosen) — Thomas C. Ryan, Pacific Parlor No. 10, incumbent; Walter N. Bailey, Elk Grove Parlor No. 41, incumbent; Walter H. Odegar, Ramona Parlor No. 109, incumbent; Bernard G. Hiss, University Parlor No. 272.

The Board of Grand Officers requests those planning to propose legislation at the San Francisco Grand Parlor to have copies of such resolutions in the office of Grand Secretary John T. Regan thirty days prior to the opening of the session, so that they may be published in the Advance Reports.—C.M.H.

Organization Fund To Be Proposed

Redwood City—At the San Francisco Grand Parlor in May, Grand First Vice-president Wayne R. Millington will propose legislation to increase to $10 the minimum initiation fee that a Subordinate Parlor may charge, and to create a Grand Parlor Organization Fund, into which Parlors must pay five dollars of the initiation fee. If approved, the legislation will become effective July 1, and the fund "shall be used only for the purpose of increasing the membership of the Order."

"The purpose of the resolutions," says Grand First Vice-president Millington, "is to create a fund to provide means by which the membership of the Order can be increased. . . there will be no state organizer to use this money for traveling and other expenses. . . the money shall be used to" compensate members of the Order for time "that they devote to building up the Order."

"A rigid economy of the public contributions and early interdiction of all useless expenses will go far toward keeping the Government honest and unoppressive."—Thomas Jefferson.

Public Schools Week will be observed commencing Monday, April 12.

Our 181 Parlors, with an approximate membership of 15,000 women, propose to play a real part in post-war readjustments. We are founded on four cardinal principles, each one of which fits into a home-front wartime effort. By accenting these we hope the Parlors will program to meet fully the demands of war, since they embody everything that we should be as Americans. Many of our members are in key positions in the home-front war effort and we have invested nearly $150,000 in war bonds. In San Francisco, we are one of two patriotic women's groups called upon to assist the inter-ceptor command."

On this occasion more than 200 members of the Order enjoyed corned beef and cabbage, with other good things to eat and drink.

Grand Secretary John T. Regan was the toastmaster, and the speaker of the evening was Sheriff Daniel C. Murphy, whose theme was the life of Saint Patrick and the effect of his teachings. N.S.G.W.—NEWS PARAGRAPHS.—N.S.G.W.

Grand Secretary John T. Regan has advised the Subordinate Parlor that it is impossible to take orders for the N.S.G.W. lapel buttons, as the metal materials used in their manufacture are frozen. He has in stock, however, a supply of the twenty-five- and the fifty-year membership emblems.

Modesto—Modesto No. 11 and Morada No. 199 N.D. had a card party March 24 for the benefit of the homeless children. April 7, Modesto will have a 7 o'clock dinner for members, to be followed by entertainment. The Parlor has designated May 5 as past presidents night, and at that time twenty-five-year pins will be presented the quarter-century members. A program in charge of the oldtimers will be featured and refreshments will be served.

Eureka—Grand President Lloyd J. Cosgrove paid a fraternal visit to the Humboldt County Parlor—Humboldt No. 14 (Eureka), Arcata No. 20 and Ferndale No. 93—in joint session here March 22.

Bailey, who complimented them on their activities and condition. At the conclusion of the meeting the good of the order committee of Amador, the host-Parlor, Billie Case, Sheridan Richards and Frank Muzio, served a delicious supper.

Eleven candidates were initiated, bringing the wonder-Parlor's membership to 527. As a result of Charlie Ferand's roundup, $20 was turned over to the Red Cross.

Also participating in the evening's doings were Grand Secretary Sallie Thaler, Grand Trustees Zoura Tompkins and Elinor Aljets, Supervising Deputy Rose Noia, Deputies Margaret Hanahan, Vera Laederich and Virginia Boltzen, and Past Grand Amy McAvoy and Estelle Evans. Following the meeting refreshments were served at tables set with crystal and bowls of iris.

Song Dedicated to Grand President.

Sebastopol — Following a potluck dinner, Grand President Claire Lindsey officially visited Sebastopol No. 265 March 5. The hall and dining-room were decorated with red, white and blue Vs and flowers. Other visitors were Grand Trustee Zoura Tompkins and Deputy Angie Boltz.

An escort team carrying wands of the national colors conducted the Grand President to the altar, where she was welcomed by President Gladys Simoni, and Hazel Baker sang "California Love Song," composed by Recording Secretary Alazuma Singmaster and dedicated to Mrs. Lindsey. Two candidates were initiated. A poem, "The Redwoods," by Sergeant Joseph Kurinsky of Camp Sebastopol, U.S.A., was read by Anice Badger. Refreshments were served after the meeting.

Servicemen Entertained.

Daly City—At a Saint Patrick's party March 17, El Carmelo No. 171's members entertained a large group of servicemen stationed at Fort Daly City. It marked the first move by local groups to entertain the servicemen in this area, and they publicly expressed to the Parlor their gratification for a pleasurable evening. Dancing and community singing were enjoyed, and home-made refreshments were served. In charge of the affair were members of the civics committee, Florence Flynn, Hattie Kelly, Margaret Steele, Virginia Ennis and Dorothy Donofrio, and they had the wholehearted cooperation of the entire membership of the Parlor. As compensation, they hope someone, somewhere, is sharing an evening at home with their husbands, fathers and sons stationed in other parts of the world.

El Carmelo celebrated its thirty-third institution anniversary at a dinner party in San Francisco February 25. Honor-guests were Deputy Mary Fischer and Pauline Quirolo, who organized the Parlor in 1910, and among the others in attendance were friends and eligibles. Charter Member Hattie Kelly was chairman of the very pleasant evening. April 7 the Parlor will have its semi-annual officers whist. The arrangements committee includes all the officers, headed by Irma Zerga.

NATIVE SONS COMMITTEE CONSIDERS JAP PROBLEM

San Francisco — The Japanese Legislative Committee of The Native Sons of the Golden West met February 27, with Chairman Edward T. Schnarr, Eldred L. Meyer and Harry Romick in attendance. Also present, on invitation of the chairman, were Grand President Lloyd J. Cosgrove, Grand Secretary John T. Regan, Grand Trustee Walter H. Odemar and Past Grand President Henry S. Lyon.

A motion prevailed that a meeting of the Committee be held at Sacramento during this session of the State Legislature.

There was a spirited discussion about the supervision of Jap relocation centers. Many suggestions were made, but no action was taken.

The question of Japs entering the United States Army was discussed also, and the subject matter was referred to the Board of Grand Officers. [The Board adopted a resolution, which appears elsewhere in this issue of The Grizzly Bear.]

District Attorney Henry S. Lyon of El Dorado County outlined amendments to the California Alien Land Law approved by the District Attorneys Association of California. The amendments were endorsed, and a committee was ordered appointed to work with the legislative committee of the District Attorneys Association.

The following bills, now before the State Legislature, were endorsed: Assembly No. 973, relating to crews on fishing boats. Senate No. 53, providing for the licensing, visitation and supervision of foreign language schools. Senate Nos. 19, 94 and 286 and Assembly No. 46, all relating to commercial fishing licenses.

The chairman of the Committee was "empowered to name representatives to appear before the committees" of the State Legislature that have under consideration the above-mentioned bills "and any other legislation in which this Committee is empowered to interest itself."

Resolved, That these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of the Parlor; that a copy be sent to the family of our late sister, and a copy sent The Grizzly Bear Magazine for publication.

Respectfully submitted,

HENRIETTA A. PLANER,
TILLIE POULTER,
THERESA HAHN,

Committee.

MAY CHARLOTTE WARD.

To the Officers and Members of Piedmont Parlor No. 87 N.D.G.W.—We, your committee, submit the following resolutions of respect to the memory of our late Sister May Charlotte Ward:

Whereas, It is our sad duty to record the passing of our dearly beloved Sister May Charlotte Ward from this Parlor to the Great Parlor on High where peace and understanding awaits. Our hearts are filled with a sorrow too deep for words in the loss of our Sister. Still we are not unmindful of the beautiful example she set for us to follow. Her love of her Order was outstanding in every respect, and it was her privilege to be a Past President of her Parlor and to later serve as the Organist. She was ever willing to do for her Parlor, for her friends and for her family. Her cheerful, loving disposition, her smiling countenance and her friendliness endeared her to all who knew her. Be it Resolved, That this expression of respect and love to the memory of our beloved Sister May be spread upon the minutes of the Parlor; that a copy be sent to her family, and that a copy be sent to The Grizzly Bear Magazine for publication.

Respectfully submitted,

"WELL DONE!"

The highest ranking woman officer and also the only "four-striper" in the United States Navy is Captain Sue S. Dausser, a native of Anaheim, Orange County, and that city is justly proud of her, according to the Anaheim Gazette.

Captain Dausser was born at Anaheim, September 20, 1888. In 1907 she graduated from Fullerton High School, then attended Stanford University at Palo Alto, and in 1914 graduated from the California School of Nursing at Los Angeles. In 1917 she "joined up" with the Navy.

"The past November, only two months after her fifty-fourth birthday," quoting the Gazette, "she marked the completion of a quarter of a century as an angel of mercy to the men in blue. Her greatest reward is perhaps an inner sense of wellbeing arising from the knowledge of good performed. But her manifest devotion to the service over a period of twenty-five years has not been without its material reward, for Sue S. Dausser was appointed Superintendent of the Navy Nurse Corps in 1939 and has been raised to the rank of captain, the highest rank ever attained in the Navy by a woman. . . . Today, Captain Dausser is the only woman 'four-striper' in the Navy. Along with her rank and title, she has earned the coveted 'Well done!' of the Navy, its highest approbation."

CLARENCE M. HUNT.

I have received in California last month from the "Grizzly Bear" War Department and the State Department the following expression of opinion: "that there are a large number of very loyal Japanese-American citizens in our country."

Disagreeing with that opinion, we hold to the oft-expressed belief that there is no such person as a "Japanese-American citizen" and that all Japs regard the idea of protestations otherwise, inherently are loyal only to Japan. And we repeat, with added emphasis, what was stated last month:

The National Administration must have come to the conclusion that California should be dealt a knockout blow. For, the plan of the United States War Department to release Japs from relocation centers and enroll them in an all-Jap United States combat unit means losing the peace.

The carrying out of that plan means losing the peace, insofar as California is concerned, regardless of the outcome of the war! It means aiding the Japs in their "peaceful invasion" of the home front, designed years ago in Japan!

Keep your eye on "Comrade" Joseph Stalin, for in today's world affairs he is the wisest and the most powerful of the throne-sitters. He is the one who, most likely, will determine when and how the carnage for the glorification and the enrichment of the Japs shall end, and the one who will dictate the peace terms.

Absenteeism, that gets so much unfavorable publicity, has been diagnosed as "Monday sickness." It is said to be contracted in drink emporiums and to be quite contagious.

The Federal Congress should investigate the War Relocation Authority, in charge of the Jap relocation centers, and ascertain just what is the hookup if any, between that bureau and the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America, the guardian-angel of the Japs. A complete and uninfluenced investigation might unearth some very startling information, and possibly it might uncover some of the "sun-of-heavens" bright young men (or white fascists of the same) in the WRA's policy-fixing woodpile.

April is the birth month of Thomas Jefferson, one of the United States' greatest gifts to the world—author of the Declaration of Independence, third President of the Republic, and the founder of the University of Virginia. He was born April 2 (O.S.), 1743, at Shadwell, Virginia, and died July 4, 1826.

Are you ready and willing to surrender your homeland, glorious California, to the Japs? If not, contact your representatives in the Federal Congress and ask them to do something immediately to block the War Department's Jap-army plan. ACT TODAY!

The political lameducks that were purged by the voters at the November election are happy again. According to press reports, all have been rescued from the sea of oblivion by the ship of state and are again sucking at the public teat.

If the War Department is, as it professes to be, cocksure of the loyalty of so-called citizen Japs of the United States that are now being enrolled in a combat unit of the United States Army made up exclusively of them, why has the War Department decreed that that unit shall not be sent into the Pacific theater—against the Japs of Japan?

Certainly loyal United States citizens of German and Italian ancestry are being sent overseas to combat the forces of Germany and Italy. Why not send the Japs overseas to combat the forces of Japan?

More power and greater progress to the subcommittee of the House Military Affairs Committee, headed by Representative John M. Costello, of California, that is endeavoring to force one of the overload Washington bureaus onto the fighting front from the overload of apparent draft dodgers—relatives and friends of the inner-circle group. The selective service director intimates there are thousands of them, more than 700 being in the OWI. And there are said to be at least a million others of the favored deferred ones classified as essential industrial workers.

This is the sort of thing and these are the type of men that destroy faith in government," declared Representative Robert Sikes of Florida in the House of Representatives.

United States Senator Burton K. Wheeler of Montana thinks "we should trade with all countries, but have no fixed alliance with any."

Speaking at Des Moines, Iowa, Herbert Hoover, former President of the United States, said: "The strategy in total war is not solely a military question. The home front is as important as the military front. . . . We have weaknesses on the home front. One of these weaknesses is in the food sector. . . . Therefore our food production must be strengthened for a huge and long sustained effort."

Turn to page two of this issue of The Grizzly Bear and read the article about the endeavor being made to save the Mountain Home Tract of magnificent trees in Tulare County. Then do the world's best by writing your representatives in the Senate and the Assembly of the State Legislature and request them to support Senate Bill No. 339.

Remember, these trees are a gift of God, and every effort should be made to save them for His children.

The Grizzly Bear of last month recorded the fact that Parlors of The Native Sons of the Golden West and The Native Daughters of the Golden West had adopted a resolution stating in part: "The Assembly of the State Legislature and request them to support Senate Bill No. 339. Remember, these trees are a gift of God, and every effort should be made to save them for His children."

In addition to the Parlors originally listed as passing the resolution and sending copies of it to Washington, the following have done likewise: Native Sons—Compton No. 273 and Santa Ana No. 265, Native Daughters—Genevieve No. 132 (San Francisco), Santa Ana No. 235 and La Reina No. 267 (Los Angeles).

The resolution and the letter accompanying it were published in full in the Congressional Record of February 16, having been included in an address in the House of Representatives of the United States Congress, that date, by Representative John E. Rankin of Mississippi, in the course of which he said: "In line with the opinion that I have been making with reference to the Japs in this country, I am inserting a letter which I received from the Native Sons of the Golden West and also the resolution to which that letter refers. AMERICANISM EDUCATIONAL LEAGUE.

IDEALISM AND SENTIMENTALITY ARE recognized as cardinal virtues of the American people. These virtues have given to our nation a spirit of humanitarianism and brotherhood unique in the annals of human history. A happy combination of circumstances has made this country, in spirit at least, a big brother to lesser nations and to oppressed peoples. Recognizing the desirability and the efficacy of these American attitudes I cannot be accused of being unchristian in what I have to say.

There are times when the arbitrary application of sentimentality becomes unreasonable and dangerous. Our maudlin sentimentality pertaining to the Japanese-Americans may lead to far more dire results than an attitude of realism and firmness in the present serious crisis.

The application of immutable principles pertaining to the inherent rights and privileges of American citizenship is either the idealistic or the lazy way of trying to solve the Japanese-American problem in this country. The American public, propagandized by educational and church leaders, for the most part believe that the great majority of Japanese-Americans are loyal and that it is a simple matter to segregate the loyal from the disloyal and to reestablish the good Japanese-Americans to their former place in society.

If the American people are to face the local Japanese problem in the same realistic manner as our soldiers and sailors face the Japanese problem in the Pacific war zones, we will find that beneath the surface are hidden forces controlling the entire superstructure which must be conjured with, lest we court disaster.

Out of 96,000 Nisei in the coastal area, some 40,000 are below the age of moral responsibility in the theater of war. If we could be assured that, among the remaining 56,000, pro-Japanese activities before Pearl Harbor were negligible, the problem would be solved in a manner proposed by the Civil Liberties Union, the Friend's Church, the Institute of Pacific Relations, the Socialist Party, the Fellowship of Reconciliation and many similar organizations—that is, the unconditional release of the Japanese-Americans.

The fact is, that this is not the case. Leaders of the Japanese-American Citizens League themselves admit that more than half of the Nisei above 17 consciously enjoy dual citizenship. Given all opportunity to relinquish Japanese citizenship and break the ties which had bound them to Japanism since birth, all too few were willing to repudiate the Japanese idea that, in the final analysis, every Japanese owes his blood allegiance to Japan. Nineteen thousand Japanese children in California and 44,000 in Hawaii were being imbued with the Shinto philosophy in the Japanese language schools up until the very moment of Pearl Harbor.

Nearly 12,000 Japanese on the coast were members of the Japanese Military Servicemen's League or the Japanese Comradeship Society, the majority of the members being Nisei. In records presented to the Federal Government, the fact is brought out that the members of these two subversive groups were pledged to die for Japan. In 1941, the Servicemen's League contributed nearly 1,000,000 yen through the Yokohama Specie Bank in San Francisco to promote the Japanese war effort.

In 1940, on the occasion of the twenty-six hundredth anniversary of the founding of the Empire, 900 Nisei attended as delegates a special overseas conference held in Tokyo to acquaint the Japanese-Americans of the broad plans of Japan for the conquest of the Pacific area. Photostatic copies of an official report of this Japanese conference were submitted to the California Senate and Assembly hearing, March 1, 1943, and were entered as a matter of record showing how the Japanese War Council took American citizens [of Jap descent] into their confidence in revealing their nefarious plans for the rape of the Dutch East Indies. If the Japanese-Americans are so loyal to this country, why did not at least one of these American citizens report this astounding conference to our Federal Government?

gress will take time to read this letter and also this resolution: for they point out one of the grave dangers that now confronts this Nation and which we must not leave as a burden to our children."

There are in the State of California eleven well organized and financed Kebei organizations. Kebeis are Nisei who have gone to Japan, presumably for cultural training, but who, in reality, were given a stiff injection of Shintoism and Japanism. As late as 1938, from the admission of the Japanese Chamber of Commerce and the Japanese Association of Los Angeles, nearly 20,000 Nisei were in Japan, causing the Japanese colony on the coast considerable embarrassment and concern. In order to avert suspicion, these two Japanese groups sent an emissary to Japan to plead with Japanese authorities to return as many as possible to America.

Most of us who know the Japanese will recognize that there are many fine Japanese youth who abhor the aggression and the ruthlessness of their mother country with a fervor equal to a native son of California. How many there are who are thus loyal, and what criterion shall be employed to determine loyalty and to penetrate into the heart and mind of a Japanese-American, is a question difficult to answer, in view of the overwhelming evidence of the pro-Japanism of the majority. If there is unfairness because the Japanese problem be solved not on individual merit but enmasse, the situation may be attributed to the unfortunate exigencies of war. No R.A.F. flier wishes to destroy a single child or a single mother, but if he is to eliminate the creation of Nazi guns and subs, his "block busters" will carry not only industrial plants but also innocent victims to their doom. There is nothing pretty or christian in war.

The American people must come to realize that in fighting the Nazis and the Japs, they are fighting for existence as a free people. Not only are they fighting for their economy, but they are fighting for their ideals, the ideals of democracy, justice and humanitarianism, repudiated by the austere "science of the state." The world cannot live half free and half slave!

Millions of American youth—boys from our homes, our schools, our neighborhoods, our churches, the boys we love, millions of them,—will be facing the Japs on the field of battle. They will be facing the Japs on the sea, above the sea and beneath. They will be fighting for their lives. They will be fighting for their homes. They will be fighting for their country and for their ideals. To turn the other cheek on the field of battle would be suicide! It is a matter of life or death.

Americans at home must realize that our approach to internal problems must be met with the same finality and with the same sense of grim realism. We must not, we dare not, weaken the defenses of our nation within while our boys are giving their lives to defend our nation from without! The coddling of local Japanese and the silly sentimental emotionalism displayed by religious and educational groups threatening to defeat the entire evacuation program, is not only inconsistent with the necessary principles of total war, but it also tends to undermine the very ramparts of our home defenses.

For these reasons, the Americanism Educational League has proposed the following principles, in the nature of a petition to the United States Congress, so that Americans who recognize the awful results of defeat may offset an untimely dangerous movement here at home.

We, the undersigned, believing that the realistic policy in dealing with the local Japanese problem is essential to our home security, do advocate favorable consideration of the following policies:

(1) Transfer control of all Japanese in America from civilian authority to the United States Army.

(2) Conscript every able-bodied male, alien and citizen (except known enemy agents), to be used on farm projects in the interior, to raise food stuffs, under strict army control.

(3) Abandon the idea of creating a Japanese-American combat unit.

(4) Release all impounded farm implements, tires and cars under the "right of eminent domain," for the war effort.

(5) Confiscate all Japanese government money impounded in United States banks, for disposition of Japanese problem.

(6) Prevent return of any Japanese to coastal areas.

MUST SUPPORT EVERY PART OF THE WAR EFFORT

John J. Ford of Hollywood Parlor No. 196 N.S.G.W., Chief Enforcement Attorney of the Los Angeles Office of Price Administration, April 2 addressed the Native Sons of the Golden West Friday Luncheon Club of Los Angeles on "The O.P.A. Today." Concluding the informative talk, he declared:

"Many people do not realize that just as we gained our democratic way of life by sacrifice, so likewise great sacrifice is necessary if we are to retain that way of life. This is particularly noticeable with respect to the attitude of many citizens toward the matter of conservation of rubber. Our national stock pile of crude rubber must be saved for military purposes. The critical nature of the situation is obvious when we realize that the War Department's conservation program has reduced the use of crude rubber in war material by forty-five per cent compared with the amount being used in the same material December 7, 1941. For instance, modifications in design, such as the elimination of pedal pads and mats in trucks and the replacement of rubber by resins for insulation on electric wire, have resulted in huge savings of crude rubber. Steel wheels have been substituted for rubber on army portable engineering equipment such as concrete mixers and air compressors. It is estimated that by 1944 crude rubber requirements per vehicle will have been cut sixty-three per cent by the War Department since Pearl Harbor.

"In spite of the fact that our crude rubber supply is so important to our success in the present war, many civilians disdain to make any effort to save rubber. For instance, we hear stories that individuals freely transfer loose mileage rationing coupons to their friends. Many citizens are careless or guilty of deliberate misstatements in applying to their rationing boards for mileage rations. Much speeding is still in evidence. The vacation resorts far from the centers of population are still patronized by persons who obviously could not make such long trips except in violation of the rationing restrictions on non-essential driving.

"Perhaps such persons believe that the amount of rubber misused by them is so small as to be unworthy of attention. Yet, just as in the case of the sale of war bonds, it is the large number of purchases representing savings of dimes and quarters rather than the comparatively few single purchases in large amounts that make possible the financing of the war, so likewise it is the combined savings in use of rubber by hundreds and thousands of people that make possible the preservation and use for essential purposes of our reserve rubber supply in this country. A person who misuses rubber through improper use of rationing coupons would resent being called a saboteur. He would never think of throwing a bomb into a large warehouse containing a rubber supply, yet his actions coupled with the like actions of other citizens have exactly the same effect.

"Just as freedom was obtained by sacrifice, so likewise we can only realize its value and keep our enemies from destroying it by further sacrifices on our part. But those who drive many miles to partake of such sports as winter skiing have certainly forgotten the ideals and inspiration which enabled our forefathers to suffer and conquer the bitter obstacles of Valley Forge.

"We on the home-front sometimes forget the duties we owe to our men on the battle-fronts of the world. We must support every part of the war effort, so that the war may be brought

FLOWERS VS. VEGETABLES IN VICTORY GARDENS

Victory gardeners, writing to the United States Department of Agriculture for guidance, are asking questions as to the balance between flower gardens and lawns on the one hand and vegetable growing on the other. There can be no hard-and-fast rule. Good sense and sound judgment must be applied by individuals, says the Department. Without doubt vegetables should this year take first place and flowers second in sunny areas fertile enough to support a good crop of good plants.

In flower borders that ordinarily are filled with a mixture of perennial and annual flowers, many gardeners will find it practical to omit most of the annuals, and either grow vegetables along with the perennials or transplant many of the perennials to the shadier and less-fertile parts of the garden, reserving the sunniest and richest soil for the vegetables.

Many sunny lawn areas may well be turned to vegetable growing, particularly lawns with a mixture of weedy grasses. Owners can console themselves with the thought that after cultivation and the application of fertilizer and compost these thin lawns can yield vegetables "for the duration" and will then be in better condition for replanting of grass that is more likely to thrive.

The California Bankers Association will have a streamlined conference at Los Angeles, May 19 and 20.

VICTORY ON THE FIELD DEPENDS ON THE SECURITY AT HOME

"THIS YEAR THE NATIVE SONS OF the Golden West returns to the city of its birth, San Francisco, to hold its Sixty-sixth Grand Parlor. Due to the present emergency, however, the usual four-day business and recreational session will be reduced to a two-day business session.

"Our Order was formed more than sixty years ago by a group of pioneers of the Golden State, and it has grown, thrived and prospered by the continuous enrollment of men and youths who are natives of the state. The organization is statewide, is held in high respect by all who have any knowledge of it, and has a background of continuous service toward the welfare of the community, the state and the nation. It is based upon a concept of patriotic service not only to the state, but to the nation as well.

"During the past year many of our major objectives have been subordinated to the prime objective of all loyal Americans, the winning of the global war. It is fundamental that victory on the field depends on the security at home. That security can never be attained until we repulse Japanese aggressiveness from without and destroy Japanese treachery within our own borders.

"More than a generation ago the people of California realized the Japanese menace, but despite all their strenuous efforts they hit their heads against the stone wall of national apathy. Through the efforts of able state leaders, The Native Sons of the Golden West forced through certain legislation, including the law to exclude all aliens ineligible to United States citizenship and the State Alien Land Law that prohibits ineligible aliens from owning lands in California. These laws were made necessary by reason of the influx of Japanese to California, commencing many years ago. They brought with them an alien policy, the policy of the Japanese to grab up the fertile lands of the state, forcing the White farmer out of business by cheap Japanese labor, the working of entire Japanese families from the infant up, and the institution of the low Japanese standard of living. Against these the White farmer could not compete. At that time The Native Sons of the Golden West protested before the Congress and before the State Legislature until the aforesaid laws were enacted.

"We know that the Nisei Japanese, with few exceptions, is a citizen of Japan. We do not recognize dual citizenship, and that is the underlying philosophy of the greater number of the Nisei, or American-born Japanese. This Japanese of American birth claims and enjoys the privileges of American citizenship, yet vows allegiance to the self-styled 'Son of Heaven'. A child born of American parents residing in Japan, owing allegiance to the United States, would not be a citizen of Japan. How then can a child born of Japanese parents residing in the United States, but declaring allegiance to Japan, be an American citizen?

"We native Californians, by years of contact and association with Japanese permitted to come here by the National Government, know these things. We know the private and public utterances of Japanese in our communities. We know of the existence of Shinto temples in all Japanese sections, attended by Japanese born here and elsewhere, wherein is fostered the divinity of the Emperor of Japan. We know of the many Japanese language schools where only Japanese language and culture are taught by Japanese professors. The Japanese came here uninvited and, despite rebuffs, sought to impose his way of living upon us.

"The Native Sons of the Golden West, through its membership in the California Joint Immigration Committee, as a cross section of the American public, cognizant of current circumstances, and in doing its duty has instituted proceedings in the courts of the United States to disfranchise the Nisei.

"When war came to the United States in the

"The War Relocation Authority was established, and then the authorities selected ten camps for relocation communities—two in the State of California and the remaining eight situated in states extending east to the banks of the Mississippi River. The plan of the government officials is to return to the Pacific Coast a majority of the one hundred and ten thousand Japanese evacuees in relocation camps and to transfer some to western farm homes and industries, and it is reputed that the War Department has agreed to the plan and has signified its approval to return them to the Pacific Coast and to the prohibited and restricted areas of California. The War Relocation Authority was about to put this plan into operation when

Lieutenant General John L. DeWitt, commander of the western defense area, publicly stated that the West Coast is too vital and too vulnerable to take any chances, and it makes no difference whether the Japanese claims to be an American citizen or not. And he further stated, in classical brevity, 'A Jap is a Jap.'

"We are pleased to learn that the Commanding General, John L. DeWitt, of the West Coast defense area has made politics secondary to security, and has testified before the House Naval Affairs Subcommittee in San Francisco that it is his opinion and recommendation that removed Japanese be not permitted to return to the West Coast, an area vulnerable to the enemy. The Native Sons of the Golden West, as a statewide organization, foresaw the danger of Japanese treachery, not only in the individual, but also as a nation. We have time and time again appealed, over a period of thirty-six years, to national and state officials to curb Japanese aggressiveness. Records in the files of our organization substantiate these facts. It is my opinion that in these critical times no one should have his testimony given more serious consideration than a person who is on the scene and who has studied California's emergency Japanese problem, and that man is General John L. DeWitt, U.S.A., whose command is charged with the western defense of the United States of America. We, therefore, publicly and heartily endorse, support and thank General DeWitt for the moral, as well as the material, protection he is rendering to the people of California.

"In 1938 our Order, particularly the members living in the southern part of our state, foresaw the Japanese menace as evidenced by the fleet of Japanese vessels camouflaged as fishing boats, but in reality suitable for immediate conversion into war ships, and succeeded in obtaining legislation that subjected these boats to the jurisdiction of vigilant state and federal agencies.

"These efforts of The Native Sons of the Golden West in disseminating the facts and unmasking the menace of the Japanese, and in sponsoring the enactment of the laws, forestalled a Pearl Harbor on the West Coast and a resulting disaster to the United States of America."

"If there is any principle of the Constitution that more imperatively calls for attachment than any other, it is the principle of free thought—not free thought for those who agree with us, but freedom for the thought we hate."—Oliver Wendell Holmes.

"Oh, how great is the power of truth! Which of its own power can easily defend itself against all the ingenuity and cunning and wisdom of men."—Cicero.

LLOYD J. COSGROVE of San Francisco latter days of 1941, there were more than one hundred thousand people of Japanese ancestry living in our western states. Roughly, two-thirds of them were born in this country, yet their presence admittedly imperiled and complicated the western defense. So, in order to unhamper the military operations, the commanding general of our western defense urged all of these people to leave voluntarily and to settle in the interior states. A negligible few did leave, but the great majority remained on our western shores. Then the United States Army decided to evacuate all persons of Japanese ancestry from designated military areas, including California.

WHAT IS SAN FRANCISCO?

Dr. Peter T. Conmy, Grand Historian N.S.G.W.

(WRITTEN ESPECIALLY FOR THE GRIZZLY BEAR MAGAZINE.)

TUESDAY, MAY 18, 1943, THE GRAND Parlor of The Native Sons of the Golden West will convene in sixty-sixth annual session at San Francisco. In coming to San Francisco for this year's convocation, the Grand Parlor returns to the cradle spot of The Native Sons of the Golden West, for it was there that the Order was founded, July 11, 1875, and the Grand Parlor was organized in November 1878. The meetings of the 1943 session will be held in Native Sons Building, on Mason Street in downtown San Francisco, only eight city blocks distant from the site of old Anthony's Hall on Bush Street, where the organization had its beginning.

The Native Sons of the Golden West is a Californian organization. It is Californian because it is devoted to perpetuating the ideals of the history of California and its pioneers. It is Californian because it is limited to this state, but is statewide in its units. It is Californian, too, because it is devoted to the highest of California's ideals, that of loyalty to the Union. But although this society is truly Californian, the fact of the matter is that it was San Franciscan in its origin.

A book written many years ago by John S. Hittel was titled "A History of the City of San Francisco and Incidentally of the State of California." The implication of this title is that, during the period covered by the book, San Francisco was the hub of California. This was certainly true in the year 1875, at which time affairs in San Francisco very generally shaped the destiny of the state. It is not surprising, therefore, that the Founder of the Order, General Andrew M. Winn, selected San Francisco as the center for founding a fraternal and patriotic society that would spread its influence throughout California. The San Francisco of today is substantially the same in area as it was in 1875 when The Native Sons of the Golden West was organized. Notwithstanding this long-standing definition of its boundaries, there is ample reason for a discussion of the question, "What is San Francisco?"

There are, in reality, three San Franciscos. First, there is the original San Francisco; second, the present city, and third, the city of the future.

San Francisco is the smallest of the county subdivisions of California, being but forty-two square miles in area. It is the only subdivision of the state that is designated a city and county. The original San Francisco was a much larger place than the present city and county. In Spanish and Mexican days it was the presidial district, which was the area protected by the Presidio of San Francisco. This included the Missions of San Francisco, Santa Clara, San Jose, San Rafael and Sonoma. In other words, the bay area was the San Francisco of the period of Spanish settlement and Mexican rule.

This presidial jurisdiction set up by the Spaniards was appropriate. After all, the most valuable asset of the region of San Francisco or its vicinity is the great bay. Whatever wealth San Francisco has, whatever it has achieved, yes, the fact that the place was settled at all, is due to the presence of the harbor of harbors. In 1820, when Don Luis Peralta, who had served over forty years in the presidial district as a soldier and wished to retire, applied for a grant of land, he was told to take what he wanted and the governor would grant it to him. He selected practically all of the territory along the bay from what is now Berkeley to San Jose, and now situated in Alameda County but then within the Presidial District of San Francisco. With the later development of the harbor came settlements on all sides of the bay and these grew up independently of the original San Francisco. But each bay city, whether it be Vallejo on the north, Crockett on the northeast, San Rafael on the northwest, or Oakland on the east, owes its growth to the harbor facilities of the great bay, and although independent municipally from San Francisco is nonetheless a San Francisco Bay settlement.

When Mexican rule gave way to the United States and California became a state it was necessary to create counties for the new commonwealth, and in so doing the old San Francisco Presidial District was considerably reduced by subdivision. The north area became Sonoma County, the northwest Marin County, the east bay Contra Costa County and the south bay

Santa Clara County, while the name San Francisco was retained by the peninsula known as San Francisco County, including all of the present area of San Francisco plus most of what is now San Mateo County. In other words, San Francisco County as created February 18, 1850, was bounded by the bay on the north and east and by San Francisco Creek and a line running due west from its source on the south. Some idea of the extent of San Francisco County may be gained by pointing out that San Francisco Creek is the present boundary line between San Mateo and Santa Clara Counties. San Francisco was the government seat of this large county. Some of the outlying towns were Mezesville (now Redwood City), Spanish Town (now Half Moon Bay) and Searsville.

That famous episode in the history of San Francisco called the Vigilance Committee action of 1856 is well known. The vigilance movement was a response to the demand that lawlessness be put down. The work of the vigilantes did not end with the trial of Terry and the executions of Casey, Cora, Brace and Hetherington. In addition to suppressing violence, political reform was contemplated. Study of the problem of graft and corruption led to the conclusion that the area comprising San Francisco County was far too large for a political subdivision. Furthermore, it was thought absurd to have duplicate offices for the City of San Francisco and for the County of San Francisco, when by far most of the residents lived in the city.

The result was the passage by the State Legislature of the famous Consolidation Act of 1856, whereby the City and County of San Francisco was created with boundaries similar to the present ones, and the balance of the former San Francisco County was made into a new county to which the name San Mateo was given. There was no popular demand for the creation of San Mateo County. It was organized solely that the City of San Francisco might enjoy the benefits of a consolidated city and county government. For a few months the government seat of San Mateo County was located at Belmont and then moved to Redwood City (formerly Mezesville).

The years have witnessed a great development in all of the area which formerly comprised San Francisco County. San Francisco has become one of the foremost cities of the nation. San Mateo County has also had a marvelous development. It is interesting to note, however, that the

CHILDREN GIVEN OPPORTUNITIES PROVE WORTH

MARY E. BRUSIE
(Executive Secretary Native Sons and Native
Daughters Central Committee on Homeless Children.)

Everybody loves a baby, the natural-parents most of all! In their reluctantly attained convictions that, due to conditions or to circumstances, their child will not receive his or her due in their home, they are willing to relinquish their legal rights as parents to one of the thousands of child-loving, childless men and women who are eager and able to devote their good, clean, happy lives to the rearing of some child and, to that end, appeal to one of the State-licensed societies, the Native Sons and Native Daughters Central Committee on Homeless Children.

After observing for thirty-three years the homes and the adopted boys and girls who have been reared in your districts, Native Sons and Native Daughters of the Golden West, you know of hundreds who have now grown into men and women of good repute, with convictions, courage, stamina, and a love of home, flag and country,—perhaps now married, with children of their own,—and you have become convinced that these children who have been given opportunities and intelligent training are children of whom to be proud. You realize also that while it has called for generosity of time, effort and money, it has all been wholly worth your efforts.

While for this dreary thirty-third fiscal year (1942-43) the income of the homeless children project has dropped somewhat, there has been manifested a genuine effort on the part of a FEW members to do the work of MANY members. This being true, is a distinct credit to the membership of both Orders, and a definite security to the project.

The expenditures for the year reveal that the charges for board, doctor, laundry and medicine for the children amounted to $7,384.61, $3,368.04 of which sum was refunded by parents and the State.

The investigations of the children and their parents, of the foster-homes and the foster-parents, and the supervision after placements cost in mileage and insurance $1,662.82. The cost of six workers, four in the north and two in the south, who have done the traveling and the office work, totaled $9,176.70.

Other outlays were: Native Daughters milk fund pictures, and citations of abandonment proceedings, $102.33; housing and telephones, $1,320.72; printing, postage and office supplies, $1,031.06; publicity and audit, $135.79; office equipment, $331.63.

The expenditures totaled $21,145.66, and $2,500 was invested in war bonds.

The receipts totaled $22,539.53, and came from the following sources: contributions of Subordinate Parlors and members of both Orders, $15,906.94; contributions of friends, $1,668.24; bequests, to April 1, 1943, $268.46; refund on board, $3,368.04; interest and dividends, $566.30; principal paid on notes receivable, $761.55.

The balance in the commercial account is $10,899.72, and in the savings account $3,998.52.

As to the work accomplished,—the number of children placed and replaced (at the same cost)—the figures were not available when this went to The Grizzly Bear. Our reports for each month run from the first to the third Friday. Full details will appear in the printed annual report.

The members of the governing body—Native Sons and Native Daughters Central Committee on Homeless Children—have been thoughtful and conscientious in their decisions relative to the work, and exacting in their approval of expenditures. As a matter of fact, no other service of like proportions, civic, national or fraternal, is more constructive economically and socially in its administration by the six members of The Native Sons of the Golden West and The Native Daughters of the Golden West, the one member of the Welfare Agency and the three representatives of the three religious denominations.

The pictures of the children on the cover of this issue of The Grizzly Bear Magazine are those of children who have enjoyed their new homes for a varying number of months or years. Two older boys of the group are at present in the war, and one has graduated as a physician, the profession of his foster-father. The children placed by the Central Committee are of every race and descent, some of them of foreignborn parents, now citizens of America—Chinese, Dutch, English, French, German, Russian, Scandinavian. All for one world, one world for all!

The sacrifices of natural-parents and of foster-parents, of the boys and girls of courage and stamina, some in brown and some in blue, will not be in vain, we pray, and from the throats of the thousands of members of The Native Sons and The Native Daughters of the Golden West arise a "God bless them! Bring them safely home again!"

HOME FOOD PRODUCTION LEAFLETS.

Concise and practical information on the production of food in the backyard is offered in a series of leaflets prepared by the University of California Agricultural Extension Service. They are free at the office of any county farm advisor, or from the Service office at Berkeley.

greatest activity in San Mateo County has been on the east or bay side, where there are such thriving centers as South San Francisco, Burlingame, San Mateo, Belmont, San Carlos, Redwood City, Menlo Park and East Palo Alto, thus evidencing the fact that this county owes much of its development to the great bay of the area surrounding which it is a component part. San Mateo County, although a separate legal entity, is to a great extent San Franciscan in spirit. Connected with the large city by highways and railroad, its communities form populous suburbs with thousands of commuters.

What the San Francisco of the future will be is difficult to envision at this time. It is probable, however, that what has taken place in other large metropolitan areas, namely, conurbation, will follow in San Francisco. Conurbation is the uniting of independent sections of a metropolitan area into a single city. It is annexation. Looking to the future, the makers of the present charter of the City and County of San Francisco made provision for the incorporation into the city and county of such adjacent areas as may vote in the future to do so. If this comes to pass, the word annexation will hardly suffice to describe the transaction. It would be not the annexation of new territory, but the restoration to San Francisco of part of its original boundaries, either those of the county or those of the presidial district.

The great bridges which now span the bay have brought San Francisco to both Marin and Alameda Counties. Improved transportation has brought a unity of purpose to the whole metropolitan area. This manifests itself in a common spirit found from the north bay to the south bay and from the coast to the foothills. This spirit, this unity of purpose, this love of the bay area, its past, the carrying on of its present, and the hope for its future is San Francisco.

San Francisco greets the Sixty-sixth Grand Parlor of The Native Sons of the Golden West with its usual enthusiasm. Thirty-years ago President Taft said, "San Francisco knows how." And many times since he uttered those words San Francisco has proved that they were true. San Francisco does know how to be the host, having still the hospitality of the Spanish days when the weary traveler found an abode in the mission hospice or the adobe of the rancho. The primitive city of the '40s and '50s gave its heart to the gold seekers, the gay city of the '90s opened its doors to Bohemian travelers from all parts of the world, the rebuilt city of 1915 greeted the world, and now the war-torn city of 1943 welcomes the Sixty-sixth Grand Parlor.

Wonder-Parlor Continues To Grow.

Ventura—The dinner-meeting of Cabrillo No. 114 held at Oxnard March 30 was largely attended, among the number being several visitors from Los Angeles. Jack Ryan, Oxnard's efficient Police Chief, was the honoree of the occasion and he was complimented for his endeavors and accomplishments. Superior Judge Louis Drapeau, the president of the Parlor, introduced Charles Blackstock as the master of ceremonies at the festive board, and he kept the crowd in a jovial mood. Among the speakers were Dr. W. R. Livingston; "Billy" Neel, Ventura City Police Chief; Howard Durley, Ventura County Sheriff; Earl Hume, Fillmore Police Chief; Hal Hammons, former secretary of the Parlor, now in the United States Navy; Lieutenant Frank Eymann and Chief of Security Police Roberts from the Hueneme Naval Base; H. H. Eastwood, Oxnard Mayor; Grand Trustee Walter Odemar and Supervising Deputy Howard Woodward. As usual, Ed Hearne had charge of the fine chicken dinner.

After the feast there was a musical program by Cabrillo's orchestra, and then a business session. Eight candidates were initiated, bringing the wonder-Parlor's membership to 536. The ritual was exemplified by the following, representing the District Deputies Association of District No. One: Robert Pesqueria (Los Angeles No. 45), president; Clarence M. Hunt (Sacramento No. 3), senior past president; Robert Castro (Long Beach No. 278), junior past president; Ludwig Trinaajstich (East Los Angeles No. 277), first vice-president; Howard Woodward (East Los Angeles No. 277), second vice-president; Woodrow Wade (University No. 272), third vice-president; Walter Odemar (Ramona No. 109), marshal; Hervey Kitchin (Ramona No. 109), inside sentinel; Walter Wells (University No. 272), outside sentinel.

Following the initiation, Supervising Deputy Woodward introduced District Deputy Wade, who presided during the balance of the evening. Brief talks were made by President Drapeau, Grand Trustee Odemar, Secretary John Morrison and Ben Hiss. Charles Feraud was there with his collection box and garnered $32.38 for the homeless children. Also in attendance were President Harold Faubion and Oliver Kent (University No. 272) and District Deputy John Bodkin (Hollywood No. 196). At the city election April 13, Ernest J. Pate, a member of Cabrillo, was elected to a full term on the Ventura Council. The Parlor now has over a hundred members in the country's armed services.

Continues To Carry On.

Grass Valley—Regardless of the fact that more than twenty percent of the members of Quartz No. 58 are in the country's armed services and about one-half the other members live away from Grass Valley since the closing of the gold mines, the Parlor continues to carry on and to initiate candidates. During April three new members were received, the ritual being exemplified by a team headed by Tony Casci.

The Parlor approved the purchase of three thousand-dollar war bonds in connection with the drive conducted by the Federal Treasury Department. Quartz now has sixteen of those bonds, and plans to purchase more as rapidly as its income allows.

THE LETTER BOX

Comments on subjects of general interest and importance received from readers of The Grizzly Bear.

EFFORTS APPRECIATED.

"Editor Grizzly Bear: After reading in The Grizzly Bear for April of the efforts of the Native Sons and Daughters to save the magnificent grove of redwoods in Tulare County, I sent the fine publicity, including the cover illustration, to State Senator Jack Tenney of Los Angeles County in the Legislature at Sacramento.

"In reply, he stated he greatly appreciated the efforts of the Natives in this matter, that he has always been a friend of the redwoods, and assured me he 'would follow the recommendations of yourself and the Native Sons and Daughters of the Golden West'."—OWEN S. ADAMS, Los Angeles, California.

PERHAPS.

"Editor Grizzly Bear: May I commend you upon the very fine manner in which you are covering the Jap question in The Grizzly Bear. I circulate the magazine around to many friends, not of the Order, who are very interested in the articles printed. Keep up the splendid work in this direction and perhaps some day we'll get somewhere. I fervently hope so."—MARGUERITE WELSH, Oakland, California.

GRATEFUL FOR COOPERATION.

"Editor Grizzly Bear: The American Red Cross and its national officers greatly appreciate the splendid cooperation you have given us in our 1943 War Fund campaign. Being enabled, through the columns of your publication, to reach a wider circle of supporters has materially contributed to the success of this, our largest single appeal ever made to the American people. Believe me, it is with a deep sense of personal appreciation that I express our gratitude."—G. STEWART BROWN, National Director Public Information Service, Washington, D. C.

GOOD WORK, AND A LOT OF FUN.

"Editor Grizzly Bear: During 1942 Santa Rosa Parlor No. 28 N.S.G.W., assisted by the Native Daughters and other friends, conducted a scrap drive for metals and rubber to help destroy the Japs and the Nazis. It was quite a success, netting about $500 and creating a lot of fun. We have used some of the money for worthy charities, the homeless children and the local hospitality house. In addition to an outright gift of money to the latter, we bought a billiard table for use during the war. We subscribed to a cigarette fund, as every draftee leaving Santa Rosa is given a pack of the "filthy weed," contributed to the Red Cross drive, and have on hand $195.91 for further charity work.

"Mothers Day, May 9, we will have another big scrap drive in loving memory of our mothers and in service to our country. The better the day, the better the deed. To George Colgan, we owe much for the success of the scrap campaign, as he gave freely of his time. Other members contributed time and energy, and will do their share in the coming effort, which we feel will be a howling success.

"Yours for liberty, the preservation of our nation, and the eternal glory of our Golden State, California."—DR. W. C. SHIPLEY, President Santa Rosa Parlor N.S.G.W., Santa Rosa, California.

Fifty-Year Pin Presented.

Sutter Creek—Amador No. 17 presented a fifty-year membership pin to Frank N. Soracco, March 19, the presentation address being made by Humphrey Jones, who was president of the Parlor when Soracco joined, March 17, 1893. Past Grand Clarence E. Jarvis, a member of No. 17, gave an interesting talk on the early history of the Parlor, and at the meeting's conclusion a delicious supper was served by Billie Case, Sheridan Richards and Frank Muzio.

Amador was instituted June 15, 1883, by District Deputy R. A. Alderson Jr., with fourteen charter members. G. F. Howard was the first president. Today the Parlor has a membership of 131 and assets of more than $39,000, and owns its own home.

Past Presidents Night at Modesto.

Modesto—Modesto No. 11 had a very interesting meeting, April 5, which was preceded by a dinner served by a committee composed of Herbert Paul, Robert Anderson and Leslie Lellich. Plans were formulated for a past presidents night May 5, and Charles Blaine, Edwin Craig and Vincent Lellich were named a committee of of the Mountain Home Tract of big trees in Tulare County was adopted, and copies were ordered sent the Santa Ana and the Orange Chapters of the Izaak Walton League of America. The committee in charge of the evening included Mms. Hiskey, Schroeder and Wagner.

"The Big Four" Present Gifts.

San Juan Bautista—With united for a victorious peace as the theme, Copa de Oro No. 105 (Hollister) and San Juan Bautista No. 179 met in joint session here April 11 to welcome Grand President Claire Lindsey on her official visit. A luncheon was served, at which eighty were seated at V-shaped tables appropriately decorated in a patriotic motif. President Eileen Hansen of Copa de Oro was the toastmistress, Mayme Moran pronounced an invocation and there was assembly singing.

At The Adobe, a new flag and pole were dedicated, Past Grand Bertha A. Briggs delivering the address, and Grand President Lindsey raising the flag, assisted by Catherine Nyland. The opening and the closing ceremonies were conducted by the officers of San Juan Bautista, attired in white formals, with wrist bouquets of red, white and blue, and the officers of Copa de Oro, wearing gold-colored formals and carrying arm sprays of blue and yellow blossoms, exemplified the ritual. Presentations of gifts were made by "the big four"—Elma Libao as Uncle Sam, Hilda Thompson as Winston Churchill, Marjorie Lanning as Mme. Chiang Kai-Shek and Ethel Hostetter as Josef Stalin. Among the many guests were Supervising Deputy Dorothy Barber, and Deputies Josephine Brazil and Pauline Sautfauver.

Anniversary Observed.

San Diego—San Diego No. 208 observed its twenty-eighth institution anniversary at a well-attended evening meeting April 27. An impressive candlelight service was featured, and past presidents filled the several stations. A class of candidates will be initiated May 11.

Final arrangements for the annual spring card party are being made, with Emily Welch as the chairman and Mary Olson the cochairman. The officers club had its April luncheon-meeting at the home of Stella Case; the hostess was assisted by Helen Croom and Elsie Case. The past presidents club met at the home of Sophia Sharpe, with Isabel Young presiding.

U. S. Flag Presented.

Modesto — Grand President Claire Lindsey made her official visit to Morada No. 199 April 14. The Easter season was the incentive for the hall decorations and the Grand President's address. A candidate was initiated, and a contribution was made to the Grand Parlor Annie L. Adair Scholarship Fund on behalf of Junior No. 4. A musical program was announced by General Chairman Julia Stutchman, and President Genevieve Margnetti presented the Parlor a silk United States of America Flag. The Parlor's gift to Mrs. Lindsey was presented by Supervising Deputy Ethel Enos. Following the meeting a light supper was served. In decorating the table, the refreshment committee, headed by Agnes Leisz, used roses profusely.

The afternoon of April 15, Grand President Lindsey and Supervising Deputy Enos participated in a radio broadcast from the local station and reviewed the Order's projects.

Morada had a most successful whist party of fifty-two tables for the benefit of the homeless children March 24. At a business meeting preceding it contributions were voted the Grand Parlor Annie L. Adair Scholarship Fund and the Save the Redwoods Committee. The sewing club also contributed, with both sums to be matched by Estella Service, a member of the Parlor.

Double Stork Shower.

Placencia—Mrs. Alice Martindale was hostess to Grace No. 242's sewing club, April 13, and served a delicious luncheon. She was assisted by Mms. Mary Williams, Christine McFarland and Marie Sorensen. Mrs. Myrtle Gafvert, a guest, presented the homeless children committee a lovely quilt, which was disposed of for $7.50. A double stork shower was tendered the hostess and Mrs. Clara Jane Nixon, and each received many beautiful gifts.

SIXTY-SIXTH N.S.G.W. GRAND PARLOR

CLARENCE M. HUNT.

THE SIXTY-SIXTH ANNUAL GRAND Parlor of The Native Sons of the Golden West will convene at San Francisco, Tuesday, May 18, at 9 a.m., for a two-day session. Grand President Lloyd J. Cosgrove of Precita Parlor No. 187 (San Francisco) will preside throughout the deliberations and, at their conclusion, will automatically become the Junior Past Grand President.

The Grand Parlor sessions will be held on the fifth floor of Native Sons Building, 414 Mason Street. Tuesday afternoon nominations of grand officers will take place, there will be brief memorial ceremonies, and the state final of the public speaking contest will be held. Election of grand officers is scheduled for 8 a.m. of Wednesday.

REPORTS.

The reports of officers and committees to the Sixty-sixth Grand Parlor will deal with the Order's activities during the 1942-43 Grand Parlor year. Three Parlors were instituted by Grand President Cosgrove: Centinela No. 279 at Inglewood, Los Angeles County; Wilmington No. 280 at Wilmington, Los Angeles County, and Mother Colony No. 281 at Anaheim, Orange County. During the year The Grizzly Bear gave full publicity to the many important events and accomplishments.

Grand Secretary John T. Regan's report will detail the condition of the one hundred and thirty-three Subordinate Parlors as of December 31, 1942. Those with 450 or more members, also their assets-figures, include:

| Parlors. | Members. | Assets. |
|----------------------------------|----------|-------------|
| South San Francisco No. 157..... | 848 | $55,485.00 |
| Arrowhead No. 110..... | 670 | 22,902.24 |
| Castro No. 232..... | 603 | 6,482.09 |
| Ramona No. 109..... | 532 | 6,905.19 |
| Cabrillo No. 114..... | 506 | 2,136.86 |
| Stockton No. 7..... | 469 | 29,102.94 |

Other Subordinate Parlors, with assets of $20,000 or more, also their membership-figures, are:

| Parlors. | Members. | Assets. |
|--------------------------|----------|-------------|
| San Jose No. 22..... | 215 | $74,949.73 |
| Amador No. 17..... | 131 | 29,149.03 |

| Rincon No. 72..... | 209 | 20,420.56 |
| Piedmont No. 120..... | 324 | 20,398.51 |

From these figures, it will be noted that South San Francisco Parlor No. 157 (San Francisco) continues the largest, numerically, in the Order; that San Jose Parlor No. 22 (San Jose) continues the wealthiest, financially, and that that Parlor also has the greatest per capita wealth.

At the close of 1942, the Subordinate Parlors had convertible assets totaling $1,088,568.91—$67.07 per member average; this total included cash assets of $266,779.40—$16.44 per member average. The Parlors' receipts for 1942 totaled $244,486.49—$15.06 per member average; their disbursements totaled $232,118.31—$14.30 per member average. Those Subordinate Parlors which pay benefits relieved 1,093 members to the extent of $68,138.43—$62.35 per beneficiary average.

RESOLUTIONS.

As at all previous Grand Parlors, numerous resolutions will be presented at the San Francisco session.

†Connection with Order severed.

Grand First Vice-president Wayne R. Millington will propose fixing the minimum initiation fee of a Subordinate Parlor at $10, and creating a Grand Parlor Organization Fund, in which a Subordinate Parlor shall deposit $5 for each new member received. The "fund shall be under the jurisdiction of the Grand President," and "shall be used only for the purpose of increasing the membership of the Order."

Grand Trustee Walter H. Odemar and others will propose "that the incoming Grand President appoint a committee of five to be known as the Committee on Japanese Legislation of the Native Sons of the Golden West, which committee, . . . shall take an active position in the name and on behalf of The Native Sons of the Golden West on any Japanese matter it shall deem advisable."

Delegate Miles D. Coughlin of Hydraulic Parlor No. 56 will propose the appointment of a committee to devise a form of official certificate for servicemen, which is to "be made available to all Subordinate Parlors through the office of the Grand Secretary."

Delegates Martin L. Moxley and Paul A. Traynor of Long Beach Parlor No. 278 will propose: (1) Reducing "the salary overhead in the Grand Secretary's office." (2) Creating the position of "Assistant Grand Secretary for southern California." (3) Suspending "the per capita tax of all servicemen" belonging to the Order. (4) Establishment of a $5,000 organization fund "to be used by the various District Deputies Associations" for the formation of parlors. (5) Giving "a paid-up life membership" to all members who "have reached the fifty-year mark of constant membership in the Order."

DO WE?

CLARENCE M. HUNT.

Being muchly concerned about the future, as well as the present, welfare of California, and being thoroughly convinced that, unless the "seed of the sun" be entirely uprooted, the Japs will, following the present armed conflict, proceed with their "peaceful invasion" and eventually overrun this state, the writer proposes UNITED ACTION TODAY by organizations and individuals actually desirous of preserving California as a paradise of the White Man for all time. TOMORROW, after the war, will be TOO LATE! In the hope of permanently removing the Jap menace, this course of action is advocated:

Dispossess the Japs of every foot of land, rural and urban, to which they now claim title.

Challenge the citizenship of every Jap—his right to exercise in these United States the voting privilege.

Close every Jap-language school, and be certain that it is kept closed.

Do we, or do we not, really want to save this glorious heritage given into our keeping by our Pioneer Fathers and Mothers? If we have the will, this suggested course points the way! What's your answer?

(Incumbent)

FOR RE-ELECTION AS

GRAND TREASURER

SAN FRANCISCO GRAND PARLOR 1943

CALIFORNIA FIFTY YEARS AGO

ROY C. COTHRIN
(COMPILED EXPRESSLY FOR
THE GRIZZLY BEAR MAGAZINE.)

RIVERSIDE COUNTY HAD ITS FIRST election May 2, 1893, and established its legality by a vote of 2,187 to 498. A non-partisan ticket was elected, and Riverside City was voted the seat of government. The election was a quiet one, except in the Casco precinct, where a mob opposed to the formation of the new county took charge of the polls. The county was created by act of the State Legislature in March 1893 from territory formerly included in San Diego and San Bernardino Counties.

A new Los Angeles City directory, issued May 10, listed 33,000 names. So, the population was estimated to be over 75,000.

One of the principal nurserymen of Contra Costa County was offered $200 an acre for his crop from forty acres of 5-year-old apricot trees, and from fifty acres of 6-year-old almond trees. The offer was rejected.

Governor Henry H. Markham May 1 appointed Charles N. Post city attorney of Sacramento.

A considerable shower of rain, accompanied by vivid lightning and heavy thunder, visited San Diego City May 11.

The Visalia, Tulare County, and Sequoia Mill stage was held up May 1, supposedly by Evans and Sontag.

Deckhands on the river steamer Mary Garrett struck at Stockton, May 2, for $40 a month. They were getting $35.

A train from Niles, Alameda County, ran into a phaeton at San Jose May 2 and almost instantly killed Mrs. A. L. Wheelock.

At a most exciting battle of ballots May 2, Grass Valley, Nevada County, elected William George mayor, and R. E. Mattison, H. Luke, W. Body and Richard Williams city trustees.

Golden Gate Avenue, San Francisco, was the scene of a lively encounter May 1 between an irate woman, Linda Irwin, and Police Officer G. H. Graham. The latter got the worst of the fray.

Fire of undetermined origin at Saint Helena, Napa County, May 18 totally destroyed the foundry and machine shops of Arthur Worth and caused a $6,000 loss.

Fire at Rialto, San Bernardino County, May 22 burned Joe Lord's livery stable and thirteen horses, a lodging house and other structures.

The Southern Pacific announced May 13 that rightsofway to build into Riverside had been fully secured and that construction would "probably be begun soon." The line was to run from Colton to Los Angeles, via Riverside, Pomona and Monrovia.

The railroad extending from Fresno City to Pollasky was attached May 20 by the sheriff to satisfy a $468,000 mortgage held by the Pacific Improvement Company.

Two sons of John Jellitich, aged 2 and 5 years, died May 3 at Jackson, Amador County, from the effects of eating mushrooms.

A fire which originated in the Walters Hotel at Bakersfield, Kern County, destroyed property worth about $30,000 May 5.

The Shasta County Board of Supervisors went on record May 15 as favoring the opening of the Sacramento River to navigation as far as Redding.

Joseph Giannini, well-known in El Dorado and Amador Counties, was killed in a horse-and-buggy accident May 18, while on his way to Amador City.

Observatory Parlor No. 177 N.S.G.W. of San Jose had a grand banquet May 6 in dedication of the handsome new Native Sons Hall at Third and San Antonio Streets.

Articles of incorporation of the Union Stockyards Company, capitalized at $100,000, were filed at Los Angeles May 2. The directors were John L. VanEvery, Simon Levy, J. W. Harris, Telefar Creighton and F. E. Davis. The company had acquired 164 acres of land on Santa Fe Avenue, near Eleventh Street, for its use.

It was rumored in San Francisco May 4 that the United States Government would take part in the pursuit of the notorious bandits, Evans and Sontag. Troop B of the Fourth Cavalry, U.S.A., had been ordered to the vicinity of Visalia, Tulare County.

At a meeting of the directors of the Monterey and Fresno Railroad in Fresno City May 5 it was decided to begin construction work at the Monterey end "as soon as possible." The intention was to reach the top of the Coast Range by February next.

PERHAPS

J. E. GARDNER.

"The cold blooded assassination of American prisoners of war, in flagrant disregard of the very convention to which, after the war opened, the Japanese emphatically declared their adherence, has outraged my feelings and thoroughly corroborated my judgment of the inherent character of the Japanese, as a people. . . .

"Most of us had an idea that the conduct of the Japs before and at the time of the Pearl Harbor massacre branded them, as a people, as public enemies, cunning, clever, more dangerous than any other with whom we are at war, unworthy of any confidence or trust. For a variety of assigned reasons, some of our people have made distinctions which others of us are unable to draw and have convinced themselves that the accident of birth, not the nature of the individual nor his intimate training in the home and in language schools, is determinative of his loyalty. Some of them have publicly expressed the opinion that the conduct of the Japs before and at the time of Pearl Harbor compares favorably with our own conduct in North Africa.

"This latest manifestation of the fact that this people in its very blood is characterized by so fanatical a devotion to its god-emperor that it will literally stop at nothing to accomplish its ends,—just another incident added to the stories of torture and outrage that have long been substantiated—should certainly be enough to convince those who profess belief in the 'faithful citizen' theory of the Secretary of War that we do not want in our community any persons of that breed, no matter where born.

"Perhaps these incidents will by and by serve to convince our venerable, trusting and naive Secretary of War and our abnormally credulous welfare workers, engaged in petting the Japs in relocation centers and in publicizing such rank nonsense as their statement that of the many thousands of native-born Japs in those camps 'less than 300 speak the Japanese language!'

"Perhaps, after a few more such demonstrations, we may unite in the realistic view of the situation. We may all come to admit that parents, fanatically devoted to their native country, who came here with no intention of making this their permanent home, with no thought of assimilation with our people, but with the sole idea of accumulating money to be sent or taken

Firebaugh's livery stables at Santa Paula, Ventura County, were totally destroyed by fire May 14, and thirteen horses perished in the flames. The blaze is supposed to have been started by a tramp sleeping in a hay pile.

Fire at Eureka, Humboldt County, May 23 destroyed the Eureka Academy and Business College. The loss was $25,000.

The Kern Guard of Bakersfield was mustered into the California National Guard by General Muller and assistants May 26.

San Joaquin County's handsome new county jail, costing $70,000, was announced at Stockton as ready for occupancy.

In a mile bicycle race at Los Angeles May 30, J. W. Cowan broke the world's record, going the distance in 2 minutes and 37 seconds.

Articles of incorporation of the Producers Bank, capitalized at $250,000, were filed May 29 at Visalia, Tulare County. Nearly every prominent man in the vicinity was a stockholder.

The John Irwin Oil Company was incorporated May 22 at Ventura to mine for oil at Bardsdale. The directors were Thomas J. Gregg, D. T. Perkins, C. B. Greenwell, F. W. Gerberding and E. O. Gerberding, all of Hueneine.

Colton, San Bernardino County, parties May 1 sold the Adyar gold mine in Riverside County to a Pasadena, Los Angeles County, syndicate for $47,500.

George W. Durbrow of Indio, Riverside County, received a consignment of coffee trees from Guatemala May 2, and announced his intention to plant them on irrigated land.

Becker & Foster of Cottonwood, one of the leading general merchandise firms of Shasta County, was declared insolvent May 4; liabilities, $48,640.

George Ferguson became violently insane at Los Gatos, Santa Clara County, May 16, and the united force of six men was required to place him behind the bars.

Ramona Parlor No. 109 N.S.G.W. had its first smoker May 12 in its quarters in the Grand Opera House Building. Appearing on the program were Stephen M. White, Mayor T. E. Rowan, E. V. Naud, R. F. DelValle, H. T. Hazard, W. J. Variel, Wm. A. Wilson and J. H. Dockweiler.

The accompanying is from J. E. Gardner of Watsonville, Santa Cruz County, chairman of the Pajaro Valley and Watsonville Defense Council, that advocates the retention of all Japs in relocation centers under strict U.S. Army supervision.

Corresponding with him on the Jap situation, the editor of The Grizzly Bear suggested to Gardner, who had prepared and circulated a meaty pamphlet titled "What Shall We Do With the Japs?", that the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America should be investigated by the Federal Congress. Replying to the suggestion, he wrote:

"As to the churches: No doubt they are responsible for the asinine plans adopted by the Secretary of War and the War Relocation Authority. Their expressions are voiced by the ministers. The latter are always on the wrong side of any question the solution of which requires that a realistic view of existing circumstances be had. . . . But they are an organized pressure group to which legislators lend an ear, sometimes unsympathetic, but always attentive."—Editor.

back to Japan; in whose homes the Japanese language is spoken; whose children are sent daily to Japanese language schools for instruction by aliens of that race; that such parents naturally do not inculcate in the minds of those children loyalty to this country but to that from which they came and to which they hope to return.

"The mists may be dissolved, so that they may see that it is against nature and human experience to believe that by virtue of the accident of birth any considerable number of such children will ever be loyal to this country.

"They may comprehend the significance of the fact that the native-born Japs, before being taken to relocation centers, from which they are now so anxious to escape, manifested no desire to be of service to our law officers in the discovery of articles unlawful to be possessed by their alien parents.

"They may get a hint of what it means that so far as reported none of the 'citizen' Japs, after Pearl Harbor and before their removal, denounced the Japanese people.

"Perhaps they may come to feel that we do not want permanently to clutter up our country with a few millions of people in whose veins the blood of ruthless, unadulterated barbarism flows.

"Perhaps this experience may build up in us such a righteous hate for the Japs that we will forget our desire for profitable employment, or luxury, or comfort, and determine henceforth, at whatever sacrifice, to devote ourselves solely to the task of carrying this war on to a conclusion which will involve the overall devastation of the Japanese nation—so complete a destruction that in a thousand years it may not again attain even a minor place among the countries of the earth."

DELIGHTFUL

Hollywood Parlor No. 196 N.S.G.W. had its forty-seventh anniversary banquet at the Hollywood Athletic Club April 26. It was one of the very best birthday parties ever sponsored by Hollywood, and the many in attendance, representing all local Parlors, enjoyed every second of the occasion.

President Lee Owens extended a brief welcome, and introduced as the master of ceremonies George Breslin. That assured a program of merit and an evening of pleasure, for in that capacity George has no superiors and few equals.

Wallace Ware, the speaker of the evening, gave a masterful address overflowing with food for serious thought on the part of those who desire the preservation of the United States of America as a republic. Leo Carrillo, who always has something amusing and inspiring to say, spoke of his beloved California, and said that never again should a Jap be permitted to set his treacherous, yellow feet upon the soil of the Golden State. Both speakers won the hearty plaudits of the assemblage. Brief remarks were made by Past Grand President Eldred Meyer, Ed Lovie, Joe Coyle (not Doyle), Clarence M. Hunt, Henry Bodkin, John Ford, Marco Newmark, Sheriff Eugene Biscailuz and Grand Trustee Walter Odemar.

Yes, it was a delightful evening, profitably spent, and responsible for its being so was Hollywood's arrangements committee: President Owens, Walter Rosenthal, "Bill" Hortenstine, John Bodkin, Moritz Rosenthal and Fred Gamble.—H.

LOS ANGELES

RITUAL TEAM VISITS.

San Pedro—The ritual team of Stephen M. White Parlor No. 263 N.S.G.W., accompanied by several other members, visited Wilmington No. 280, April 9, and initiated two candidates for that Parlor. Charles Kuhn, who had been sailing through dangerous war zones, related some of his experiences and exhibited souvenirs of his visits.

April 16, Stephen M. White added two names to its membership-roll. John T. Gower has been installed as recording secretary. The Parlor and Rudecinda Parlor No. 230 N.D.G.W. had a dance March 27 which was enjoyed by some hundred couples. Another is being planned for the near future.

NATIVE SONS "ADOPT" BABY.

Wilmington—Wilmington No. 280 has the distinction of being the first Parlor of The Native Sons of the Golden West to "adopt" a homeless baby. The name Walter Erle was selected, honoring Walter Richards of Compton Parlor No. 273 and President Erle Smith, most active in the organization of the Parlor.

For many years, Native Daughters Parlors have, by "adopting" babies, been contributing liberally to funds with which to provide for the nursery care of children relinquished to the Central Homeless Children Committee. The "adopting" Parlor has the privilege of naming the child. "All other Native Sons Parlors should follow Wilmington's lead," says Richards.

On behalf of the District Deputies Association of District No. One, District Deputy Robert Castro presented to Wilmington a beautiful service plaque, with sixteen names, painted by Mary Hudson of Rudecinda Parlor No. 230 N.D.G.W. The Parlor has launched a membership campaign, and expects to initiate a large class of candidates May 28.

FLAG DEDICATION PLANNED.

San Pedro—In observance of Memorial Day and in memory of the Natives interred there, Rudecinda Parlor No. 230 N.D.G.W. and Stephen M. White Parlor No. 263 N.S.G.W. plan to have a California State (Bear) Flag dedication at the Los Angeles City Cemetery in San Pedro.

The Florencita Thimble Club of Rudecinda met April 21 at the home of Grace Boddie. Past President Rowena Wheeler has gone to Washington State to make her home.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS.

Mrs. Elsie Ruiz (Los Angeles ND) was a visitor to San Francisco last month.

Mrs. Margarette Bohannon-Phelan (Verdugo ND) paid a visit last month to San Francisco.

THE DEATH RECORD.

Virginia Hammer-Bruckner, affiliated with Rudecinda Parlor No. 230 N.D.G.W., died March 22. She was born at Merced City, January 7, 1880.

Mrs. Alice Hooper-Black, mother of Edgar Black (Hollywood NS), died March 27. She was born in Vermont, December 31, 1862, and came to California in 1872.

NEWSGRAPHS

(With Occasional Comments.)

CLARENCE M. HUNT.

The "peaceful invasion" of the Pacific Coast of the United States, designed and financed by Japan, was halted when the Japs treacherously attacked Pearl Harbor. But again the emperor's forces in this country, some 200,000 of them, are on the move, and, strange as it may seem, they are being aided and encouraged by the Washington Administration. Evidence aplenty to substantiate that statement is to be found in press dispatches of the past ninety days.

What is more, Japan's "peaceful invasion" soldiers, most of them United States-bred Japs, are going to be victorious on the home-front and, in due time, will take full possession of the coveted Pacific Coast area for their worshiped emperor. If day continues to follow night, that is going to be the final result, unless the Washington Administration ceases its coddling and appeasing of the Japs, and puts every one of them back into concentration camps, with the sexes separated, and keeps them there under strict army control. Impounded Jap funds in this country should be used to meet the cost.

There is no hope of getting the Washington Administration to stop the Japs' "peaceful invasion" advance, for apparently it has been won over by the Japs. But there is hope of getting the Federal Congress to do something effective. For one thing, it can refuse to appropriate the $48,170,000 requested by the Administration for the War Relocation Authority and, what is most important, it can investigate the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America, one of the most powerful and best financed pressure groups in the world.

The writer firmly believes this Federal Council of Churches is the power behind the Japs—the power that originated and dictates the policies of the War Relocation Authority; the power that influenced the War Department to authorize the formation of a United States Army combat unit made up of yellowbellies; the power that vouches for the loyalty of the Japs and has convinced the Washington Administration they should be permitted to return whence they were removed and allowed to follow their prewar pursuits; the power that has caused the Administration to turn a deaf ear to the pleadings of countless California organizations and individuals to keep the Japs interned, under army, not civilian, control.

Here's the question, then: Shall an effort be made to save California and the other Pacific Coast states for the White race, or shall the area be surrendered to the Japs? If peace-time victory for the White race be wanted on the home-front, all the anti-Jap whites must, immediately and unitedly, respectfully demand of the Federal Congress that the Federal Council of Churches and the War Relocation Authority be investigated thoroughly, and that all appropriations for the latter be shut off.

This is The Grizzly Bear's anniversary number, the magazine having been regularly published since May 1907. In the 432 numbers issued during the past thirty-six years, much California history was recorded, and also considerable news material of historic value.

The magazine has proved its worth, the management believes, to California and to its endorers, The Native Sons and The Native Daughters of the Golden West. To all who have, through advertising and subscription support, made possible its publication, thanks are extended, and every effort will be put forth to warrant continuation of that support.

The Grizzly Bear will always be found on the side of Right, and laboring indefatigably for what the present management believes to be the wellbeing of California.

Chief J. Edgar Hoover of the FBI reports an alarming increase in juvenile crime—64.8 percent in prostitution by girls under 21, 104.7 percent in other sex crimes by girls, 17.1 percent in arrests of males under 21 for assault, and 10.6 percent in rape cases. He attributes the increase to high pay for youths, lack of recreational facilities, and decreased home influence because of the numbers of mothers and fathers both working. In reality, dollar-patriotism is resulting in moral rotteness!

"The thing we need today," says Chief Hoover, "is a return to the old-fashioned method of life so far as the home and the church are concerned."

"A Jap's a Jap, it makes no difference whether he is an American citizen or not," and "I don't want any of them. They are a dangerous element." That's what Lieutenant General John L. DeWitt, commanding general of the Western Defense Command, said in San Francisco, when testifying before a subcommittee of the House of Representatives Naval Affairs Committee.

That was April 13. April 18, General DeWitt signed a proclamation granting freedom of movement in states of the Western Defense Command to United States soldiers of Jap descent when on furlough or leave.

Who, or what, applied the heat to the General? Could have been the FCCA!

The Daughters of the American Revolution, in annual convention at Cincinnati, Ohio, went on record as favoring: (1) "Complete sovereignty for the United States in determining the strength of its military establishments," and (2) "The right of this nation to determine its own immigration policy."

Dr. Francis E. Townsend, addressing the Senate of the California State Legislature, threatened a revolution if old folks are not given the pension they demand. Two can play at the revolution game. How about those who provide the pension "dough" taking a hand?

Believe it or not, there are today in the United States mainland many more Japs than there were at Pearl Harbor time. And they have not come from concentration camps, the breeding pens of more recruits for the "sun of heaven's" "peaceful invasion" army. For some reason, probably at the insistence of the sob sisters and brethren, they have been imported from the Hawaiian Islands by the thousands, and more thousands are coming.

Senator Jack Tenney introduced in the State Legislature a bill requiring all State employees to use their true names. He instanced the fact "that Dorothy Rae, employed in the Department of Labor Statistics in San Francisco, was really Mrs. Lou Schneiderman, sister-in-law of William Schneiderman, secretary of the State Communist Party. Now she is divorced from Schneiderman and married to Don Healy, another prominent Communist."

The bill is okeh, so far as it goes, but its provisions are not sufficiently far-reaching to correct an existent situation that is a disgrace, to say the least. The bill should provide for repeal of the statute that makes a legal change of name possible, and it should require every person residing in this state to use his or her true name in any and every transaction of whatever nature. The law should not encourage deception, generally the motif prompting a person to separate himself from his true name.

The Congressional Record has this: "Dr. Charles E. Maddy of Richmond, executive secretary of the Southern Baptist Foreign Missionary Board, witnessed the December 7 attack on Pearl Harbor. He is quoted as saying: 'On December 6 Honolulu had 4,000 saloons, more than half of them operated by Japanese. Free liquor was served American soldiers and sailors the night before the treacherous Japanese assault.'"

And yet, endeavor is made to have the dear people believe there was no sabotage in Hawaii prior to Pearl Harbor. Why did the Japs dispense the liquor, and who, if not the "loyal" Japs, paid for it?

War, like politics, certainly does make very strange bedfellows.

Speaking in Chicago about the United States' relations with Russia, Rev. Bernard R. Hubbard, the "Glacier Priest," said: "It makes you want a clarification of relations when you know that Russian submarine officers, while fraternizing with our naval officers, enthusiastically respond to every toast for victory on the Russian front, but refuse to drink to the defeat of Japan."

Another organization, the "Committee on American Principles and Fair Play," is working for the Japs. President Robert Gordon Sprout of the University of California is the honorary chairman, and among the members are bigshots in educational, business, union and other circles.

National President Ruth Mathab of the American Legion Auxiliary has expressed the opinion that the "cradle to grave" social security plan submitted to the Federal Congress "is nothing more or less than the Bismarck plan, the basis of nazism."

In the Senate of the United States Congress, April 22, Senator Tom Stewart of Tennessee—may his kind increase—demanded that the annual review the citizenship claims of Japs born in the United States, and called for immediate passage of his bill to place all Japs in this country in custody. In the course of his remarks, this fearless Senator with plenty of backbone said:

"I believe that the history of the Japanese race has proven to the absolute satisfaction of every American citizen—and when I say American citizen in my own mind I exclude the Japanese—that the Japanese are utterly dishonest, that they are constitutionally deceptive. I do not believe there stands today upon the free soil—if I may call it so—of the United States of America one single solitary person with Japanese blood in his veins who will not stab you in the back. Show me a Jap and I will show you a person who is the embodiment of treachery and deception."

Fifteen bright young men of the OWI resigned because, they said, of their conviction that "it is impossible for us to tell the truth."

The slaughter of truth by governments the world over brought about the global war that is resulting in the slaughter of millions of human-kind!

"What is Japan's Word Worth in a Treaty?" is the title of a comment by Chester Rowell, the pro-Jap supreme, in the San Francisco Chronicle. Just as much, Chester, as is any Jap's word worth in a protestation of loyalty to the United States—NOTHING!

United States Senator Hiram W. Johnson of California, when asked if he favors deciding now whether this country should take part in policing the world after the war answered "No!" And he inquired, "How can we possibly tell what conditions will be when this war ends? It is foolish to say now what we will do."

In a Kansas contest for a slogan against absenteeism, this one was suggested: "You can't spell victory with an absent-T."

The Northern Section of the California Federation of Women's Clubs, in session at Oroville, Butte County, adopted a resolution favoring the selection of Madame Chiang Kai-Shek as the representative of all womankind at the peace conference following the war.

Secretary of the Interior Harold Ickes has taken under his protecting arm some Japs. That was to be expected, for Harold, you know, is a devout member of the Washington official family, which is one hundred percent for the United States-born Japs.

Because they are said to be "subversive and communistic," the Rugg textbooks used in San Francisco schools for more than twenty years have been banned by the Board of Education of that city. They are the product of Dr. Harold Ordway Rugg of Columbia University.

Pending before the House Immigration and Naturalization Committee of the United States Congress are four most dangerous bills: H.R. 1882, "To grant to the Chinese rights of entry to the United States and rights of citizenship," H.R. 2309, "To amend the Immigration Act of 1924, as amended, to provide that aliens who are subjects of China shall be admitted into the United States under such Act," H.R. 2428 and H.R. 2429, both "To repeal the Chinese exclusion laws." Hearings on them have been tentatively scheduled for the second week of May.

These bills should be defeated! Their passage will but add fuel to the race-fire, smoldering now in this country, but likely to break forth in all its terrible fury at any time. And too, when the immigration and the naturalization doors are set ajar for the Chinese, the Japs and all the other Asiatics and Orientals, now barred for good and sufficient reasons, will flock in, also. The courts would, unquestionably, grant them the same rights as the Chinese. There is reason to suspicion the Japs and their supporters are promoting these bills—for the benefit of the Japs, of course.

True, China is a war ally of the United States, a faithful, trustworthy and fearless one. The Chinese people are patient, honest and industrious; they have the respect and the sympathy of every civilized being. China, however, differing not from any other of the allied nations, in the global war to protect its homeland and to preserve its customs, ideals and ways of life.

This country has one race-problem, far, far from settlement. Will it be benefited in any way by creating another? Familiarity among nations, as well as individuals, does breed contempt! Petition your representative in Washington to vote against these bills.

SAN FRANCISCO

THE NORTHERN CALIFORNIA FINAL of the public speaking contest for high school students, sponsored by the Grand Parlor of The Native Sons of the Golden West, was held in the Grizzly Bear Clubrooms of Native Sons Building, San Francisco, April 16. The contestants included:

Miss Dorothy Gelatt of Los Gatos Union High School, representing Santa Clara County; Alan Forbes of Calistoga High School, representing Napa County; Miss Florence Batey of Elk Grove Union High School, representing Sacramento County; Miss Anita Winkler of Ferndale High School, representing Humboldt County; Ray Fauria of Saint Elizabeth High School (Oakland), representing Alameda County; Robert Finnerty of Sonoma High School, representing Sonoma County; Stanley Parmisano of Saint James High School (San Francisco), representing San Francisco County.

Miss Dorothy Gelatt was declared the winner. The judges were Municipal Judge George B. Harris, Dean Edwin J. Owens and Past Grand President Chas. A. Koenig.

NATIVE DAUGHTER VOLUNTEERS.

September 22 of last year a group of Native Daughters met at Hospitality House, in the San Francisco Civic Center, and organized the Native Daughter Volunteer Committee, composed of volunteer hostesses. Ruby Bried of El Vespero Parlor No. 118, who conceived the idea, was unanimously elected general chairman, and each member pledged herself to secure four additional members to volunteer their services.

Each month since the inception of the committee, its members have served at least one day at Hospitality House, providing food, entertainment, and encouragement to the servicemen. Their number has increased, and they soon will serve two days each month. Associated with Chairman Bried in starting this very necessary and timely service were the following Native Daughters: Emily E. Ryan, honorary chairman, Frances Lewis, Gladys Blanchard, Alma Klahn, Mae O'Keefe, Jane Lapachet, Margaret Kemme, Margaret Dahlstrom and Beatrice Nishkian. Alice Bartoldus is an honorary member of the committee. Many other Native Daughters have joined the group, and several Native Sons contribute financially each month.

MEMBERS IN ARMED FORCES HONORED.

Stanford Parlor No. 76 N.S.G.W. is very active these days, and April 20 added eight additional names to its membership-roll. Honoring its members in the armed forces, the Parlor featured army, navy and marine corps night April 13. Lieutenant Colonel Ingemar E. Hoberg was the speaker of the evening, and there were addresses by Sergeant William Stremmel, representing the marine corps, Specialist Gerald Kariski, representing the navy, Jack Lewis, Joseph I. McNamara, James Edward Mills and Frank T. Desmond.

Webster K. Nolan, chairman of the arrangements committee, was assisted by Ivo Monti, Theo. Schmidt, Arthur Poheim, Raymond Arata and Frank Desmond. April 27, Stanford had an "all-activity night" from 8 to 12. The program included cards and other games, entertainment, dancing and surprises. Theo. Schmidt was the committee chairman.

DEPUTIES EXEMPLIFY N.D. RITUAL.

The N.D.G.W. deputy grand presidents of San Francisco, under the leadership of Supervising District Deputy Kay Jensen, April 19 exemplified the ritual at the Native Daughters Home for the instruction of the officers and the members of the thirty-one San Francisco Parlors. An open forum followed the work. Deputies acting as officers were:

Rena Taube, chairman; Emma O'Meara, past president; Jewell McSweeney, president; Martha Field, first vice-president; Evelyn Rizzo, second vice-president; Genevieve Woodbeck, third vice-president; Mildred Ehler, marshal; Elvira Re, inside sentinel; Emelia Muhlbach, outside sentinel; Rita Rovegno, junior past president; Marily Bann, senior past president; Lucille Kimbark, treasurer; Lucille Keogan, financial secretary; Mary Mahoney, recording secretary; Helen O'Connell, Margaretha McGowan, Helen Scannell, trustees; May O'Keefe, organist.

Orinda Parlor No. 56 N.D.G.W. had its monthly birthday party for members March 26. Hilda Vinal was chairman of a delightful Saint Patrick's party. The afternoon and evening of April 8, Orinda was cohostess with three other local Parlors at Hospitality House. The members took an active part in preparing sandwiches and cakes, and serving them to the servicemen.

Dolores Parlor No. 169 N.D.G.W. had a birthday social and handkerchief shower for Deputy Evelyn Brady. April 14 the drill team had an Easter party, with Anna LaCoste as hostess. The children's ward of San Francisco Hospital was visited April 24, and scrapbooks and comic magazines were distributed. The Parlor sent a contribution to the San Francisco Guild for Crippled Children, and the drill team has purchased another war bond and is planning a visit to the Red Cross blood bank soon.

ENTHUSIASTIC GROUP.

Golden Gate Parlor No. 158 N.D.G.W. invested $500 in war bonds April 12, and decided to create a revolving fund with which to purchase war savings stamps for resale to its members. Donations were made to the Red Cross; the Welfare, the Extension of the Order and the Homeless Children Committees; the Grove of Memory Association and the Grand Parlor Annie L. Adair Scholarship Fund.

The Golden Gate drill team, though not drilling, is still a very enthusiastic group. The members meet regularly and make scrapbooks, which are given the servicemen. Their latest venture is the adoption of a World War No. 2 "buddy." Recently they had their annual banquet and enjoyed an evening of fun.

CERTAIN OBJECTS OUGHT TO BE IN SUTTER'S FORT

Sacramento—Recently added to the Sutter's Fort display of relics of the year 1850—date of California's admission to the Union—is a photographic copy of a drawing of San Francisco's first celebration after news of statehood had been received. According to information accompanying the picture, it was made from a drawing done October 29, 1850, by F. Marryatt, from the southeast corner of Montgomery and California Streets. It shows a parade, with many figures in uniforms of various types, buildings, and Telegraph Hill in the background. The copy was presented Sutter's Fort by H. F. Duprey of Santa Rosa, through Chief Frank N. Killam of State Buildings and Grounds, and Curator B. W. Hathaway of the State Indian Museum.

Another relic linked with California's statehood, and which is to be found in Sutter's Fort, is a blue silk umbrella. Its former owner, Miss Mary Helen Crosby, used it to keep isthmian rains off documents relating to California's admission while she was returning in 1850 to San Francisco from Washington with her mother, Mrs. Elisha O. Crosby, and John Bidwell. Bidwell was a member of the commission which went to Washington to expedite California's statehood, and had been asked by Crosby to assist the latter's wife and daughter on the homeward voyage. The documents were entrusted to the women's care, perhaps as a gallant gesture. When the party crossed the Isthmus of Panama, Mary Helen took care to protect the precious papers from the tropical downpour by means of the blue umbrella. Miss Crosby married Samuel J. Hensley in San Jose the following April. He was a pioneer and a friend of Bidwell, John A. Sutter and others prominent in the early days.

Sutter's Fort has an important collection of Bidwell material, including letters and documents. Among those now on exhibition are the following: A letter to Bidwell from John A. Sutter, written in San Francisco, February 1, 1850. After referring to Micheltorena, former Mexican governor of California, and to matters related to Sutter's land troubles, Sutter wrote: "My family arrived safe by the steamer Panama, they are all in good health and this evening we shall be on board the Senator, which leave here tomorrow early for Sacramento City, from there we are bound with the Lawrence to Hock. I can assure you this has been a most happy meeting." Sutter had last seen his family in Switzerland in 1834, some sixteen years before, with the exception of John A. Sutter Jr., who had come to California in 1848.

Bidwell's Assembly file, used in California's first Legislature, where he was a senator. It bears notations in his autograph. A letter to Bidwell from John C. Fremont, dated Washington, D.C., April 10, 1850. Fremont was one of California's first two senators to represent this state. An invoice of goods belonging to the Feather River Mining Company December 9, 1848. Bidwell was active in this, one of the earliest mining companies formed after Marshall's discovery of gold. Goods listed included shovels, rockers, picks, tents, knives, buckets, provisions, clothing; and cloth, mirrors and trinkets to trade with the Indians for labor. The total came to $3,122.78.

A note signed by Peter Lassen in 1857, promising to pay $50.00 to H. Sewell at Chico. Attached is a receipt showing payment. The note is also signed by W. C. Kingsbury, ranch partner of Lassen. A letter to Bidwell from Thomas O. Larkin, first and only U.S. Consul at Monterey, dated June 25, 1858. It introduces Larkin's third son, Francis. The Larkin grant in Colusa County was secured for Larkin's children. It had been mapped by Bidwell in 1844. Bidwell's passport, issued and signed by General M. G. Vallejo at Sonoma in 1843.

A room at the Fort was set aside a year ago for the exhibition of California relics collected by the Native Sons and the Native Daughters of the Golden West. During this period a number of objects have been added. "There will always be room at Sutter's Fort for interesting and important relics," declares Carroll D. Hall, curator. "The period we cover is from 1839, when Sutter came, to 1869, when the transcontinental railroad was completed. Objects connected with California during that time, and which show how the pioneers and early settlers lived, are wanted.

hicles, firemen's apparatus, mining tools and equipment, musical instruments, printing equipment and newspapers of the fifties and sixties.

"I should like to stimulate the imagination of potential donors of articles. An ox shoe is much like any other ox shoe. An ox cart would be better. And an authentic covered wagon which had been drawn by oxen would be better still. An old pick used by a forty-niner is good, but a complete arastra, which could be removed to the Fort and reassembled, would be much better. The museum will always be glad to seek the state's assistance in the matter of transporting material.

"I should like to point out, also, that the museum knows of certain objects which are of great historical importance to the State, and ought to be in Sutter's Fort. These are in private hands, and are for sale. Since the museum has no funds with which to buy such things, persons or organizations desiring to donate them to the Fort would be rendering a splendid service to California."

James Bennett, native of Wisconsin, 90; came via Cape Horn in 1863 and resided most of the time since in Alameda County; died at Livermore, survived by a wife and a daughter.

Mrs. Mary Louise Austin, native of Ohio, 85; came across the plains in 1863; died at Stockton, San Joaquin County, survived by two sons.

TWENTY-FIVE-YEAR PINS PRESENTED.

Jackson (Amador County)—Excelsior Parlor No. 31 N.S.G.W. initiated two candidates April 19, the ritual being exemplified by the officers, with president William Leon presiding. A $500 war bond was purchased.

During the evening the Parlor presented twenty-five-year membership pins to John Turner, E. Z. Prentice, Dave Briscoe and Ben J. Sanguinetti, the presentation address being made by Grand Trustee Walter N. Bailey, who was paying his official visit. At the meeting's conclusion refreshments were served.

BUSINESS AND PLEASURE COMBINED.

Grass Valley (Nevada County)—Manzanita Parlor No. 29 N.D.G.W. combined business with pleasure April 20. Bonds to the amount of $200 were ordered purchased in connection with the second war loan. Then a fashion review was staged, the costumes being made from newspapers. An ensemble modeled by H. Daley and styled by B. Rush was judged the best, and second choice was a garment modeled by M. Townsend and styled by E. Peard.

Manzanita has furnished a dayroom at Camp Beale, and made curtains for both the recreation and the mess halls. These efforts brought much enjoyment to the boys of the 46th A.R., who expressed their appreciation.

25TH ANNUAL SESSION
N. D. G. W. PAST PRESIDENTS

MYRTLE H. BOTTINI.

San Francisco—The twenty-first annual session of the General Association Past President N. D. G. W. was held here April 17, with State President Ann Dippel of Association No. 1 presiding. Seventy-five delegates and state officers comprised the voting group, and there were many visitors.

Eighteen members of Association No. 1, gowned in white and carrying red roses, escorted State President Dippel into the meetingroom, which was profusely decorated with calla lilies, and she was the recipient of floral remembrances. Greetings were extended by Mayor Angelo J. Rossi, and Governor General Armen Nishkian and Director General James Stanley of the General Assembly Past Presidents Association N. S. G. W., and Ann Holden addressed the assemblage on the Red Cross.

Delegates reported on the excellent war work being done by the various Associations and their members. One outstanding project is the collecting of discarded costume jewelry, which is sent to the servicemen in faraway outposts and by them given the natives in exchange for valuable services. Resolutions were passed putting the General Association "on record as favoring legislation placing the Japanese relocation centers under military rule," and "excluding the Japanese from the coastal regions and valleys of California for the duration of the war."

The following officers were elected, and installed by Past State President Alice Roll: Ann Dippel, past president; Emily Lawson, president; Frances Maloney, vice-president; Mae Shea, recording secretary; Emma Foley, financial secretary and treasurer; Lauretta Ross, marshal; Harriett Corr, inside Sentinel; Ann Beach, outside sentinel; Louise Wales, organist; Adeline O'Connor, Juliet Bliss, Edna Kretcher, Dolly Weller and Myrtle Bottini, directors.

Following the business session there was a largely attended banquet. The table decorations were in red, white and blue, and a war savings stamp was given each guest. Concluding the occasion, a delightful entertainment program was presented under the chairmanship of Angela Koenig. Participating were several members of Twin Peaks Parlor No. 185 N. D. G. Enthusiastic Meeting.

Roseville—Arranged by Grand Trustee Eben K. Smart, Rocklin No. 233 had an enthusiastic meeting April 21, and it was largely attended among the visitors being Grand President Lloyd J. Cosgrove and representatives of Sacramento No. 3, Placerville No. 9, Sunset No. 26 (Sacramento), Hydraulic No. 56 (Nevada City), Quartz No. 58 (Grass Valley), Silver Star No. 63 (Lincoln), Precita No. 187 (San Francisco) and Sutter Fort No. 241 (Sacramento).

The lively gathering was held at the ranch home of Jacob Pfofi, with President Wm. LaDue presiding, and seven candidates were initiated, the ritual being exemplified by a team from General John A. Sutter Assembly No. 10 Past Presidents Association (Sacramento), composed of the following: Grand Inside Sentinel Larry W. Marvin, president; June J. Longshore, senior past president; Irving D. Gibson, junior past president; L. P. Ferron, first vice-president; Roy C. Cothrin, second vice-president; Larry Barrett, third vice-president; William Kelly, marshal; A. B. Franke, inside sentinel.

Grand President Cosgrove and Grand Trustee Smart addressed the gathering. Among the initiates was Lieutenant Eugene Bendetti, just returned from New Guinea, where he was wounded, and now on disability leave. He is a member of the Aviation Corps, and gave a very interesting talk on the activities in New Guinea.

Substantial Citizen Passes.

Amador City—Charles L. Culbert of Amador No. 17 (Sutter Creek), prominent in the affairs of Amador County and president of the Bank of Amador County at Jackson, died April 7 at Sacramento City, survived by his wife and a son. He was born at Upper Rancheria, Amador County, September 25, 1866, and February 19, 1891, became a charter member of Keystone No. 173 (Amador City) which, July 18, 1930, consolidated with Amador. Referring to his death, the Amador Ledger of Jackson said:

"Amador County has lost a solid citizen and a sage counselor with the passing of Charles L. Culbert. He was more than a banker; he was ever ready to give advice—sound, earthly wisdom acquired through years of living among down-to-earth people here in Amador County. The entire county had come to depend upon him for advice and financial guidance, and he will be sorely missed by his legion of friends."

Sacramento—Sacramento No. 3 will have a Governor Earl Warren night May 13. All Native Sons are invited. Arrangements are being made by a committee composed of Irving Gibson, Dr. E. C. Turner and Roy Cothrin.

Following an enjoyable and well-attended meeting, one of those good banquets for which Placerville is noted was served.

Benicia—Past Grand Hartley Russell of Stanford No. 76 (San Francisco) has been appointed municipal judge of this community.

LOS AN GELES CITY AND COUNTY

THE SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA FINAL in the public speaking contest for high school students, sponsored by the Grand Parlor of The Native Sons of the Golden West, was held April 16, with Ramona Parlor No. 109 N.S.G.W. as the host. The contestants, and their subjects, were:

Miss Valdean Rice, Bell High School, "Donna Concepcion Arguello, Sister of the Order of Saint Dominic and First Social Worker of California;" Eugene LaPrade Story, Los Angeles High School, "Thomas Starr King, Apostle of Freedom;" Miss Doris Sturtevant, Redlands High School, "The Battle of Cahuenga, February 20, 1845;" Miss Evelyn LeClair, Bakersfield High School, "Henry Durant, Pioneer Educator;" Don Rodewald, East Bakersfield High School, "Commodore Thomas Jones and the Flag Episode of 1842;" Dick Mallon, John Marshall High School (Los Angeles), and Morton Goldberg, Roosevelt High School (Los Angeles), "The Desert Becomes a Garden: Imperial County 1907;" Robert Eckert, Long Beach Polytechnic High School, "Juan Bautista de Anza, Soldier of the Frontier;" Joe Cordova, Manual Arts High School (Los Angeles), "Cabrillo and the Discovery of California, 1542;" Miss Margaret Orchard, North Hollywood High School, "The Oldest Municipality in California, San Jose, November 30, 1777."

Miss Valdean Rice was declared the winner. George M. Cuthbertson of the Grand Parlor Public Speaking Committee presided, and the judges were Superior Judges William R. McKay, John Gee Clark and Charles R. Haas. Grand Organist Roger Johnson favored with piano selections, and at the close of the speaking refreshments were served.

GENEROUS GIFT APPRECIATED.

At the April 15 meeting of the N.S.G.W. and N.D.G.W. Homeless Children Committee a financial report for the past fiscal year was presented. It was most encouraging, and showed the local quota had, for the first time, been met, and exceeded, $4,000 being forwarded the Central Committee.

The largest single donation received by the Committee was a check for $1,000, presented by the Buck-a-Month Club, made up of the employees of the Lockheed and Vega aircraft factories. A resolution expressing appreciation for the generous gift was unanimously passed.

Officers were elected, as follows: Bernard G. Hiss, University Parlor No. 272 N.S.G.W., chairman; Mary B. Noerenberg, Californiana Parlor No. 247 N.D.G.W., and Walter H. Odemar, Ramona Parlor No. 109 N.S.G.W., vice-chairmen; Eugenia Smith, Long Beach Parlor No. 154 N.D.G.W., recording secretary; Dr. Joseph C. Silveria, Wilmington Parlor No. 280 N.S.G.W., financial secretary; Flora Holy, Los Angeles Parlor No. 124 N.D.G.W., treasurer.

BIRTHDAY PARTY A BOND RALLY.

The forty-second birthday party of Los Angeles Parlor No. 124 N.D.G.W., April 23, turned out to be a bond rally, and the Parlor was pledged to purchase bonds to the amount of $350 from President Juliette DeNubla at a downtown bond-selling booth. Gertrude Allen, party hostess, was assisted by other past presidents. Reminiscing was part of the evening's fun, and many humorous experiences were related. Guests of the evening were Grand Vice-president Mary Noerenberg and Clara Hunt.

The Parlor has made substantial donations to the Red Cross, United Nations Relief and the homeless children. April USO hostesses were Louise Goodhue, Evelyn Howell, Dora and Laura Davis, Juliette DeNubla, Ella Steinbeck, Irene Burch, Alma Gates and Mary Smith.

The May 19 meeting of Los Angeles will be followed by a party sponsored by the homeless children committee. Kate Williams and Ruth Hoffman, the cohostesses, promise a pleasant evening. The Parlor's sewing club will hold forth at the home of Juanita Porter, 8740 Denker Avenue, May 22. Members must bring their own sandwiches, but dessert and drink will be furnished.

FAITHFUL REMEMBERED.

Assisted by District Deputies Ludwig Trinastich and Robert Pesquera, Grand Organist Roger Johnson and Walter Richards, the officers of Los Angeles Parlor No. 45 N.S.G.W. exemplified the ritual April 15. At the suggestion of Richards, the Parlor decided to "adopt" a baby and to name him John T. Newell, in memory of the late Past Grand President of that name, one of the Order's and the Parlor's most faithful members. Among the several other speakers were Dr. Joseph S. Silveria, "Mike" Botello, Clarence M. Hunt, Willard Allen and Arthur Lasher.

Los Angeles' May calendar includes: 13th, initiation and refreshments. 27th, oldtimers night. The Parlor will not meet May 20.

PUTTING FORTH HELPING HAND.

The luncheon-meeting of Californiana Parlor No. 247 N.D.G.W., April 13, was, due to labor shortages and food limitations, a resourceful innovation. The ever-alert americanism and defense committee moved into the situation and, under the direction of Ora May Evans, a fine menu was served, with members of the committee acting as waitresses. An encouraging sum being derived for the maintenance fund of the committee, it was decided to continue the plan. Especially pleasing were the verse readings by Betty Roadman, which, as she explained in the introduction, delightfully illustrated the "varicolored picture of this dear America."

At the business meeting, President Estelle R. Flick expressed pleasure because of the rapidly growing sum toward another baby "adoption," which will make the second for this term and a total of ten in the fifteen years of Californiana's existence. Supervising Deputy Ann Schiebusch was a visitor, and gave helpful information. Plans for participating in the installation of Grand Vice-president Mary Noerenberg as Grand President were discussed.

Chairman Edith Harmon Adams of the Gertrude Circle reported the making of fracture pillows for the Red Cross, in addition to sewing for the homeless children. It is also making quilts for sleeping accommodations of servicemen. The very active USO committee, with Ernestine Aylward in charge, continues to serve, and in many other directions Californiana is putting forth a helping hand.

"WHERE PARKING IS EFFORTLESS"

N.S.G.W. INTERPARLOR COMMITTEE.—N.D.G.W. Meets 4th Thursday every month, 8 p.m., Master Plumbers Hall, 1832 South Hope Street, Los Angeles. Gertrude Allen, Sec., 4116 North Griffin Avenue. Phone: CAPitol 4327.

dinner-meeting of East Los Angeles Parlor No. 277 N.S.G.W., and "Chefs" Leyva and Nighswonger provided a tasty corned-beef-and-feast.

At the "snappy" business session Federal Judge Ben Harrison inquired why E.L.A. had not reached its membership goal, and said he wanted its members to make good their promise to him. Among the other speakers were District Deputy John Bodkin, Grand Trustee Walter Odemar, Supervising Deputy Howard Woodward, Deputy Grand President Ben Hiss, Walter Wells, Elmer Koop, Moritz Rosenthal, Lee Owens and Charles Castillo.

April 21 the officers of the Parlor had a meeting at the home of Dr. Arthur Carmichael, the president, and mapped plans for an active membership campaign. The next regular dinner-meeting of East Los Angeles will be May 10, 7 o'clock. All Native Sons always welcome.

FASHION SHOW.

Long Beach—Long Beach Parlor No. 154 N.D.G.W. had a fashion show April 1, and there were also many pranks, so the evening was a gay one. The displays were arranged in decades from 1890, and wedding dresses, street attire and other wearing apparel of the periods were exhibited. Last in the group was the Easter parade of 1943. Dainty refreshments were served.

At the Parlor's April 18 business meeting, President Grace Poole presiding, plans were made for the annual Mothers Day breakfast at Recreation Clubhouse May 2. On this occasion the pioneer mothers, as well as the mothers of members, will be honored. Frances Galvin is chairman of arrangements.

The thimble club of Long Beach is still very active. Two meetings a month are held, and large groups enjoy luncheon and sewing. Aprons, dishtowels and other things are accumulating for a bazar. Layettes also are ready, and the club is called on frequently. April hostesses were Ethel Van Houten and Leola Temby.

TO HONOR GRAND OFFICER.

Ramona Parlor No. 109 N.S.G.W. will have a banquet honoring Grand Trustee Walter H. Odemar, one of its members, May 7. Earle Magee and Robert Ziegler, in charge of arrangements, promise a fine time. All Native Sons are invited.

Other events on Ramona's May schedule are: Pre-Grand Parlor rally and refreshments, the 14th. Initiation and refreshments, the 21st.

CENTINELA PARLOR NEWS.

Inglewood—President Jack Burns is rejoicing over the fact that in six months' time Centinela Parlor No. 279 N.S.G.W. has shown nearly a 60 percent gain in membership, but he declares the goal of seventy-five must be reached by July 1. Initiation will be held May 7, and a two-months membership drive will be launched. For its activity in enrolling eligibles the Parlor has received $100 in defense bonds and stamps from Grand President Lloyd J. Cosgrove.

Roger Anderson is chairman of Centinela's new bowling team. All Native Sons Parlors in the south are challenged. Further civic activity has been created through efforts to form a municipal band in Inglewood. During May the Parlor will present a California State (Bear) Flag to Judge Frank Parent.

N.S.G.W. LUNCHEON CLUB.

The following were the speakers, and their subjects, at the Native Sons of the Golden West Friday Luncheon Club during April: John J. Ford, "The OPA Today;" Captain Ed Duran-Ayres, "The Meaning of Pan American Day;" Wallace Ware, "Luther Burbank and Other Californians I Have Known;" Eugene LaPrade Story, "Thomas Starr King, Apostle of Freedom;" Dick Mallon, "The Desert Becomes a Garden: Imperial County 1907." All were introduced by Municipal Judge Frank G. Tyrrell, the Club president.

LAST OF STURDY GROUP CALIFORNIA PIONEERS FROM ARKANSAS PASSES.

Mrs. Josie Rhea who, as a very small infant, came to California in a covered wagon via the Southern route in 1852, died April 2 at Newman, Stanislaus County, at the age of 93. A daughter, Mrs. Jessie Khartz, survives.

She is believed to have been the last of a sturdy group of pioneers who left Arkansas in the early spring of 1852. Becoming lost in Arizona, they wandered about the desert, going as far off their course as old Mexico. After being on the road nearly nine months they reached El Monte, Los Angeles County, in November, where the train disbanded.

Most of the party stayed in Los Angeles County for a month or so and then, taking the boat at San Pedro, landed at San Francisco the morning of Christmas Day 1852. Many of the group lived to see California become a great state.

"How far above the level of slavery is the producing or social group when its members, individually and collectively, are forced to look to Washington and be told by the bureaucracy how much their labor is worth, how much of the things they produce they shall be allowed to keep?"—Representative Frederick C. Smith of Ohio.
